DISEASES OF FOWLS.—By far the greater proportion of poultry diseases arise either from cold and wet, or neglect of cleanliness—often both combined. Gapes is a fatal disease of chickens, and which we believe infectious; it is at all events epidemic. Unless perhaps thus communicated by others, it never occurs except there has been foul water, exposure to wet, and want of nourishing food. The disease consists—at least, so far as actual symptoms extend—in a number of small worms which infest the windpipe, and cause the poor chicken to gasp for breath. If taken early, it will be sufficient to give, every day, a morsel of champhor the size of a grain of wheat, and to put camphor in the drinking water; or a little turpentine may be given daily in meal; taking care, of course, that the deficiencies in diet and shelter be amended. In fully developed cases, the worms must be removed by introducing a loop of horsehair into the trachea, and turning round during withdrawal; the operation to be repeated several times, till all the worms appear to be extracted. A feather, stripped almost up to the top, may be used instead of the horsehair. The frequent occurrence of gapes is a disgrace to any poultry yard.

Apoplexy occurs from over-feeding, and can seldom be treated in time to be of service. If the fowl, however, although insensible, does not appear actually dead, the wing may be lifted, and a large vein which will be seen underneath freely opened, after which hold the bird's head under a cold water tap for a few minutes. It is just possible it may recover; if so, feed sparingly on soft food only for a few days. In over-fed hens, this disease usually occurs during the exertion of laying; if, therefore, a laying hen be found dead upon the nest, let the owner at once examine the remainder, and, should they appear in too high condition, reduce their allowance of food accordingly.

Loss of feathers is almost always caused either by want of green food, or having no dust-bath. Let these wants therefore be properly supplied, removing the fowls, if possible to a grass run. For local application we prefer an unguent composed of sulphur and creosote. Nothing, however, will bring back the feathers before the next moult.

Roup is always caused by wet, or very cold winds. It begins with a common cold, and terminates in an offensive discharge from the nostrils and eyes, often hanging in froth about those organs. It is most highly contagious, the disease being, as we believe, communicated by the sickly fowl's beak contaminating the drinking water; therefore, let all fowls affected by it be at once put by themselves, and have a separate water-vessel. Keep them warm, and feed with meal only, mixed with hot ale instead of water. Roup runs its course rapidly, and in a week the bird will either be almost well, or so nearly dead that it had better be killed at once. It is the worst disease of poultry, and to be dreaded accordingly; fortunately, the symptoms are specific, and the treatment equally so.

Pip is no disease, and demands no treatment, being only analagous to a "foul tongue" in human beings. Cure the roup or bad digestion, or whatever else be the real evil, and the thickening of the tongue will disappear too.

Fowls sometimes waste away without any apparent disorder. In such cases a teaspoonful of cod-liver oil per day will be found to be a most efficacious remedy.

Scouring, or diarrhœa, is caused by the too abundant use of relaxing food. Cayenne pepper, or chalk, or both, mixed with meal or boiled rice, check the complaint.

Leg weakness is generally caused by the size and weight of the body being more than the legs can bear. It is shown by the bird resting on the first joint. Being entirely the result of weakness, the best treatment is that which gives general strength and stamina to the sufferer. Tincture of iron, say five drops to a saucer of water must be given.—Stock Journal.

A GLOOMY PICTURE.—With us, few farms are changing hands, and most of these are sold under constraint. Only sons, who have been left with good estates, have lived fast, spent much and earned little, till the leak has swallowed all. It is the old story of the prodigal reported everywhere. Young men live too much in the bar-room; cards, dice, whiskey—what fortunes are wrecked on these reefs! And these are the men who take the best among girls of good family! The ship goes out of port under full canvas, and great ceremony is attendant on her going, but she puts to sea without a pilot. She is soon on the rocks, and life only escapes the wreck. Young women, avoid the society of young men who take an occasional glass of spirits. They become poor farmers, make wretched homes, and fill up the calender of crime. It is the curse of New-England to-day. At thy door, O rum! we charge the mass of our misery.—Cor. Country Gent.

—The Rome (Ga.) Commercial talks about the "cherry, inspirited presence" of its editor, Henry W. Grady. The proof-reader had stepped out "to see a man."

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.
Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.
FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, Etc. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.
H
These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.
E
HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND

L
BEING PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE ABOVE COMPLAINTS, ITS BLOOD-PURIFYING PROPERTIES ARE GREATER THAN ANY OTHER PREPARATION OF SARSAPARILLA. IT GIVES THE COMPLEXION A CLEAR AND HEALTHY COLOR AND RESTORES THE PATIENT TO A STATE OF HEALTH AND PURITY, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, AND REMOVING ALL CHRONIC CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD; AND THE ONLY RELIABLE AND EFFECTUAL KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PAINS AND SWELLINGS OF THE BONES, ULCERATIONS OF THE THROAT AND LEGS, BLOTCHES, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ERYSIPELAS AND ALL SCALY ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.
M
HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC,
has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.
Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.
B
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.
LADIES.
O
H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.
Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.
Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.
L
HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH
cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It specifiy eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, FEB. 11, 1870.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, Feb. 10. Mr. Cragin of New Hampshire, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported the House (Stevens') bill to regulate rank in the Navy, with amendments.

In the House there was a warm debate over the resolution reported from the Naval Committee authorizing the President to restore Ex-Constructor Hanscom to his former position in the service.

Gen. Banks made a strong speech against the narrow-minded and selfish policy of the Navy Department, and the manner in which Admiral Porter has run it. The speech made a great sensation.

THE WAR.

The appointment of Emanuel Arago as Gambetta's successor has been made permanent.

The Ex-Emperor Napoleon has issued a proclamation to the French people in reference to the elections.

The statement that France is to withdraw from the treaty of commerce with England is confirmed.

Picard and Favre have accepted candidatures for the national assembly.

Thiers, Quertier, Buce and Cordier have been chosen to the national assembly for the department of Seine Inferieure, and Havre and Lille have been carried by the Republicans. Thiers was elected to the Assembly by an overwhelming majority.

The Gambetta ticket has been carried by a heavy majority in Brest and Havre.

Faidherbe has disbanded the army of the north.

The chest of the French army of the east, containing 1,500,000 francs, has been surrendered to the Swiss government.

The forces besieging Belfort have carried some of the detached posts.

THE TENNESSEE.—The officials at the Navy department do not fear for the safety of this steamer. They state that she is one of the safest vessels in the navy, and that stories as to her being in bad condition on starting out are utterly without foundation. General Babcock, who has made the trip himself, is of opinion that it need be no cause for alarm if the ship is not heard from for some time yet, owing to the irregularity of communication between the point of destination and this country. The department has received the following from the telegraph operator at Havana:—

"I cannot trace the report of the loss of the Tennessee to any reliable source, and believe it to be an idle hoax. Our papers have not attended to the rumors."

☞ The British Queen opened Parliament in person Feb. 9. In her speech she refers first to the Franco-German war and the efforts at mediation, says she has been unable to recognize the government of national defence, and notices the Emperor of Germany's assumption of the title. Of the Conference she has the best hopes, although she regrets the absence of any representative of France. She announces the appointment of a joint high commission on the Alabama claims and the fisheries. The new King of Spain, the Marathon murders, the Tien-Tsin massacre, the reorganization of the army, and the state of Ireland are also referred to.

☞ A resolution has been introduced in the Senate of the Mississippi legislature, appropriating money for the purchase of land in the late slaveholding States for every family whose slaves were freed by war. This is going backward pretty fast. The repudiation of the national war debt and the assumption of all confederate obligations, and the revival of the slave trade, will come next. But the ex-rebels are not yet fully restored to power, North or South, so the slave-holders won't get paid for their losses just yet.

☞ The New York Republican State Central Committee have received the report of the sub-committee in favor of the reorganization of the city general committee, which, after a long debate, was sent back to the sub-committee.

☞ In the Maine Senate the Railroad Committee reported a bill to authorize the extension of the Boston and Maine Railroad to Portland. The bill was read twice and assigned for Tuesday, the 14th.

☞ Widow John Clark, of Rye, fell on the ice on Wednesday, Feb. 8, and broke both bones of her left wrist. She is about 60 years of age.

Editorial Correspondence.

NATIONAL HOTEL, WASHINGTON, D. C., } Feb. 6.

The newspaper men who "did" the President's reception, last Friday evening, are struck with wonder at the action of the philosophic Croydon political negotiator, who loomed upon their vision as they entered the White House. Even his intimate friends were aghast at the unexpected sight. We passed through the crowds of people who were eagerly pressing towards the executive mansion, noting the long line of carriages drawn up within gunshot of the building, and crossed the threshold to encounter thousands of ladies and gentlemen diving hither and thither. In the farther corner of the room stood Reuel with his hat on and his hands pocketed—the observed of all observers! The crowd surged on, and after a struggle a friend gained his side and suggested the removal of the tile. Not any for him! He had been the rounds! The grand secret has at last leaked out. Reuel wouldn't be himself without his hands in his pockets; how then could he hold his hat? He put no faith in ushers or attendants. The most natural and safest place for it was on his head! A half hour's intermission, in which all were compressed into smaller proportions than was comfortable, and we emerged from the reception room to encounter that hat—and the phlegmatic owner of it maintaining his dignity and independence with becoming stoicity.

By the kindness of Hon. Thomas L. Tullock, we were furnished with conveyance to Arlington Heights, Va., on Saturday, and crossed the muddy Potomac via the Aqueduct Bridge, to visit the 16,000 and more graves of Union soldiers who are buried on the estate which was formerly the home of the rebel General Lee. There was no such evidence of thrift as Northern towns afford; the road thither was in a wretched condition and white men were scarce. The view from the Heights is magnificent, taking in the distant cities of Washington and Georgetown, and the Potomac. The river is wide at this point, and all endeavors to obtain a good photograph of Washington from the Arlington House have failed. A Northerner would have made the place a second Paradise, but Lee seemed satisfied with its natural beauty. The house was at one time considered a model of architecture, but has no claim in these days to any particular notice, except from the pillars at the front entrance, which give it an air of solidity. It is in charge of a Pennsylvania soldier, who lost an arm in the Wilderness. The place is now the property of the government, having been confiscated and the claim made sure by being bidden in for unpaid taxes. When Lee turned his back upon his home and country, he evidently expected to become a hero and little dreamed that his name would be handed down to posterity as a traitor. Success would have been everything to him. Failure was loss of all worth living for. He never re-visited his home and the humiliated aristocrat must have lived a life that none would envy, until the welcome relief the unknown future may afford came.

Many acres of the Arlington estate are reserved for a soldiers' cemetery and the nation's dead fill thousands of graves. Headboards mark each grave and names from nearly every State in the Union appear. "Unknown" is painted on very many of them, and under a large stone surmounted by howitzers are the bones of over 2100 unknown soldiers, gathered from various battle fields.

The outrageous proposition of Senator McCreery of Kentucky to surrender the Arlington estate to the heirs of the traitor Lee, met with a scorching rebuke from Senator Patterson of our own State, recently. His burning words of indignation meet with a hearty response at home and throughout the country.

Accepting the invitation of Mr. Tullock, we attended the Metropolitan (Methodist) Church on Sunday and listened to a discourse from the pastor, which we deemed slightly sensational. The singing was of a different character from that of New England in some respects, the last hymn being a mixture of the Advent and Southern negro style of sentiment and simplicity. The President and Vice President occupy pews adjacent to that of Mr. Tullock, or he occupies a pew adjacent to them.

Our old friend, Chas. E. Maynard, has turned up rather unexpectedly, in company with Capt. D. M. Sells of Idaho and Mr. Charles Garrett, a Kansas veteran in politics. The three are a strong team when they undertake anything.

A brief trip to Alexandria, to-day, terminated our wanderings. The place looks busy, but needs a Street Commissioner Ham to put its thoroughfares in decent order. An hour's drive aids digestion, judging by the appetites of the party. The Marshall House, where Col. Ellsworth was killed in 1861, after hauling down a rebel flag, is the principal object of attraction in Alexandria. The staircase, on which the tragedy occurred has been whittled away by curious visitors, and the proprietors found it necessary to build a new one, which is going the way of its predecessor. The chipping may continue as long as the house lasts.

BOSTON, Feb. 8.

At New York, we found cold weather. The Fall River boats were frozen up, and an old boat for freight was put on. By the courtesy of the Cashier of the Narragansett Steamship Co., Mr. Richard E. W. Robinson, we were enabled to take passage for Boston, and are indebted to Capt. Burton and Cashier Green for favors.

☞ The difficulty between Tunis and Italy is still unsettled. The Italian Chambers have passed a bill giving regal orders and a body guard to the Pope.

☞ The Howe Sewing Machine Manufactory at Peru, Ind., was destroyed by an accidental fire Friday morning, the 10th. Loss $100,000; partially insured.

The Kimball House in Dover was reopened on Monday evening, by its new Landlord, Mr. C. E. Smith, formerly of the Shute House, Newmarket.

—Big sister: "O papa, I must go to hear Nilsson! You know I am so fond of music." Juvenile brother, triumphantly: "Then why don't you let me play on my drum?"

BUSINESS NOTICES.

IMPERVIOUSNESS is a quality not to be lightly considered in the character of our public men,—in clothing for the feet it is a leading requisite for our variable Northern climate. The CABLE SCREW WIRE BOOTS AND SHOES are the dryest and most comfortable goods in the market. For sale everywhere.

POVERTY is BAD, but the worst kind of poverty is poverty of the blood; this makes a man "poor indeed," for it takes away his strength, courage and energy, but enrich the blood with its vital element, Iron, by taking the Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of iron,) and you will feel rich and "as good as anybody." Try it.

$1,000 Reward is offered by the proprietor of Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery, for a medicine that will equal it in the cure of all severe lingering Coughs, "Liver Complaint" or Billousness, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, as Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Boils. Sold by druggists. The Genuine has Dr. Pierce's private Government Stamp on the outside wrapper. This private Stamp has the Doctor's portrait, name and address, and the words "U. S. Certificate of Genuiness" engraved on the same.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Hazards of Winter.

The feeble and delicate dread the winter, and with good reason. The weather at this season has a depressing effect upon the vital organs and the animal spirits, and they have no vitality or mental animation to spare. The aged and infirm, in whom the flame of life is waxing dim, are always unpleasantly affected by the temperature of winter, and should fortify their systems against it. The extra vigor and resistant power which the enfeebled system requires to enable it to meet with safety the assaults of cold and damp, may soon be acquired by the regular use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The tonic effect of this wonderful invigorant is soon apparent, in an increased appetite, a more active digestion and a brighter, happier frame of mind. Food is the fuel of the body, and if it is not properly digested the fires of life burn low. When this is the case, the disability can always be remedied within a short space of time, by taking a full dose of the Bitters twice a day. The stomach will soon begin to perform its allotted task regularly and steadily; the food, being thoroughly assimilated, will yield the amount of vital heat and nourishment which the body requires under the external pressure of cold, and the winter ailments which are apt to assail the weak and untoned physique will be avoided.

BULLETS FOR EUROPE.

Lead is wanted in Europe. Send over the millions of bottles of new fangled hair colorers that "remain over" and can't be sold here. They are pretty much all lead, and will never be wanted in this country, because all sane people who desire to restore the tinge of youth to their gray or grizzled locks use

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The lead-saturated and sulphur saturated nostrums have gone down, down, down, where they belong; while the EXCELSIOR DYE has gone up with a rapidity that taxes to the utmost the facilities for manufacturing it. It is to-day the

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply them. Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for them, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For full information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. sod3mda3mwfeb8

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a severely bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent, for that purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as is more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly: therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1861, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and none can exercise more care in regard to a person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills, for the reason that it is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that mercurial preparations are not necessary, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, the mandrake is the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small-pox, &c.! but they are not: they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know, from my own experience, and my accompanying with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for a cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk a mile out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite, for it is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry; I have hopes of such. Next, I want a relish for food, the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healthy glow of the face,—then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and I ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by a reliable thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down and exercising just as much strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The last stands undisputed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of my class and seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been cured from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its horrible effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. I have never taken too freely of fruit, and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and it will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer determines the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood, that I do not give my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of temperature without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.

To insure or not to insure? That is the question.
Whether it will be nobler for my family to suffer
The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune
Or take a policy against those dangers,
And, by insuring, end them? To fret, to fear,
No more; and by a policy to end
The heartaches and the thousand natural shocks
That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application's
Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure.
And pay the premium: ay—there's the rub
For in that time what premiums may come
Before I shuffle off this mortal coil
Does make me pause, tightens my purse,
And makes me rather pay the bills I have
Than fly to others I know not of.
Then does mourners make brutes of us all.

Mr. Carswell is said to be the ablest temperance speaker now before the American people. Cooper Institute and Steinway Hall, New York, are always packed, at 25 cents per ticket, when he speaks in them.

—One Maine editor has sued another Maine editor for defamation of character, and the defence is understood to be that, in the first place, the plaintiff had no character to speak of, and that, even if he had, nothing the defendant could say would injure anybody.

That's "setting the Maine editors up steep," and no mistake; but some of our New Hampshire ones can beat 'em all hollow, for we know one copperhead editor—not fifty miles from Portsmouth—of whom the assertions regarding both the Maine editors would be true.

OLD COIN.—Mr. Gilman C. Berry of Rye has shown us a pine tree shilling which he recently found at the Sand Hills in that town. On one side, in the centre, is the pine tree, with the word "Masathvsetsin" around the edge; on the reverse, "New England An Dom" around the edge, and "1652" and "XII" in the centre. The coin is a hard looking old customer, and could no doubt give an interesting history if it had ever learned to write.

☞ The steamer Wyoming, which has been undergoing extensive repairs in the Dry Dock at the Navy Yard, is to be undocked about the middle of next week, preparatory to the docking of the Tuscarora, which latter vessel chances to be of the same class as that of the Wyoming,—in fact, was built from the same mold. She will probably need considerable repairing, her decks, beams and much of her frame work being in a bad condition.

CITY COUNCIL.

In the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening, Feb. 9th, Street Commissioner Ham's report on construction of sidewalks was accepted.

The City Solicitor's opinion that the Rockingham Ten Cents Savings Bank tax was legally assessed was accepted, and the Bank had leave to withdraw their petition.

The bonds of the police force were received and referred to the Committee on Police, as was a resolution discontinuing allowance for keeping a horse for the City Marshal.

Voted to print 100 extra copies of the report of the School Committee.

The subject of locating the Stone Crusher was referred to the Committee on Streets with the Mayor, to report.

An ordinance relating to the keeping of the city accounts was passed.

The Chief Engineer of the Fire Department was authorized to put the hand engine in order and place it in the engine house on Pleasant street, and to accept the services of a volunteer company.

Voted, that the Committee on School Houses be requested to devise more efficient and economical means for heating the High School rooms; and estimate and report probable cost of heating by steam.

J. Sullivan Rand was appointed watchman, constable and police officer.

FAST LIVING.—At the head of the list of aged persons who died in this State last year stands the name of Thomas Agnow of Dover—101 years, 1 mo., 28 days. The Dover Enquirer in looking over the census returns finds that he was but 57 in 1850, 73 in 1860, and according to his coffin-plate 101 last April. We should call this growing old by Geometrical Ratio,—if he had lived but a few years longer he would have been as old as Methuselah.

—She who can compose a cross baby is greater than she who can compose books.

PLEASANT ROAD TO TRAVEL ON.—Two more accidents on the Hudson River Railroad were narrowly avoided on Wednesday. A car "jumped the track" near Yonkers, and lay right in the way of a down train, coming rapidly along the other track. The engineer put on the brakes just in time to escape a collision. Another train on the same road came near being plunged through a bridge into Spuyten Dityvil creek, the watchman hoisting the safety signal when the draw was open. Such agreeable episodes, joined to the fact that after passengers are burned or crushed to death on that road they are ridiculed and their goods plundered by the employes, will render the Hudson River route a favorite one for pleasure travel.

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION.—The President on Thursday, Feb. 9, nominated Secretary Fish, Minister Schenck, Judge Nelson of United States Supreme Court, E. R. Hoar of Massachusetts and Senator Williams as commissioners on the part of the United States to adjust the claims pending between this country and Great Britain. All the persons named were previously consulted, and signified their acceptance.

A London despatch says that "the English members of the joint commission on the Alabama claims and the fisheries questions are Earl De Gray, Thornton, John A. McDonald, and Sir John Rose; Barnard, professor of international law at Oxford, and Lord Tenterdon, as secretary, accompany the commissioners. The British government desires the commission should consist of only three members, but the cabinet at Washington insisted on ten and England yielded.

FOOD FOR THE HUNGRY.—We remember an old story of a good man who undertook to teach a half-famished beggar to pray, but failed to secure his attention—the beggar at last blurting out, "How do you suppose I'm going to pray when my ribs and my backbone are rattling around inside of my skin, for want of grub to keep 'em in place? Give me a feed, and then I'll pray away till all's blue!"

The people of France are like the beggar—very hungry; and they look to America as well as to other countries, for food in this, their extremity. There can now be no question as to whether they did or did not bring misery upon themselves—they are famishing, and food must be furnished them, and promptly. One barrel of flour now would be worth more to them, perhaps, than a cargo a year hence.

England has already sent supplies to starving Paris; and the U. S. ships which are to be stationed at various ports should be filled with provisions as soon as they are ready to receive them. The subscriptions to the relief funds in Boston, New York and other cities, are rapidly assuming large proportions, and the smallest donations are thankfully accepted. This is a chance to feed the hungry which the charitable do not often get; and it should be improved to the utmost.

☞ JOB AND CARD PRINTING is neatly promptly and cheaply done at the Chronicle and Gazette Office; and the patronage of friends in this line is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

☞ THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE for this week, is now ready for delivery, at the Chronicle Office. Each number contains all the reading matter of the week's Dailies. Price $2 a year; single copies 5 cents,—in wrappers for mailing, if desired. Six copies for $10 per year, to Clubs—per mail or city carrier.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

COMPLETION
—OF THE—
Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railway.

THE FIRST MORTGAGE
7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,
COUPON OR REGISTERED,
FREE OF U. S. TAX,
Principal and Interest Payable in Gold,
ON A FINISHED ROAD.
—FOR SALE—
At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

The last rail of this important road was laid on the 26th of January, thus completing the enterprise and establishing a connection between St. Paul and St. Louis, 90 miles shorter than any existing route and 65 miles shorter than any contemplated route between the same points.

By this line also the distance from Chicago to the great grain fields of Minnesota is shortened 45 miles, and transportation proportionately quickened and cheapened. The First Mortgage Bonds assume therefore at once on the completion of the line a position equal in intrinsic value to those of the Fort Wayne, Pennsylvania Central, Illinois Central or any other First Mortgage Bonds of completed trunk lines—not one of which sell below par.

The B. C. R. & M. Bonds are a First Mortgage, amounting only to $20,000 per mile on a line of road which has cost $40,000 per mile, the balance having been supplied by liberal subscription to the stock of the road by the wealthy farmers and parties interested along the line, and by similar subscriptions on the part of Towns and Counties through which the Road passes, which have adopted this system of giving their aid rather than issuing Town and County Bonds.

The earnings of the Road in its incomplete state, and while deprived entirely of through connection, have been for the past three months in excess of 12 per cent. on the amount of the Mortgage Bonds, after deducting operating expenses. No Road in the United States can show a better record during its inception. When is added to this the increasing way traffic the profits which will arise from the transportation of the vast wheat crop of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, all of which must seek a market over this line, the result cannot but be a showing which will give large Dividends on the Stock of the Company, after paying the interest to the Bond-holders as heretofore. The privilege which attaches to the Bonds of conversion into Stock at par will shortly assume practical value, as by this privilege the Bond-holders will, by the conversion be entitled to share in any excess of earnings which may accrue to the Road.

The Company has made extremely favorable arrangements for freight and passenger traffic with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. These arrangements will add largely to the profits of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road, as well as increasing its traffic receipts. The C. B. & Q. R. R. has further agreed to set aside 50 per cent. of the gross earnings realized from the business with the B. C. R. & M. Co. for investment in the bonds of the latter company.

This arrangement secures a practical consolidation of the two companies, and makes the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Company permanently interested in the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road by its running arrangements with and investments in the first mortgage bonds of the latter.

A small amount, $400,000 in all, of the issue yet unsold are still offered at the subscription price of 90 and accrued interest in currency. Although the Company feel warranted in the present condition of their affairs in advancing the price of bonds, yet they have concluded to continue for the present the subscription at the same price as heretofore, in order to effect rapid sales and thus free themselves immediately from all floating indebtedness.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges.

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.
THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO'
OF IOWA,
have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about
180 MILES OF RAILROAD,
which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will then open
The First Through Line Across the State
from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give
DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The
First Mortgage
7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,
which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

		Difference in Exchange.	Incr'd annual upon investment.

HEAVEN IS EVERYWHERE.

BY SUE

God lives among the roses,
Where the sweetest flowers grow;
His angels are the blossoms—,
For Jennie told me so.

Our Jennie's gone to heaven,
It is not so very far—
Only down in the garden,
Where the lovely roses are.

We will not look for Jennie
Amid starry worlds so fair;
She has only gone to heaven—
And that is everywhere.

MONMOUTH JUNCTION, N. J.

A SNORE, we are glad to learn from The Cleveland Herald, is a neutral human trumpet without a stop. It has but one tone. Ordinarily a snorer only blows his blast when he reclines upon his back. But a good snorer is not confined to position. A snorer in old canal passenger times has been known to shake a packet boat from the bow feathers to the water dipper hanging at the stern; and one case is recorded wherein the steersman brought the packet up to the tow-path and sent the bowsman ahead to whip the driver for blowing his horn when there was no lock within two miles. That, most certainly, is a lie.

But there are snores which are an intolerable nuisance; and the man who invents a method to make them noiseless will be entitled to as much honor as the gentlemen who first applied ether and chloroform for the amelioration of human suffering. And the man is here. He is a woman, however. Woman, says the Herald, hath sought out many inventions, and a married one in Des Moines has invented and put in operation a "snore consumer," which muffles the sound and conveys it by a tube into the ear of the snorer, giving him the benefit of his own music. This woman shall live in history, not to mention the hearts of her countrymen.

KU-KLUX IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—The following extract from a private letter written by one of the most prominent Methodist clergymen in South Carolina to a public man in Washington, portrays the danger that attends those who entertain republican sentiments there. The writer says:—

We have had a bad state of affairs in South Carolina. I have the names of 31 persons, some of them females, who have been taken from their beds, denuded and then most horribly whipped. You must see the cuts, bruises and scars of these victims of brutal outrage to have any just conception of the atrocity of these acts. I have the names of six or eight who have been shot. One of them, Anthony Johnson, a colored man, is dead. Johnson was a justice of the peace, and one of the most intelligent colored men in this part of the State, and in all respects a worthy man. His only fault was (I mean politically) that he was a republican and a colored man in office. The cases that I have investigated, and obtained the names and dates of the occurrences, are only a few among many. It is reported that a villain tried to outrage a poor colored girl, but she resisted and swore out a warrant. She was taken out at night, horribly whipped and threatened with death if she did not withdraw the prosecution. Unsustained by any force to resist to these outlaws, she withdrew the case from the magistrate, and the scoundrel goes unwhipped of justice. But enough, and you will say more than enough, of this.

—The Worcester Spy says:—"The people at Pratt's Junction, Oakdale and Fitchburg were somewhat alarmed Saturday evening by strange noises, and on Sunday large cracks were found in the roads and fields caused either by an earthquake or the extreme cold. Perhaps this was some of the New Hampshire earthquake that straggled down among those towns."

—"I thought I understood you to say that your father was a merchant only a week ago." said a lady to a little girl who was soliciting alms; "and if that is so, how could your family have been reduced to beggary?" "It is true, ma'am; my father kept a peanut stand, and last week he took a bad two-dollar bill and failed!"

—A wealthy gentleman, who owns a country seat, nearly lost his wife, who fell into a river which flows through his estates. He announced the narrow escape to his friends, expecting their congratulations. One of them—an old batchlor—wrote as follows: "I always told you that river was too shallow."

—A prominent dry goods merchant is said to have worked half an hour on the following proposition, and failed to give an answer: "If four men build a stone wall in nine days, how long will it take five men to build a like wall in six days?"

—The Illinois savans are discussing cow-milking, some favoring the fore and aft, and others the "diagonal" style. One patriarch believes that "every man should be left free to milk according to the dictates of his own conscience."

—The Provincetown Advocate says: "Seven hundred pounds of the Chapman family arrived by steamer Saturday, and only three of them at that. It was rumored that a ton of them had come, but the report was false."

—A Washington reporter, in commenting on the democratic character of General Sherman's receptions, says: "Any gentleman with a paper collar and mittens on can go in."

—The great Senses-taker—Rum.

BRIGGS & BRO'S
Illustrated and Descriptive Catalogue
OF FLOWER & VEGETABLE SEEDS,
AND SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS.
FOR 1871.

Will be ready for mailing by the middle of January, notwithstanding our great loss of type, paper, engravings, &c., by fire, which destroyed the Job Printing office of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, 25th December, 1870. It will be printed on a most elegant new tinted paper, and illustrated with nearly

Five Hundred Original Engravings,

And two finely executed Colored Plates—specimens of one of which were presented to our customers last season from our own stock of Seeds. In the originality, execution and extent of the engravings it is unlike and eminently superior to any other Catalogue or "Floral Guide" extant.

The Catalogue will consist of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered Seeds from us the last season. To others a charge of 15 cents per copy will be made, which is not the value of the Colored Plates. We offer more than any other house, and offer to purchasers of Seeds, as to quality and extent of Stock, Discounts and Premiums are unsurpassed. Please send orders for Catalogues without delay.

Our Colored Chromo for 1871

Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent Forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers of natural size and color. We design to make it the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 16x21 inches. The retail value would be at least Two Dollars! we shall, however, furnish it to customers at 75 cents per copy, and offer it as a Premium upon orders for Seeds. See catalogue when out.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR DISEASES OF THE THROAT and LUNGS, such as COUGHS, COLDS, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as the excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of mankind, it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various afflictions of the lungs and throat, have made it known only to be appreciated. Where consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

For a Cough and Cold, no better remedy can be had. Take small doses of it, from time to time and put the feet in warm water at night, until the disease is broken up.

For Influenza it is unequaled, as it heals the throat or lungs, take the same course.

For Whooping Cough, give small doses three or four times a day.

For Croup, give large and frequent doses until the disease is overcome.

No family should be without the Cherry Pectoral on hand to protect them, in case of attack, from the above complaints. Its timely use often spares the patient a great amount of suffering and risk, which it prevents by waiting until he could get other aid. Parents, keep it in your houses for the exigencies that arise. Lives dear to you may be saved by it.

So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that the best qualities it ever possessed are strictly maintained.

A CHEERFUL THOUGHT.

BY SUE —.

Dust unto dust, the wild winds are sighing,
Dust unto dust, withered flowers are crying,
All things earthly are of mutable birth—
Must return again to our mother earth.

When autumn leaves, one by one, are falling,
Softly and sadly, to each other calling,
They whisper of spring, and the April rain,
When leaves and blossoms will come again.

Dust unto dust we murmur when weeping,
Over the graves where loved ones are sleeping,
Let this thought cheer us, freed from all pain,
The soul, like the flowers, will blossom again.

MORMOUTH JUNCTION, N. J.

THE TENNESSEE.—The only reasonable explanation of the delay in hearing from the San Domingo commission is, that they concluded to examine a part of the Island distant from the capital before visiting President Baez.

Naval Constructor Hanscom says the Tennessee is too long for her breadth, and unfit for sea. Naval officers say she is a good ship. No intelligence, either from Samana or San Domingo City, of a sufficiently late date to have announced her arrival, has been received anywhere; regular communication is but once a month, and is not due until the 23d inst.

The U. S. frigate Congress sailed from Havana in search of the Tennessee on the 10th.

New Hampshire Items.

A. F. Clough, of Warren, who passed the early part of the winter on the mountain, P. B. Cogswell, of the Concord Monitor, and L. Holden, of the Boston Journal, ascended Mount Washington on the 8th inst, leaving the depot at 10:15, A. M., and reaching the summit at 2:45. Prof. Huntington met the party at the foot of the mountain and accompanied them up.

Five men were badly burned on Thursday morning, Feb. 9th, by a powder explosion in a ledge on the Sugar River Railroad, about one mile above Bradford. One of the men is fatally injured, it is feared. Their names are Thomas Doyle, Jefferson Cartice, John Murphy, Peter Foster and Dennis Favre. They had made one blast and Doyle was turning powder into the seam for a second. Twenty-five pounds of powder went off in his hands, and his recovery is improbable.

The fireman's reception and levee at the new engine house in Nashua, on Thursday evening, Feb. 9, called together the largest number of persons that has been assembled in that vicinity for years. Speeches, music, dancing and in fact everything but refreshments were obliged to be omitted.

The house and barn of Horace H. Morrison at Haverhill, were burned Friday morning, the 10th. Loss $3000.

The fund for rebuilding the Phillips Exeter Academy now amounts to over $30,000.

The sale of liquor after 10 P. M. is prohibited in Dover.

From the Manchester Mirror we learn that the valuation of personal and real estate in that city for the past year was $10,710,252, being the highest ever returned. The amount of taxes assessed was $234,047.63; number of polls recorded, 4,950; poll tax, $3,27. The valuation and the number of polls was never so large as last year. The largest sum raised by tax was in 1869, when it amounted to $254,022.43. The highest poll tax was $5.50, in 1840; the valuation was $946,200; the taxes, $3,986.56; polls, 892. In 1850, valuation $5,500,049; in 1860, $9,644,937. The total debt and interest of the city, Jan. 1st, was $445,628.75; cash on hand and notes due city, $42,089.47, leaving the indebtedness $403,539.28. The city property,—including farm, lands, fire apparatus, school property, reservoirs, &c., amounts to a valuation of $489,788.25, leaving the city some $86,000 ahead.

☞ It is supposed that the steam frigate Worcester will be the vessel selected to take the breadstuffs from Boston to France.

☞ Chief of Police Savage completed twenty years service in the Boston Police Department on Thursday.

☞ The Boston subscriptions for the relief of the suffering in France now foot up to about $60,000.

☞ Job Printing done at this office.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND FLUID

Extract Catawba

GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, Etc. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

Will radically exterminate from the System Scrofula, Syphilitic, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

BEING PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE ABOVE COMPLAINTS, ITS BLOOD-PURIFYING PROPERTIES ARE GREATER THAN ANY OTHER PREPARATION OF SARSAPARILLA. IT GIVES THE COMPLEXION A CLEAR AND HEALTHY COLOR AND RESTORES THE PATIENT TO A STATE OF HEALTH AND PURITY, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, AND REMOVING ALL CHRONIC CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD; AND THE ONLY RELIABLE AND EFFECTUAL KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PAINS AND SWELLINGS OF THE BONES, ULCERATIONS OF THE THROAT AND LEGS, BLOTCHES, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ERYSIPELAS AND ALL SCALY ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

CONCENTRATED

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

LADIES.

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., DISPELS DEDORIZED AND INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

MONDAY, FEB. 13, 1870.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, Feb. 16, Mr. Cragin, from naval committee, reported back with amendments a bill to regulate the rank in the Navy. The principal changes by the Senate committee in the House bill are, that the rank of all staff officers be assimilated, instead of the positive phrase used throughout the bill, "shall rank with;" that the number of chief engineers be increased to forty-five, and the commanding and executive officers, when on duty, to take the precedence of all others, with this exception: The precedence is to be in accordance with the rank and length of service, but the staff officers shall be credited with six years additional time, as equivalent to a term of the Naval Academy, and the officers who have been advanced or lost numbers on the register shall be considered as having gained or lost length of service accordingly; that the chief of bureaus may be appointed from persons having relative rank of captains in staff corps. The section relative to precedence of commanding and executive officers provides that commanding officers of vessels of war and naval stations shall take precedence of all officers placed under their command; that executive officers of vessels of war and naval stations, representing the commanding officer thereof, shall as far as practical be next in rank to said commanding officer, and shall when acting as such representative take precedence over all officers attached to said vessels or naval stations while in discharge of their respective duties as connected with said vessels or naval stations, and such orders as said executive officers may give shall be regarded as coming from said commanding officer.

The joint high commissioners were confirmed.

In the House, Mr. Starkweather of Connecticut, from the committee on naval affairs, reported a bill to permit William L. Hanscom, a late naval constructor in the navy, to withdraw his resignation, which was accepted the 5th of January, 1866, and to reinstate him in office.

The bill was opposed by Archer of Maryland and Sargent of California, on the ground of a corrupt transaction of Hanscom in 1866, in connection with his official duties, which led to his resignation.

Mr. Starkweather denied that there was any truth in the charges, and said it was not that charge which led to Hanscom's resignation, but that his place was made so uncomfortable that he had to resign.

Mr. Banks of Massachusetts said that the Secretary of the Navy had doubt as to his authority, and therefore wanted the action of Congress in the matter. As to the charge against Hanscom, trumped up and sent to the House by Admiral Porter, he declared that Hanscom bore as honorable a reputation as any man in Massachusetts, and that in the opinion of the people of the country he was as superior in point of reputation to Admiral Porter as the Apostle John was to the traitor Judas. Even if the charges against Hanscom were true—that he had received remuneration for giving men employment in the Charlestown Navy Yard—as they were false as hell, his character would still be better than that of those officers of the navy who had compounded felony and let him go unpunished. He denounced it as an infamous proceeding on the part of the high officials in the Navy Department to come to the House and say they had detected a man in a fraud which should have sent him to the penitentiary, and let him go in order that they might get his place for one of their friends. Referring to the intimidation of naval officers by the department, he said he had heard within the last two days, of scores of naval engineers having said that the Tennessee, now on her way to San Domingo, was not seaworthy, and they were unwilling to risk their lives in her. As to why they had not publicly said so, they were in a situation where they could not give their honest opinion; because if they ran counter to the schemes of bureau men—and he did not refer at all to the Secretary of the Navy—they would lose their place and reputation. So Hanscom, who had run counter to their plans, thereby lost his place and his standing in the department.

Other Senators took part in the debate, which was spicy enough.

Mr. Hale of Maine defended the Navy Department from the responsibility for the Tennessee, and threw the responsibility on Congress, which, though notified by Admiral Porter that the navy was worn out and useless, had made no effort to renew and maintain it.

Mr. Stevenson of Ohio reminded Mr. Hale that the Tennessee was a new vessel, the trip to San Domingo being her first voyage.

Mr. Butler of Massachusetts closed the discussion by saying that this was no new quarrel between Hanscom and Admiral Porter. Porter had been a young lieutenant at the Portsmouth navy yard when Hanscom was naval constructor there. The civilian and martinet had come in contact and had laid the foundation of the enmity that had lasted a lifetime. Hanscom believed from that hour he had been hunted by Porter in every conceivable way. Referring to Admiral Porter's connection with the Navy department, he said he was never officially Secretary of the Navy. He said he had once been officially assistant secretary of the navy. No member of Congress should have recognized him as secretary. He had left the place he never ought to have held.

Mr. Banks remarked that he once went to the Navy department to ask a favor from the Secretary. Admiral Porter has just gone out, and the Secretary had said to him: "Mr. Banks, why the devil don't you ask Admiral Porter?"

Mr. Butler, resuming, asked,—Who was opposing Mr. Hanscom? Not the Secretary of the Navy; nor the committee on naval affairs,—but Mr. Porter—Admiral Porter, by grace of the Senate. [Laughter.] Admiral Porter's services during the war would live for some time. He thought they would be indestructible. Along the Mississippi were guns captured by the army, and marked by Porter, "Taken by the navy under command of D. D. Porter," and so long as white paint remained so long would the memory of Porter's deeds remain in the minds of those who believe in him, but they were few. [Laughter.] It was easy to make such a record as that.

The bill passed—143 to 67—and now goes to the President.

The bill for the enlistment of 300 additional seamen in the navy for the practice ship at Annapolis was passed.

The bill authorizing the President to accept the resignation of any officer of the navy until the number of officers in the grade to which such officer belongs is reduced to the number authorized by law, was passed, as was also the conference bill relating to pensioners of the war of 1812.

An Overdose of Porter.—We neither heed the constant shouting that every political man in the country is a rascal, nor believe that all members of Congress are drunkards, as might be inferred from reading the vicious personal attacks on every man of note, from one source or another; on the contrary, we believe that many public men are good men, (we need not go outside of our own Representation in Congress for examples,) and consider it not wholly impossible that there may be some latent virtue even in a democratic member of the Senate or House. But a majority of the United States Senate seem—and have long seemed—to be thoroughly intoxicated with Porter.

The Porter which has wrought so ill an effect upon the Senate is not the comparatively harmless beverage of that name, which only makes men into stupid or savage fools; but it is the "great" Admiral—who has run the navy in the interest of a class (of which he is himself the best exponent) until it is pretty well run out, and who is disliked by the people at large quite as much as he is worshipped by those who think the country cannot get along without a privileged aristocracy to govern the "common herd."

The Porter-intoxication of the Senate was well shown in their confirming him as Admiral, in opposition to such an expression of popular objection to such a course as is rarely seen. When his name was sent in by the President as a candidate for the position, at least four-fifths of all the republican papers, and all the democratic ones that we know of, strenuously opposed his confirmation; and while his name was yet before the Senate, the House of Representatives—the popular branch of the Government—spoke the popular will with a loud voice, in endeavoring to abolish the office entirely. But the Senate were intoxicated with Porter, and in defiance of the popular will he was made an Admiral—they can't make him a great man, so they gave him a great title.

The effect of the Porter-intoxication of the Senate is seen in the "amendments" to Gen. Stevens' (House) bill to regulate rank in the navy—said "amendments" entirely defeating the purpose of the original bill, which is to give to the naval staff the rank which they are entitled to, and the authority in their several departments which they must have if our navy is to be efficient and the naval staff is to be composed of men who stand high in their professions. The press of the country is almost unanimous in supporting the claims of the staff and in commending Gen. Stevens' bill, and the House passed it with hardly a dissenting voice, and without even a call for the yeas and nays; but the Senate's Porter must not be "riled" by the just claims of other men being allowed, so some of the intoxicated ones have secured an amendment to the bill—or destroyed it, as in this case the terms are synonymous. What final action the Senate will take in the matter we cannot say, but from former proceedings we cannot but fear they will do exactly what the people do not want done.

In the House of Representatives there are a few Porter-intoxicated members; and one of them, in the recent debate on reinstating Naval Constructor Hanscom, blamed the Navy Department for the state of our Navy, because they did not do as Admiral Porter told them! He has done pretty much as he liked with the Navy, on his own hook. We have seen a national ship—a splendid ship she was, too, when she was launched—go out of port "down by the head like a fighting pig," and carrying several hundred tons of ballast in her run to bring her on an even keel, at that, because her engines and fighting-gear were all pushed forward to make room for officers' quarters—that deviation from the constructor's plans being sanctioned by the office in which the Admiral "had a desk." As a line-of-officers' boarding house the ship couldn't well be beaten; as a fighting-ship or a "sea-boat," she would be about as useful as the Admiral himself is in the navy—worse than nothing.

Gen. Butler says that the Admiral was "a young lieutenant at the Portsmouth navy-yard when Hanscom was a naval constructor there; that the civilian and martinet had come in contact," and that Porter had hunted Hanscom ever since, in every possible way. Of the merits of the question between them we are not prepared to decide; but we know that Mr. Hanscom built the handsomest ship ever launched from a United States ship-house, and the handsomest ship we ever saw—and we have seen some thousands—the U. S. S. Franklin. Fortunately that splendid frigate got to sea before the Admiral had got power to revise (we had nearly written ruin) her, and she has therefore won loud praise in every European port she has visited, for her beauty of hull, the commodiousness of her arrangements for all her company, and her evident power as a fighting craft. The Admiral, had he been in power in season, would probably have taken such care of his "class" that the Franklin would have gone to sea as did the vessel before mentioned, and would have needed the whole Western Ocean to steer in—likely enough running ashore at San Domingo, Greenland and the Cape de Verdes, on her way to England.

Artemus Ward was sorry that the negro couldn't go off somewhere by himself, and "amoose hisself by wearin speckled weskits and in varies other interestin wase," and not be a bother to the white folks. Even so we believe the great body of the people of the country would be quite willing to let D. D. Porter (we should put a —— between those two D's if we were not opposed to profanity) wear his title of Admiral and pay him his big salary, if he would only go off by himself to some place where he could do no more harm. But as he won't do that, (worse luck,) the next best thing is to reduce his mischief-making power to a minimum; and we earnestly hope the Senate will cease their unlimited indulgence in Porter, and by passing the House bill in its original form put it out of his power to drive from the national service men of at least as much value as himself, by heaping degradations and insults upon the educated gentlemen composing the popular corps of the navy—the staff officers.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and efficacious for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured, by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a graceful perfume.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

Having for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the ground that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold, and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend as a good level place to spend a winter. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influences of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times: but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives this winter. My reasons for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature, and it is not necessary to say, that, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly: therefore my advice is, that well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs, Jacksonville, or almost any other place of the long list named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or a cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing everything possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Philadelphia, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if everybody would go to Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am acquainted with them, and know what they are. I know that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or any other disease, and then allows the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a tonic will be required, which I know, that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or any other disease, and then allows the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a tonic will be required, which I know, that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or any other disease, and then allows the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room, at a temperature of 70 with the temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer; and, if they can do so, they should be within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is a disease of the blood, and, if the disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The best standard medicines in use are that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its harmful effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit, and diarrhœa comes, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and you will relieve yourself in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrake every night, and you may then drink water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the slightest fear of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless, and they can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Wednesday, from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer enables me to form a judgment of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire no patient to come to Philadelphia unless he has medicines (especially those I prescribe) taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition, they need not fear, and are liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

THE ODD FELLOWS' CELEBRATION of the twenty-fifth anniversary of New Hampshire Lodge No. 17, on Friday evening, was an extensive and gorgeous affair. The Order met at their Hall on Daniel street at 7 o'clock, in full regalia, and marched to the Temple, (the Cornet Band furnishing the music,) where they listened to an Address by Past Grand Representative Joseph Kidder, of Manchester; after which a Supper and Dance at Congress Hall wound up the celebration. The address and supper were free to brethren of the Order and their ladies.

The lecture we regret we were unable to hear; but it was spoken of most enthusiastically by those who were present—and it must have been good, of course, for Bro. Kidder is an ex-member of the quill fraternity, as well as a present one of the I. O. of O. F. The supper at Congress Hall was abundant and of first-rate quality, and was furnished to ever-so-many—we dare not say how many—guests; and the dance after supper, which lasted (the dance lasted—not the supper) till the small hours, was enjoyed by more people than could get on the floor. Each feature of the celebration was a decided success in itself, and the whole affair will leave pleasant memories with the brethren of the Order and the outsiders who enjoyed their hospitality.

BANISHED.—Some weeks ago, during the Arctic term, three pupils were expelled from the Boys' High School for leaving the institution without permission—the school room being uncomfortably cold, and they having in vain asked leave to go out to get warm—although another pupil had his similar request granted. One of the three has since been re-admitted, but two are still outcasts from society — that is, the school. One of the two outcasts appealed to the Chairman of the High School Committee, and was by him referred to another member of it. We do not know that he went to the gentleman he was referred to, but he is certainly still outside the bounds of mercy. We do not mean to question the right of a teacher to compel obedience in his scholars, particularly if they are boys—we don't like boys much—but we do not see why the authorities should "make fish of one and flesh of another." And it is certain that the school-room was cold, and dangerously so for the pupils' health; and the Committee on Schools of the City Council have been instructed to devise some more efficient method of heating the building, if possible. We do not say the boys were justified in leaving the cold room without permission; but the fact that they were uncomfortable while there we think should be taken into consideration in awarding punishment.

SEABROOK.—There is a diversity of opinion among the citizens of Seabrook in regard to the manner of conducting their elections of State and town officers. The custom has hitherto been to choose first a Moderator, then a Town Clerk, then State Officers, Representative to Congress, and three Selectmen, all on separate tickets. This performance has usually occupied an entire day, and sometimes more; and many of the citizens favor voting for the whole lot of candidates on a single ballot, as is done elsewhere. This, it is believed, would do away with much of the disorder which has frequently taken place on election days in Seabrook, as it would certainly save a great deal of time. Keeping a crowd hanging around a voting place for an entire day may please those who consider looking at a drunken row to be having a good time, but the plan of keeping the crowd there by voting for each candidate separately is rather behind the age.

THE WAR.

The Germans are prosecuting the siege of Belfort, and have taken two forts.

Sweden has assured the French national government of sympathy, and deprecates the late useless and cruel prosecution of the war by Germany.

It is considered that the war indemnity claimed by Germany will be greatly reduced.

Reports from Bordeaux say that the republicans are everywhere successful in the French elections.

A London telegram says that the monarchists will have a four to one majority in the Assembly. Thiers, Changarnier and Faidherbe are elected.

A third telegram says that the conservatives will carry the elections. We give the three reports—our readers can pick and choose to suit themselves.

The Bordeaux government has issued a decree calling out the military class of '71 immediately.

A French transport, with 1250 troops on board, has been wrecked and all hands lost.

☞ Franklin county, Tennessee, is in open war against the U. S. Revenue laws, and a body of troops have been attacked and defeated by an armed mob. Rebellion is quite dead in all the Southern States, and reconstruction is an unnecessary annoyance of our law-abiding southern brethren!

☞ The San Francisco stock exchange sends immediately $1000 in aid of the French relief fund, and the Chamber of Commerce has contributed liberally.

☞ Old newspapers for sale at this Office.

☞ JOB AND CARD PRINTING is neatly promptly and cheaply done at the Chronicle and Gazette Office; and the patronage of friends in this line is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

COMPLETION

—OF THE—

Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railway.

THE FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

COUPON OR REGISTERED,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

Principal and Interest Payable in Gold,

ON A FINISHED ROAD.

—FOR SALE—

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

The last rail of this important road was laid on the 26th of January, thus completing the enterprise and establishing a connection between St. Paul and St. Louis 90 miles shorter than any existing route and 65 miles shorter than any contemplated route between the same points.

By this line also the distance from Chicago to the great grain fields of Minnesota is shortened 45 miles, and transportation proportionately quickened and cheapened. The First Mortgage Bonds assume therefore at once on the completion of the line a position equal in intrinsic value to those of the Fort Wayne, Pennsylvania Central, Illinois Central or any other First Mortgage Bonds of completed trunk lines—not one of which sell below par.

The B. C. R. & M. Bonds are a First Mortgage, amounting only to $20,000 per mile on a line of road which has cost $40,000 per mile, the balance having been supplied by liberal subscription to the stock at par, made by wealthy farmers and parties interested along the line, and by similar subscriptions on the part of Towns and Counties through which the Road passes, which have adopted this system of giving their aid rather than issuing Town and County Bonds.

The earnings of the Road in its incomplete state, and while deprived entirely of through connection, have been for the past three months in excess of 12 per cent. on the amount of the Mortgage Bonds, after deducting operating expenses. No Road in the United States can show a better record during its inception. When to added to this lucrative way traffic the profits which will arise from the transportation of the vast wheat crop of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, all of which must seek a market over this line, the result cannot but be a showing which will give large Dividends on the Stock of the Company, after paying the interest to the Bond-holders as heretofore. The privilege which attaches to the Bonds of conversion into Stock at par will shortly assume practical value, as by this privilege the Bond-holders will, by the conversion be entitled to share in any excess of earnings which may accrue to the Road.

The Company has made extremely favorable arrangements for freight and passenger traffic with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. These arrangements will add largely to the profits of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road, as well as increasing its traffic receipts. The C. B. & Q. R. R. has further agreed to set aside 40 per cent. of the gross earnings realized from the business with the B. C. R. & M. Co. for investment in the bonds of the latter company.

This arrangement secures a practical consolidation of the two companies, and makes the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Company permanently interested in the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road by its running arrangements with and investments in the first mortgage bonds of the latter.

A small amount, $400,000 in all, of the issue yet unsold are still offered at the subscription price of 90 and accrued interest in currency. Although the Company feel warranted in the present condition of their affairs in advancing the price of bonds, yet they have concluded to continue for the present the subscription at the same price as heretofore, in order to effect rapid sales and thus free themselves immediately from all floating indebtedness.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

		Difference in Cash.	Incr'd annual Interest.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold; the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mdaSmwfe8d5

THE RAILROAD DISASTER.—Further reports from New Hamburg show that the reports of the inhuman and unfeeling conduct of the Hudson River Railroad employees at the late accident were not overrated; and the neglect, disorder and heartlessness manifested, will leave a lasting disgrace on the history of this road. The fact has also come out that the train was lured to destruction by a false signal, for which the parsimony of the company was directly responsible. The signal posts upon which the lights were hung at night stood at the draw, and until this winter, a man has always been on duty at that point, with instructions to mind the bridge and signal the trains. Two months ago, for the sake of economy, this watch was removed, and the care of the bridge was added to the duties of the man stationed at the water tank, nearly a quarter of a mile below. Trains were to be flagged from the tank instead of the bridge, and at night the white light indicating "all right" was left permanently hanging at the post, seventy rods from the nearest watchman. The express seems, from the most careful accounts, to have been about a mile and a half distant when the oil car fell across the track, and if the danger-signal had been displayed instantly, the train could easily have been stopped. It was almost directly under the white light that the accident happened. If the signal man had been within reach of his signal, where he should have been, he could probably have shown the red light in time to avert the disaster. The accounts of witnesses are of course confused, but according to the testimony it was at least three minutes after the fall of the oil car before the engine struck it. The Tribune reporter says the railroad officers have tried to keep this information from the newspapers, and it was obtained from residents in the neighborhood.

☞ Three persons were hung in Maryland on Friday, Feb. 10th. John Martin, colored, was hung for committing a brutal outrage upon an aged woman; John Howard, a New York rough, was hung for murdering Henry Miller; and a colored girl of 17 was put to death for poisoning two white children.

☞ The new missionary packet Morning Star, now lying at the end of Commercial wharf, Boston, leaves for Honolulu this week.

☞ The Imaum of Muscat was slain in a recent battle.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Hazards of Winter.

The feeble and delicate dread the winter, and with good reason. The weather at this season has a depressing effect upon the vital organs, and the animal spirits, and they have no vitality or mental animation to spare. The aged and infirm, in whom the flame of life is waxing dim, are always unpleasantly affected by the temperature of winter, and should fortify their systems against it. The extra vigor and resistant power which the enfeebled system requires to enable it to meet with safety the assaults of cold and damp, may soon be acquired by the regular use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The tonic effect of this wonderful medicine is soon apparent, in an increased appetite, a more active digestion and a brighter, happier frame of mind. Food is the fuel of the body, and if it is not properly digested the fires of life burn low. When this is the case, the disability can always be remedied within a short space of time, by taking a full dose of the Bitters twice a day. The stomach will soon begin to perform its allotted task regularly and steadily; the food, being thoroughly assimilated, will yield the amount of vital heat and nourishment which the body requires under the external pressure of cold, and the winter ailments which are apt to assail the weak and untoned physique will be avoided.

BULLETS FOR EUROPE.

Lead is wanted in Europe. Send over the millions of bottles of new tangled hair colorers that "remain over" and can't be sold here. Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The lead-saturated and sulphur saturated nostrums have gone down, down, down, where they belong; while the EXCELSIOR DYE has gone up with a rapidity that taxes to the utmost the facilities for manufacturing it. It is to-day the

BRIGGS & BRO'S

Illustrated and Descriptive Catalogue

OF FLOWER & VEGETABLE SEEDS,

AND SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS.

FOR 1871.

Will be ready for mailing by the middle of January, notwithstanding our great loss of type, paper, engravings, &c., by fire, which destroyed the Job Printing office of the Rochester Union and Advertiser Chronicle, 25th December, 1870. It will be printed on a most elegant new tinted paper, and illustrated with nearly

Five Hundred Original Engravings,

And two finely executed Colored Plates—specimens for all of which were grown by ourselves the past season from our own stock of seeds. The originality, execution and extent of the engravings it is unlike and eminently superior to any other Catalogue ever issued in this Country.

The Catalogue will consist of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered Seeds from us by mail the last season. To others a charge of 15 cents per copy will be made, which is not the value of the Colored Plates. We assure our friends that the influencements we offer in purchasers of Seeds, as to quality and extent of Stock, Discounts and Premiums are unsurpassed. Please send orders for Catalogues without delay.

Our Colored Chromo for 1871

Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent Forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers, of all natural form and color. We design to make it the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 19x24 inches. The retail value would be at least Ten Dollars. We shall however, furnish it to customers at 75 cents per copy, and offer it as a Premium upon orders for Seeds. See catalogue when out.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR DISEASES OF THE THROAT and LUNGS, such as COUGHS, COLDS, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men, it has risen higher and higher in the estimation, as its virtues have become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have established it as the reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

For a Cough and Cold, no better remedy can be had. Take small doses three times a day, and put the foot in warm water at night, until the disease is broken up.

For Influenza, when it affects the throat or lungs, take the Cherry Pectoral.

For Whooping Cough, give small doses three or four times a day.

For Croup, give large and frequent doses until the disease is overcome.

No family should be without the Cherry Pectoral on hand to guard against the first attack of from the above complaints. Its timely use often spares the patient a great amount of suffering and risk, which he would incur by waiting until he could get other aid. Parents, keep it in your houses for the exigencies that arise. Lives dear to you may be saved by it.

So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that the best qualities it ever possessed are strictly maintained.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.

To insure or not to insure? That is the question. Whether it will be nobler for my family to suffer The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune Or take a policy against those dangers, And, by insuring, end them? To fret, to fear, No more; and by a policy to end The heartache and the thousand natural shocks That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application 's Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure, And pay the premium: ay—there's the rub For in that time what premiums may come Before I shuffle off this mortal coil Does make me pause, tightens my purse, And makes me rather pay the bills I have Than fly to others I know not of. Thus does meanness make brutes of us all.

The Chronicle.

OLD TIME CHRONICLES, No. 29.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

Candia was incorporated in 1763. From the first, good attention has been given to religious institutions and schools. It has been an enlightened, enterprising place, and as a consequence some of its sons have been well known at home and abroad.

In 1780, seventeen years after the incorporation, the population was about 800. Jan. 27, 1782, a child was born to Edward and Sarah Robie. He was named Tappan, for Col. Christopher Tappan of Hampton, a distant relative. He became afterwards known in Maine as Hon. Tappan Robie. The present sketch is to be of him, he having lately departed this life.

When he was quite young his parents moved to Chester, where, before he was in his teens, he went to live with a store keeper; and while there his employer was appointed the first Postmaster in town, and the lad assisted. Acquiring thus a knowledge and taste for trade, at the age of 14 (in 1796) he went to Haverhill, Mass., and was engaged for about three years in the store of a Mr. Brooks. In 1799 he went to Gorham, Me., as clerk in a store. This was his home to the end of life. In 1802 he was 20 years of age, and began trade in his own name, which was continued 43 years. In 1804 he married Lydia Brown of Chester, sister of Francis Brown, for a time President of Dartmouth College. Mr. R's. wife was 9 days younger than himself.

Mr. Robie held several town offices in Gorham, and for 6 years, ending in 1819, was Representative to the legislature of Massachusetts. In 1820 Maine was separated from that State, and in that year and the next he was Representative in the Maine legislature. In 1837 he was elected one of the Governor's Council. Edward Kent, a native of Concord, N. H., was Governor; but the following year John Fairfield, a Democrat, was chosen and Mr. Robie was left out.

Mr. Robie had great success in business and became rich. What was best of all (and quite too uncommon with the rich) he was benevolent. For more than 60 years he was a member of the Congregational church in Gorham, and besides personal influence, contributed generously for its benefit. He gave $500 for a clock on the meeting house and $9000 for a ministerial fund. He gave $2000 towards a Soldier's Monument in Gorham. He remembered Candia, his native town, and gave $50 towards the purchase of an organ for the Congregational Society there. Chester, the home of his youth, was remembered with gratitude. He had attended in childhood on the ministry of Rev. N. Bradstreet, Rev. E. Flagg being the senior pastor. So a few years ago he gave $5000 to the Congregational Society as a permanent fund, the society to raise a like sum, which was done.

Mr. Robie had three wives, all of whom died before he did. Rev. Edward Robie of Greenland, with two brothers, (who are ministers,) are his nephews. Hon. Tappan Robie died Jan. 14, of this year, aged 89.

BREVITIES.

John H. Devine, an accomplice of W. Kelly, both alleged murderers of Garrett W. Norstrand, at Sequosset, on the night of January 21, has confessed the crime.

Catskill has got the laziest man yet discovered. He got up the other morning with one ear frozen because he was too lazy to turn over on the pillow to warm it.

A Philadelphia Sunday paper alludes to the Kensington Bank robbers as wolves in Fox's clothing.

During the progress of the Tammany Fenian procession in New York a firework bomb fell on the roof of a horse-car, burst through the roof and exploded inside. Nobody badly hurt.

Minnie Davis, charged with setting fire to clothes in her trunk at her boarding house, in New York, for the purpose of obtaining $3000 insurance, was found guilty of arson in the first degree, and unanimously recommended to the merciful consideration of the Court. Sentenced to 10 years in the State prison.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS,
Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.
FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, ETC. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.
H
These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, &c. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.
E
HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,
Will radically exterminate from the System Scrofula, Syphilis, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.
L
BEING PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE ABOVE COMPLAINTS, ITS BLOOD-PURIFYING PROPERTIES ARE GREATER THAN ANY OTHER PREPARATION OF SARSAPARILLA. IT GIVES THE COMPLEXION A CLEAR AND HEALTHY COLOR AND RESTORES THE PATIENT TO A STATE OF HEALTH AND PURITY, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, AND REMOVING ALL CHRONIC CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD; AND THE ONLY RELIABLE AND EFFECTUAL KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PAINS AND SWELLINGS OF THE BONES, ULCERATIONS OF THE THROAT AND LEGS, BLOTCHES, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ERYSIPELAS AND ALL SCALY ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.
M
HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC,
has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.
Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.
LADIES.
O
H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.
Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.
Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.
L
HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH
cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.
D
Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.
Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses, and upward of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, FEB. 14, 1870.

THE WAR.—The result of the French elections is as yet undetermined. Many departments are claimed by two or three parties, and from a great many no returns have been received. The elections in Paris were very quiet.

Official returns from the department of Nord shows that the monarchical candidates polled 195,000, and the republicans 47,000 votes.

The election of the following candidates is considered certain:—Victor Hugo, Garibaldi, Blanc, Quinet, Gambetta, Soissel, Rochefort, Dorian, Schoelcher, Pothier and Deleschuze. The department of the Seine et Oise has elected to the assembly the mayor of Versailles, Carmot, Barthelemy, Saint Hilaire, Thiers and Favre. In the department of Bas-Rhin the mayors of Strasbourg and Schelestadt, and Gambetta and Reutsch are elected.

There has not yet sufficient provision arrived in Paris to give enough to eat, and a plague has broken out among the cattle at Brest which were intended for the relief of Paris.

Bismark refuses to make any provision for the return of the French prisoners who were disarmed when they crossed over into Switzerland.

The armistice is to be extended for one week from Feb. 19.

Napoleon has issued a proclamation from Wilhelmshohe, asserting himself to be the rightful ruler of France.

The sentiment in Paris is said to be in favor of peace at any price.

The brig J. L. Bowen has arrived at Boulogne, laden with food for Paris. She is the first American vessel which has visited that port in ten years.

The French National Assembly met at Bordeaux on the 13th.

☞ Alice Carey, the well known authoress, died in New York, Feb. 12th, after a lingering illness of nearly two years. During the last forty-eight hours she was insensible, but for several days she suffered acute pain.

New Hampshire Items.

The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of New Hampshire Knights of Pythias was held in Exeter, on the afternoon of the 9th. The following persons were chosen Grand Officers for the ensuing year: S. B. Davis of Nashua, G. C.; J. T. S. Libby of Dover, V. G. C.; M. A. Perkins of Exeter, G. V. P.; J. L. Dow of Manchester, G. R. and C. S.; S. C. Clator of Manchester, G. B.; C. H. Trickley of Newmarket, G. G.; J. O. Davis of Newmarket, G. I. S.; L. K. Peacook of Concord, G. O. S.

On the 9th, in Lebanon, a fire broke out in Whipple's Building, the second story of which is occupied as a Masonic hall. The building was drenched with water. Loss about $800 to the Masons and building: fully insured.

On the 4th, Mrs. Hiram Truell of Grafton, who is helpless from a shock of palsy, was by some unlucky mischance left sitting in a chair after the family retired, and remained there all night. Report says that both her legs were frozen to the knees.

On the 6th, the State Board of Agriculture paid an official visit to the Agricultural College at Hanover, and all points of interest were visited. The Board expressed themselves highly gratified.

☞ On Saturday, Feb. 11, Collector Russell of Boston received by an express, from the department of State at Washington, a box containing an elegant gold watch and chain for Captain Morse of the ship James A. —The Providence Herald, speaking of the reported "revivals of religion" in different localities in this State, says: "If the New Hampshire people are sincere in their professions of religion, we shall look for a rousing Democratic victory next month. 'By their deed ye shall know them.'"

The connection between religion and democracy is very subtile—too subtile for common mortals to discover. The great objections which the copperheads bring against Mr. Pike, the republican candidate for Governor, are that he was a soldier, and is a temperance man and a clergyman. Every open barroom in the State is a first-class democratic politician to oppose Mr. Pike's election.

MAINE ITEMS.—The celebrated case of Miller, libellant for divorce vs. Miller—the longest and most celebrated probably of any divorce case, on record in the State of Maine,—is at an end. After a week's time spent upon the evidence, and two and a half days occupied in argument, Judge Walton delivered a clear and concise charge to the jury, who after being out three days, returned with a verdict in favor of Mrs. Miller. BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE OLD CLUMSY FRENCH SCREW, and the expensive Hand Screw, which have each done good work in introducing screw-fastened boots and shoes to public notice, are being rapidly superseded by the CABLE SCREW WIRE goods. These comfortable, economical and durable goods are for sale by leading dealers in all parts of the country.

IF YOU FEEL dull, despondent, drowsy, debilitated, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly, poor appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from torpid liver, or "Billiousness." Nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently as Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery. It also cures all severe lingering Coughs and tones up and strengthens the whole system. Sold by druggists. To avoid Counterfeits see that Dr. Pierce's, private U. S. Government Stamp is on the outside wrapper.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Hazards of Winter.

The feeble and delicate dread the winter, and with good reason. The weather at this season has a depressing effect upon the vital organs and the animal spirits, and they have no vitality or mental animation to spake. The aged and infirm, in whom the flame of life is waxing dim, are always unpleasantly affected by the temperature of winter, and should fortify their systems against it. The extra vigor and resistant power which the enfeebled system requires to enable it to meet with safety the assaults of cold and damp, may soon be acquired by the regular use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The tonic effect of this wonderful medicine is soon apparent, in an increased appetite, a more active digestion and a brighter, happier frame of mind. Food is the fuel of the body, and if it is not properly digested the fires of life burn low. When this is the case, the disability can always be remedied within a short space of time, by taking a full dose of the Bitters twice a day. The stomach will soon begin to perform its allotted task regularly and steadily; the food, being thoroughly assimilated, will yield the amount of vital heat and nourishment which the body requires under the external pressure of cold, and the winter ailments which are apt to assail the weak and untoned physique will be avoided.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

ADDRESSING which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved from untimeliness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,

NO. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"MR. R. H. EDDY has been for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influences of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should given a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Illumina, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reason for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly: therefore my advice is to go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have mentioned, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those who are really diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely, still there are many thousands of victims yearly. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small-pox, &c.! but they are not; they take what they term a little cold, which they can't afford enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another cold, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their effect on the system, that where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk out or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is required. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. It is always a great sign when a patient begins to feel hungry: I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes strength, and with it more flesh, upon which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take the exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Try where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very brink of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a box by them. Let a person be taken down with the liver complaint, or dyspepsia, and sick-headache, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrake Pills, and you may eat three-fourths of a watermelon, or any quantity of fruit, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients should learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

Before closing, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

But the above selection we know to be good one, and can vouch for Mr. Butland as being the right man in the right place.

☞ The humbug-economist Dawes wants the Navy Yard at this Station abolished—but then he proposes to establish another at New London, Conn. Last year, he made a speech arraigning the administration for alleged extravagance, and then came to New Hampshire and said he didn't mean what he said. Wouldn't it be a fine thing to bring him to New Hampshire again, and let him say that he had changed his mind again—for political purposes! Great is Humbug—and Dawes is its best representative.

☞ To-day, Feb. 14, is St. Valentine's Day. From the total absence of any noise about "sending valentines" this year, we presume that the custom of so doing is considered to be played out entirely—as it really was, when the fashion became merely a cloak under cover of which petty malice could gratify itself by caricaturing the personal misfortunes or failings of others. Originally the custom was a pleasant one, when friends and lovers said pretty things to each other; but of late years it had degenerated and become a thorough nuisance.

Messrs. Editors :—In your issue of Monday morning, I read, with some surprise, the article under the caption of "Banished," as I had seen the teachers of the Boys' High School and both the other gentlemen of the High School Committee within a week, without hearing a word of the matter in question.

All I wish to add is, that if there is any censure or any praise to be in any way connected with the affair, I do not wish to be responsible for the one nor a sharer in the other.

Yours truly, S. M. DEMERITT.

☞ There were 76 men required in Bureau of Construction and Repair, on Monday, consisting of 26 ship carpenters, 8 spar-makers, 7 boat-builders, 7 ship-fasteners, 3 smiths, 25 laborers.

An order has been issued that "Clerks and Writers shall be at their respective places of business during working hours, unless especially excused by the heads of their department, with the approval of the Executive Officer."

Twenty eight workmen were taken on in the Steam Engineering Department.

ADMIRAL PORTER was roughly handled by Generals Banks and Butler during the discussion on the question of restoring Naval Constructor Hanscom, and the worst thing for Porter is that he deserved it.—Boston News.

☞ Steamboat Judge Wheeler blew up and went down, Feb. 12, forty-five miles above Vicksburg. Three men were killed and others wounded. A total loss.

☞ The U. S. House of Representatives has passed the bill giving the owners of the Boston steamship Meteor $200,000.

☞ Eleven of the revenue-resisting mob of Winchester, Tenn., have been arrested by U. S. troops.

Prof. Blackie, editor of the "Southern Son," a temperance magazine printed at Nashville, Tenn., says of Edward Carswell the eloquent temperance orator:—

We have heard him speak several times, and are perfectly charmed with him. The eloquence which he pours in so rapid a torrent from his lips, the exquisite pathos of his domestic scenes, the original word-painting of his descriptive efforts, the irresistible humor of his numerous anecdotes, the endless variety exhibited in his illustrations, and the substratum of good, sound, practical common sense and unanswerable temperance argument, all combined and presented in the person of an actor of no small merit, have surprised and delighted us.

There is something wonderful in his power: at one moment his auditors hang in breathless suspense on his words; they are actually swayed to and fro as he describes the scenes before his mind's eye; now they are convulsed with laughter, and now involuntarily their eyes are filled with tears. This young orator's fervid and burning words, his liveliness and humor fall on us like refreshing showers. His efforts will prove, we trust, of great value to the people. We hope he will be the leader of a great uprising of our citizens in defence of right and in defiance of the grog-shop and the whiskey bottle. None should fail to listen to "Ned Carswell" in his vehement denunciations of wrong, cutting slashes at selfishness and stinging thrusts at indifference. The ladies, especially, will be charmed with him. His mirth and wit give more cheerfulness than any proud philosopher can give. He has that pleasant genius which brings pleasure to the bosom, and sunshine to the face, calls our thoughts into future action, and brightens our affections into generous feeling. We will miss him when he is gone, but preserve his name fresh among our kindest memories. Such men are rare, and their work is a grand one. We hope to have him often back among us, and that thousands of suffering men and women whom his eloquence will arouse, will rise up and call him blessed.

This eloquent exponent of the temperance cause will give three lectures in this city, commencing this [Tuesday] evening at the North Church, Wednesday evening at the Universalist Church. Arrangements will be made for him to speak on Thursday evening, on which occasion it is expected that Hoosac Div. No. 25, of Kensington, and Old Oaken Bucket Div. No. 3, S. of T. of this city, will be present in regalia. SQUIBBS.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—Secretary Robeson, in speaking of the engines of the U. S. S. Tennessee, said to the reporter of the New York World, that all persons cognizant of their merits "agreed that her Chief Engineer (David B. Macomb) was a superior man for the place, and would work the machinery through if it could be worked at all." Those who have sailed with Mr. Macomb testify to the truth of the statement, having seen him in time of danger working with a will in the engine room, knowing just what to do and when to do it, while some of the know-all line officers were running about asking what should be done. And yet the Senate of the United States hesitates to do an act of justice to the class of officers Mr. Macomb represents; men of nerve and brain, who are such because they are self-made. Chief Engineer Macomb is "a superior man for the place," and did not relish the duty to which he was assigned, for the reason that he deemed the Tennessee an unsafe vessel—but whether from defective machinery or construction we are not able to state.

☞ Mr. Ashbury, owner of the English yacht Cambria, is coming over again this year to race with the Yankees.

☞ JOB AND CARD PRINTING is neatly promptly and cheaply done at the Chronicle and Gazette Office; and the patronage of friends in this line is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

COMPLETION

—OF THE—

Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railway.

THE FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

COUPON OR REGISTERED,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

Principal and Interest Payable in Gold,

ON A FINISHED ROAD.

—FOR SALE—

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

The last rail of this important road was laid on the 26th of January, thus completing the enterprise and establishing a connection between St. Paul and St. Louis 90 miles shorter than any existing route and 65 miles shorter than any contemplated route between the same points.

By this line also the distance from Chicago to the great grain fields of Minnesota is shortened 45 miles, and transportation proportionately quickened and cheapened. The First Mortgage Bonds assume therefore at once on the completion of the line a position equal in intrinsic value to those of the Fort Wayne, Pennsylvania Central, Illinois Central or any other First Mortgage Bonds of completed trunk lines—not one of which sell below par.

The B. C. R. & M. Bonds are a First Mortgage, amounting only to $20,000 per mile on a line of road which has cost $40,000 per mile, the balance having been supplied by liberal subscription to the stock at par, made by wealthy farmers and parties interested along the line, and by similar subscriptions on the part of Towns and Counties through which the Road passes, which have adopted this system of giving their aid rather than issuing Town and County Bonds.

The earnings of the Road in its incomplete state, and while deprived entirely of through connection, have been for the past three months in excess of 12 per cent. on the amount of the Mortgage Bonds, after deducting operating expenses. No Road in the United States can show a better record during its inception. When is added to this lucrative way traffic the profits which will arise from the transportation of the vast wheat crop of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, all of which must seek a market over this line, the result cannot but be a showing which will give large Dividends on the Stock of the Company, after paying the interest to the Bond-holders as heretofore. The privilege which attaches to the Bonds of conversion into Stock at par will shortly assume practical value, as by this privilege the Bond-holders will, by the conversion be entitled to share in any excess of earnings which may accrue to the Road.

The Company has made extremely favorable arrangements for freight and passenger traffic with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. These arrangements will add largely to the profits of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road, as well as increasing its traffic receipts. The C. B. & Q. R. R. has further agreed to set aside 50 per cent. of the gross earnings realized from the business with the B. C. R. & M. Co. for investment in the bonds of the latter company.

This arrangement secures a practical consolidation of the two companies, and much the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Company permanently interested in the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road by its running arrangements with and investments in the first mortgage bonds of the latter.

A small amount, $400,000 in all, of the issue yet unsold are still offered at the subscription price of 90 and accrued interest in currency. Although the Company feel warranted in the present condition of their affairs in advancing the price of bonds, yet they have concluded to continue for the present the subscription at the same price as heretofore, in order to facilitate rapid sales and thus free themselves immediately from all floating indebtedness.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $30,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold, the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mda3mwfeb8

Morning Chronicle.

Address of the REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE.

The voters of New Hampshire will soon be called upon to again render their verdict at the ballot box, whether they will by a majority of their votes sustain the Republican party, which has held the power in this State since 1855, and has controlled the National Government since 1860; or whether they will let the State pass into the hands and under the control of those men who did all their power to encourage the rebel leaders in the late rebellion, and by their persistent opposition to the Government prolong the struggle, and thereby increase the national debt—and far worse than that, cause tens of thousands of our brave and patriotic citizens to perish upon the battle field.

The Republican party of the country has a glorious record, and the Republican party of New Hampshire has its full share in the great work that has been accomplished. In view of the approaching election, the Republican State Committee, with the fullest confidence in the success of our ticket, call once more upon the officers of the clubs organized in the towns, and wards of our cities, to prepare themselves for the work of the approaching campaign. They also call upon every republican in the State to interest himself, as in times past, to bring out a full vote, for whenever this has been done we have never failed to achieve a decisive victory over our political opponents. Our conventions have now been held, and we again go before the people of the State, with our candidates, and platform of principles clearly enunciated, and ask their suffrages.

In one of the largest, most intelligent and harmonious conventions ever held in the State, Hon. James Pike was elected as our standard bearer. He is a gentleman well known to the people, and commands the highest respect among all classes. He is a gentleman of broad and liberal views upon questions of public policy, and possesses those qualities which make a successful executive officer. When the life of the nation was threatened by the slaveholders' rebellion, he entered the military service and performed well his part to conquer the enemies of the Constitution and the Government, and re-establish the Republic on a surer, safer, and more enduring foundation.

The Democratic party, as they style themselves, with their soft solder candidates, and a platform of principles pledged to oppose every measure which the Republican party advocates, goes before the people and asks to be sustained. They have adopted a new line of policy, by selecting men who talk republican with republicans, democracy with democrats, and endeavor to ride two horses at the same time, but on election day they are sure to vote a copperhead ticket.

We feel confident that the intelligent republican voters of the State, who have watched the tricks of the democracy so long, will not be caught by any such method of the enemy to get into power. Under whatever guise the Democracy of New-Hampshire presents itself, be assured that it is the same party with the same principles that we have met so often, and so signally defeated.

This election, the first in 1871, is one of great importance, and the result will be awaited with great interest and anxiety by every loyal man in the country.—The question is whether we shall support our patroitic Administration and our Congress, or whether we shall repudiate their acts and their efforts to properly reconstruct the States lately in rebellion, and re-establish the Constitution firmly and enduringly over every inch of American soil. The course to be taken is simple and plain, and we are fully satisfied our voters, with their patriotism and intelligence, will again give their verdict in an overwhelming majority in favor of the Government, and against the party which has been a constantly with the leaders of the rebellion, and a party to which the same men look for aid and encouragement to-day.

We again say, let no effort be spared in this campaign. The enemy are quietly at work, and rely for success on the apathy of the Republican party. Let there be no apathy in our ranks, but let every man feel the responsibility that rests upon him, and go into the contest with a will and a determination to succeed, and on the 14th of March you can again throw your victorious banners of twenty-one continuous victories to the breeze.

E. H. ROLLINS, Chairman.
B. F. PRESCOTT, Secretary.
CONCORD, N. H., February 1, 1871.

—Few persons have any idea with what the Erie, which went over with a cargo of arms for France, is coming back. Part of her cargo consists of a large consignment of rare animals, including a splendid giraffe, large rhinoceros, two of the finest lions ever shipped, zebras, yaks, ponies and a variety of other animals, with an Egyptian mummy and other curiosities for the new menagerie, museum and circus which Mr. P. T. Barnum intends starting on the road early in April, to travel through the United States.

—The Mobile Register is indulging in a post mortem game of Confederate strategy. It believes that the South lost its confederate life and independence through its refusal to put the negroes in the field as soldiers, and, in its judgment, had Davis, instead of Lincoln, fulminated the emancipation proclamation, the war of secession would have triumphed.

—The reported marriage of Rev. S. W. Coggeswell to a convict in the Illinois State Prison is false. The report originally appeared in the Columbus (Wis.) Democrat, where it was printed in the nature of a joke. Such jokes are rather dismal.

BRIGGS & BRO'S
Illustrated and Descriptive Catalogue
OF FLOWER & VEGETABLE SEEDS,
AND SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS.
FOR 1871.

Will be ready for mailing by the middle of January, notwithstanding our great loss of type, paper, engravings, &c., by fire, which destroyed the Job Printing office of the Rochester Democrat Chronicle, 25th December, 1870. It will be printed on a most elegant new tinted paper, and illustrated with nearly

Five Hundred Original Engravings,

And two finely executed Colored Plates—specimens of which we were proud to exhibit at the past season from our own stock of Seeds. In the originality, execution and extent of the engravings it unlike and eminently superior to any other Catalogue or "Floral Guide" extant.

The Catalogue will consist of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered Seeds of the present or the last season. To others a charge of 15 cents per copy will be made, which is not the value of the Colored Plates. We address our friends that the inducements we offer to purchasers of Seeds, as to quality and extent of Stock, Discounts and Premiums are unsurpassed. Please send orders for Catalogues without delay.

Our Colored Chromo for 1871

Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers of natural size and color. We design to make it the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 18x24 inches. The retail value would be from $1 to $2. We shall, however, furnish it to customers at 75 cents per copy, and offer it as a Premium upon orders for Seeds. See catalogue when out.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR DISEASES OF THE THROAT and LUNGS, such as COUGHS, COLDS, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men, it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, and has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most efficacious remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most distinct traces of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral, they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it,

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

For a Cough and Cold, no better remedy can be had. Take small doses of it often, and put the feet in warm water at night, until the disease is broken up.

For Hoarseness, when it affects the throat or lungs, take the same course.

For Whooping Cough, give small doses three or four times a day.

For Croup, give large and frequent doses until the disease is overcome.

No family should be without the Cherry Pectoral on hand to protect them, in case of attack, from the above complaints. Its timely use often spares the patient a great amount of suffering and risk, which he would undergo if he waited until he could get other aid. Parents, keep it in your houses for the exigencies that arise. Lives dear to you may be saved by it.

So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that the best qualities it ever possessed are strictly maintained.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF
HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.

To insure or not to insure? That is the question. Whether 'twill be nobler in my family to suffer
The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune
Or take a policy against those dangers,
And, by insuring, end them? To iret, to fear,
No more; and by a policy to end
The heartache and the thousand natural shocks
That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application 's
Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure,
And pay the premium: ay—there's the rub
For in that time what premiums may come
Before I shuffle off this mortal coil
Does make me pause, tightens my purse,
And makes me rather pay the bills I have
Than fly to others I know not of?
Thus does meanness make brutes of us all.

WHY HE MARRIED.

"And don't you know when you will pass through this part of the country again, Mr. Verley?"

"No I don't," said the old bachelor, decidedly.

He was something of a bear to answer so crustily when Barbara Spith stood in the doorway, with the shadowy lashes drooping over the soft brown eyes, and the roses melting into deep carmine on her rosy cheeks, until her muslin dress was plain in comparison. Such a pretty, big-eyed, loving little Barbara as she was, in all the blonde freshness of her eighteen summers, and the soft sigh that fluttered from her lips as the one-horse carriage drove away, was checked instantly. Barbara had no idea of becoming a victim to unrequitted love, though she had rather fancied Mr. Verley during his brief sojourn at her father's house.

Mr. Verley drove away through the rustling green draperies of the summer lanes, whistling sadly as he drove.

"I shall be in very good time for the 12:30 train," he meditated to himself. "Punctuality is the soul of business, and I never was one of the behind-hand tribe, thank Providence. Besides, I think it was becoming dangerous to remain in that place any longer. I am thirty-nine to-morrow, and that is just twenty years too old for me to go making a fool of myself. Fancy me getting married! No you don't, Joseph Verley, my friend."

As he settled himself comfortably in the crowded railroad car, and opened a letter, the subject again occurred to his mind with curious persistence.

"The letter of my poor brother's executor came just in time, or I should certainly have fooled away more time than would have been sensible or profitable. Poor dear Harold; I don't see what on earth possessed him to fall sick and die on his way home from Venice and leave his daughter on my hands too. Why could he not have left a son instead of a daughter? I never did understand a woman's ways, and what's more I don't want too. I am to meet her at Speedville, and take her home with me. O!" groaned Mr. Verley, referring despairingly to his letter. "And what I'm going to do with her when I get there I'd like to know! I suppose she's a great creature, with ringlets and ribbons, and just as likely as not an Italian lover talking sentiment to her — a creature that reads Byron, and keeps an album, and eats slate-pencils and chalk. I'll send her to a boarding-school, that's what I'll do with my niece—and perhaps when she has graduated there the schoolmaster can suggest some means of getting rid of her. Of course she'll have a dozen large trunks, and a bonnet box and a parrot's cage—that's the way women generally travel, I believe. I am glad I am out of the way of Barbara's fascinations now."

Mr. Verley looked out of the car window, in a sort of calm desperation at the prospect before him.

"I suppose she'll want a piano, and maybe a poodle dog and there's no knowing what else. I don't see why Harold wanted to die and leave his daughter to my care just now. Speedville station—twenty-seven miles further. I wish it was twenty-seven hundred miles—that's what I wish."

And with this vindictive sentiment in his mind, our hero tied a red silk handkerchief over his head, and tried to lose himself in a series of brief, troubled dreams, wherein the vision of a tall, nice young lady figured conspicuously.

"Are we here already?" he stammered, starting to his feet, as the conductor bawled out "Speedville Station," and seizing umbrella, valises and travelling shawl, with the bustling bewilderment peculiar to people just aroused from sleep, he alighted.

Speedville was rather a large-sized village, situated at the junction of several railways, with an imposing American Gothic structure for a depot. Into this building Mr. Verley walked, looking right and left for the young lady whose guardianship he was to assume.

"Of course," he responded mentally, "she'll be on the lookout for me; women are proverbially curious."

But Harold Verley's daughter was not on the lookout for her uncle. When the crowd incident to the evening train had subsided and the people had gone their different ways, the only remaining occupants of the depot were Mr. Verley, a lame old man who sold peanuts and apples, and a decent looking colored woman, with a bright Madras turban on her head, who took care of the building. Neither of these could be his niece, so Mr. Verley, after a little perplexed hesitation, addressed himself to the colored woman, who was busily polishing the window with a piece of crumbled newspaper.

"Ahem! I was to meet my niece here to-day, and I don't see her."

"Your niece, sir? what is her name?"

"Verley."

"O! yes sir; she has been here these two hours, bless her dear heart; she is asleep now."

"Asleep!" gasped Mr. Verley; but the stewardess only answered him by bustling into the inner apartment and bringing out what appeared to be a compact bundle, with a pink face at

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND FLUID

Extract Catawba

GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, Etc. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

Will radically exterminate from the System Scrofula, Syphilis, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

BEING PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE ABOVE COMPLAINTS, ITS BLOOD-PURIFYING PROPERTIES ARE GREATER THAN ANY OTHER PREPARATION OF SARSAPARILLA. IT GIVES THE COMPLEXION A CLEAR AND HEALTHY COLOR AND RESTORES THE PATIENT TO A STATE OF HEALTH AND PURITY, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, AND REMOVING ALL CHRONIC CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD; AND THE ONLY RELIABLE AND EFFECTUAL KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PAINS AND SWELLINGS OF THE BONES, ULCERATIONS OF THE THROAT AND LEGS, BLOTCHES, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ERYSIPELAS AND ALL SCALY ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

CONCENTRATED

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

LADIES.

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 15, 1871.

THE WAR.

Favre, for himself and in the name of his colleagues at Bordeaux and Paris, has resigned the powers confided in them as the government of national defence. He stated that the ministers would remain in office to maintain order until the construction of the new government.

The Prussian Cross Gazette judges from the result of the elections that a resumption of the war is not to be expected, and thinks there is scarcely a doubt that the armistice will be prolonged.

A grand triumphal march of the German troops through Paris has been arranged, to come off as soon as the articles of peace are ratified.

Heavy contributions have been imposed on French cities by the Germans.

At the preparatory sitting of the French national assembly about three hundred deputies were present. The session was formally opened and secretaries were appointed. Delegates are constantly arriving. Garibaldi declines a seat but Changarnier and Prince de Joinville accept.

Correspondence.

NORTH HAMPTON, Feb. 13.

Messrs. Editors: Last week a Scotchman named William Wernall, while splitting wood for Mr. Simon H. Leavitt, was hit in one of his eyes by a helm-lock knot, which destroyed it by letting out the aqueous humor. Being an industrious and worthy man, though poor, the immediate wants of himself and family have been abundantly supplied by citizens generally, by subscription and otherwise.

The big scare about the cattle disease is about over, as no real case in Rockingham county has been reported, and but one this side of the Merrimac River—that of Mr. Morrill's in Salisbury—and these were but slightly affected. Several instances in this town where cattle have got choked or were suffering from injury, (which is likely to happen in every farmer's stock,) were reported by the wiseacres as real cases of the much dreaded hoof-and-mouth disease—and it was said that horses and people would contract it. Who ever heard of a man having the hoof disease? Such stories were spread for miles around in this and neighboring towns, in a very short time; but much longer time was necessary to convince the public that it was a big scare, and it proves true the old adage "That falsehood will go a league while truth is putting on his boots." There seems to be in every community one or more persons hanging around depots and other public places, who have a morbid appetite for the marvelous and who persist in circulating stories after knowing them to be false. For such we would suggest the perusal to satiety of Gulliver's Travels or the Arabian Nights.

Rev. Mr. DeNormandie of your city delivered a lecture in this place on Monday evening. Subject, The Sea. There was a good attendance and the audience were highly interested. The next of the course will be delivered next Wednesday evening, by Rev. Mr. Adams of the same place; Subject, "Intemperance."

The concert given last week in Strafham by the Choral Society was a highly successful affair, after which the chorus and their friends, numbering a hundred or more, met in Jackson Hall and partook of a sumptuous repast, gotten up by the Stratham members and their friends for the occasion. An hour or more was occupied in discussing the merits of the bivalves and niceties, of which there was a great abundance and variety. Mutual good feeling prevailed and the occasion will long be pleasantly remembered. The society have been very fortunate in having so excellent a leader and singer as Mr. J. W. Rollins. Miss Fannie Lane, at the rehearsals and concerts, has acted as organist very acceptably. Mr. Albert Rollins is well and widely known as a tenor of great power. Miss Nellie French is pronounced by good judges to be a superior treble soloist. These with the Chorus form a band which has had good success whenever they have sung. This society will give their final concert at Rye Meeting house, Tuesday evening, Feb. 21st, commencing at 7 1-2 o'clock. Admission 25 cents; if the weather is unfavorable, first fair evening.

☞ The U. S. S. Worcester, at Boston, is now ready to receive a cargo of food for France. The Worcester is one of the fastest vessel in the navy, is a second-rate screw of 2000 tons, and carries six guns. Her officers are not yet appointed.

BEER A TEMPERANCE AGENT.—The Boston Daily News of Saturday has a report of a hearing on the liquor law question, before a joint special committee of the Massachusetts Legislature, which is decidedly amusing. I clip a paragraph from the argument of one of the free-beer men.

Hon. E. W. Morton, claiming to represent the brewers of Boston, went into the ancient history of malt liquors and their manufacture, and claimed for them that they were useful as a substitute for stronger drinks, and cited England, which he said is 'a beer-drinking country,' and if it was not so, it would be a rum-drinking country. He claimed this as a standing rule, and said that for this alone the sale and manufacture is a great public benefit, as an instrument in the Temperance work. He also presented statistics from an experienced brewer concerning the health-giving properties of malt liquors, and the entire absence of the intoxicating element in them.

To a man who has lived in a "beer-drinking country," and an English beer-drinking country at that, Mr. Morton's claim that the beer traffic diminishes the rum trade is almost as amusingly absurd as the "experienced brewer's" statements of the "health-giving properties of malt liquors and the entire absence of the intoxicating element in them" are to men who have long indulged in their use. I have lived in an English "beer-drinking country," and notwithstanding the cheapness and excellence (?) of the malt liquors and the immense quantities consumed, the amount of spirits used was far greater than in any American anti-beer country of similar population that I have ever seen; and the statistics of Great Britain show that a far larger quantity of spirits is consumed per capita of the population, than is used in America.

The most eminent English surgeons disagree with the Boston brewer's opinion as to the health-giving properties of beer — the surgeons asserting (and proving from indisputable statistics of mortality in hospitals, &c.,) that a constant beer-drinker is the most hopeless of all patients to work on when sick, and that a wound which would scarcely cause a moment's uneasiness to a really healthy man will often cause death to an apparently powerful beer-drinker. I had a beer-drinking mate once, myself, and he was laid up for over five months with a scratch by a bit of zinc on the palm of his hand—a scratch so slight that no blood flowed, and only a red mark was visible. Dr. Jones, former surgeon in the Royal Navy and for years a visiting surgeon of Guy's Hospital in London, who attended my unlucky mate, assured me that "beer" was the sole trouble; and that accidents which a temperate man could laugh at were very frequently fatal to beerists. [Dr. Jones did not drink beer, but he did drink spirits; and two years later I assisted to take him to a public hospital, where he died with the rum horrors.]

That beer does not intoxicate is no new theory. I heard the same thing said twenty years ago, in presence of a dignified and highly respected gentleman, who instantly denied it, adding, to the astonishment of his auditors, "I know, for I have been drunk on beer—and nothing but beer—myself." Since that day I have seen hundreds of men drunk—stupid drunk, fighting drunk and crying drunk—on beer alone; and in spite of the Boston brewer's statements I must still regard beer as intoxicating.

But the Church (in this legislative committee hearing) goes much further than the Brewery in defence of beer; the latter only says that beer is a temperance agent; the former virtually argues that drunkenness is right—at least, I can make nothing else of the following:—

Rev. J. C. Lovejoy of Cambridge said that nineteen years ago all the clergymen in the State (Mass.) were asked to preach a sermon upon a prohibitory law, and "nineteen years ago this very month I preached a sermon upon this; 'Moreover the law entered that sin might abound,' and this is confirmed in this law, for the devil is in it and will remain in it until Prohibitory law is done away with. Prohibitory laws are unjust and an exertion of sin. All the vigorous nations of the earth use liquors and will continue to do so. The men of the armies of triumphant Germany are filled with lager beer, and every Roman soldier has his pint of wine..

If the Germans triumphed because they were filled with lager beer, why didn't the French triumph because they were filled with wine? and why didn't the Parisians, filled with powerful and able-bodied brandy, destroy the German besiegers, who were filled only with swashy beer? The gentleman's whole argument reads as if it was inspired by non-intoxicating beer, and seems rather muddled; but his assertion that "prohibitory laws are unjust and an exertion of sin" is plain enough. I feel glad indeed to learn this new lesson in political economy, having always regarded the prohibitory laws against any crime as being just and an exertion of the right. But what a great pity it is that The Author of the Decalogue could not have had the benefit of the Rev. Lovejoy's instructions before promulgating that stern prohibitory code; how much better these laws would have been had they read, "Please do not commit murder too frequently," instead of "Thou shalt not kill;" or, "It may be considered not right to steal, in some communities," instead of "Thou shalt not steal;" or "Respectable people should not lie about each other," instead of "Thou shalt not bear false witness."

I do admire consistent, free-rum Christians.

A long debate was had on the question of admitting Dr. Miller, Senator elect from Georgia, but the resolution was finally passed.

Brevities.

Garnier beat Cyrille Dion twice at billiards in New York, on Saturday night—first, 100 to 28, second, 500 to 369.

Forty-seven car-loads of silver ore from the Emma mine, Utah, reached New York on Friday, Feb. 10.

An immensely rich silver mine has been discovered in the Bradshaw district, Arizona, near Prescott.

The Havana Diario says that the damages caused by the Cuban revolution will amount to over $200,000,000.

Peter Cooper has given the trustees of Cooper Institute $100,000 for the establishment of a reference library, and promises $50,000 more for a mechanics' reading-library.

The entire press of California is calling loudly on the government for protection for the people of Arizona against the Apaches.

THE TENNESSEE.—Capt. Drummond, of barque W. E. Anderson, reports, seeing an unknown man-of-war on the 8th. She was steering directly south. This was about 100 miles from Cape Hatteras. There was a perfect gale blowing. The Anderson shipped a great deal of water all that night, and labored very heavily. If the man-of-war got through the storm all right she would certainly have put in at Jamaica in four days, and reported from that place. The wind was N. N. E. and the sea heavy. A dispatch dated Havana, 13th, says no news of the Tennessee had been heard there or at Santiago de Cuba.

☞ Capt. Peabody, of the New York and Liverpool Black Ball Line packet ship Neptune, who has already been before the public for savage brutality to his seamen, has arrived in New York once more with a number of his crew in a dying condition from inhumanity and neglect. "If the devil don't get that fellow we might as well not have any devil."

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE OLD CLUMSY FRENCH SCREW, and the expensive Hand Screw, which have each done good work in introducing screw-fastened boots and shoes to public notice, are being rapidly superseded by the CABLE SCREW WIRE goods. These comfortable, economical and durable goods are for sale by leading dealers in all parts of the country.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Hazards of Winter.

The feeble and delicate dread the winter, and with good reason. The weather at this season has a depressing effect upon the vital organs and the animal spirits, and they have no vitality or mental animation to spare. The aged and infirm, in whom the flame of life is waxing dim, are always unpleasantly affected by the temperature of winter, and should fortify their systems against it. The extra vigor and resistant power which the enfeebled system requires to enable it to meet with safety the assaults of cold and damp, may soon be acquired by the regular use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The tonic effect of this wonderful medicine is soon apparent, in an increased appetite, a more active digestion and a brighter, happier frame of mind. Food is the fuel of the body, and if it is not properly digested the fires of life burn low. When this is the case, the disability can always be remedied within a short space of time, by taking a full dose of the Bitters twice a day. The stomach will soon begin to perform its allotted task regularly and steadily; the food, being thoroughly assimilated, will yield the amount of vital heat and nourishment which the body requires under the external pressure of cold, and the winter ailments which are apt to assail the weak and untoned physique will be avoided.

BULLETS FOR EUROPE.

Lead is wanted in Europe. Send over the millions of bottles of new fangled hair colorers that "remain over" and can't be sold here. They are pretty much all lead, and will never be wanted in this country, because all sane people who desire to restore the tinge of youth to their gray or grizzled locks use

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The lead-saturated and sulphur saturated nostrums have gone down, down, down, where they belong; while the EXCELSIOR DYE has gone up with a rapidity that takes to the utmost the facilities for manufacturing it. It is to-day the

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Mr. Carswell will speak this (Wednesday) evening at 7 1-2 o'clock, in the Universalist Church. SQUIBBS.

☞ In consequence of the severe snow storm of Sunday, the lecture of Gen. Chamberlain before the Lyceum in Kittery was postponed to Monday evening, Feb. 20. We learn that quite a large delegation of ladies and gentlemen from this city had made arrangements to attend this entertainment; and for their information we would state that tickets for next Monday evening may be obtained at Preston's. If the weather is propitious and the sleighing good there will be a large number of our citizens present to hear this eloquent lecturer discourse upon the subject of the "Surrender of Lee."

THE WHITE ROVER BENEFIT READING at the Temple, by Jas P. Bartlett, Esq., is to be given to-morrow (Thursday) evening, when Sheridan's glorious comedy, "The Rivals," will be presented. The piece is one of those standard productions of genius which bear re-reading scores of times, each successive reading yielding greater pleasure than the last, and Mr. Bartlett's powers in the dramatic rendering of high comedy are too well known and appreciated by our citizens to need our commendation. But setting aside the fact that an entertainment of a high order is to be offered, the object of the affair entitles it to the enthusiastic support of all. There will be no expenses to deduct from the gross receipts, (all concerned generously "giving their services gratis and finding themselves,") which will go to swell the already considerable sum now held in trust by Mr. Bartlett, to be applied to the benefit of the sufferers by the White Rover disaster. Persons who wish to contribute a dollar or two to the good cause can purchase as many tickets as they please, even if they use but one—the money will be well applied to a worthy end. Tickets are for sale at the usual places, at 50 cts. each; but any larger sums will be accepted, and duly credited where good deeds are recorded.

—In-fancy free—lost children.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—We refer to the advertisements of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Co., in another column. When it is known that the responsible bankers, Messrs. Jay Cooke & Co., are the general agents for their sale, that fact of itself would seem to confer the soundness of any investment that may be made in the bonds of the first class company. Money invested in these bonds is not only secured by a first mortgage on the road bed, equipments and franchises, but on the large and magnificent tracts of land granted to the road by the government. The grant exceeds 50,000,000 acres. This estate is larger by 10,000 square miles than the six New England States. There is room in it for ten states as large as Massachusetts, and the grant is nearly seven times as large as Belgium, and more than three and a half times as large as Holland. The soil is excellent and the climate salubrious. The bonds are at all times convertible, at ten per cent. premium, into the lands of the company, at lowest cost prices. Six million dollars, which has been subscribed, is now being used in completing the road from Duluth, 250 miles, to the western border of Minnesota. The rich treasures of Puget Sound are to be tapped, and her productions of soil and forest and bay, are to be brought to a ready market. We refer to the agents in this city for further information concerning the security offered by these bonds.

☞ A private letter received from Washington says of the Senate bill ranking officers of the navy:—"the staff say they will defeat the bill (some of them say so); the better part are satisfied. They give them all the rights they ask—equal with—but do not call them 'line officers.' The bill may be amended by the Senate."

The bill is particularly objectionable to the staff officers at this naval station, and have not yet seen one staff officer who is willing to accept the ignominious terms it offers. The staff officers prefer, rather to remain as they are, until they can obtain justice at the hands of the U. S. Senate. The House reflected the will of the people, clearly, and we are not without hope that the Senate will vote down the amendments of its Naval Committee and adopt the bill as it pssed the House.

☞ The Charlestown Advertiser proposes a monument of brass for Congressman Lynch, because of his endeavors to abolish the Navy Yard at that place. He deserves it for other reasons.

Hon. Ben. Disraeli has denounced Grant and Sumner in the British House of Commons, "for their hostile attitude to the British Government." Ben. was rather "hostile" to our Government during the rebellion, and hates a "liberal" most vigorously.

—Indianapolis owes half a million.

☞ Old newspapers for sale at this Office.

☞ JOB AND CARD PRINTING is neatly promptly and cheaply done at the Chronicle and Gazette Office; and the patronage of friends in this line is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

☞ THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE for this week, is now ready for delivery, at the Chronicle Office. Each number contains all the reading matter of the week's Dailies. Price $2 a year; single copies 5 cents,—in wrappers for mailing, if desired. Six copies for $10 per year, to Clubs—per mail or city carrier.

COMPLETION
—OF THE—
Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railway.
THE FIRST MORTGAGE
7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,
COUPON OR REGISTERED,
FREE OF U. S. TAX,
Principal and Interest Payable in Gold,
ON A FINISHED ROAD.
—FOR SALE—
At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

The last rail of this important road was laid on the 26th of January, thus completing the enterprise and establishing a connection between St. Paul and St. Louis 90 miles shorter than any existing route and 65 miles shorter than any contemplated route between the same points.

By this line also the distance from Chicago to the great grain fields of Minnesota is shortened 45 miles, and transportation proportionately quickened and cheapened. The First Mortgage Bonds assume therefore at once on the completion of the line a position equal in intrinsic value to those of the Fort Wayne, Pennsylvania Central, Illinois Central or any other First Mortgage Bonds of completed trunk lines—not one of which sell below par.

The B. C. R. & M. Bonds are a First Mortgage, amounting only to $20,000 per mile on a line of road which has cost $40,000 per mile, the balance having been supplied by liberal subscription to the stock at par, made by wealthy farmers and parties interested along the line, and by similar subscriptions on the part of Towns and Counties through which the road passes, which have adopted this system of giving their aid rather than issuing Town and County Bonds.

The earnings of the Road in its incomplete state, and while deprived entirely of its through connection, have been for the past three months in excess of 12 per cent. on the amount of the Mortgage Bonds, after deducting operating expenses. No Road in the United States can show a better record during its inception. When is added to this lucrative way traffic the profits which will arise from the transportation of the vast wheat crop of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, all of which must seek a market over this line, the result cannot but be a showing which will give large Dividends on the Stock of the Company, after paying the interest to the Bond-holders as heretofore. The privilege which attaches to the Bonds of conversion into Stock at par will shortly assume practical value, as by this privilege the Bond-holders will, by the conversion be entitled to share in any excess of earnings which may accrue to the Road.

The Company has made extremely favorable arrangements for freight and passenger traffic with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. These arrangements will add largely to the profits of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road, as well as increasing its traffic receipts. The C. B. & Q. R. R. has further agreed to set aside 50 per cent. of the gross earnings realized from the business with the B. C. R. & M. Co. for investment in the bonds of the latter company.

This arrangement secures a practical consolidation of the two companies, and makes the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Company permanently interested in the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road by its running arrangements with and investments in the first mortgage bonds of the latter.

A small amount, $400,000 in all, of the issue yet unsold are still offered at the subscription price of 90 and accrued interest in currency. Although the Company feel warranted in the present condition of their affairs in advancing the price of bonds, yet they have concluded to continue for the present the subscription at the same price as heretofore, in order to effect rapid sales and thus free themselves immediately from all floating indebtedness.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges.

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.
THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO
OF IOWA,
have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about
180 MILES OF RAILROAD,
which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open
The First Through Line Across the State
from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give
DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.
This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The
First Mortgage
7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,
which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.
The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.
Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.
Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowa at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

	Difference in Exchange.	Incr'd annual int.
6's, '81, Coupon,	$232.50	3.36 per cent. gold

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.
SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!
JAY COOKE & CO.,
Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS
—OF THE—
Northern Pacific Railroad Co.
These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all its equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.
Two Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold.
The Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.
They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.
The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.
These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.16,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.
In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.
HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.
Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. sodtlmda3mwfa56

Morning Chronicle.

Concluded from first page.

one end of it, and a mass of long trailing embroideries at the other.

Joseph Verley recoiled as far as the angle of the wall would permit him.

"Why—it's a baby?"

"To be sure it is, sir," said the woman "and as fine a little girl as ever I saw; bless her sweet blue eyes."

"But isn't there a nurse or some such person here, who would take charge of her?"

"There was a nurse brought her on, sir, a queer foreign-looking thing, with a yellow skin and hair as black as night, and gold hoops in her ears; but she talked something about the next steamer—I couldn't understand her lingo, sir—and went right back to New York on the two o'clock train."

Joseph Verley stood aghast, staring at the rosy baby as it lay crowing in the woman's arms, and wondering which of his lucky stars he should call on to aid him in this unlooked-for emergency. A full-grown young lady niece would have been bad enough—but a baby!

"So this is my niece," he muttered. "And what am I going to do with her?"

He turned suddenly to the woman. "What time does the next train for Winfield leave?"

"In an hour, sir."

"Would you be kind enough to take care of the child till then? I suppose I must take it home with me; for I can't very well drown it, or throw it under the car wheels."

"Sir," ejaculated the astonished sewer-dress.

But Mr. Verley turned on his heels and strode out of the depot, scarcely able at first to comprehend the disaster that had befallen him.

The train was at the depot when he returned, and the woman awaited him with the sleeping infant in her arms.

"Asleep, eh?" commented Mr. Verley. "Well that's lucky."

"Where's the nurse, sir?" inquired the woman.

"The nurse? What nurse?"

"Why, I suppose you want to get a nurse?"

"Never once thought of it!" ejaculated Joseph madly smiting his forehead. "Here—give the thing to me quick, the train is moving."

He had hardly time to spring on board, as the locomotive gave a unearthly shriek, while the baby followed suit in both respects.

He staggered to his seat, holding the umbrella and the child in one hand, while in the other his valise swung backward and forward.

"There! there bless its little heart!" he exclaimed, imitating the colored woman. "We won't cry—so we won't."

But the baby evidently had an opinion of her own on the subject, and would cry in spite of the various blandishments practiced by the bewildered uncle—such as shaking the umbrella handle, swinging his watch, and trotting both knees.

People began to look around, reproachfully; young men shrugged their shoulders and young ladies giggled.

"Hush! hush! there's a darling!" whispered Mr. Verley.

But still the baby wept and wailed, and gnashed its gums, for of teeth it had but two. Mr. Verley began to look round in the car in search of some matronly dame of whom he could seek counsel, but in vain. There were only three ladies in the car, and they were young, with round hats and dimpled cheeks.

"They don't know any thing about it," groaned Mr. Verley, in anguish of spirit. "Oh! why didn't I have common sense enough to go and get a nurse? I suppose there is no danger of a baby bursting its lungs; but I should think if there was such a contingency, this baby was in a fair way of meeting it. Well, roar away, my young friend; I can stand it as long as you can."

Vain boast, as futile as vain, as Mr. Verley very soon discovered. The baby not only cried, but it screamed, it kicked, it doubled itself over in more ways than a contortionist's wildest dreams could imagine, and became apparently frantic with passion. The perspiration broke out in huge beads on Joseph's brow; his face flushed, and still the cars thundered on.

"What's to become of me?" he pondered, holding desperately on to the struggling infant by the sash that encircled its little waist, and watching its purple face with a species of detestation. "I don't wonder Harold died. I shall die in a week if this thing goes on. And it seems so easy for Barbara Smith to take care of her little brothers and sisters. If Barbara was here—"

And Verley pulled the baby up into a sitting posture with a sudden jerk.

"I'll do it," quoth Mr. Verley. "I'll take the back express at four in the morning and go straight there. Ah, you may stop crying, you little hypocrite; but it won't do any good; I'm not to be caught twice in the same trap."

Barbara Smith was watering her tube roses in the bright morning sunshine, when he arrived with the valise and baby.

"Dear me, Mr. Verley," she ejaculated, blushing celestial rosy red. "Why, what a sweet baby."

"Yes, very sweet," he responded dryly.

"If is my niece that I was to meet at Speedville."

"Why, I thought that she was a young lady?"

"So did I; but it seems she's not. Barbara, what do you suppose brought me back?" he added, speaking very fast for fear the baby would cry.

"I don't know," faltered Barbara, crimsoning still more. "Perhaps you forget something."

"Yes, I did."

"What was it?" said Barbara, a little disappointed.

"I forgot to ask you if you would marry me!"

"Dear me! was that all?" said the young lady demurely.

"Isn't that enough? Say, Barbara, will you?"

"I'll think of it," answered Barbara, evasively.

"No, but tell me now. Quick—the baby's waking up."

"Well then—yes."

Barbara had taken the little thing in her arms, and disappeared before it had time to utter its waking yell.

A week afterward Mr. Joseph Verley took the 12:30 return train with his wife and niece, the happiest of reclaimed old bachelors, and it was all the unconscious baby's work.

FLOWER SEEDS, ETC.—ELNEWBURY, Seedsman and Florist, Brooklyn, Conn., Importer and Dealer in Fine Vegetable Seeds, Plants, Bulbs, Bulbous Roots, etc. Catalogues ready January. Free Brooklyn, Conn., 1871.

BRIGGS & BRO'S
Illustrated and Descriptive Catalogue
OF FLOWER & VEGETABLE SEEDS,
AND SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS,
FOR 1871.

Will be ready for mailing by the middle of January, notwithstanding our great loss of type, paper, engravings, &c., by fire, which destroyed the Job Printing office of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, 25th December, 1870. It will be printed on a most elegant new tinted paper, and illustrated with nearly

Five Hundred Original Engravings,

And two finely executed Colored Plates—specimens for all of which were given by ourselves the past season into the hands of the Public. In the originality, execution and extent of the engravings it is unlike and eminently superior to any other Catalogue or "Floral Guide" extant.

The Catalogue will consist of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered seeds from us by mail the last season. To others a charge of 15 cents per copy will be made, which is not the value of the Colored Plates. We assure our friends that the inducements we offer to purchasers of Seeds, as to quality and extent of Stock, Discounts and Premiums are unsurpassed. Please send orders for Catalogues without delay.

Our Colored Chromo for 1871

Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent Forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers of natural size and color. We design to make it the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 18x24 inches. The retail value would be at least Two Dollars! we shall, however, furnish it to customers at 75 cents per copy, and offer it as a Premium upon orders for Seeds. See catalogue when out.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
FOR DISEASES OF THE THROAT and LUNGS, such as COUGHS, COLDS, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION.
Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything been so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men, it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.
Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled in the lungs, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the diseases of the lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.
Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.
Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.
Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.
For a Cough in its first stage, a dose should be had. Take small doses three times a day and put the feet in warm water at night, until the disease is broken up.
For Influenza, when it affects the throat or lungs, take the same course.
For Whooping Cough, give small doses three or four times a day.
For Croup, give large and frequent doses until the disease is overcome.
No family should be without the Cherry Pectoral on hand to protect them, in case of attack, from the above complaints. Its timely use often spares the patient a great amount of suffering and risk, which he would incur by waiting until he could get other aid. Parents, keep it in your house for the exigencies that arise. Lives dear to you may be saved by it.
So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish certificates of its cures here, or do more than insure the public that the best qualities it ever possessed are strictly maintained.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF
HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.
To insure or not to insure? That is the question. Whether t'will be nobler for my family to suffer The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune Or take a policy against those dangers, And, by insuring, end them? To fret, to fear, No more; and by a policy to end The heartache and the thousand natural shocks That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application's Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure, And pay the premium: ay—there's the rub For in that time what premiums may come Before I shuffle off this mortal coil Does make me pause, tightens my purse, And makes me rather pay the bills I have Than fly to others I know not of. Thus does meanness make brutes of us all.

The Chronicle.

THE CHENEY TRIAL.—The progress of the Cheney trial [that of Rev. E. C. Cheney of the Episcopal Church, for alleged irregularities in administering church ordinances, at Chicago,] has brought out sundry odd things; at least they so seemed to those who sat, as we did, among the spectators. One was the uniformity with which the objections offered by the lawyers for the defense were overruled by the four clergymen, who constituted the court, and the invariability with which those offered by the prosecutors were sustained! The decision could always be anticipated! Another was, the continual citation, as binding authority, by the prosecution, of legal writers on the subject of courts martial; as though that was the style of tribunal in the Episcopal church! Perhaps the lawyers mistook "the church militant" for the military church, especially as the Episcopalians have so long had almost a monopoly of army and navy chaplaincies! Then, again, there was a curious time in the law, when the four clergymen decided law points; and about as curious a time in the theology, when the four lawyers discussed the doctrines! One half of the judicial arrangements poorly fitted the other half! But the most amusing incident was, when Rev. Dr. Sullivan, in testifying to his knowledge of instances in which clergymen had made omissions in the prescribed formularies, was asked, "Whether he had ever known of such omissions being made in the office of infant baptism?" "No," said he, "but I knew one clergyman who, when he came to the word 'regenerated' in that office, was taken with a violent fit of coughing, which lasted till he got by that expression!"—Chicago Advance.

The court may have been amusingly conducted for the lookers-on; but it seems to us that if Mr. Cheney could not conscientiously comply with the established rules of his church, it was his duty to have left it, and not to have still claimed to be an Episcopal clergyman while refusing to recognize the authority of the Episcopal Church.

[N. B. We are not Episcopalians.]

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.
A DRESSING which is at once agreeable, healthy, and economical for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color with the glossy freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.
Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.
It wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
No. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Research made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of invention, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART."

THURSDAY, FEB. 16, 1871.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, Feb. 14, the Gulf steamship subsidy bill was taken up in committee of the whole and finally passed, considerably amended.

A bill was introduced opening to competition nominations to the naval and military academies,—and it should pass, whether it does or not.

In the House the report of the West Point hazing affair was taken up; amendments were offered, but the House adjourned without action.

THE TENNESSEE.—Captain Hopkins, of the British barque Mary Baker, which arrived at Boston, Tuesday morning, Feb. 14, from San Domingo, reports that he saw an American war-steamer off St. Nicholas Mole, at the northwest end of Hayti, on the 29th ult., supposed to have been the Tennessee. Officers at the Navy Department say that the vessel seen by Capt. Hopkins was undoubtedly the Tennessee, no other vessel answering to the description being at that time in those waters. Admiral Lee's flag-ship, the Severn, was the only other vessel that could possibly have been there, and she is known to have sailed from Jamaica on the very day the Tennessee was seen, the 28th ult. The opinion expressed outside of official circles is that the vessel seen by Capt. Drummond, of the barque W. E. Anderson, laboring in a gale off Cape Hatteras, is more likely to have been the Tennessee than the vessel seen in the windward passage.

A dispatch from Philadelphia says it is say have been the Cuban steamer Cornet which was seen on the 28th.

BREVITIES.

Gen. Stevenson of Kentucky having resigned, Lieut.-Gov. Leslie was put in his place, Feb. 13th.

Sir Strafford Northcote takes Sir John Rose's place on the joint high commission.

Two distilleries were burned at Peoria, Ill., Feb. 14, involving a present loss of $90,000, and probably saving many lives in the future.

The second census of New York city differs from the first one less than two per cent.

Col. Chickering, the great piano manufacturer, who died Feb. 14, is said to have left and $80,000 insurance on his life.

Congressman Bowen's trial for bigamy is progressing, and brings out some hard swearing.

The U. S. ships Worcester and Supply have been ordered to New York and Boston, to take cargoes of provisions contributed for the aid of France.

Garibaldi has left France for the Island of Caprera.

The subscription in New York City to the French relief fund now exceed $70,000, of which $46,000 were raised by the committee of the chamber of commerce.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—A session for Rockingham County was held at South Newmarket last week, commencing Feb. 6. The attendance was fair, compared with former sessions in this county, but not what is desirable. Not more than half of many teachers were members as have taught in the county the past year.

Among the successful professors employed at this session may be named Rev. C. A. Downs of Lebanon, in Geography; Mrs. H. M. P. Miller, in Elocution; and Miss Smith, of Robinson Female Seminary, Exeter, in Arithmetic. Interesting lectures were given by Prof. Hiram Orcutt, on Methods of Instruction, by Hon. A. J. Phipps, on Spelling, and by Mr. Winship on English literature. We have named only a portion of those who labored during the week, but enough to show that the Institute was a working one; and it was regarded as successful.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. James Twombly of Raymond was chopping in Nottingham, Jan. 31, and a tree falling in a different direction from what he calculated, he was thrown down by its coming nearly upon him, and much injured. He was carried on a sled to Oliver Smith's (his son-in-law) in Raymond, and lived but about four hours after the injury. His age was 58. He formerly lived in Gilmanton.

☞ The New Hampshire labor-reform State committee were in session at Concord, the 14th. The meeting was secret, but it is understood that the subject of withdrawing some of their candidates in favor of the democratic candidates was discussed. The Labor Reform movement was originally but a copperhead trap to catch republican votes and 'tis no better now.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 12.

Editors Chronicle:—As the war closed the Ku-Klux began; and as the democratic party aided the rebellion, so they now aid this bloody band—remnant of the rebellion—and laugh exultingly at their atrocities upon the loyal whites and blacks of the South. Congress is now investigating this matter, and it is to be hoped will soon apply a remedy.

The democratic legislature of North Carolina is now trying to impeach a loyal governor at an expense of a quarter of a million of dollars, in order to put the State back in the hands of the rebels. A democratic Missouri legislature sent to the Senate one whose boast is that when his party is in power they will restore the Southern States to the rebels, and over-ride all the laws of reconstruction. A democratic Senator from Kentucky proposes in the Senate of the United States to unearth the bones of our patriotic dead reposing on Arlington Heights and scatter them to the winds in order to give the lands to the family of the infamously great rebel leader, Lee. Such is the recent record of principles and such the platform as developed by the Ku-Klux, by Blair and by McCreery, representatives of the democratic party. The Union Democrat of Manchester, the organ of Weston and Bell, and the copperhead sheet of Portsmouth, are in accord with them, and will commend the platform to the support of the people in March as well as in the Presidential campaign of '72.

I may say here that so far as we hear from New Hampshire, this platform will not receive a vigorous support. What if the democratic candidates are "inoffensive negatives?" They represent a party black with treason, and assume its championship.

Letter writers have had much to say of Congress and high officials and of society here during this winter, so that every thing past is well known and much of the future is predicted. I may say, however, that Congress is intent upon doing up the appropriation bills before the close of the present session, and in the three weeks remaining but little else will or ought to be done. Many bills remain in Committee rooms unheard for want of time, yet enough has been done to provide for the wants of the government. It must not be supposed that Congress is wanting in duty because the thousand bill proposed on are not reported, for often silence is far better for the purposes as well as the proposed. Congress then has a duty, not to do as well as to do.

It is now thought that the bill to repeal the income tax will not pass, as a test vote was had in the House last week, although the majority against repeal was very small—3. Our New Hampshire delegation are a unit on this, and while they would, if they could consistently abolish all taxes necessitated by the rebellion, they believe this tax on incomes the most just of all. The debt must be paid, and wealth not poverty ought to pay it.

For some time the question of rank has been discussed in the Navy—the staff officers asking for positive rank—the line officers to some extent opposing the giving of any rank other than they now hold. The House bill gives them the rank of, and the Senate bill (reported by Mr. Cragin) rank with, &c. These two propositions, of and with, are to be discussed soon, and it is to be hoped will be settled satisfactory, not only to the parties interested but to the Country.

Just now Miss Vinnie Ream is attracting much attention through the press. She has just completed a statue of Mr. Lincoln—has received $10,000 for it, and now she wants more. Your correspondent is no judge of the merits of her work, but must confess that criticism is generally unfavorable to the statue. The statue was unveiled enthusiastically, but it will require more enthusiasm than is now observable to get her bill through for extra pay.

I must say before closing that since the departure of Messrs. Pierce and Young from Washington, I have learned that the Departments recognize their requests in the interest of the citizens of Portsmouth and the Republican party endorsed by Messrs. Cragin, Patterson and Ela. It is hoped that Congress will soon settle upon some policy—whether to have iron or wooden ships—and replenish our Navy by putting to work every mechanic in our Yards. I ask why not make your Yard first-class?—the arguments are all that way. L.

☞ Dr. Helmbold thinks the Little Church Round the Corner should be made the grandest church in New York, and offers to give $5,000 toward this purpose.

—The Haytien minister denies that there is any sign of revolution in Hayti.

☞ Mayo and Shields, the first and second mates of the floating hell Neptune, have been committed to jail in New York on a charge of half killing a few old sailors—a gross outrage, as our maritime laws declare that sailors have no rights which their officers are bound to respect, so they can have no right to live if the officers choose otherwise. The captain, Peabody, has run away to escape a warrant for his arrest.

"OUR SOUTHERN BRETHREN" are getting quite active again. A body of 500 masked horsemen surrounded the jail in Union County, S. C., on Sunday night, tied the jailer and took out ten negro prisoners, confined on charges of murder and arson. Six of these were shot, two hung and two are missing. The pretext for this crime was that the prisoners were about to be removed to Columbia on a writ of habeas corpus.

—The steamer Riga has cleared from New York with a cargo of provisions for Bordeaux.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

COMFLINESS commends itself to all, and every gentleman regrets that his boot does not retain its original neat shape after being a little worn. The CABLE SCREW WIRE BOOTS and SHOES preserve their shape far better than any others, it not being necessary to remove the last until the shoe is finished, and the screw wire retaining the shape perfectly until the shoe is worn out. These goods are sold everywhere.

IF YOU FEEL dull, despondent, drowsy, debilitated, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly, poor appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from torpid liver, or "Billiousness." Nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently as Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery. It also cures all severe lingering Coughs and tones up and strengthens the whole system. Sold by druggists. To avoid Counterfeits see that Dr. Pierce's private U. S. Government Stamp is on the outside wrapper.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Hazards of Winter.

The feeble and delicate dread the winter, and with good reason. The weather at this season has a depressing effect upon the vital organs and the animal spirits, and they have no vitality or mental animation to spare. The aged and infirm, in whom the flame of life is waxing dim, are always unpleasantly affected by the temperature of winter, and should fortify their systems against it. The extra vigor and resistant power which the enfeebled system requires to enable it to meet with safety the assaults of cold and damp, may soon be acquired by the regular use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The tonic effect of this wonderful medicine is soon apparent, in an increased appetite, a more active digestion and a brighter, happier frame of mind. Food is the fuel of the body, and if it is not properly digested the fires of life burn low. When this is the case, the disability can always be remedied within a short space of time, by taking a full dose of the Bitters twice a day. The stomach will soon begin to perform its allotted task regularly and steadily; the food, being thoroughly assimilated, will yield the amount of vital heat and nourishment which the body requires under the external pressure of cold, and the winter ailments which are apt to assail the weak and untoned physique will be avoided.

BULLETS FOR EUROPE.

Lead is wanted in Europe. Send over the millions of bottles of new fangled hair colorers that "remain over" and can't be sold here. They are pretty much all lead, and will never be wanted in this country, because all sane people who desire to restore the tinge of youth to their gray or grizzled locks use

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The lead-saturated and sulphur saturated nostrums have gone down, down, down, where they belong; while the EXCELSIOR DYE has gone up with a rapidity that taxes to the utmost the facilities for manufacturing it. It is to-day the MOST POPULAR HAIR DYE in the world, and deserves to be, for it is the safest and the best. As a dressing after the dyeing, use

CRISTADORO'S HAIR PRESERVATIVE.

Batchelor's Hair Dye.

This splendid Hair Dye is the best in the world: the only true and perfect Dye; harmless, reliable, instantaneous; no disappointment; no ridiculous tints; remedies the ill effects of bad dyes; invigorates and leaves the Hair soft and beautiful, black or brown. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

AID FOR THE DESTITUTE In France.

At a meeting held February 1st, 1871, in the rooms of the Massachusetts Hospital Life Office, to consider the question of sending a cargo of provisions to France for free distribution, it was unanimously decided that an appeal ought to be made to the citizens of Boston, to raise, at once, by subscription, a fund sufficient to load a large vessel with flour and other provisions. This appeal has already been so liberally responded to, that the fine U. S. Steamer "Worcester," the use of which for transporting the supplies has been granted by the government, will immediately begin loading. We now invite the citizens of New England to join us in furnishing the means for promptly despatching her upon her errand of peace and good will. We need at least twenty-five thousand dollars more to effect our object satisfactorily.

A careful and experienced agent of our Committee will precede the vessel, for the purpose of consulting other relief committees who are already on the field of suffering, and there making arrangements for judiciously distributing the aid furnished.

With the facilities thus provided we hope to make every ten dollars supply one person with cheap food for an hundred days.

New subscriptions may be sent to the Treasurer, Mr. PATRICK T. JACKSON, No. 24 Franklin Street, or to any member of the Executive Committee, or of the Subscription Committee. Persons who have already subscribed will lighten the work of the Committee, if they will send checks as soon as convenient to the Treasurer.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters are equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawfeb16

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid that climate which will suit well, all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as is more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend as a good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Melbourne and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Melbourne; it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times: but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are, that climate seems less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say that, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly: therefore my advice is, to go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, costiveness, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person could stay vastly longer in Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills, and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to stir up the torpid liver than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that residents of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the interior of the State. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are many thousands of victims there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were not so easily alarmed at recently taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, smallpox, &c.; but they are not: they take what they term a little cold, which little cold is sufficient enough to relieve well wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know, that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a free use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to say, "I am hungry, I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and good digestion, we have the right material—blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and abates, the night sweats cease, and night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there any place for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy-five degrees, and be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is not a disease in any other sense, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by the use of these medicines.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver more than calomel, and yet have none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative is required, and yet if you have partaken too freely of fruit, and diarrhœa comes, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are about to go to sleep, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you by waking you up, so as to avoid the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then dispense with the unwarrantable use of cathartic pills, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being bedridden for weeks. The Mandrake Pills are also in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but can be consulted at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9, A.M., to 3, P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. Advice is distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines are based upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and follow the advice brought in a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold, yet if they do, the diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit as to render it any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Aid for the Destitute in France.
Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters.
Superior Piano Fortes For Sale.

☞ Lots of snow at present, and plenty of sleighing in prospect.

☞ How about aiding the Portsmouth & Dover Railroad, Messrs. City Fathers!

NAVAL.—Chief Engineer Thomas A. Shock has reported for duty at the Navy Yard, being assigned to the charge of machinery afloat.

COMING.—The New Hampshire voters who are temporally resident in Washington are making arrangements to be at their homes on next election day.

☞ We are pleased to learn that Lieut. B. R. Russell of this Marine Station, who has recently been prostrated with typhoid fever, and whose sickness was so severe that his life was despaired of, is recovering.

—The schooner Galena, from St. Michaels, is in port, with 2000 boxes of oranges. The St. Michaels oranges are very fine, being considered by many as superior to other kinds seen in this market.—Boston Advertiser.

Gilbert is selling St. Michaels oranges at 20 cts. per dozen, at the Daniel St. Fruit Store.

☞ Now that the sleighing is good, we shall have the usual amount of reckless driving. Wednesday afternoon a little girl was run over and severely injured at the corner of Vaughan and Deer Sts., and the brute of a driver did not stop, but whipping up his team drove furiously on.

☞ The debt of Newcastle is about $20,000—too much for a small community to carry, and quite small for a city of 10,000 inhabitants to assume. It is said that in case Newcastle should be annexed to Portsmouth, a large hotel will be built there, to accommodate summer travel. It has beautiful locations for summer residences.

☞ Don't forget the White Rover benefit reading by Mr. Bartlett, at the Temple this (Thursday) evening. Persons who cannot attend will not be debarred from purchasing a few tickets.

The receipts go into the pockets of the generous men who have suffered the loss. Aside from the charity of the object, we can promise the public a rich entertainment as Mr. Bartlett will give some fresh scenes—never yet offered to a Portsmouth audience.

☞ The supply of water at the Navy Yard is so limited, that the greatest precaution is necessary in economizing its use, so that enough may be obtained wherewith to run the machinery in the several departments. In order to guard against the embarrassments that would result from an inadequate supply, laborers are engaged in dumping snow into the different cisterns about the Yard, thereby keeping the maximum quantity of water in these reservoirs which furnish the large quantity daily consumed by the many steam boilers of the Yard.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—An explanation is due to Mr. DeMerritt in connection with a matter of which he speaks in your columns, Tuesday morning. It is a rule of the High School, that if a pupil leaves school irregularly, he can return only by bringing a note from the committee. It is the custom in this and in many other matters for the chairman of the committee to act without consulting the whole committee, provided the case is a perfectly clear one. No one who has many claims upon his time, could hold the place of chairman of the committee on any other condition. In the instance refered to, the chairman, after conferring with the teachers and with one of his associates who was near at hand, informed the parties concerned (or as many of them as came to ask his decision,) that he would give the required note on certain conditions. One of the lads accepted the conditions, the others have not as yet done so.

Mr. DeMerritt would have been consulted at the outset, if he had not been at some distance away, or if the case had seemed to admit any difference of opinion. That the matter was not brought to Mr. DeMerritt's attention afterwards is due to the illness of the chairman of the committee. No one would regret more than the chairman of the committee, any even apparent lack of courtesy towards his associates.

CHAIRMAN HIGH SCHOOL COM.

☞ It is a good thing to marry a British princess. The British House of Commons have voted to give Princess Louise $150,000 dowry, and an annuity of $30,000. Wonder if they have any more princesses to spare?

AID FOR FRANCE.—An advertisement of the Boston committee for collecting supplies to relieve the famishing people of France, will be found in another column. Large sums have already been subscribed, but the field of suffering is immense and the committee appeal for further aid. The names of the executive committee (including that of Avery Plumer, Esq, formerly of this city,) are a perfect guaranty that every dollar bestowed will be judiciously distributed to the sufferers by the great war, and their call should be answered by the prompt receipt of generous donations, that will enable them to at once despatch the "Worcester" on her errand of mercy with a full cargo. The people of America look back with pleasure to the mission of the "Jamestown" during the great famine in Ireland; the call for food is loud and urgent in France to-day, as it was in Ireland in '47; and the money laid out in storing the "Worcester" and "Supply" with provisions will yield the charitable givers a life-long annuity, in the feeling of satisfaction which always follows a generous deed.

FUNERAL OF ALICE CAREY.—The authoress, Alice Carey, was buried at Greenwood cemetery, N. Y., Feb. 14. The funeral took place from the Church of the Strangers. Rev. Dr. Deems, pastor, delivered the funeral oration. The pall bearers were Horace Greeley, George Ripley, Bayard Taylor, P. T. Barnum, W. W. Hall and A. J. Johnson. Fanny Fern and other literary celebrities were present; also the editors of most of the city newspapers and periodicals.

New Hampshire Items.

The supreme judicial court will hold an extra session in Nashua next week for the purpose of naturalizing aliens. It has recently been sitting in Manchester for the same purpose.

One of the boilers at Ward's woolen mill at Ashuelot exploded at four A. M., Feb. 14, fatally injuring the watchman, Amus Burleigh. The boiler house was completely demolished, and the glass in the mill badly broken. The boiler was thrown across the river, a distance of fifteen rods. The watchman was the only person in the mill and had just fired up the engine. He leaves a wife and three children.

The seventeenth annual ball of the Amoskeag Veterans will take place at Smyth's Hall, in Manchester, on the 22d inst.

Windham has decided to avail itself of the Nesmith bequest of $2000 to purchase books for a town library.

The state board of agriculture will hold a meeting at Derry on the 23d, and at Chester on the 24th instants.

☞ The son of Admiral Farragut has been mentioned in connection with "the recent troubles at West Point." Loyall Farragut graduated in 1868, and is now serving as second-lieutenant, fifth United States artillery, at Fort Preble in Portland harbor. There is no one bearing his name now or recently at the military academy.

☞ Nilsson is singing again.

☞ Old newspapers for sale at this Office.

☞ JOB AND CARD PRINTING is neatly promptly and cheaply done at the Chronicle and Gazette Office; and the patronage of friends in this line is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

☞ THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE for this week, is now ready for delivery, at the Chronicle Office. Each number contains all the reading matter of the week's Dailies. Price $2 a year; single copies 5 cents,—in wrappers for mailing, if desired. Six copies for $10 per year, to Clubs—per mail or city carrier.

COMPLETION
—OF THE—
Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railway.
THE FIRST MORTGAGE
7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,
COUPON OR REGISTERED,
FREE OF U. S. TAX,
Principal and Interest Payable in Gold,
ON A FINISHED ROAD.
—FOR SALE—
At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

The last rail of this important road was laid on the 26th of January, thus completing the enterprise and establishing a connection between St. Paul and St. Louis 90 miles shorter than any existing route and 53 miles shorter than any contemplated route between the same points.

By this line also the distance from Chicago to the great grain fields of Minnesota is shortened 45 miles, and transportation proportionately quickened and cheapened. The First Mortgage Bonds assume therefore at once on the completion of the line a position equal in intrinsic value to those of the Fort Wayne, Pennsylvania Central, Illinois Central or any other First Mortgage Bonds of completed trunk lines—not one of which sell below par.

The B. C. R. & M. Bonds are a First Mortgage, amounting only to $20,000 per mile on a line of road which has cost $40,000 per mile, the balance having been supplied by liberal subscriptions to the stock at par, made by wealthy farmers and parties interested along the line, and by similar subscriptions on the part of Towns and Counties through which the Road passes, which have adopted this system of giving their aid rather than issuing Town and County Bonds.

The earnings of the Road in its incomplete state, and while deprived entirely of through connection, have been for the past three months in excess of 22 per cent. on the amount of the Mortgage Bonds, after deducting operating expenses. No Road in the United States can show a better record during its inception. When is added to this lucrative way traffic the profits which will arise from the transportation of the vast wheat crop of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, all of which must seek a market over this line, the result cannot but be a showing which will give large Dividends on the Stock of the Company, after paying the interest to the Bond-holders as heretofore. The privilege which attaches to the Bonds of conversion into Stock at par will shortly assume practical value, as by this privilege the Bond-holders will, by the conversion be entitled to share in any excess of earnings which may accrue to the Road.

The Company has made extremely favorable arrangements for freight and passenger traffic with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. These arrangements will add largely to the profits of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road, as well as increasing its traffic receipts. The C. B. & Q. R. R. has further agreed to set aside 50 per cent. of the gross earnings realized from the business with the B. C. R. & M. Co. for investment in the Bonds of the latter company.

This arrangement secures a practical consolidation of the two companies, and makes the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Company permanently interested in the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road by its running arrangements with and investments in the first mortgage bonds of the latter.

A small amount, $400,000 in all, of the issue yet unsold are still offered at the subscription price of 90 and accrued interest in currency. Although the Company feel warranted in the present condition of their affairs in advancing the price of bonds, yet they have concluded to continue for the present the subscription at the same price as heretofore, in order to effect rapid sales and thus free themselves immediately from all floating indebtedness.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges.

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.
THE CENTRAL RAILROAD Co
OF IOWA,
have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about
180 MILES OF RAILROAD,
which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open
The First Through Line Across the State
from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give
DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.
This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The
First Mortgage
7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,
which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.
The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.
Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.
Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowa at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

	Difference in Cash	Incr'd annual int. Exchange.	upon Investment.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.
SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!
JAY COOKE & CO.,
Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the
FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS
—OF THE—
Northern Pacific Railroad Co.
These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.
The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-Annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.
They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.
The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.
These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.
In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacific, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.
HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.
Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mda3mwfe6

LIFE INSURANCE.—It is a matter of surprise and regret, that distinguished talent should array itself in opposition to so noble and benevolent an institution as Life Insurance. In event of a preference entertained for a different form of investment—the immense benefits arising from the operations of Life Insurance entitle it to the highest respect. Objections to it from high sources will rank to its disadvantage only temporarily; but to those who are thereby deterred from seeking its protection as the only means of security from poverty, or absolute want — of keeping the wolf from the door of the widow and orphan — such objections will result in grave disaster. The parallel between this institution and Savings Banks, has been drawn thousands of tibes. Plausible arguments have not been wanting on either side—the usual concomitant of discussions.

This article is not to detract from the honor or value of Savings Banks—only a crazy man would attempt that,—but to state a simple fact—patent to any one familiar with the subject, relative to a point in which a Savings Bank never has, and never can approach a legitimate, well-conducted Life Insurance Company.

An "investment" is literally, money placed with a view to income or profit therefrom. Money placed in a Savings Bank is universally admitted to be an "investment;" i. e. in twelve months the depositor may receive the deposit, plus interest at 6 per cent. Of course, that is all that the Bank received, and the officers have done their duty from motives of the purest philanthropy. Example—$100 on deposit 12 months would produce at 6 per cent., $106. Suppose the depositor to have been a young married man of 20 years, and the $100 to have been his entire capital outside the amount necessary for the support of his family. Would six dollars compensate the 12 months deprivation use of the $100, in event of the husband's death? Per contra, $90 would have purchased a policy in a Mutual Life Insurance Co., which, in the event above alluded to, would have paid the widow $5000 within ninety days of the death of the insured party; even had he died upon the day of his first payment.

Here is the "point" before-mentioned—the Saving Bank cannot compete with the Insurance Company in this respect. And yet an Insurance Policy cannot be called an investment. Why? Because the insured is constantly paying "premiums." Those same "premiums" are dreadful things, to be sure, but what pays the salaries of officers of Savings Banks? Of a thousand persons, in perfect health to-day—a certain proportion—say eight of that number, will be dead one year hence. You or I cannot determine whether that number 8 will include one or both, or either of us. Those eight families must be provided for. Perhaps they cannot provide for themselves; the Bank will not—the Life Insurance Company is ready and able to place them above want and misery. Are you insured?

VOILA TOUT.

VALUE OF LEACHED ASHES.—In a recent conversation with James Hussey of Vassalboro'—one of the best farmers in that town of good farms and farmers—he gave an account of the use of leached ashes upon grass land, which we are glad to place before our readers. The land upon which the ashes were applied, is in the town of North Berwick, where he formerly resided, and was a moist, clayey, loam soil. It was so much run down, when purchased by Friend Hussey, that all the grass growing upon the lot—four acres—when cut for hay, could have been hauled with one horse. It was top-dressed with six hundred bushels of leached ashes, or at the rate of oqe hundred and fifty bushels to the acre.

The first year after the ashes were applied in the spring, no great benefit was noticed from them, but the second year the yield of hay from the four acres was eleven tons! Since that application of leached ashes, the land has produced good crops of hay each year, in no instance less than one ton to the acre. Twelve crops of grass have been taken off, while no application of any kind of fertilizer has been made, since the ashes were put on. We hope this statement will convince many doubting farmers of the value of leached ashes as a manure, and do something towards their more general use.—Maine Farmer.

—A North Easton, Mass., schoolteacher left two young pupils locked up in his school-room one day last week; and but for their alarmed parents making urgent inquiry for the missing children, about nine o'clock the same evening, the forgetful teacher would have left them there all night. The parents are indignant.

—A Chicago youth named Slackman ordered his father to get up and build a fire, but the old man talked back, and the boy had to flog him before he would mind. Of late years fathers are getting more and more impudent.

BRIGGS & BRO'S
Illustrated and Descriptive Catalogue
OF FLOWER & VEGETABLE SEEDS,
AND SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS.
FOR 1871.
Will be ready for mailing by the middle of January, notwithstanding our great loss of type, paper, engravings, &c., by fire, which destroyed the Job Printing office of the Rochester Democrat and Union in December, 1870. It will be printed on a most elegant new tinted paper, and illustrated with nearly
Five Hundred Original Engravings,
And two finely executed Colored Plates—specimens of all of which were grown by ourselves the past season from our own stock of Seeds. In the originality, extensiveness and excellence of our engravings it is unlike and eminently superior to any other Catalogue or "Floral Guide" extant.
The Catalogue is a work of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered Seeds from us by mail the last season. To others a charge of 10 cents per copy will be made, which is not the value of the Colored Plates. We assure our friends that the inducements we offer to purchasers of Seeds, as to quality and extent of Stock, Prices and Premiums are unsurpassed. Please send orders for Catalogues without delay.
Our Colored Chromo for 1871
Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent Forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers of natural size and color. We design to make it the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 19x24 inches. The retail value would be at least Two Dollars! we shall, however, offer it as a Premium upon orders for Seeds. See catalogue when out.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.
Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.
For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely Vegetable, containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving; consequently do not produce the desired effect. The CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. Price 50 cents per box.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND
FLUID EXT. SARSAPARILLA
Will radically exterminate from the system Scrofula, Syphilitic, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Rumnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

Being prepared expressly for the above Complaints, this blood-purifying properties are greater than other preparations of Sarsaparilla. It gives the complexion a clear and healthy color and restores the patient to a state of Health and Purity. For purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of pains and swelling of the bones, ulcerations of the throat and legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Erysipelas and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, and Beautifying the Complexion. Price, $1.50 per bottle.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC,
has cured every case of Diabetes in which it has been given, Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder and Inflammation of the Bladder, Ulceration of the Kidneys and Bladder, Retention of Urine, Diseases of Prostate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel, Bright's Disease, Deposit and Mucous or Milky Discharges, and for Enfeebled and Delicate Constitutions of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms, Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruption on the Face, Pallid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System.
Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from Habits of Dissipation, Excess and Imprudences in Life, Impurities of the Blood, etc., superseding Copaiba in Affections for which it is used, and Syphilitic Affections—in those Diseases used in connection with HELMBOLD'S Rose Wash.
LADIES.
In many affections peculiar to Ladies, the Extract Buchu is unsurpassed by any other remedy—as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous State of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion or Habits of Dissipation. It is prescribed extensively by the most eminent physicians and Midwives for enfeebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above diseases or symptoms.)

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c.,
In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Heat, Irritation, and Inflammation so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.
Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Potent" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.
Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Price $1.50 per bottle.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED
ROSE WASH
cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only remedy required in every species of Cutaneous Affection. It speedily eradicates Pimples, Spots, Scorbutic Dryness, Indurations of the Cutaneous Membrane, etc., dispels Redness and Irritation, Roughness of the Hand, Rash, Moth Patches, Dryness of Scalp or Skin, Frost Bites, and all purposes for which Salves or Ointments are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin. H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle, and obtained a patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a Toilet Appendage of the most Superlative and Constitutional character, combining the elegant formula those prominent requisites, Safety and Efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.
Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses and upwards of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including clergymen, Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF
HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.
To insure or not to insure? That is the question. Whether t'will be nobler for my family to suffer
The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune
Or take a policy against those dangers,
And, by insuring, end them? To fret, to fear,
No more; and by a policy to end
The heartache and the thousand natural shocks
That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application 's
Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure,
And pay the premium: ay—there's the rub
For in that time what premiums may come
Before I shuffle off this mortal coil
Does make me pause, tightens my purse,
And makes me rather pay the bills I have
Than fly others I know not of.
Thus does mennness make brutes of us all.

The Chronicle.

MARY'S YOUTHFUL MUTTON.

Mary had a little lamb,
Which skipped about the lot;
It never had a little bed,
But occupied a cot.

Mary took the lamb to school,—
The teacher was a brute:
"You bring your lamb in here," said he,
"I'll jam it in the snoot."

And then he took the little sheep—
Ah! what a cruel man—
And placing it upon his lap,
It's hide began to tan.

And though this little lambkin cried,
The teacher wouldn't stop;
"I like to hear it cry," said he
"I'm fond of mutton chop."

And as his anger fiercer grew,
He tried its fleece to pull;
But tried in vain. "It is," said he,
"All cry and little wool."

And then he lammed the little lamb,
A lamentable fact;
And all the scholars testified
It was a sheepish act.

You got dot story sheep as I:
I simply would avow,
Dot Mary had von leedle lamb,
She didn't got him now.

The Chicago board of fire commissioners have caused to be burned about $5000 worth of gamblers' goods, the spoils of numerous raids during the past ten months.

Operations are progressing for the erection of three blast furnaces at Franklin, N. J., to be twenty feet higher, ten feet wider, and with the crucible much higher than any furnace at present constructed in the United States.

AN OPPONENT OF JUSTICE.—Commodore Reynolds having been heard before the Senate Naval Committee adverse to the House bill on staff rank, it is worthy of notice that the "Record of Living Naval Officers," page 59, shows that of the thirty years this gentleman has been a commissioned officer, thirteen years have been virtually out of the service; nine years unemployed and four as naval storekeeper at Honolulu. During the rebellion he commanded only storeships, and never has had command of a legitimate man-of-war but once, and that for only two years. After being out of the service nine years he was restored to his original position and is now a commodore, and, unless there is some wholesome legislation to prevent it, will soon be a rear-admiral.

This officer, with little or no naval experience, is understood to be almost solely the author of the monstrous book of regulations in which staff officers are everywhere degraded, and the law often violated.—Exchange.

THE LAW OF LIBEL.—In the recent trial of a libel suit against the editor of the San Jose (Cal.) Mercury, Judge McKee, of the District Court, ruled, in substance, that as an editorial article appeared in the same paper after the one of which complaint was made, apologizing for the first, averring a lack of all malice, these allegations might be considered as proofs of the character and intent of the first. Under this ruling, the jury found a verdict for the defendant. This ruling means simply that the disclaimer following the alleged libel should go to the jury as a part of the case, to be estimated by them in the light of all the circumstances involved.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and elegant for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently from baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
No. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such remarkable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." FRIDAY, FEB. 17, 1871.

THE WAR.

Paris despatches say that twenty-five Bonapartists have been elected. The monarchist party is greatly in the ascendant, and it is estimated that they have carried half of the assembly. The Orleanists have a powerful majority in almost all the election districts. The republicans have fallen behind and are in the minority.

Bordeaux reports say that the republican party has elected 150 representatives to the assembly; the legitimists have returned 50; the Orleanists have an immense majority, and return 400 representatives. The Bonapartists have elected 20.

A Berlin paper estimates that the French elections have resulted in at least a two-thirds vote in favor of monarchical institutions, and says that scarcely one-third of the members chosen are republicans. The imperialists are also badly beaten, and the future of France seems to be between the ourbons and Orleanists.

An order has been issued disbanding the Belgian militia on the frontier.

An extension of the armistice is asked.

M. Cremieux has resigned.

Garibaldi has sailed for Caprera.

The triumphal march of the German army through Paris is insisted on by the Emperor.

The three famous monster guns in Fort Valefien, named Josephine, Beethoven and Valerie, are to be blown up, as they are too heavy to transport to Germany.

The French forces within the city of Belfort have accepted the armistice and the fortress now offers to capitulate to the German troops.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, Wednesday, Feb. 15, Mr. Morton sharply criticised the action of the legislature of Indiana in relation to the fifteenth amendment. Frank Blair made a long speech in reply; after which the legislative appropriation bill was taken up and the judges' salaries were increased a small percentage.

In the House, Messrs. Eldridge, Cox and others made long and violent speeches against the bill to enforce the fifteenth amendment. Messrs. Bingham, Lawrence and others supported it, and the debate occupied the whole session.

THE CONTEST IN THE NAVY.—The special efforts of the line appear to be directed to the Senate and with a degree of success quite inexplicable. The Stevens bill has been thoroughly canvassed by the House, and that body with singular unanimity passed it—an act of justice to the staff so manifest that we have not yet seen a paper that dissented from the action. In fact there is but a single prominent newspaper in the United States that sustains the demands of the line, and that, we are informed, is influenced by its social relations with Admiral Porter. The support of even the journal in question is of the lukewarm, half-way order, destitute of argument and giving its opinion with a blindness which indicates an entire ignorance of the nature of the contest.

As the case now stands it has really narrowed itself down to a question whether or not the line shall be recognized as the Aristocracy of the Navy—a privileged class before which the staff must be humbled in respectful submission. The claim for this supremacy is based upon some supposed superiority over the rest of mankind which a boy acquires by having passed through the Naval Academy. There can be no excellence except by such graduation, and the line would have the country believe that all the brains and social pre-eminence are Annapolis bred. Such an assumption is simply ridiculous, and the sooner Congress cuts the combs of the bandy chickens in the line who imagine themselves thorough-bred Shanghais, the better for decency and discipline in the naval service.

We speak of the line as a whole, for the two branches of the service are unfortunately arrayed against each other. But there were and are many prominent line officers who refused and still refuse to take an active part in the attempt to degrade their fellow-officers. In the front rank of these was Admiral Farragut, who had a disposition which raised him above the petit meannesses to which his unworthy successor constantly resorts; we were about to say stoops, but stooping is out of the question to a man as low in the social scale as the grovelling Dave. The Senate should not suffer this matter to fall through. There is no good reason why the claims of the staff to rank on precisely the same basis as has been granted to the staff in the army for twenty or thirty years past should not be recognized. Its workings there have been perfectly harmonious, and undoubtedly promote discipline and efficiency otherwise unattainable. The people have become greatly interested in the contest, and if the public press may be received as an exponent of the popular desire, it is the people's wish to have the reasonable request of the staff granted.—N. Y. Star.

THE STEVENS BATTERY, which has been so long in building at Jersey City, and the success of which has been so long doubted, is nearly completed, and will be ready for launching in June at the furthest. Most of the machinery is in position, and the vessel will be completed during this or next month, with the exception of a portion of the joiners' work. She has four engines, aggregating 5000 horse-power. These engines have 45-inch stroke, and run two immense propellers. The vessel is 410 feet in length, is 6000 tons burden and draws 22 feet of water, being only two feet above water-line. Ventilators are supplied by which it is believed a full supply of air can be furnished below decks. She is built for a turret 37 feet in diameter, calculated to carry two of the heaviest 20-inch guns, iron-plated to a thickness of ten inchhs. Her boilers are ten in number, and are heated by thirty furnaces.

☞ The express train which left New York at 11 o'clock P. M., Feb. 15, on the Hudson River Railroad, was run into and damaged. On reaching the bridge at Spuyten Duyvil creek, the engineer slowed down, when the Yonkers train, which was behind, came thundering round the curve at full speed; a collision took place which almost demolished onecar and smashed the platforms of several others. The engineer of the Yonkers train jumped off, and the conductor was thrown down the embankment, while several passengers were thrown from their bunks and severely injured. The railroad officials say that the accident was of no importance. "All hope abandon, ye who enter here," would be an appropriate legend to inscribe over the doors of the H. R. Railroad cars.

THE COOLIE SLAVE-TRADE.—The consul of San Salvador, at Hong Kong, has received instructions to deprive any vessel sailing under the flag of San Salvador, engaged in the coolie trade, of her papers. Hitherto it has been the custom of coolie traders to buy American or English ships, have them registered as San Salvadorian, and then send them out to carry cargoes of coolies. All other Oriental consuls of South American States hold similar instructions. This is the severest blow yet made at the traffic.

—A Western editor, speaking of a rogue who lives in his vicinity, says: "The rascal has broken every bank and jail and Sabbath we have had in the county for the last five years."

—Of course there is no difference between a linen and imitation collar when the dealer receives so much pay per collar.—N. Y. Leader.

REPORT OF THE SUP'T OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.—This is a report of the schools of this State for the year ending the 1st of last June. It was designed for the Legislature at its last session, but it was not printed when the session commenced, and we do not know whether it was before the session closed. It has just come to hand, in paper covers, and makes 379 pages. It gives an account of Teachers' Institutes in seven of the ten Counties, and other educational matters in the State; Statistical Tables of the schools, and very full extract from Reports of Superintending School Committees. The Superintendent of Public Institution decidedly favors the use of corporeal punishment. An account of the Academies in the several Counties is attempted, but this is incomplete. In Rockingham, Exeter Academy, Robinson Female Seminary, and Chester Institute only are named, while Hampton Academy, Seabrook, two in Derry and two in Northwood are left out. In Strafford County, Great Falls only is named, but that is a High School. The Report, however, as a whole, is valuable, and we wish all the friends of education in the State could have it in their possession.

POLITICAL.—Governor Alcorn, who was elected to the United States Senate a year ago to succeed Revels on the 4th of March next, announces his intention to decline the Senatorship.

The republican congressional convention of the third district of Connecticut, renominated H. H. Starkweather for the third term, by a vote of 71 to 34.

Movements are being made in some quarters in relation to the March elections. In Portland Mr. Kingsbury's re-nomination for Mayor is mentioned, and in Bangor Mr. Prentiss has formally declined to be a candidate again.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

COMELINESS commends itself to all, and every gentleman regrets that his boot does not retain its original neat shape after being a little worn. The CABLE SCREW WIRE BOOTS and SHOES preserve their shape far better than any others, it not being necessary to remove the last until the shoe is finished, and the screw wire retaining the shape perfectly until the shoe is worn out. These goods are sold everywhere.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Hazards of Winter.

The feeble and delicate dread the winter, and with good reason. The weather at this season has a depressing effect upon the vital organs and the animal spirits, and they have no vitality or mental animation to spare. The aged and infirm, in whom the flame of life is waxing dim, are always unpleasantly affected by the temperature of winter, and should fortify their systems against it. The extra vigor and resistant power which the enfeebled system requires to enable it to meet with safety the assaults of cold and damp, may soon be acquired by the regular use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The tonic effect of this wonderful medicine is soon apparent, in an increased appetite, a more active digestion and a brighter, happier frame of mind. Food is the fuel of the body, and if it is not properly digested the fires of life burn low. When this is the case, the disability can always be remedied within a short space of time, by taking a full dose of the Bitters twice a day. The stomach will soon begin to perform its allotted task regularly and steadily; the food, being thoroughly assimilated, will yield the amount of vital heat and nourishment which the body requires under the external pressure of cold, and the winter ailments which are apt to assail the weak and untoned physique will be avoided.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE,

ROCKINGHAM, SS. Supreme Jud. Court, Jan. Term, A. D. 1871.

IN THE ACTION—WILLIAM H. HILLS of Plaistow, in said County, yeoman, PLAINTIFF, vs. THOMAS W. DOW of Lynn in the County of Essex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, yeoman, Defendant, and ENOCH BUTLER of Atkinson in our County of Rockingham, yeoman, Trustee.

In a plea of the case, to recover of said DOW the amount of his promissory note for eighty-five dollars, dated August 27, 1870, and payable to the order of one L. P. E. RICHARDS, ninety days from the date thereof, for value received, in Lawrence, Mass., and by said RICHARDS endorsed and delivered to the plaintiff.

It having been suggested to the Court that the property of the Defendant in this State in the hands and possession of said trustee has been attached on the writ, and that no personal service has been made on said defendant in this suit, he not being a resident of this State at the time of the service thereof:

It is ordered by the Court that the action be continued to the next Term of said Court, to be holden at Exeter within and for said County of Rockingham, on the second Tuesday of April next, and that the Plaintiff give notice to the said Defendant of the pendency thereof, by causing the substance of said declaration, with a copy of this order, to be published three weeks successively, in the New Hampshire Gazette, a newspaper printed at Portsmouth in our County of Rockingham, the last publication whereof to be at least thirty days prior to said Court, to which this action is continued.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. lyrdawfeb16

AID FOR THE DESTITUTE
In France.

At a meeting held February 1st, 1871, in the rooms of the Massachusetts Hospital Life Office, to consider the question of sending a cargo of provisions to France for free distribution, it was unanimously decided that an appeal ought to be made to the citizens of Boston, to raise, at once, by subscription, a fund sufficient to load a large vessel with flour and other provisions. This appeal has already been so liberally responded to, that the fine U. S. Steamer "Worcester," the use of which for transporting the supplies has been granted by the government, will immediately begin loading. We now invite the citizens of New England to join us in furnishing the means for promptly despatching her upon her errand of peace and good will. We need at least twenty-five thousand dollars more to effect our object satisfactorily.

A careful and experienced agent of our Committee will precede the vessel, for the purpose of consulting other relief committees who are already on the field of suffering, and there making arrangements for judiciously distributing the aid furnished.

With the facilities thus provided we hope to make every ten dollars supply one person with cheap food for an hundred days.

New subscriptions may be sent to the Treasurer, Mr. PATRICK T. JACKSON, No. 24 Franklin Street, or to any member of the Executive Committee, or of the Subscription Committee. Persons who have already subscribed will lighten the work of the Committee, if they will send checks as soon as convenient to the Treasurer.

Wanted—An American Girl.
Col. John Esten Cooke's Life of General Lee.
Probate Notices—W. H. Hills, Esq.

☞ Mr. Ellis W. Marden has won the champion cue from Mr. Edward Geagan, beating him 153 points in 700.

SUCH IS FAME!—The Pittsburg, (Pa.) Paper says Portsmouth, N. H., is the chief town of a great pop-corn raising section of country.

☞ After an exciting meeting of the Portsmouth Gas Company, Tuesday, the old officers were re-elected. The price of gas to consumers is to be reduced from $5.10 to $4.25.

☞ John Albee, Esq., the author-farmer of Newcastle, has furnished us with some nice lettuce, just grown at his establishment. It seems like forcing the season, considering the white coating which covers terra firma, but the salad tastes better for the contrast.

☞ Mr. G. W. Heath of Dover, who recently appeared in this city in connection with the representation of the "Drummer Boy" with the G. A. R. Post, has been suffering from a felon on the right fore finger, and has been compelled to lose the finger by amputation.

☞ We have tried a sample of hulled corn handed in by Mr. Daniel Hurd, of Christian Shore, and find it most delicious eating. A handful of salt and a barrel—we think we could get away with a barrel—of that corn, would give us a good dinner. Mr. Hurd sells it at 10 cts. per quart.

Our Correspondence.

NEWCASTLE, Feb. 15.

"Shall Portsmouth be annexed to Newcastle?" that is the question. We have no serious objections to it, provided you come of your own free will and accord. Our Board of Trade has the subject under their consideration, and I trust will report favorably upon it. The chief difficulty appears to be in regard to the toll bridges, which they seem to think will act unfavorably to the people of Portsmouth. I think that can be remedied by amending the Portsmouth & Dover Railroad charter so as to make the terminus at Newcastle. S.

NAVAL CHANGES.—Lieut. Commander George Dewey, detached from the command of the Narragansett, is ordered to command the store-ship Supply. Commander R. W. Meade is ordered to the command of the Narragansett.

Boatswain J. K. Bartlett is detached from this Station, and granted six months' leave.

Boatswain John McCaffery is detached from New York and ordered to this Station.

Lieutenant Asa Walker and Carpenter S. N. Whitehouse, of New Hampshire, have been detached from the Jamestown and ordered to return home.

New Publications Received.

Le Bon Ton, for March. Published by S. T. Taylor, New York; $6 per annum. A journal of fashion.

The New Comic Songster, published by O. Ditson & Co., Boston. Price 60 cts. A book full of fun and just in season for the winter evenings. It contains the latest humorous pieces, with the Melody of each, including: "I saw Esau kissing Kate," "Any Ornaments," "I've lost my bow-wow," "Racketty Jack," "School of Jolly Dogs," "John Schmidt," and a hundred others.

The Voice of Prayer, a Poem by Warren Sumner Barlow. Carleton, Publisher, New York.

Demorest's Monthly Magazine for March announces, in a prominent heading, "Fashions for Europe and America." The number has numerous special novelties, popular music, home matters, and entertaining stories. Yearly, $3. W. Jennings Demorest, 838 Broadway, N. Y.

American Stock Journal for February, containing articles on Care of Stock in February, Breeding Swine, Preservation of Butter, Poultry Management, Shoeing Horses, Diseases of the Eye in Horses, Breaking Oxen, &c. Also, handsome Engravings of Hogs, Cattle, Sheep and Fowls. Specimen copies free. N. P. Boyer & Co., Publishers, Parkersburg, Pa. $1 per year.

☞ The reported removal of Rev. Thomas Farrell from the St. Joseph's (Roman Catholic) Church in New York, in consequence of a letter in favor of Italian unity, is confirmed. The members of his congregation have protested against his removal.

—Common suers—Lawyers.

THE NEPTUNE AND THE STANDARD. The New York Standard calls Capt. Peabody, of the Neptune, various pet names, such as "the infamous sea captain," and "the monster Peabody;" and asserts that the sailors were beaten and driven to work when the flesh was peeling from their hands and feet, from being repeatedly frozen. The Standard also says that C. H. Marshall & Co., who run the Black Ball of New York and Liverpool packets, assert that they have always considered Capt. Peabody a "whole-souled man," and that they "regret" that any unpleasantness should have occured—and the Standard seems to sneer a little at the aforesaid "regrets" of the firm.

When it is considered that the Black Ball Line has for twenty years and more been notorious for the devilish cruelty with which its seamen have been treated, that among sailors to call a man a "Black Ball mate" is equivalent to calling him a merciless fiend, and that this same "whole-souled" Peabody has been before the courts (from which the Standard asserts that he has escaped by bribery and perjury,) and in the columns of newspapers during twenty years past, for inhuman brutality to his men, the Standard will not be much blamed for sneering at the "regrets" of the firm who employ such brutes as Peabody and who will employ no other kind of men—to command their ships. But the Standard need not hope that Peabody will be punished with anything heavier than a nominal fine, for he won't be—he will get off, as he has done a dozen times before, and as the framers of our maritime laws intended that brutal captains and mates always should do, judging by the laws they made.

THE "MISSING" TENNESSEE. — The New York Times makes the following remarks on the absence of news from the Tennessee, from which it appears that there is not the slightest cause for apprehension or anxiety on her behalf, the report of a badly-steering steamer being seen in a gale of wind amounting to nothing.

Before people put themselves in a fluster about the Tennessee, it might have been as well had they asked the date of our last advices from San Domingo. Has there been time to hear from that island since the vessel may be supposed to have arrived? Now it is a fact that not only has there not been time, but that our last news from San Dimingo dated a week before the Tennessee sailed. In other words, the vessel left on the 17th January, and we have had no news from San Domingo since the 11th, so that unless the Tennessee arrived at San Domingo six days before she sailed from New York we could not possibly have heard of her. The Commissioners and their friends will laugh heartily over the fuss which has been made about them. Never was so great an outcry raised on so foolish a basis. A morning contemporary, which has told us that "two hemispheres would go into agonies of grief over the loss of its correspondent," may dry its tears and countermand its orders for mourning suits.

THE ORPHAN'S HOME.—A meeting of the subscribers to the fund of the New Hampshire Orphans' Home and School of Industry and the friends of that charity will take place in Eagle Hall, Concord, on Tuesday, Feb. 21, at 11 o'clock A. M. All friends of humanity are invited to attend. Through the exertions of Rev. D. S. Mack the sum of $10,000 has been raised to establish a Home, and the proposed meeting is to take steps to form a regularly corporation All orphan fund associations, and all churches, are requested to send one or more lady or gentlemen delegates to represent them.

☞ The Maine Senate has voted, 22 to 8, not to refer the petition of the Boston & Maine Railroad (to extend its road from South Berwick to Portland) to the next legislature.

☞ The Nova Scotchmen are much exercised in their minds over the fisheries question, fearing the Provincial interests may suffer from the joint high commission.

☞ Old newspapers for sale at this Office.

☞ JOB AND CARD PRINTING is neatly promptly and cheaply done at the Chronicle and Gazette Office; and the patronage of friends in this line is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

☞ THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE for this week, is now ready for delivery, at the Chronicle Office. Each number contains all the reading matter of the week's Dailies. Price $2 a year; single copies 5 cents,—in wrappers for mailing, if desired. Six copies for $10 per year, to Clubs—per mail or city carrier.

COMPLETION

—OF THE—

Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railway.

THE FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

COUPON OR REGISTERED,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

Principal and Interest Payable in Gold,

ON A FINISHED ROAD.

—FOR SALE—

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

The last rail of this important road was laid on the 26th of January, thus completing the enterprise and establishing a connection between St. Paul and St. Louis 90 miles shorter than any existing route and 65 miles shorter than any contemplated route between the same points.

By this line also the distance from Chicago to the great grain fields of Minnesota is shortened 45 miles, and transportation proportionately quickened and cheapened. The First Mortgage Bonds assume therefore at once on the completion of the line a position equal in intrinsic value to those of the Fort Wayne, Pennsylvania Central, Illinois Central or any other First Mortgage Bonds of completed trunk lines—not one of which sell below par.

The B. C. R. & M. Bonds are a First Mortgage, amounting only to $20,000 per mile on a line of road which has cost $40,000 per mile, the balance having been supplied by liberal subscription to the stock at par, made by wealthy farmers and parties interested along the line, and by similar subscriptions on the part of Towns and Counties through which the Road passes, which have adopted this system of giving their aid rather than issuing Town and County Bonds.

The earnings of the Road in its incomplete state, and while deprived entirely of through connection, have been for the past three months in excess of 12 per cent. on the amount of the Mortgage Bonds, after deducting operating expenses. No Road in the United States can show a better record during its inception. When is added to this lucrative way traffic the profits which will arise from the transportation of the vast wheat crop of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, all of which must seek a market over this line, the result cannot but be a showing which will give large Dividends on the Stock of the Company, after paying the interest to the Bond-holders as heretofore. The privilege which attaches to the Bonds of conversion into Stock at par will shortly assume practical value, as by this privilege the Bond-holders will, by the conversion be entitled to share in any excess of earnings which may accrue to the Road.

The Company has made extremely favorable arrangements for freight and passenger traffic with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. These arrangements will add largely to the profits of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road, as well as increasing its traffic receipts. The C. B. & Q. R. R. hasfurther agreed to set aside 50 per cent. of the gross earnings realized from the business with the B. C. R. & M. Co. for investment in the bonds of the latter company.

This arrangement secures a practical consolidation of the two companies, and makes the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Company permanently interested in the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road by its running arrangements with and investments in the first mortgage bonds of the latter.

A small amount, $400,000 in all, of the issue yet unsold are still offered at the subscription price of 90 and accrued interest in currency. Although the Company feel warranted in the present condition of their affairs in advancing the price of bonds, yet they have concluded to continue for the present the subscription at the same price as heretofore, in order to effect rapid sales and thus free themselves immediately from all floating indebtedness.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges.

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD Co

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowa at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

		Difference in Exchange.	Incr'd annual int.
6's, '81, Coupon,		$232.50	3.36 per cent. gold

The cash difference paid on some of the above will be somewhat modified after the payment of the January coupons.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the

FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold The Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 110,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mda3mwfeb8

MYSTERIES OF THE TOILET.

With your kind permission I have a few words to say to that Boston girl who asks the following questions of other girls:

"Could you love a man who wore false hair on his head when he had enough of his own? Who painted his face and improved his form as you improve (?) yours? Who pinched his feet with small shoes, his hands with small gloves, his waist with corsets, and then, as if he had not yet deformed himself enough, tied a huge bustle to his back, and thrust tiny mountains of wire into his bosom?"

I am disgusted with you, Boston, you, or any other girl, who follows the fashions, and then rails about them, for there is not a doubt that you are the very personification of style, from the jute switch that surmounts your cranium to the dainty French boots which torture your tiny feet. I hold that it is everybody's duty to look as well as they can, or as their circumstances will admit of; and what would be said of any woman who did not arrange her hair after the prevailing style, although there are plenty of ladies who do that, with only their own luxuriant tresses, without getting any credit for it, as every one says: "What a splendid switch;" whose boots and gloves did not set neatly, who wore ill-fitting dresses; and, supposing we do wear bustles, when they are properly adjusted, instead of being a deformity they are very becoming. There is nothing very injurious about them, and we must have some variety. Women dress to please the men, and there is not a man in Christendom, who has the moral courage to appear in public with a lady, dressed however modestly and sensibly, if in disregard of the prevailing fashion.

And when you come right down to the nicety of the point, and talk about getting one's self up to look pretty, the men use quite as much deception for that purpose as the women, and quite as much time and money. Your gentleman pays a barber by the week to keep his hair and whiskers in order, and to brush and clean and fix him up, and turn him out in the morning, fit for his place of business, and at night presentable for the evening; and a tailor by the year to keep him well dressed. And you just go to these tailors, to the "artist tailors" in the Temple place, in your city for instance, and see what they will tell you, if you can persuade them to tell, of stays, and corsets, padded chests, shoulders, and even legs, and to which the "tiny mountains of wire," which perhaps, some ladies wear—although for my part, I never saw such a thing—are not a circumstance.

Men quite as often use cosmetics as women. They wash in borax and lemon juice, use endless quantities of glycerine and sweet oil—and can tell the girls secrets about sleeping in kid gloves and poulticing hands and face to make them white. Perhaps you have not a big brother. I have, and a big cousin, both of them delight in looking as irresistible as possible, and some of the mysteries of the toilet into which these same lords of creation have initiated an girls would astonish you. Why, bless you, Boston, we didn't even know there was such a thing as "Pearlatine" until they told us. "Most all the students use it," says Cousin Tom, who is at Amherst; "can't get along without it, it makes them so fair." And then brother Jack tells who buys cosmetics at his drug store, and it is not the girls.

I know for a certainty of more men that paint, pink and white; and you can't find one lady in five hundred that does that. Almost every lady sometimes uses a little innocent toilet powder to counteract the effect of soap, and makes no secret of it, but that is a very different thing from poison paint. Do you say it is only young clerks and students that are so vain? You are mistaken. Vanity is not confined to a class. I have heard a lady say, who for years kept a large boarding house for gentlemen, and at different times numbered professional men, railroad officials, insurance agents, drummers, mechanics, &c., among her patrons, that nearly every toilet table was supplied with paint, and she knew they used it. And no harm in it either, only this universal painting make one almost fancy that "Civilization's a failure, and the Caucasian played out."

I like to see fair play. The men need not blame the women for what they are continually doing themselves. "Could you love a man who pinched his feet?" I should just like to see Boston or any other girl find a man to love who does not wear boots a full size too small for him. Did you ever see a man's bare foot? I wish you could see brother Jack's. They look about as much like a lady's soft, white, pretty, perfect-shaped feet as they do like mud turtles. Corns here, and dislocations there, bunions on the joints, and the toes piled up one on top of another, with the ends turned under. And I know by the sly talk I hear between him and his chums about ointments and corn plasters that he is not an exception.

After making the few follies of the gentler sex their own, in an exaggerated degree, these male bipeds assert their manliness by chewing tobacco, smoking cigars, or worse, a nasty pipe, by staggering home several times a week the worse for liquor, by keeping disreputable company of the opposite sex as their own, indulging in fast horses, betting at races, playing at billiards, and squandering their money generally. And it is very little appreciation the wives, mothers, daughters, and sisters get, for keeping themselves nice, pure, dainty, and pretty, and for doing everything in their power to make home pleasant and attractive for them. Boston had better let the men fight their own battles as they are quite able to do, and if she has anything smart to say, let it be on the other side of the question. To be sure her article would not stand a good chance of getting printed, for anything down on the woman every editor will give a conspicuous place, and every man chuckle over and read it aloud to his lady friends within hearing, and mark the piece and send it to those at a distance. Whether my letter is read or not, I have freed my mind and that is one satisfaction to—A SPRINGFIELD GIRL.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely Vegetable, containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are compounded of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from impurities or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving; consequently do not produce the desired effect. The CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and color, do not sweetenate their being sugar-coated. Price 50 cents per box.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND
FLUID EXT. SARSAPARILLA

Will radically exterminate from the system Scrofula, Syphillis, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Blotches, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

Being prepared expressly for the above Complaints, its blood-purifying properties are greater than other preparations of Sarsaparilla. It gives the complexion a clear and healthy colour and restores the patient to a state of Health and Purity. For purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of pains and swelling of the bones, ulcerations of the throat and legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Erysipelas and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, and Beautifying the Complexion. Price, $1.50 per bottle.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of Diabetes in which it has been given, Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder and Inflammation of the Kidneys, Ulceration of the Kidneys and Retention of Urine, Gravel, Dropsy, Diseases of Prostate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel, Brick-Dust Deposit and Mucous or Bloody Discharges, the best for Enfeebled and Delicate Constitutions of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms, Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruptions on the Face, Pallid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, etc.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from Habits of Dissipation, and Excesses and Imprudences in Life, Impurities of the Blood, etc., superseding Copaiba in Affections for which it is used, and Syphilitic Affections—in these Diseases used in connection with HELMBOLD'S Rose Wash.

LADIES.

In many affections peculiar to Ladies, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy—as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa, or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion or Habits of Dissipation. It is prescribed extensively by the most eminent physicians and Midwives for Enfeebled and Delicate constitutions, of both sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above diseases of symptoms.)

O

in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Price $1.50 per bottle.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED
ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of Cutaneous Affection, the only medicates Pimples, Spots, Scorbutic Dryness, Indurations of the Cutaneous Membrane, etc., dispels Redness, Roughness, Irritation, Inflammation, Rash, Moth Patches, Dryness of Scalp or Skin, Frost Bites, and all purposes for which Salves or Ointments are used, renders the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin. H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its high rank and continued patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a Toilet Appendage of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, Safety and Efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommend, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses and upward of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.

To insure or not to insure? That is the question. Whether it'll be nobler for my family to suffer The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune Or take a policy against those dangers, And, by insuring, end them? To fret, to fear, No more; and by a policy to end The heartache and the thousand natural shocks That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application's Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure, And pay the premium: ay—there's the rub For in that time what premiums may come Before I shuffle off the mortal coil Does make me pause, tightens my purse, And makes me rather pay the bills I have Than fly to others I know not of. Thus does meanness make brutes of us all.

LOGAN VS. PORTER.—The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial tells the following story:—

Grant, it is understood, was not anxious that Logan should be elected to the Senate, because the latter had not enthusiastically supported his San Domingo policy, and for other personal reasons. Porter, it was charged, has written several letters at the instigation of the President, to members of the Illinois Legislature, urging Logan's defeat. One of the on dits of Washington now is, that upon Logan's arrival here, after his election, Gen Porter called and said: "Allow me to congratulate you, General, upon your election. I called to have a little explanation, and to correct a misapprehension on your part, viz.: that the Administration had in any manner opposed or been inimical to your election. I beg to assure you, on the contrary, that the President felt great solicitude for your success."

"Ah!" said Logan, with just the slightest smile of contempt and disbelief creeping over his dark face, and reaching five or six letters in Porter's handwriting, with "Executive Mansion" in large print on the envelopes directed to different members of the Legislature, "did you write these?"

Porter modestly assented. Logan then opening the door at which Porter entered, and bowed "good night."

FEEDING MILCH COWS. — Is it best to feed cows in milk with hay twice or three times a day in winter? Is it better to feed ground-feed wet or dry? Will it pay at the present prices of labor to cut and steam the food? Will it pay to warm the water? Should cows be confined in the stable during the day in winter?

As to the first question—is it best to feed hay more than twice in a day?—there may be some reasons why hay should be fed but twice, and no doubt there are arguments which may be used in favor of feeding three times in a day than when fed twice, there is no doubt; but as to whether the food will be as thoroughly masticated and digested, and contribute as much to the production of milk and strength of the animal, it is not so fully settled, nor will it be satisfactorily settled until observing farmers shall carefully make experiments, and gives the result of their experiments through our agricultural papers.

Is it better to feed ground-feed wet or dry? It may be said that the saliva of the mouth is given to the animal in sufficient quantities to moisten their food, and that it is of such a nature as to very materially promote digestion, and that if water be substituted instead, the juices of the stomach will be diluted, and imperfect digestion will be the result. And this is no doubt true. The practice of wetting food for horses or for any other animal is, to say the least, of very doubtful expediency.

Will it pay to cut and steam food? The experiment is just being tried to some extent, and so far as it has been done has proved entirely satisfactory. It is claimed that a saving of one-fourth of the hay is the result, as well as quite an increase of milk.

Will it pay to warm the water for our milch cows in cold winter weather? Ascertain the amount of food necessary to keep up the heat of the body. If large quantities of water be taken at a very low temperature, a portion of the food will be expended in renewing again the heat of the body, probably more than enough to pay for warming over the fire, and there is little doubt that a greater amount of milk will be secreted, enough even to pay the expenses of warming the water.

Should milch cows be confined in the stable during the day time in winter? To secure the largest quantity of milk with the smallest amount of food, the cow must be at all times kept warm, sufficiently so not to expend any part of the food to keep up the animal heat. In cold weather, therefore, it is better to confine the animal in a warm stable.

—The Lynchburg, Virginia, Republican, in noticing the death of the dramatist Robinson, ascribes to him the authorship "of that sterling comedy 'The School for Scandal.'"

—The Queen has not had the neuralgia. The Court Circular says so.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND FLUID

Extract Catawba

GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, Etc. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

CONCENTRATED

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

LADIES.

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It specdily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

CONGRESS.

The Senate refused to pass the bill for the relief of certain naval contractors, over the veto of the President—57 to 2.

The order was adopted directing inquiry as to the propriety of Secretary Boutwell's Pacific Railroad policy.

The session of the House was entirely taken up with debate on the report on the West Point investigation. Finally the resolution ordering a court of inquiry into the conduct of the officers of the academy was passed; also that directing the restoration of the three cadets; also ordering the first class to be court-martialed and the ringleaders to be expelled.

THE AMERICAN COMMISSIONERS.—The commissioners appointed by the President, if correctly reported, are unobjectionable in point of character, and are combined with great prudence and judgment. The Democratic member is a most admirable selection, made no doubt at the suggestion of Mr. Fish, who is an old New Yorker, has long appreciated his character. But by whomsoever suggested, the appointment of Judge Nelson is truly excellent, and will command universal confidence.

The firmness, moderation, patriotism and sound judgment of Mr. Fish himself and of his eminent New York associate on the commission, justify a belief that the honor of the country and the interests of the claimants are in safe hands.

Gen. Schenck's place among the commissioners belongs to him by courtesy if not of right. He accepted the mission to England in the expectation that he would be intrusted with this negotiation; he has been feted by his friends on that presumption; and it would be a rude indignity which he does not deserve to exclude him from any share in the business. His vigorous sense and thorough knowledge of American feeling make him a valuable member of the commission.

The other two members seem more like lay figures, but they are fitly selected to supplement the commission. The interest of New-England, and especially Massachusetts, in the fisheries, explains the appointment of Mr. Hoar, whose independent and legal knowledge may be of service in other respects. If we do not miscredit, there is still a lingering question unadjusted on the northwest coast relating to Vancouver's Island, which, we surmise, accounts for the appointment of Senator Williams of Oregon. We have no fault to find with the composition of the American side of the commission.

The new Alabama legislation is therefore to be started in the line of sound precedents, and in conformity with the maxim that in many councils is safety.

HOW IT FEELS TO BE STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—Geo. Mills writes as follows to the Chicago Tribune:—

On the evening of the 10th day of July, 1870, I was struck by lightning, under the following circumstances: I am a farmer, and had gone to the pasture, three-fourths of a mile from the house, on horseback, to drive home the cows. A heavy shower had just fallen, accompanied by much lightning and loud thunder, and a little rain was still falling—we would say it was "sprinkling." While riding through the field I discovered a small cluster of cockle-burrs, a noxious weed that infests many farms in this section of the country. The cattle were feeding near me. I dismounted and held the horse in one hand, and proceeded to pull up the burrs with the other. While stooping to pull the last one, my hand grasped close to the root, the horse standing with his head partly over my stooping body, a flash of lightning struck the horse, entering his head, in and behind his left ear, tearing two holes in the skin behind the ear, and though he was wet with the rain, the hair was singed from his head, neck, shoulders, and one front leg to the ground; he, of course, was instantly killed. A small portion of the electric fluid struck me on the right temple, singing the lashes of the right eye, and slightly burning or scalding the face, rendering me unconscious for a little time. The following were the sensations and phenomena as I observed and remember them: First, I felt myself enveloped in a sheet of perfectly white light, accompanied by a sense of suffocating by heat. The light could be seen as well through the back of the head as with the eyes, and appeared to extend several feet on all sides me; then I experienced a sense of danger, and tried to escape injury from my horse.

Then followed a troubled dream, in which I was hauling a load of hay in company with another person, and, in spite of all the efforts I could make to avoid it, the load of hay was about to fall on me. When in the dream I made a last desperate effort to spring upon the hay, I found myself standing on my feet. The first thing I observed was the cattle, in fright, running from me; and next, that I stood in front of the prostrated horse. Instantly I comprehended the situation, and listening to hear the thunder that should have accompanied the lightning, but no thunder could be heard. I felt no pain and no sensation, except a mental exultation, which lasted but a few seconds. At first I thought the lightning had struck me, and had slightly stunned the horse and myself. Then I observed the water on every hair, and the moisture in the eyes, nostrils and mouth of the horse to be boiling, having the appearance and making a noise like fine drops of water on a hot iron, which continued for several seconds. This was a phenomenon I never have heard of, probably because a person near enough to see it, is most always rendered unconscious too long to make the observation. Judging from the distance the cattle had run, I was probably unconscious less than six seconds. Finding that the horse did not breathe, I proceeded to pull off the saddle and bridle, and then I felt a severe pain in my head, which continued for several hours, followed by soreness, which seemed to be in the substance of the brain, with an inclination to inflammation, but at the end of a week no effects of the lightning were felt.

☞ Our exchanges note the return of Reuel Durkee from Washington without "that hat,"—but none of them state any reason for his visiting Washington. His room-mate didn't know.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Poisonous Medicines.

The theory that the virus of disease can be safely counteracted by doses of poison, is false and dangerous. Within the last twenty-five years, not less than a score of virulent poisons have been added to the repository of the medical profession. They are given in small doses, otherwise they would destroy life immediately; but even in minute quantities, they produce, ultimately, very disastrous effects. It is unwise and unphilosophical to employ, as remedies, powerful and insidious drugs, which, in subjugating one disease, sow the seeds of another still more unmanageable. None of these terrible medicaments operates with as much directness and certainty upon the causes of disease as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a tonic and corrective, without a single deleterious ingredient in its composition. Arsenic and quinia are given for intermittents; bromide of potassium for nervous disorders; strychnine and prussic acid for general debility; mercury, in various forms, for liver complaint; preparations of chloroform and opium for sleeplessness; and yet these deadly drugs do not compare, as specifics for the diseases above enumerated, with that wholesome vegetable invigorant and alterative, while they are all so pernicious that it is astonishing any physician should take the responsibility of prescribing them. Let invalids, for their own sakes, try the bitters before they resort to the poisons. The relief they will experience from a course of the harmless specific, will render a recourse to the unsafe preparations referred to, quite unnecessary.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a totally bad case of disease of the lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid a climate in which one-half of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is irregular, and subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. The season for saying so are, that patients are first able to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature, and it is not necessary to say, that where a consumptive exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly; therefore my advice is, go where you will be troubled with a fresh or prevailing cast winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have mentioned, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or coughs; but for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For seven years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined an average of five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully, and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly every family is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than any other in the Initiated. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the interior. On the other hand, it is stated that fifteen-twelfths at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are more thousands of victims there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily induced to believe in taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small-pox, &c.; but they are not; they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They are so attentive to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and allows the patient to walk, drive, or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands beforehand.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a free use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. It is quite a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry; I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the assimilation of the same, comes good blood, and with it more flesh and health, is closely followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and abates, the evening chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take the exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact that many are supposed to have taken Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what appeared to be hopeless cases of consumption, is evidence you will, you will be almost certain to find some your consumptive relative has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

Go far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its baneful effects behind. In fact, they are specific in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit, and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may drink water, and eat watermelons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the fear of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. This is the thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer decides the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can easily learn whether they are curable or not. But I decide it distinctly understand, that the use of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition, there is no more danger of their being made sick by them, than there is of one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or lesser bronchial or pulmonical tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1ydawfeb16

AID FOR THE DESTITUTE

In France.

At a meeting held February 1st, 1871, in the rooms of the Massachusetts Hospital Life Office, to consider the question of sending a cargo of provisions to France for free distribution, it was unanimously decided that an appeal ought to be made to the citizens of Boston, to raise, at once, by subscription, a fund sufficient to load a large vessel with flour and other provisions. This appeal has already been so liberally responded to, that the firm U. S. Steamer "Worcester," the use of which for transporting the supplies has been granted by the government, will immediately begin loading. We now invite the citizens of New England to join us in furnishing the means for promptly despatching her upon her errand of peace and good will. We need at least twenty-five thousand dollars more to effect our object satisfactorily.

A careful and experienced agent of our Committee will precede the vessel, for the purpose of consulting other relief committees who are already on the field of suffering, and there making arrangements for judiciously distributing the aid furnished.

With the facilities thus provided we hope to make every ten dollars supply one person with cheap food for an hundred days.

New subscriptions may be sent to the Treasurer, Mr. PATRICK T. JACKSON, No. 24 Franklin Street, or to any member of the Executive Committee, or of the Subscription Committee. Persons who have already subscribed will lighten the work of the Committee, if they will send checks as soon as convenient to the Treasurer.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Human Hair—Mrs. Lovell.

☞ Dr. Gilbert sells "Broken Candies," and whole ones, too, of his own make and of all flavors, at 25 cts. per pound, at the Daniel St. Fruit Store. He warrants the purity of the materials, and that no poisonous coloring matters are used. We have tried samples, and found them equal to the production of the most noted confectioners.

☞ The temperance lectures by Mr. Edward Carswell have been attended by large audiences, who have been pleasant entertained by the speaker's anecdotes, illustrations and dramatic manner. He addressed the citizens of Newcastle, last evening, and we hear will speak again in Portsmouth before he leaves the city. Mr. Carswell is an eloquent advocate of a righteous cause, and we advise the temperate and intemperate to hear him. There is great need of such men as he in the lecture field and ample room for doing good everywhere.

DANCING.—Mr. Samuel Lamprey, the veteran Terpsichorean instructor, finished a very successful course of lessons to an adult class with a private Assembly on Tuesday evening, the 14th. To the many hundreds of our residents, ladies and gentlemen, whom Mr. Lamprey has taught in years past, we need not say that the skill in dancing acquired by the class from one quarter's tuition, as exhibited at this Assembly, was something remarkable; or that the company was good, and the occasion a pleasant one.

Mr. J. G. Anthoine has also had an adult class under his instruction, who have mastered the intricacies of the light fantastic in a manner most creditable to their teacher and highly gratifying to themselves. Mr. A.'s class will finish their course on Tuesday next, also with a private Assembly; and both classes unanimously vote that dancing is as fascinating an amusement to engage in as it is graceful to look upon.

CARRIAGE WORK.—Messrs. Came Brothers had on exhibition on Friday, (and will also have to-day,) in front of the Post Office, a fine "Cut-under, Extension-top Carryall"—purposely left unpainted, that the quality of the work and material in wood and iron may be examined. No inferior wood is used by this firm in constructing their justly-celebrated carriages, and the metal employed is the best quality Norway iron—the latter without welds, all the "offsetts" being worked out of the body of the iron. Messrs. Came invite the closest scrutiny of the material and workmanship of any and all carriages from their manufactory.

This firm have made 41 sleighs this winter, and though purchasers have had little chance to use them for anything else than to look at, the manufacturers have but one now on hand. The reputation of their goods is already widely extended, and wherever they been introduced they have given unqualified satisfaction.

MR. BARTLETT'S READING at the Temple, Thursday evening, drew one of the largest audiences of the season, and the pecuniary results must have been quite flattering to the talented gentleman, who so kindly offered his services in a good cause, and to the noble men who risked their lives to save their comrades from drowning in that terrible storm of Jan. 22d.

Mr. Bartlett opened by introducing several of the heroes to the audience, and graphically pictured the storm, the efforts of the two fishermen to return to land, the offer of two others to save them, their failure, and the last resort of the brave men in the White Rover. The rescue, the wreck of the vessel and the landing of the crew and the boatmen at Ipswich Lighthouse furnished material for a thrilling description, which found hearty response from the enthusiastic audience. He presented a fine picture of Chaplain Photious Fisk of Boston, the first contributor to the relief fund, to Capt. Downs.

Mr. Bartlett's reading was as usual, fine and entertaining, and the cause for which he spoke seemed an additional incentive for making the occasion an additional triumph for his genius. We hope that efforts for the relief of the Caswell Brothers and the crew will not cease here. There is yet much to be done to repay the owners of the "White Rover" for their loss, and the debt of gratitude to the crew can have no limit, and every person in this vicinity should feel like assuming a share as if it were really his own.

☞ It is said that the increased gas consumption in the Board of Aldermen, consequent on the retrenchment speech (in five editions), warrants the action of the Gas Company in reducing the rates to the general public.

CITY COUNCIL.

IN BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN, the following persons were appointed Special Police without pay:—Robert Adams, Kearsarge Mills; Robert N. Anderson, Navy Yard Landing; James Twombly, Eastern Railroad Depot.

A communication from City Marshal Kent, asking for instructions relative to unlicensed dealers in old junk and unlicensed billiard tables, was accepted.

A resolution discontinuing further allowance for keeping City Marshal's horse, was passed.

Further time was granted to Committee on Gas Lights relative to gas for Street Lights, and to Committee on School Houses on heating High School.

A bill entitled "an ordinance relating to compensation of Collector of Taxes" was laid on the table, after the brevet "Mayor" of Ward Three had gone through the fifth rehearsal of his remarks on retrenchment.

The Chief Engineer of the Fire Department was authorized to purchase hose for engine on Pleasant Street.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—In your issue of Tuesday, you pay a very deserved compliment to the superior attainments of Chief Engineer D. B. Macomb, but do him great injustice in the statement that he "did not relish the duty to which he was assigned, for the reason that he deemed the Tennessee an unsafe vessel." This is a mistake. Mr. Macomb did not relish being detached from this Yard and ordered to report for sea duty, having but five days for preparation. He expected and desired to remain here until Spring and then go to the Pacific, but being ordered to sea he was pleased with the ship to which he was ordered, and frequently spoke of her as a very fine ship indeed. After joining the Tennessee and before sailing with the Commissioners, he wrote home, expressing perfect satisfaction with both the ship and his messmates.

I was sorry to see the statement in your paper, and more so to see the incorrect portion of it copied into other papers, while the complimentary and thoroughly correct portion, which alone does justice to Mr. Macomb, has not by them, been noticed

—OF THE—

Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railway.

THE FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

COUPON OR REGISTERED,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

Principal and Interest Payable in Gold,

ON A FINISHED ROAD.

—FOR SALE—

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

The last rail of this important road was laid on the 26th of January, thus completing the enterprise and establishing a connection between St. Paul and St. Louis 90 miles shorter than any existing route and 65 miles shorter than any contemplated route between the same points.

By this line also the distance from Chicago to the great grain fields of Minnesota is shortened 45 miles, and transportation proportionately quickened and cheapened. The First Mortgage Bonds assume therefore at once on the completion of the line a position equal in intrinsic value to those of the Fort Wayne, Pennsylvania Central, Illinois Central or any other First Mortgage Bonds of completed trunk lines—not one of which sell below par.

The B. C. R. & M. Bonds are a First Mortgage, amounting only to $20,000 per mile on a line of road which has cost $40,000 per mile, the balance having been supplied by liberal subscription to the stock at par, made by wealthy farmers and parties interested along the line, and by similar subscriptions on the part of Towns and Counties through which the Road passes, which have adopted this system of giving their aid rather than issuing Town and County Bonds.

The earnings of the Road in its incomplete state, and while deprived entirely of through connection, have been for the past year three times in excess of 12 per cent. on the amount of the Mortgage Bonds, after deducting operating expenses. No Road in the United States can show a better record during its inception. When is added to this lucrative way traffic the profits which will arise from the transportation of the vast wheat crop of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, all of which must seek a market over this line, the result cannot but be a showing which will give large Dividends on the Stock of the Company, after paying the interest to the Bond-holders as heretofore. The privilege which attaches to the Bonds of conversion into Stock at par will shortly assume practical value, as by this privilege the Bond-holders will, by the conversion be entitled to share in any excess of earnings which may accrue to the Road.

The Company has made extremely favorable arrangements for freight and passenger traffic with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. These arrangements will add largely to the profits of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road, as well as increasing its traffic receipts. The C. B. & Q. R. R. has further agreed to set aside 50 per cent. of the gross earnings realized from the business with the B. C. R. & M. Co. for investment in the bonds of the latter company.

This arrangement secures a practical consolidation of the two companies, and makes the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Company permanently interested in the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road by its running arrangements with and investments in the first mortgage bonds of the latter.

A small amount, $400,000 in all, of the issue yet unsold are still offered at the subscription price of 90 and accrued interest in currency. Although the Company feel warranted in the present condition of their affairs in advancing the price of bonds, yet they have concluded to continue for the present the subscription at the same price as heretofore, in order to effect rapid sales and thus free themselves immediately from all floating indebtedness.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges.

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000), and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the

FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold; the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-Annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacific, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mda3mwfeb8

COTTAGE AND HALL.

With eyes to her sewing-work dropped down,
And with hair in a tangled shower,
And with roses kissed by the sun, so brown,
Young Janey sat in her bower—
A garden nook with work and book;
And the bars that crossed her girlish gown,
Were as blue as the flaxen flower.
And her little heart, it beat and beat,
Till the work shook on her knee,
For the golden combs are not so sweet,
To the honey-lasting bee,
As to her her thoughts of Alexis.

And across a good green piece of wood,
And across a field of flowers,
A modest, lowly house there stood,
That held her eyes for hours—
A cottage low, hid under the snow,
Of cherry and bean-vine flowers.
Sometimes it held her all day long,
For there at her distaff bent,
And spinning a double thread of song,
And of wool, in her sweet content,
Sat the mother of young Alexis.

And Janey turned things in and out,
As foolish maids will do,
What could the song be all about?
Yet well enough she knew,
That while the fingers drew the wool,
As fine as fine could be,
The loving mother-heart was full,
Of her boy gone to sea—
Her blue-eyed boy, her pride and joy,
On the cold and cruel sea,
Her darling boy, Alexis.

And beyond the good green piece of wood,
And the field of flowers so gay,
Among its ancient oaks there stood,
With gables high and gray,
A lofty hall, where mistress of all,
She might dance the night away.
And as she sat and sewed her seam,
In the garden bower that day,
Alike from seam and alike from dream,
Her truant thoughts would stray;
It would be so fine like a lady to shine,
And to dance the night away!
And oh and alas for Alexis!

And suns have risen and suns gone down,
On cherry and bean-vine bowers,
And the tangled curls o'er the eyes dove-brown,
They fall no more in showers;
Nor are there bars in the homespun gown,
As blue as the flaxen flowers.
Ay, winter wind and winter rain,
Have beaten away the bowers,
And little Janey is Lady Jane,
And dances away the hours!
Maidens she hath to play and sing,
And her mother's house and land,
Could never buy the jewel ring,
She wears on her lily hand—
The hand that is false to Alexis!

Ah, bright were the sweet young cheeks and eyes,
And the silken gown was gay,
When first to the hall as mistress of all,
She came on her wedding-day.
"Now where, my bride," says the groom in pride—
"Now where will your chamber be?"
And from wall to wall she praises all,
But chooses the one by the sea!
And the suns they rise and the suns they set,
But she rarely sees their gleam,
For often her eyes with tears are wet,
And the sewing-work is unfinished yet,
And so is the girlish dream.

For when her ladies gird at her,
And her lord is cold and stern,
Old memories in her heart must stir,
And she can not choose but mourn,
For the gentle boy, Alexis!

And alas ya, when the dance is done,
And her weary feet are free,
She sits in her chamber all alone,
At the window next the sea,
And combs her shining tresses down,
By the light of the fading stars,
And maybe thinks of her homespun gown,
With the pretty flax-flower bars.
For when the foam of wintry gales,
Runs white along the blue,
Hearing the rattle of stiffened sails,
She trembles through and through,
And maybe thinks of Alexis.

—By Alice Carey, in Harper's Magazine for March.

THE BEST HORSES TO WEAR.—There is a great difference of opinion on this subject, but I here offer what I have learned from experience: The subject generally in discussion is, whether large or small horses are the best, but this depends mainly on the form and constitution of the horse in view. A large horse may out-work a small one; in some instances, it may be the reverse of this, but what we want to know is, which is the best for general use? I think this depends on what work they are to be used at. It is universally known that a large one will draw the larger load, and from this we would infer that they are the best for this purpose, which is generally the case if they are of a good form.

One great fault with many of the large horses of the present time is, they have too long legs, or in other words they have too long legs to be of proportionate size with the body; such horses will soon wear out. For common use there is no kind of horses better calculated than a small, solid, robust one, such as the French breed, which allow of much more hard fare and harder usage, than any other kind I know of. For heavy farm work, select a large horse, but in this case a very large horse is not needed, for they will tire sooner than a somewhat smaller one.

But to sum the whole up together, if you want a horse that will bear driving hard one hour, working the next, doing heavy work one day and light the next, select a medium-size horse, with a short thick body, and not too long legs, and be sure and feed him well and he will prove serviceable for many years.—Lake Village Times.

—There is no better fertilizer for strawberries than ashes. We remember that one of the best crop we ever had was raised when the only manure used was wood ashes. All soils will not be alike benefited by such an application, but it is always safe to use ashes in connection with other manures. If ashes only are used, there are fewer weeds, as no seed can be introduced by the manure.—Ex.

BRIGGS & BRO'S
Illustrated and Descriptive Catalogue
OF FLOWER & VEGETABLE SEEDS,
AND SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS.
FOR 1871.
Will be ready for mailing by the middle of January, notwithstanding our great loss of type, paper, engravings, &c., by fire, which destroyed the Job Printing office of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, 25th December, 1870. It will be printed on a most elegant new tinted paper, and illustrated with nearly
Five Hundred Original Engravings,
And two finely executed Colored Plates—specimens for all of which were grown by ourselves the ensuing season from our own stock of Seeds. In the originality, execution and extent of the engravings it is unlike and eminently superior to any other Catalogue of "Floral Guide" extant.
The Catalogue will consist of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered Seeds from us the last season. To others a charge of 15 cents per copy will be made, which is not the value of the Colored Plates. We assure our friends that the inducements we offer to purchasers of Seeds, as to quality and extent of Stock, Discounts and Premiums are unsurpassed. Please send orders for Catalogues without delay.
Our Colored Chromo for 1871
Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent Forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers of natural size and color. We design to make it the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 19x24 inches. The retail value would be half a dollar. We shall, however, furnish it to customers at 75 cents per copy, and offer it as a Premium upon orders for Seeds. See catalogue when out.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
No. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the Patent Laws and Report furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF
HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.
To insure or not to insure? That is the question. Whether I will be noble in my family to suffer The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune Or take a policy against those dangers, And, by insuring, end them? To fret, to fear, No more; and by a policy to end The heartache and the thousand natural shocks That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application's Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure. And pay the premium: ay—there's the rub For in that time what premiums may come Before I shuffle off this mortal coil Does make me pause, tightens my purse, And makes me rather pay the bills I have (than fly to others I know not of. Thus does meanness make brutes of us all.

MARY AND HER LAMB.

Parodies on "Mary had a little lamb" have become quite popular of late. One of the best of its kind, a double parody indeed on "Mary" and "Truthful James," is the following:—

Which I wish to recite,
And my language is plain—
That for fleece that is white,
And for schooling in vain,
The Mary lambkin is peculiar,
Which the same I would rise to explain.

Ba-ba was his name;
And I hope I may die,
If I know what the same
May express or imply;
But his voice, it was plaintive and babe-like,
As I frequently remarked to Mari.

It was April the third,
And quite nice was mint-sauce,
Which it might be inferred
Was on Ba-ba, of course;
But he played it that day on the master and school,
In a way I would scorn to endorse.

Which we had a day school,
And Ba-ba chose to go;
It was reading, the fool
Not the first word did know,
But he frisked as he went to his class,
With a frisk neither pensive nor slow.

For the master grew mad,
In a way that I grieve,
And my feelings were sad,
At his off and Nyzleove;
Which were stuffed full of rattans and rulers,
And the same with intent to bereave.

But the jumps that were made
By that frisky white pet,
And the pranks that he played
Took the children—you bet,
Till at last he knocked down a big bottle,
And the same spilled the ink that was jet.

Then eyes looked at lamb,
And the school screamed "ha-ha,"
And the master said "D——n,
Do you know where you are?
We cannot do write for this lambkin"—
And he went for that frisky Ba-ba.

In the scene that ensued,
I was absent, I think,
But the floor it was strewed,
Like nutmeg in a drink,
With the fleece that rattan had been hiding,
Of the lamb that ran foul of the ink.

Every leg of the beast,
Was a gambolling tool,
So a black-leg at least,
Was the fleecy legged fool;
And we found on his tail, which was taper,
What is pulled over eyes—that is wool.

Which is why I recite,
And my language is plain—
That for fleece that is white,
And for schooling in vain,
The Mary lambkin is peculiar,
Which the same I am free to maintain.

THE "CARNIVAL" AT WASHINGTON.—This scheme, the inception of which has been the food for much laughter and perhaps derision, is evidently destined to create in its success infinitely much more laughter and amusement. It is in the hands of a large proportion of the wealthy and wide awake citizens of Washington, who are laboring zealously for its success, with a view of making it an annual festival, which will draw to Washington large throngs of visitors. It commences next Tuesday with a military parade and review by the President and Gen. Sherman, followed by civil processions, horse and goat races on the Avenue, and a tournament of the Southern pattern. In the evening the Avenue will be brilliantly illuminated, a grand ball be given at Cocoran Art Gallery, and no end to the banquets. Next day, more horse racing, foot-racing, wheelbarrow and sack races, and other sports, with a great masquerade parade of fanciful characters and conceits, which, is anticipated will surpass anything of the kind ever before seen in this country. In the evening another grand civic ball and three or four masquerade balls will close the proceedings.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND FLUID

Extract Catawba

GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, ETC. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

Will radically exterminate from the System Scrofula, Syphilitic, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Blotches, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

BEING PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE ABOVE COMPLAINTS, ITS BLOOD-PURIFYING PROPERTIES ARE GREATER THAN ANY OTHER PREPARATION OF SARSAPARILLA. IT GIVES THE COMPLEXION A CLEAR AND HEALTHY COLOR AND RESTORES THE PATIENT TO A STATE OF HEALTH AND PURITY, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, AND REMOVING ALL CHRONIC CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD; AND THE ONLY RELIABLE AND EFFECTUAL KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PAINS AND SWELLINGS OF THE BONES, ULCERATIONS OF THE THROAT AND LEGS, BLOTCHES, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ERYSIPELAS AND ALL SCALY ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

CONCENTRATED

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

THE GRAND DIURETIC,

has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

LADIES.

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

MONDAY, FEB. 20, 1871.

FRANCE.

M. Thiers is prominently named as President.

General McMahon and several other French officers of rank, who were held by Germany as prisoners of war, having been elected to the French national assembly and received their liberty from the German government, are on their way to Bordeaux.

The armistice existing between the French and German armies will expire on the 24th instant, and will not be prolonged beyond that date.

The capitulation of Belfort to the Prussians has been concluded on the condition that the garrison evacuate the fortress with full military honors. They are also to be allowed to occupy the departments of Cote d'Or and Jura.

M. M. Thiers, Chandordy, Favre and two generals of France have been named by the French government as a commission for the negotiation of peace measures with Germany. From pre sent indications it is considered certain that these negotiations will have a successful issue and that peace will be speedily concluded on a lasting basis between the two nations.

The reported German proposition for peace runs thus; The cession of Alsace and Lorraine and a portion of the department of Doubs; an indemnity of one and a half millions of thalers; the Prussians to keep all the materials of war they captured, and the French fleet and the colonies to remain intact.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, on the 17th, Mr. Nye, from the committee on Territories, reported back the House bills for the apportionment of members of the Territorial councils of Wyoming and Colorado.

Also from the same committee, adversely to the Territory of Alaska.

The District of Columbia territorial bill was passed.

In the House, the army appropriation bill was discussed, The expenses of the army were reduced $2,000,000 last year.

Mr. Jones of Kentucky wanted the Arlington estate returned to the heirs of the rebel Lee, and Mr. Butler secured the floor to reply on some other day.

YORK COUNTY (ME.) ITEMS.—Rev. A. J. Weaver of Biddeford has resigned the pastorate of the Universalist Church at Biddeford. The Journal says that during the three years he has been with them they have been very successful, nearly liquidating a debt on their church of some five thousand dollars, beside raising two thousand yearly for sustaining religious worship. They have a large and interesting Sabbath School for which they are largely indebted to the efforts of Mrs. Weaver.

At Biddeford on the 11th, a young girl, who has been at work in the Laconia Mills for some time, was suddenly deprived of her reasoning powers and consequently was in great agony. It was a case almost heart-rending to witness. After a long time she was sufficiently quieted to be conveyed to her home, though in a very feeble state of mind and health.

Mrs. Julia Warren lost a finger at the Laconia Mills, Biddeford, on the 11th.

The tax rate of Biddeford for 1870, was 2.45—1869, 2.70. The valuation of 1860, was $4,598,647; of 1870, 5,682,402; increase, 24 per cent. Population in 1860, 9350; in 1870, 10,285; increase, 19 per cent.

Population of Saco in 1860, 6226: in 1870, 5758; decrease, 7 1-2 per cent. Increase in valuation, 4 per cent.

The lumber men of Alfred have improving the late fall of snow, and immense quantities of logs have been hauled to the river and to the depot of the P. & R. R. R. where they are taken to Bar Mills.

The Biddeford Journal states that if the Saco River Railroad be built, the present business in lumber between there and Bonny Eagle, will load 5395 cars per year, as soon as the road is opened, equal to a freight train of 18 cars each working day in the year. There are sold in Saco and Biddeford, each year, 19,800 bbls. of flour (198 car loads) 177,300 bushels of corn (50 car loads), 26,820 bushels of oats (38 car loads) &c., &c., all of which is now shipped from Portland and Boston at the extra freight to pay for.

—Fifty pounds of war paint has been ordered for Spotted Tail's braves, who are consequently suspected of a hankering for the scalps of some of their neighbors.

—Earl de Grey, one of the English Alabama claims commissioners, is the Grand Master of Masons in England.

☞ The following is a complete description of the Tennessee as she sailed from New York on the 8th of January last. She is a wooden steam frigate of 3,000 tons burden, built at the Brooklyn Navy Yard in 1864. Her armament consists of twenty-five guns, and her engines are of the Ericsson pattern, capable of working up to 800 horse power. She was designed expressly for speed, and was filled with machinery, boilers and coal bunkers, leaving little room for the accommodation of officers and crew. No use being found for her in this condition, she was greatly altered. Four boilers were taken out, the coal-bunkers on the berth deck were removed, and a light spar deck was added to her, making her a double-banked frigate. She is a good sea boat, tolerably fast under steam, and a clipper under sail. Her battery is very heavy, consisting of sixteen nine-inch guns, in broadside, on the gun deck; two eleven-inch guns, pivoted, on the spar deck; two nine-inch guns and two one hundred pounder rifles, in broadside, on the spar deck; one sixty-pounder rifle on the forecastle, and two twenty-pounder Dahlgren rifle howitzers on the poop — twenty-five guns in all. The officers on board are the following:

Captain—William G. Temple.
Lieutenant-Commander and Executive Officer—Geo. W. Haywood.
Lieutenant-Commander and Navigator—Charles S. Cotton.
Lieutenant-Commanders—George F. Wilde and D. E. Giddon.
Lieutenant—S. Wallace Graham.
First Lieutenant of Marines—Frank D. Webster.
Masters—Frank W. Neal and Abbott S. Rose.
Ensigns—Dennis H. Mahan, John H. Coffin, H. T. Monohan, J. W. Graiden and Richard Mitchell.
Chief Engineer—David B. Macomb.
First Assistant Engineers—Edward A. Magee, Chas. J. McConnell.
Second Assistant Engineer—Edward G. Allen.
Paymaster—Thomas Caswell.
Surgeon—James McMaster.
Passed Assistant Surgeon—William S. Fort.
Assistant Surgeon—M. R. Roth.
Sailmaker—Francis Boon.
Gunner—Thomas P. Venable.
Carpenter—W. D. Toy.
Boatswain—Charles H. Miller.

The party on board comprised Ex-Senator Benj. F. Wade, Prof. Andrew D. White and Dr. S. G. Howe, Commissioners; Allan A. Burton, Secretary to the Commission; Dr. C. C. Parry, of the Department of Agriculture, botanist; R. R. Hitt and John P. Foley, stenographers; Professor Blake, of the State Department, geologist; and Professor T. F. Crane, of the Cornell University, private secretary to President White; General Sigel, Captain Henry Wade, and Fred Douglass and son; G. F. Adams, New York World; G. Oscar Sawyer, New York Herald; Gen. H. V. Boynton, representative of the New York Associated Press and the Cincinnati Gazette; Homer J. Ramsdell, of the New York Tribune; C. C. Fulton, of the Baltimore American; Arthur R. Shepherd, of the Washington Republican; and Charles F. Hart, of the New York Standard.

☞ Rev. J. F. W. Ware, pastor of the church of Our Saviour, Baltimore, delivered a sermon on Sunday last on the subject—"May I go to the Theatre!" Among other things he said: "The more Christians go to the theatre the more Christian it will be. If we endeavor to raise the social tone, to encourage a grand art and make its noblest impersonations welcome and desirable, we shall be doing the best thing we can for it, for ourselves, for the public, making it sure in the incoming future that the theatre shall stand side by side, hand in hand with the press and the pulpit in the elevation of popular taste and the teaching of Christian morality."

☞ But little doubt is entertained by Secretary Boutwell as to the ultimate success of the new loan. A number of banks, distributed over various parts of the country, have already intimated a desire to avail themselves of the privilege of exchanging their 5-20's for new bonds, and it is believed that many others will shortly follow. With reference to its progress in the European market, the Secretary states, although its negotiation was much impeded at first by the war between France and Germany, it is now in a state which does not admit of much doubt as to its ultimate success.

—The total subscription to the French relief fund in New York, up to Tuesday night was $77,630. A concert in Steinway Hall, on Wednesday night, netted about $3000 for the relief of France. The Frenchman of San Francisco raised $12,000 for the French relief fund on Wednesday night, making $192,000 since the war begun. Americans also subscribed liberally.

—It is asserted that Francisco d'Assis, husband of the ex-Queen Isabella, has offered to swear allegiance to King Amadeus.

Poisonous Medicines.

The theory that the virus of disease can be safely counteracted by doses of poison, is false and dangerous. Within the last twenty-five years, not less than a score of virulent poisons have been added to the repository of the medical profession. They are given in small doses, otherwise they would destroy life immediately; but even in minute quantities, they produce, ultimately, very disastrous effects. It is cowise and unphilosophical so employ, as remedies, powerful and insidious drugs, which, in subjugating one disease, sow the seeds of another still more unmanageable. None of these terrible medicaments operates with as much directness and certainty upon the causes of disease as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a tonic and corrective, without a single deleterious ingredient in its composition. Arsenic and quinia are given for intermittents; bromide of potassium for nervous disorders; strychnine and prussic acid for general debility; mercury, in various forms, for liver complaint; preparations of chloroform and opium for sleeplessness; and yet these deadly drugs do not compare, as specifics for the diseases above enumerated, with that wholesome vegetable invigorant and alterative, while they are all so pernicious that it is astonishing any physician should take the responsibility of prescribing them. Let invalids, for their sakes, try the Bitters before they resort to the poisons. The relief they will experience from a course of the harmless specific, will render a recourse to the unsafe preparations referred to, quite unnecessary.

BULLETS FOR EUROPE.

Lead is wanted in Europe. Send over the millions of bottles of new fangled hair colorers that "remain over" and can't be sold here. They are pretty much all lead, and will never be wanted in this country, because all sane people who desire to restore the tinge of youth to their gray or grizzled locks use

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The lead-saturated and sulphur saturated nostrums have gone down, down, down, where they belong; while the EXCELSIOR DYE has gone up with a rapidity that takes to the utmost the facilities for manufacturing it. It is to-day the MOST POPULAR HAIR DYE in the world, and deserves to be, for it is the safest and the best. As a dressing after the dyeing, use

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued in restoring a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A comfortable hotel is kept there by Mead. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

Two hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Melonville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is a beautiful place, on a river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but this is a good sign, as it shows they have an appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly; therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the places I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or a cough. But those who have lungs not diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia during each week, where I examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive and embracing every possible phase of lung disease has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take the vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious attacks than a more northern latitude. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it is not prevalent to largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were not so alarmed at exposure, and taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, yellow fever, &c.! Many consumptives think that when they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of recovery.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know, that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in cases where a free use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry; I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healthy tone of the nervous system. Gradually and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have made the remark to me in Florida, the question be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact is, I have cured many of what that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

No fear as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its mischiefs behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have any fear of being taken with cold diarrhœa, causes, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take one of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or your bowels run too loose in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or any other fruit, without fear of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 8 A.M. to 3 P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer discloses the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. It is also so plain and simple, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

AID FOR THE DESTITUTE

In France.

At a meeting held February 1st, 1871, in the rooms of the Massachusetts Hospital Life Office, to consider the question of sending a cargo of provisions to France for free distribution, it was unanimously decided that an appeal ought to be made to the citizens of Boston, to raise, at once, by subscription, a fund sufficient to load a large vessel with flour and other provisions. This appeal has already been so liberally responded to, that the fine U. S. Steamer "Worcester," the use of which for transporting the supplies has been granted by the government, will immediately begin loading. We now invite the citizens of New England to join us in furnishing the means to promptly despatching her upon her errand of peace and good will. We need at least twenty-five thousand dollars more to effect our object satisfactorily.

A careful and experienced agent of our Committee will precede the vessel, for the purpose of consulting other relief committees who are already on the field of suffering, and there making arrangements for judiciously distributing the aid furnished.

With the facilities thus provided we hope to make every ten dollars supply one person with cheap food for an hundred days.

New subscriptions may be sent to the Treasurer, Mr. PATRICK T. JACKSON, No. 24 Franklin Street, or to any member of the Executive Committee, or of the Subscription Committee. Persons who have already subscribed will lighten the work of the Committee, if they will send checks as soon as convenient to the Treasurer.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

☞ The Democratic party in this vicinity is sadly in want of "Oranges from Greenland."

☞ The tenth lecture of the P. M. L. A. course will be delivered next Tuesday evening, by Albert R. Hatch, Esq. Music by Cushing's Band.

☞ Capt. Herman A. Tarlton of this city has been appointed to a position in the Equipment Department at the Navy Yard, and is assigned to clerical duty.

☞ The much needed rain came down in torrents, Saturday, and the snow shrunk nearly out of sight in some quarters. Enough was left for sleighing should it freeze.

☞ A Portsmouth correspondent of a Boston paper has telegraphed that the rate of taxation at Newcastle is 6 per cent., which is untrue, last year's rate being 4 1-2 per cent.

☞ Hon. Wm. B. Small, Republican candidate for Congress in this District, is confined to his bed by illness, at his home in Newmarket. It is feared that he will have the brain fever.

☞ We are authorized by a prominent citizen of Newcastle to state that he will give a fine lot of land in a good location there, to any person who will build a good, substantial hotel on it.

THE WHITE ROVER RELIEF FUND amounts to quite a respectable sum. Six hundred dollars in the hands of the subscription committee, $250 from Mr. Bartlett's Reading, and a check for $200 from Hon. David Sears of Boston, shows that the owners and crew are by no means forgotton. But the good work should not stop here. The loss of the vessel can be made up to the owners with an extra effort. An entertainment at the Temple by the former members of the Thespian Society would, we think, add considerably to the fund.

TEMPLE, TO-NIGHT.—As will be seen by their advertisement, the well-known Duprez and Benedict Minstrels re-appear for one performance only, after a long absence. Their acceptable entertainments in this city heretofore have drawn crowds, and with their new talent and old favorites, they can but keep up the high standard the company have always held. The programme is a good one, and Lew Benedict, Gulick, Edwards and Haywood, are competent to carry it out successfully, as comedians. "From Ocean to Ocean;" "The Cocoanut Quartette;" and the "Anvil Chorus" are on the programme.

☞ A Newcastle friend desires us to state the cause of the debt which hangs so heavily on that small community. He says that during the war an enrollment of all citizens liable to military duty was made, while many persons were at work on Fort Constitution. Consequently Newcastle's quota was placed at 80 or 90 men, instead of 30 or 40. When the draft came, little or no work was being done at the Fort and many workmen had been enrolled who lived elsewhere. These men had returned home, but Newcastle was obliged to purchase substitutes for them at $300 each.

This seems unjust, but government can compensate for the injustice by purchasing the bridge between Newcastle and Portsmouth and erecting a breakwater in the river.

☞ We learn that the conditions on which the "banished" scholars of the Boys' High School would be allowed to return were, that they should apologize to the teacher and say they were sorry for leaving school without permission, and would never do so again. Then they were to be put on probation or till the lost studies were made up, and go to the bottom of their class.

If these degrading conditions are accepted, the boys will be allowed to continue and have the pleasure of graduating at the close of their term! Two of them have thus far refused to accept the humiliating terms, and we honor them for their decision. Of course it is necessary that proper discipline should be maintained, and that may be the reason for making such rigorous conditions; but either of the boys who refuse to accept them would lose his self-respect by telling a falsehood—for it must come to that if they accept the conditions and state that they are sorry for doing just what every boy of spirit should do under similar circumstances. A boy who will not leave a school-room (with or without permission) when he is suffering from cold, would not know enough to "go in out of the rain" to save himself from sickness. In a case of discipline vs. health, discipline should go to the wall.

We shall be pleased to publish a statement from the other side of the case, if we are in the wrong.

☞ The Opposition organ has a romance of the robbery of a sailor which has no foundation in fact.

☞ We again remind our readers of the lecture of Gen. Chamberlain at Armory Hall, Kittery, this (Monday) evening. We learn that quite a number of our citizens are desirous of hearing him, and if the weather is favorable, Portsmouth will, doubtless, be well represented.

NAVAL CHARACTERISTIC.—It is said that a certain officer was recently ordered to the command of a ship then fitting out at this Naval Station, and after inspecting his cabin and accommodations therein, he proceeded forward to find out what means were provided for the punishment of the men. He was disappointed in the inspection of this department, and gave vent to his feelings in the following style:

"What! are these all the prison accommodations this ship has? Why! it's as bad as on the ship from which I came, where men were obliged to wait six weeks to be punished! In one instance six weeks and four days!" (He evidently had the thing sized right down). "Where are your sweat boxes?" It was explained to him that there had been an order abolishing sweat boxes as a means of punishment. "Well," said the captain, "I don't know of the existence of such an order, and it never can be dispensed with and good discipline maintained."

This gallant chieftain then set his wits to work to find out how he could make arrangements for the establishment of these hells, and finding quite a spacious wash-room belonging to the Engineers, he proposed to tear that in pieces and fit up there three sweat boxes in its stead, but some one higher in authority interposed, and prevented it. Comment is unnecessary.

☞ The body of Mrs. Hannah Thompson of Topsham, Me., was found recently about forty rods west of the farm and dwelling of Mr. I. Edward Tedford, on a lot formerly belonging to her father. About two years and a half ago she was missed from the house in the village where she lived alone as she had for years. On discovering her absence the neighbors turned out, scoured the woods, dragged the river and ponds, and made every effort to find her. She was possessed of considerable property, and a reward was offered by her friends for the recovery of her body. Strange, in all that time, two and a half years, her garments seem to have been undisturbed, the shawl covering the entire form except the head, and she lay in a natural position as though she died without suffering. Her age was about 60 years.

Brevities.

A Troy lady wanted a husband so much that she told a gentleman friend not to carry a heated flat-iron to bed for fear it would warp his feet! He could see no hint and still sticks to the flat-iron.

Anna Dickinson and Lillian S. Edgarton met for the first time at Ann Arbor, Mich., a couple of weeks ago, and a reliable account says they rushed into each other's arms, probably because nobody else's arms were convenient just then at that time; "or rather," to be correct about this great historical event, "the superb blonde opened her arms and the small brunette nestled within them, purring like a little brown kitten."

Henry S. Rosenthal, one of the largest cattle dealers at West Albany, was at first supposed to have been lost at the recent disaster at New Hamburg, but subsequent advices proved otherwise. It was a simple matter of difference in time between his watch and the New York City time which saved his life, as he had secured a berth in the car which was burned. He only arrived a few minutes after the train had left.

☞ JOB AND CARD PRINTING is neatly promptly and cheaply done at the Chronicle and Gazette Office; and the patronage of friends in this line is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

COMPLETION

—OF THE—

Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railway.

THE FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

COUPON OR REGISTERED,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

Principal and Interest Payable in Gold,

ON A FINISHED ROAD.

—FOR SALE—

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

The last rail of this important road was laid on the 26th of January, thus completing the enterprise and establishing a connection between St. Paul and St. Louis 90 miles shorter than any existing route and 65 miles shorter than any contemplated route between Omaha and Chicago.

By this line also the distance from Chicago to the great grain fields of Minnesota is shortened 45 miles, and transportation proportionately quickened and cheapened. The First Mortgage Bonds assume therefore at once on the completion of the line a position equal in intrinsic value to those of the Fort Wayne, Pennsylvania Central, Illinois Central or any other First Mortgage Bonds of completed trunk lines—not one of which sell below par.

The B. C. R. & M. Bonds are a First Mortgage, amounting only to $20,000 per mile on a line of road which has cost $40,000 per mile, the balance having been supplied by liberal subscription to the stock at par, made by wealthy farmers and parties interested along the line, and by similar subscription on the part of Towns and Counties through which the Road passes, which have adopted this system of giving their aid rather than issuing Town and County Bonds.

The earnings of the Road in its incomplete state, and while deprived entirely of through connection, have been for the past three months in excess of 12 per cent. on the amount of the Mortgage Bonds, after deducting operating expenses. No Road in the United States can show a better record during its inception. When is added to this lucrative way traffic the profits which will arise from the transportation of the vast wheat crop of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, all of which must seek a market over this line, the result cannot but be a showing which will give large Dividends on the Stock of the Company, after paying the interest to the Bond-holders as heretofore. The privilege which attaches to the Bonds of conversion into Stock at par will shortly assume practical value, as by this privilege the Bond-holders will, by the conversion be entitled to share in any excess of earnings which may accrue to the Road.

The Company has made extremely favorable arrangements for freight and passenger traffic with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. These arrangements will add largely to the profits of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road, as well as increasing its traffic receipts. The C. B. & Q. R. R. has further agreed to set aside 50 per cent. of the gross earnings realized from the business with the B. C. R. & M. Co. for investment in the bonds of the latter company.

This arrangement secures a practical consolidation of the two companies, and makes the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Company permanently interested in the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road by its running arrangements with and investments in the first mortgage bonds of the latter.

A small amount, $400,000 in all, of the issue yet unsold are still offered at the subscription price of 90 and accrued interest in currency. Although the Company feel warranted in the present condition of their affairs in advancing the price of bonds, yet they have concluded to continue for the present the subscription at the same price as heretofore, in order to effect rapid sales and thus free themselves immediately from all floating indebtedness.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges.

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the

FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $160, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10.) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacific, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

CALL ON OR GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for them, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mdaliwiwfsbs

THE POOR PLAYER AT THE GATE.

Written and spoken for the Holland Testimonial at Wallack's, the Fifth Avenue, Niblo's Theatre, and the Academy of Music, by GEORGE VANDENHOFF.

Wisely good Uncle Toby said,
"If here, below, the right we do,
'Twill ne'er be ask'd of us above,
What coat we wore, red, black or blue."

At Heaven's high Chancery gracious deeds
Shall count before professions,
And humble virtues, clad in weeds,
Shall rank o'er rich possessions.

So the poor player's motley garb,
If truth and worth adorn it,
May pass unchallenged through the gate,
Tho' churls and bigots scorn it.

The Lord of love, the world's great Light,
Made Publicans his care,
And Pharisees alone demurred,
That such His gifts should share.

But still He held his gracious way,
Soothing the humblest mourner,
Nor ever bade one sinner seek,
For comfort "round the corner."

The woman that in sin was ta'en,
Bowed down with guilt and shame,
Found pity in that breast divine,
That knew no taint of blame.

The Pharisees all gathered round,
To taunt, revile and stone her,
He bade her "go and sin no more;"
His mercy would atone her.

He raised from death the widow's son,
Nor ask'd his trade, profession;
Enough for Him a mother's faith,
In His divine compassion.

He healed the palsied, halt and blind,
Nor left one heart forlorner;
He never bade them go and find,
A Doctor—"round the corner."

Some modern saints too dainty are,
To walk in paths like these;
They'd lock the gates of heaven on woe,
If they but held the keys.

The widow's friend asks prayers o'er him,
From whom death's hand has torn her;
The saintly man refers him to "The small church round the corner."

What is there in the player's art,
Should close the fount of love?
He who on earth plays well his part,
May hope a seat above.

The lessons he has wrestled with smiles,
The hearts he mirth made lighter,
Shall plead like angels' tongues for grace,
And make his record brighter!

And though not nearest to the Throne,
Yet sure the lowliest born, or
The actor in the veriest barn,
May find in heaven a corner.

All honor to the little Church,
And to its gracious Pastor,
Who in his heart the lessons kept,
Taught by his heavenly Master!

And when this fleeting scene is past,
To sinner, saint and scorner,
Let's hope we all may find, at last,
A bright home round the corner!

HORRORS OF THE TEXAS FRONTIER. We know nothing in the records of Indian barbarities (says the Galveston Civilian) since the settlement of America, exceeding some of recent ocurrence on the Texas frontier. The following are some farther details of the recent massacre of a family in Wise County:

In the night the Indians entered the house. Mrs. Paschal sprung from the bed where they were all sleeping, fell on her knees and commenced praying, "Good Indians, spare me with my children." They shot her in the mouth and killed her with knives, shooting the bed full of arrows, the children twisting and writhing in blood—taking some of them and dashing their heads against the wall, window, and door facings; they killed with knives and clubs as they thought, all the children. They then shot three arrows deep into the breast of Mrs. Keenan, dragged, her on the door shutter they had cut down, cut around the edge of her hair, and tore off her scalp! She was cognizant of all that passed, and lay in that state with the dead and dying all scattered around her.

One of the children had its bowels cut out, and his arm, with the shoulder, severed from his body with a knife, and his body dashed out into the yard. One of the women slipped an infant between the beds, and another small one was so secreted as to lie very quiet next to the infant. These were the only two that escaped unhurt. One of the little boys, about eight years old, after being severely wounded, jumped out of the window in the midst of the tumult and hid, and after the Indians left he carried water from a lake, about two hundred yards distant, and gave to the wounded all night.

Mrs. Keenan tried to pull the arrows from the breast, and twisted one off. She could not move her baby, and kept her place on the door shutter all night without covering. She lived twelve days. The sufferings she endured cannot be expressed. The child that carried the water could be trailed the next day by the blood. One of the little infants was found near the embers next morning, and was crying, saying the Indians had killed ma and little Willie. The same evening the little girl who wasnursing died.

—Fifteen leaders of the mob which lately rescued a number of prisoners from the United States revenue officers at Winchester, Tennessee, including several prominent lawyers of that town, have given $8000 bail each to appear for trial, and the citizens of Winchester have promised to produce the rescued prisoners.

—J. B. Potter, Lake Co., O., writes: "My remedy for scratches on horses or cows is an ointment made of equal parts of tar, sulphur and lard applied every day. I have never failed of effecting a speedy cure."

BRIGGS & BRO'S
Illustrated and Descriptive Catalogue
OF FLOWER & VEGETABLE SEEDS,
AND SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS,
FOR 1871.
Will be ready for mailing by the middle of January, notwithstanding our great loss of type, paper, engravings, &c., by fire, which destroyed the Job Printing office of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, 25th December, 1870. It will be printed on the most elegant new tinted paper, and illustrated with nearly Five Hundred Original Engravings;
and two finely executed Colored Plates—specimens for all of which were grown by ourselves the past season from our own stock of Seeds. In the originality, execution and extent of our engravings it is unlike and eminently superior to any other Catalogue or "Floral Guide" extant.
The Catalogue will consist of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered Seeds from us by mail the last season. To others a charge of 15 cents per copy will be made, which is not the value of the Colored Plates. We assure our friends that the inducements we offer to purchasers of Seeds, as to quality and extent of Stock, Discounts and Premiums, are unsurpassed. Please send orders for Catalogues without delay.
Our Colored Chromo for 1871
Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent Forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers of natural size and color. We design to make it the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 18x24 inches. The retail value would be at least Two Dollars! we shall, however, furnish it to customers at 75 cents per copy, and offer it as a Premium upon orders for Seeds. See catalogue when out.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY, SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
NO. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KELLY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and opinions rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART."

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF
HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.
To insure or not to insure? That is the question.
Whether t'will be nobler for my family to suffer
The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune
Or take a policy against those dangers,
And, by insuring, end them? To fret, to fear,
No more; and by a policy to end
The heartache and the thousand natural shocks
That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application's
Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure,
And pay the premium: ay—there's the rub
For in that time what premiums may come
Before I shuffle off this mortal coil
Does make me pause, tightens my purse,
And makes me rather pay the bills I have
Than fly to others I know not of.
Thus does insurance make brutes of us all.

"HOW ARE YOU, SANITARY?"

BY BRET HARTE.

Down the picket-guarded lane,
Rolled the comfort laden wain,
Cheered by shouts that shook the plain,
Soldier-like and merry;
Phrases such as camps may teach,
Sabre-cut of Saxon speech,
Such as 'Bully!' 'Them's the peach!'
'Wade in, Sanitary!'

Right and left the caissons drew
As the car went lumbering through,
Quick succeeding in review
Squads of military!
Sunburnt men with beards like frieze,
Smooth-face boys, and cries like these
'U. S. San. Com.,' 'That's the cheese!'
'Pass in, Sanitary!'

In such cheer it struggled on
Till the battle front was won;
Then the car, its journey done,
Lo! was stationary:
And where bullets whistling fly
Came the sadder, fainter cry;
'Help us, brothers, ere we die—
Save us, Sanitary!'

Such the work. The phantom flies,
Wrapped in battle clouds that rise;
But the brave—whose dying eyes,
Veiled and visionary,
See the jasper gates swung wide,
See the parted throng outside—
Hears the voice to these who ride;
'Pass in, Sanitary!'

A WOMAN FASCINATED BY A WOMAN. The Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch contains an account of a woman who was fascinated by a woman, which is most remarkable as a psychological study. A lady was one of the teachers at a school in a little country town and among her pupils was a young girl, who became so attached to her as to be restless when not near her, and so marked did this love become that her parents withdrew her from the school, and soon afterward the teacher left the place.

The girl was sent to another school in a distant town, but proved so refractory that at one time the principal thought it advisable to send her home; she would not study or associate with the other girls, until at last a lady—her old teacher—came to the town and applied for a situation as teacher, which was denied her. Then she established a school of her own, and her occasional visits to her old pupil were so beneficial that the girl became sociable and tractable.

The parents, discovering that their daughter was again under the influence of the woman, whom by this time they cordially hated, withdrew her from the school and took her home. In the next week, the woman came to the village in which the parents resided, and requested to be the child's governess, but was refused, and another was taken in her place, whereupon the girl became so obstreperous that she tore up books and threw them at the governess, who, not liking such treatment, went her ways.

As no plausible reason could be urged against allowing the two friends to see each other occasionally, the woman was permitted to visit at the house, until the girl's parents became so jealous of her that they actually drove her from the town, although her conduct had been unexceptionable. Letters were exchanged, and as time passed the strange love seemed to increase, and gain entire control of the girl's mind.

Although she had grown to womanhood she loathed the company of men, and, although she had numerous lovers, would have nothing to do with them. Her friend was in a distant town and hardly able to support herself, this fact so preyed on the girl's heart that she determined to go to her, as she did at last, although her parents discarded her for it. The two worked together in poverty, and when at last the eldest died, she said to her weeping friend: "Oh, darling, turn away your face and let me die!"

Eight years have passed since that time but her grief yet torments her; she sits alone and mopes all day long in her father's house, to which she has been welcomed. She does not seem to be insane, and physicians think that in time she may recover from her strange and melancholy plight; but her parents knowing her throughly, do not believe that she will ever escape the facination of the dead.

A CHEERFUL IDIOT.—An old farmer in the neighborhood of Forestville, was sledding wood yesterday, (Wednesday) morning. Having on a heavy load, it stuck fast in crossing the track of the Hartford, Providence and Fishkill railroad. So the old man unhitched his oxen, and coolly marched off home, leaving the heavy load of green wood standing across the track, and making no effort to warn the passenger train, due in a few moments, of its danger. The train came down—"down brakes," screamed the whistle, and the train and its passengers fortunately escaped injury; yet the locomotive struck the load of wood with sufficient force to knock it and the sled clear of the track. It was lucky for the stupid teamster that he was just then out of reach of the train men.—Hartford Courant.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND FLUID

Extract Catawba

GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, Etc. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

L

BEING PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE ABOVE COMPLAINTS, ITS BLOOD-PURIFYING PROPERTIES ARE GREATER THAN ANY OTHER PREPARATION OF SARSAPARILLA. IT GIVES THE COMPLEXION A CLEAR AND HEALTHY COLOR AND RESTORES THE PATIENT TO A STATE OF HEALTH AND PURITY, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, AND REMOVING ALL CHRONIC CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD; AND THE ONLY RELIABLE AND EFFECTUAL KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PAINS AND SWELLINGS OF THE BONES, ULCERATIONS OF THE THROAT AND LEGS, BLOTCHES, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ERYSIPELAS AND ALL SCALY ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

CONCENTRATED

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

LADIES.

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

D

Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses, and upward of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

ITS RESOURCES AND PROGRESS—ITS BEAUTY, HEALTHFULNESS AND FERTILITY, AND ITS ATTRACTIONS AND ADVANTAGES AS A HOME FOR IMMIGRANTS—A NEW BOOK FREE OF COST, compiled from official sources and published by direction of Governor Horace Austin.

Its title indicates its contents. It exhibits the inducements offered by Minnesota to persons seeking new homes, her wonderful resources, unexampled progress, and magnificent future. It tells how, where, under the "Homestead" Law, to obtain free homes and free farms, "without money and without price." It is just what every Man—Farmer, Mechanic, Tradesman and Laborer—who desires to better his condition should carefully read.

This book will be sent to any address in America or Europe, free of postage or other expense, on application to E. PAGE DAVIS, Commissioner of Immigration for the State of Minnesota, No. 156 BROADWAY, New York, where all information in regard to the State will be cheerfully given. 4w

CONGRESS.

On the 18th, in the House, Mr. Stoughton of Michigan argued that there was no question as to the title of the government to the Arlington national cemetery. It rested on the right of conquest in the first place, and in the second place on the law of Congress on the subject of national cemeteries. The courts were open to the descendants of General Lee, and if they had any valid title to Arlington they could go into the courts and test it. The gentleman from Kentucky [Jones] erred in supposing that the American people would ever suffer the bodies of Union soldiers to be dug up by prowling hyenas or malignant traitors.

The first and only turkey ever cooked on the summit of Mount Washington was taken up by the lately returned journalistic party. It was stuffed, roasted and eaten there with the remains of an excellent pudding, which was sent up for a Christmas present by the wife of Professor Hitchcock of Dartmouth College. Mr. Cogswell of the Concord Monitor, one of the journalists, says that life on the mountain is not as monotonous as many suppose. The cooking of meals, taking observations, making reports, writing letters and consulting scientific works, keep all the party busy. Only two meals a day are provided. Breakfast is taken from 8 to 9, and dinner from 3 to 4 o'clock. Deputy Sheriff Haynes of Concord seized about $500 worth of liquors from S. A. Ambrose, a hotel keeper at Boscawen Plains, on Friday last.

☞ Senator Sumner has been suffering from neuralgia of the heart. On Saturday he was attacked with acute paroxysms so alarming that he made no attempt to go to the capitol, but called in his physician, Dr. Bliss, who injected morphine under the skin in the locality of the pain, which at once gave relief. The Senator has kept his room constantly since and sees only intimate friends.

THE HUDSON RIVER HORROR.—The bodies of Simmons and the hitherto unknown engineer, riding on the engine with him at the time of the accident, and who proves to have been James Humphreys of Penn., have been recovered from the wreck. Simmons did not appear to be much hurt, but the lower part of Humphrey's body was badly mutilated. Twenty-two bodies have now been recovered, and it is thought there are no more.

☞ Under the heading "Our George," meaning George S. Benedict, killed at New Hamburg, the Cleveland Herald of Saturday says: "We 'cannot make him dead,' even though we know he lies in yonder home with pulseless heart and folded hands. O heart! so lately full of trust and tender thoughts! O hands! so ready in their loving service! He needs no written eulogy. The friends of his boyhood and his ripening manhood are yearning for a presence so suddenly vanished, and are holding in tenderness the memories of his spotless life.

'The mourners go about the streets.'

Such a dispensation 'makes common cause.' There is no pen to write the sorrow that has entered his home. We stand without, weeping for our friend, and for those who are enfolded in the shadow of his death. Thank God for that unquestioning faith which can lift these stricken hearts above these wrecked hopes and darkened homes."

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET,

FOR THE WEEK ENDING WEDNESDAY, FEB. 15.

[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

At market for the current week—Cattle 1226; Sheep and Lambs 2946; Swine 4000; number of Western Cattle 1109; Eastern Cattle 21; Northern Cattle and Working Oxen 86. Cattle left over from last week —.

Prices Beef Cattle—Extra $12 50 @ $13 00; first quality $11 75 @ $12 25; second quality $10 50 @ $11 50; third quality $9 50 @ $10 25; poorest grade of coarse Oxen, Bulls, &c., $8 00 @ $9 00 ℔ cwt, (the total weight of hides, tallow and dressed beef.)

Brighton Hides 8c ℔ lb; Country Hides 7¼ @ 8c ℔ lb.

Brighton Tallow 6@6½c per lb; Country Tallow 6c ℔ lb.

Sheep and Lamb Skins $1 25 @ 1 75 each; Calf Skins 16 @ 18c ℔ lb.

The supply of Cattle in market for the week was larger than that of last week; the quality not much different, but the trade has not been so active. Many of the Cattle were taken at a commission. Prices obtained were not much different from those of last week. There were a few Maine Cattle in market which the owners had slaughtered and marketed rather than to sell for prices offered for them. The trade is confined principally to the Beef trade. There were a few prime Cattle in market which were taken at 12½ ℔ lb, dressed weight.

Sheep and Lambs—The supply from the West was large, all of which were owned by butchers or taken at a commission. Sheep cost at Albany from 5 @ 7½ ℔ lb, costing about 5c ℔ lb for transporting them to Brighton. We quote prices —Extra and select lots $4 50 @ 7 50; ordinary $3 @ $4, or from 3¼ @ 7½ ℔ lb.

Swine—No Store Pigs in market. Fat Hogs—4000 at market; prices 8¼ @ 8½c ℔ lb.

Y., and you will receive it by mail. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. The Genuine has Dr. Pierce's private U. S. Government Stamp on it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Poisonous Medicines.

The theory that the virus of disease can be safely counteracted by doses of poison, is false and dangerous. Within the last twenty-five years, we have taken a score of virulent poisons have been added to the repository of the medical profession. They are given in small doses, otherwise they would destroy life immediately; but even in minute quantities, they produce, ultimately, very disastrous effects. It is unwise and unphilosophical to employ, as remedies, powerful and insidious drugs, which, in subjugating one disease, sow the seeds of another still more unmanageable. None of these terrible medicaments operates with as much directness and certainty upon the causes of disease as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a tonic and corrective, without a single deleterious ingredient in its composition. Arsenic and quinia are given for intermittents; bromide of potassium for nervous disorders; strychnine and prussic acid for general debility; mercury, in various forms, for liver complaint; preparations of chloroform and opium for sleeplessness; and yet these deadly drugs do not compare, as specifics for the diseases above enumerated, with that wholesome vegetable invigorant and alterative, while they are all so pernicious that it is astonishing any physician should take the responsibility of prescribing them. Let invalids, for their own sakes, try the Bitters before they resort to the poisons. The relief they will experience from a course of the harmless specific, will render a recourse to the unsafe preparations referred to, quite unnecessary.

BULLETS FOR EUROPE.

Lead is wanted in Europe. Send over the millions of bottles of new fangled hair colorers that "remain over" and can't be sold here. They are pretty much all lead, and will never be wanted in this country, because all sane people who desire to restore the tinge of youth to their gray or grizzled locks use

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The lead-saturated and sulphur saturated nostrums have gone down, down, down, where they belong; while the EXCELSIOR DYE has gone up with a rapidity that taxes to the utmost the facilities for manufacturing it. It is to-day the

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a totally bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several patients there, whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a place which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite, and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My opinion is founded on the fact that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and I do not recommend to any, that, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly; therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have mentioned, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but for those who are really diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1859, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined from an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may have the vast quantities of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious attacks than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that consumption is rarely die of consumption, especially those in the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the United States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small-pox, &c.! but they are not; they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They neglect the condition to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these several medicines, because I am intimately acquainted with their action. I know, that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in those cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a healthy appetite. It is a sign of a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry: I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and shakes, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats go longer prostrate and sunge, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regular at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this method, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of medicine is used. I have cured thousands undiagnosed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have been my only reliance, second to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and are free from all its injurious effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have parties who are bilious and dyspeptic, and suffer from constipation, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headaches, a dose of the Mandrakes and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a cold, do two free indulgences in Turkish baths, and take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or cow, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against fever and ague. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. Advice is rendered gratuitously, unless I find the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

WHAT ARE THEY!

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They Invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, passessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1ydawfebl6

AID FOR THE DESTITUTE

In France.

At a meeting held February 1st, 1871, in the rooms of the Massachusetts Hospital Life Office, to consider the question of sending a cargo of provisions to France for free distribution, it was unanimously decided that an appeal ought to be made to the citizens of Boston, to raise, at once, by subscription, a fund sufficient to load a large vessel with flour and other provisions. This appeal has already been so liberally responded to, that the fine U. S. Steamer "Worcester," the use of which for transporting the supplies has been granted by the Government, will immediately begin loading. We now invite the citizens of New England to join us in furnishing the means for promptly despatching her upon her errand of peace and good will. We need at least twenty-five thousand dollars more to effect our object satisfactorily.

A careful and experienced agent of our Committee will precede the vessel, for the purpose of consulting other relief committees who are already on the field of suffering, and there making arrangements for judiciously distributing the aid furnished.

With the facilities thus provided we hope to make every ten dollars supply one person with cheap food for an hundred days.

New subscriptions may be sent to the Treasurer, Mr. PATRICK T. JACKSON, No. 24 Franklin Street, or to any member of the Executive Committee, or of the Subscription Committee. Persons who have already subscribed will lighten the work of the Committee, if they will send checks as soon as convenient to the Treasurer.

☞ There is to be a grand Masonic Ball at Congress Hall on Thursday evening, March 9th.

☞ Rev. C. M. Dinsmore of this city lectured in the Y. M. C. A. course at Keene on Thursday evening, the 16th. The lecture (on "An hour with the old Philosophers") was well received by a large audience.

☞ The Odd Fellows' Assembly at Congress Hall this evening, offers all a chance to cultivate a suitable frame of mind for observing Washington's Birthday and the beginning of Lent, by dancing a few hours to the best of music. Grand march shortly after 8 o'clock, precisely.

☞ We are often asked what the "8 o'clock" advertisement in our columns means, and have heretofore failed to answer satisfactorily. The conundrum is now solved; "8 o'clock" is an advertisement notifying all Democrats of the proper hour for them to retire, on the evening of Tuesday, March 14th.

☞ The Independent Volunteer Fire Company organized Saturday evening, Feb. 18th, at the Engine House on Pleasant St., by electing the following officers:—A. K. P. Deering, Foreman; Samuel White, 2nd Foreman; Nelson Goodrich, Clerk; John Amazeen, Steward; the last named to be paid by the City. They are to have the engine formerly stationed there—the Granite State No. 7,—and a large portion of the members of the old Company have already enrolled themselves in the new Association.

☞ This (Tuesday) evening Mr. J. G. Anthoine's adult Dancing School closes with a social Assembly, at Irving Hall. Mr. A. is a pains-taking and thorough instructor, and the marked success of young ladies and gentlemen in acquiring the fashionable and pleasure-yielding accomplishment of dancing, last winter and this one, under his tuition, is sufficient guaranty of his ability. The Assembly this evening will of course be a well conducted affair, and a source of pleasure to every participant therein.

☞ When John Brown again undertakes to shoot a pigeon, it will be much more agreeable for all concerned (except the pigeon) should he take more careful aim. John wouldn't succeed immensely as a sharp-shooter, and needs practice ere he goes gunning some more. If he is to practice frequently at that bird, Samuel Adams, Esq., wishes to be out of range. On Monday, John Brown's gun wasn't aimed high enough for the eaves of the counting room of Samuel Adams & Co., and the senior member of the firm had a narrow escape, the shot shattering the window against which he was leaning.

THE WHITE ROVER FUND.—Hon. Horton D. Walker and Samuel Adams, Esq., acknowledge the receipt of the following sums in aid of the White Rover sufferers:—

Any subscriptions to the fund may be handed to Messrs. Horton D. Walker, Samuel Adams or Jas. P. Bartlett The Thespian Dramatic Association, assisted by other amateurs, propose giving an entertainment at the Temple, for the benefit of the owners and crew of the schooner.

☞ Our good sleighing of last week is pretty well used up, but we had one nice sleigh-ride before it went, anyway. A gentleman invited us to "jump in and have a little spin," Friday morning, and we did. Our "cutter" was a pung, our horse a fiery mare, and our route Richards Avenue. The pung had no springs under it, but plenty in it, for as the mare whirled us swiftly over the numerous cradle-holes on the Avenue, the six milk-cans in the bottom of the pung performed an erratic war dance, and the 8-cent loaf in the back part made insane leaps towards the cerulean blue (we always feel poetic after a sleighride) of heaven, and at last flew clean over our head and landed among the milk-cans in front of us. We got out at the lower end of the Avenue.

☞ Duprez & Benedict's Minstrels had a good audience at the Temple, Monday evening, as they deserved, for the company always give a good show of the kind. Their performance this time was no exception to the general rule, and the liberal applause they received showed that their patrons appreciated their efforts to please.

☞ This (Tuesday) evening the tenth and last entertainment of the very successful P. M. L. A. Lyceum course will be given at the Temple, and will consist of some choice selections of music by Cushings' splendid Orchestra, (including a duet for strings by Messrs. Cushing and Gilbert,) and a lecture by Albert R. Hatch, Esq. See adv't.

Communication.

☞ On Thursday evening the Sons of Temperance Division in this city were visited by Hoosac Division of Kensington; the two divisions attended Carswell's lecture in the North Church, and then adjourned to S. of T. Hall, where discussing "clam-chowder and fixings" occupied them for awhile, after which a few hours were spent in agreeable social intercourse Mr. Carswell being present and entertaining them with humorous readings. The visiting division started for home shortly after midnight, much pleased with their reception.

At a special meeting of Old Oaken Bucket Division on Friday evening, a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the press of this city, for the liberal manner in which the course of Temperance Lectures by Carswell was kept before the people, thereby assisting in drawing large audiences for the eloquent speaker. SQUIBBS.

Our Correspondence.

NORTH HAMPTON, Feb. 18.

Messrs. Editors:—I noticed a communication in a late issue of your paper, in which a correspondent from this place seems to stigmatize the reports that there have been any cases of the cattle disease this side of the Merrimac River, (with one exception only), as false; and also says, that these false reports originated with one or two persons who hang around the depot—and seems to try very hard to make it appear that these persons have wilfully and maliciously spread false reports about cattle near here being affected with the dreaded disease.

Now, what I wish to say is this, that no hangers-on around the depot have spread any reports about cows being choked, or cattle having the hoof disease in this vicinity, that have not come from J. W. B.'s own family; and the falsehood, (if there was any), started right at home; and, although a little behind, truth has got on his boots, and has succeeding in catching the falsehood and bringing it right back from whence it started.

Furthermore, the hangers-on around the depot are among the most respectable people in town; and go there to get their papers and other mail matter, and are much more likely to get the truth, than those who live a mile away, and spend their time reading Gulliver's Travels and the Arabian Nights.

Yours, C. E. B.

☞ A young man about 25 years of age, registering his name as Edwin A. Pattee, Alexandria, N. H., arrived at the Commercial House, Portland, Saturday evening. He was shown to his room, and nothing was noticed unusual about him. About nine o'clock Monday morning, while the help were doing their morning work, on opening his door, he was found lying on the floor, dead. On examination it was found that he had committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. A note from him was found on the table stating the cause, which showed he had lived a very unhappy life.

☞ Old newspapers for sale at this Office.

☞ JOB AND CARD PRINTING is neatly promptly and cheaply done at the Chronicle and Gazette Office; and the patronage of friends in this line is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. COMPLETION

—OF THE—

Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railway.

THE FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

COUPON OR REGISTERED,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

Principal and Interest Payable in Gold,

ON A FINISHED ROAD.

—FOR SALE—

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

The last rail of this important road was laid on the 26th of January, thus completing the enterprise and establishing a connection between St. Paul and St. Louis 90 miles shorter than any existing route and 65 miles shorter than any contemplated route between the same points.

By this line also the distance from Chicago to the great grain fields of Minnesota is shortened 45 miles, and transportation proportionately quickened and cheapened. The First Mortgage Bonds assume therefore at once on the completion of the line a position equal in intrinsic value to those of the Fort Wayne, Pennsylvania Central, Illinois Central or any other First Mortgage Bonds of completed trunk lines—not one of which sell below par.

The B. C. R. & M. Bonds are a First Mortgage, amounting only to $20,000 per mile on a line of road which has cost $40,000 per mile, the balance having been supplied by liberal subscription to the stock at par, made by wealthy farmers and parties interested along the line, and by similar subscriptions on the part of Towns and Counties through which the Road passes, which have adopted this system of giving their aid rather than issuing Town and County Bonds.

The earnings of the Road in its incomplete state, and while deprived entirely of through connection, have been for the past three months in excess of 12 per cent. on the amount of the Mortgage Bonds, after deducting operating expenses. No Road in the United States can show a better record during its inception. When is added to this lucrative way traffic the profits which will arise from the transportation of the vast wheat crop of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, all of which must seek a market over this line, the result cannot but be a showing which will give large Dividends on the Stock of the Company, after paying the interest to the Bond-holders as heretofore. The privilege which attaches to the Bonds of conversion into Stock at par will shortly assume practical value, as by this privilege the Bond-holders will, by the conversion be entitled to share in any excess of earnings which may accrue to the Road.

The Company has made extremely favorable arrangements for freight and passenger traffic with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. These arrangements will add largely to the profits of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road, as well as increasing its traffic receipts. The C. B. & Q. R. R. hasthereby agreed to set aside 50 per cent. of the gross earnings realized from the business with the B. C. R. & M. Co. for investment in the bonds of the latter company.

This arrangement secures a practical consolidation of the two companies, and makes the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Company permanently interested in the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road by its running arrangements with and investments in the first mortgage bonds of the latter.

A small amount, $400,000 in all, of the issue yet unsold are still offered at the subscription price of 90 and accrued interest in currency. Although the Company feel warranted in the present condition of their affairs in advancing the price of bonds, yet they have concluded to continue for the present the subscription at the same price as heretofore, in order to effect rapid sales and thus free themselves immediately from all floating indebtedness.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges.

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, on a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, besides a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $8,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling-stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacific, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mda3mwfeb8

Morning Chronicle.

A WOMAN'S WAY.

Does it do any good to cry,
When some little careless word,
Makes your heart grow heavy and beat
Its barn like a prison bird?

Does it do any good to cry,
If nobody loves you at all,
And nobody knows how faithfully
You have given your life—your all?

Does it do any good to cry,
When you sit down alone,
And think of all they said and did—
The callers who now are gone?

As clouds part after rain,
So this is a woman's way,
Of making lighter the heart,
And brighter the shady day.

After the shower of tears,
The tender light will dawn
Of a sweet content that can live unloved,
And toil to the end unknown.

What, now, do I care,
Whether they praise or blame?
Whether they give me a cross to bear,
Or the laurel wreath of fame?

New Publications Received.

Peterson's for March is an entertaining number of a popular Magazine. Good stories, poems and the latest fashions fill it. Chas. S. Peterson, Phila., Pa.; $2 per annum.

Godey's March number is one of the best of this favorite Magazine. The ladies will find in it new Spring fashions and most unexceptionable and interesting stories. "Getting on in the World," by Marion Harland, is continued. Louis A. Godey, Phila., Pa. $3 per annum.

The Galaxy for March, a favorite among the monthlies, contains a continuation of "Lady Judith," by Justin McCarthy; Doun Piatt has an article "About Bears;" "Overland" grows more and more interesting; Americus gives his views of the Annexation of San Domingo; and Mrs. Edwards' new novel, "Ought We to Visit her" goes as far as the 9th chapter. Drift Wood, Scientific Miscellany and Nebulæ are as readable as ever. Sheldon & Co., New York. $4 per annum.

New Music from Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston,—"You Know How It is Yourself," by Jos. Pause; "Little Ones, Good Night," E. Pabst; "The Georgian Maid's Farewell," by Henry Schoeller; "Saratoga Belles Waltz," by J. S. Knight; "Poetry of Motion," by S. B. Whitney, and "Perles Musicales" for the piano-forte.

Harper's Monthly for March is received by J. H. Foster and Foster Shores & Co. We note brief but interesting reminiscences of General Scott, from Mr. Weed's autobiography. Mr. Curtis has in his Easy Chair department a pleasant sketch of his sensations on a first sight of Jefferson's Rip Van Winkle, and equally pleasant reminiscences of his own lecture tours. The "American Baron" is continued, as is "Anne Furness" and "Frederick the Great." The 2d paper "Along the Florida Reef" is very interesting. $4 per annum.

With the rest of the March magazines which come treading on each other's heels in the middle of February, is The Nursery, which is as delightful as usual, with pictures by Froment and Pletsch and by American arists.

The Phrenological Journal for March contains—Noah Webster, the eminent lexicographer, with a portrait; Progress of Religious Civilization, as illustrated in the improved condition of the Race; Thomas de Witt Talmadge, the eminent divine; Brain Waves—a new theory; the new king of Spain, with portrait; the late Gen. Prim, with portrait; our Domestic Props, or the servant question; the Food supply of Europe and America, interesting facts; Japan, its present condition; Punishing Criminals, a reform demanded; How to Rise in the World, or wherein lies Greatness—birth or culture; $3 a year; Sent to new subscribers on trial six months $1. S. R. Wells, Publisher, New York.

—A traveler who saw a pretty little girl in the same car with himself, says: "In a few years, thought I, that infant will be an ornament to society; but had she not better die? Very soon they will tie some dead man's hair to the back of her, fasten her ribs with a corset, and hang a bird cage around her lower limbs. Worse than that, when she arrives at maturity, she will be compelled to determine whether she is for protection or free trade, to understand the intricacies of pig-iron, and to the polls and vote."

—The famous Pantheon of Paris has escaped serious injury, although the dome and outer walls bear marks of the bombardment.

—The "Princess Editha, daughter of Lola Montez and King Ludwig of Bavaria," has been married to a New York printer.

—The New York chamber of commerce will send one of its number to France with the supplies to be sent.

—The dowry of the Princess Louise was voted by the House of commons with but one dissenting voice.

BRIGGS & BRO'S
Illustrated and Descriptive Catalogue
OF FLOWER & VEGETABLE SEEDS,
AND SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS.
FOR 1871.
Will be ready for mailing by the middle of January, notwithstanding our great loss of type, paper, engravings, &c., by fire, which destroyed the Job Printing office of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, 23d December, 1870. We have, however, printed on a most elegant new tinted paper, and illustrated with nearly
Five Hundred Original Engravings,
And two finely executed Colored Plates—specimens for all of which were grown by ourselves the past season from our own seeds. Such is the originality, execution and extent of the engravings it is unlike and eminently superior to any other Catalogue ever issued. Yet it is cheap!
The Catalogue will consist of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered Seeds from us by mail the last season. To others it will be sent on receipt of 25 cts. to make, which is not the value of the Colored Plates. We assure our friends that the inducements we offer to purchase, 236 Varieties of Seeds, equality and extent of Stock, Discounts and Premiums are unsurpassed. Please send orders for Catalogues without delay.
Our Colored Chromo for 1871
Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent Forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers of nature, as she paints, the design to make it the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 18x24 inches. The retail value would be at least Two Dollars; we shall, however, furnish it to customers for 15 cents per copy and offer it as a Premium upon orders for Seeds. See catalogue when out.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
NO. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents, and to ascertain if inventions are already rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART."

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF
HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.
To insure or not to insure? That is the question.
Whether t'will be nobler for my family to suffer
The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune
Or take a policy against those dangers,
And, by insuring, end them? To fret, to fear,
No more; and by a policy to end
The heartache and the thousand natural shocks
That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application 's
Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure,
And pay the premium: ay—there's the rub
For in that time what premiums may come
Before I shuffle off this mortal coil
Does make me pause, tightens my purse.
And makes me rather pay the bills I have
Than fly to others I know not of.
Thus does meanness make brutes of us all.

☞ Letters from Paris say that a general gloom pervades the city. A besieged resident says:—

Paris is a grave. We have collapsed morally and physically. We are utterly disgusted with ourselves and with every one else. The re-action is overwhelming. Every one washes his hands of all that has passed, by reviling every one except himself. A captain in the navy has really blown out his brains in despair.

A correspondent of the London News says:—

I think you can see the iron eating and burning into the hearts of these men—silent with unwonted silence; moody as they never knew how to be before; and as the downcast faces pass I draw a good augury from them for France and Paris.

CURIOUS FACTS CONCERNING 1871.—Somebody has been pondering the almanac, and discovered the following remarkable facts; 1871 is to have fifty-three Sundays, "but only fifty-two weeks." Moreover, nowhere during the year does Sunday come oftener than once in seven days, and the first week of the year begins with Sunday, and "so do all the other weeks." Lest we should be lost in a maze at this, he explains matters by saying that the calendars for 1871 and 1872 show that the last week in 1871 begins with Sunday, and has a Sunday following it.

Now, as it would be against all precedent to have two Sundays come together, the year 1872 considerately opens on Monday, and, since it is leap-year, Sundays will occur once in seven days thereafter, an arrangement which, this strange man says, will place Sunday at the end of the week instead of at the beginning, and thus be a complete triumph for the Seventh Day Baptists. "It seems that this complication of the calendar is supposed to have been planned by the Jews, who, on account of their superior education, were entrusted with this revision." This is what comes of devoting one's giant intellect to the study of almanacs.

—They have a very remarkable cow in Alpena, Michigan. The Pioneer of that place says: "The other day Mr. Wilkenbury's cow entered Mrs. Sprague's kitchen while she was absent, by bursting open the door, and ate the bread off the table, emptied a jar of preserves, and gobbled them up, and then went into the bed-room, pulled the clothes from the bed and commenced eating the straw from the tick. Mrs. Sprague coming home was obliged to call Mrs. Salisbury to assist her in expelling the marauder. No arrests have yet been made."

—A darkey, left in charge of a telegraph office while the operator went to dinner, heard some one "call" over the wires, and began shouting at the instruments, "De operator isn't yer." The noise ceased.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.
Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.
FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, ETC. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the purest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,
Will radically exterminate from the System Scrofula, Syphillis, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

BEING PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE ABOVE COMPLAINTS, ITS BLOOD-PURIFYING PROPERTIES ARE GREATER THAN ANY OTHER PREPARATION OF SARSAPARILLA. IT GIVES THE COMPLEXION A CLEAR AND HEALTHY COLOR AND RESTORES THE PATIENT TO A STATE OF HEALTH AND PURITY, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, AND REMOVING ALL CHRONIC CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD; AND THE ONLY RELIABLE AND EFFECTUAL KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PAINS AND SWELLINGS OF THE BONES, ULCERATIONS OF THE THROAT AND LEGS, BLOTCHES, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ERYSIPELAS AND ALL SCALY ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC,
has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EHTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

LADIES.

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

D

Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses, and upward of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 19.

Editors Chronicle:—This is Carnival week in Washington—and the fete has already commenced. Thousands are sad that that word should represent a fete in this country. Farewell to meat, of Catholic origin, yet no one here connects it with any religious ceremony, and generally it is not so much a farewell to meat, as an entrez to whisky—a welcome to good old Bourbon,—rye, the various punches, cock-tails and other thing too numerous to mention. Yesterday the winds became enraged in Pennsylvania avenue—that "race course of the winds"—and blew down the beautiful arch across it, and now not even the debris is to be seen. A bad omen say some, but most say it was better to fall Saturday than Monday—a very consoling thought.

Monday and Tuesday are to be big days on the Saint-ish Calendar of Washington City. There is to be fun, frolic, laughter, and every thing that can be presumed to make those days memorable on account of the wooden pavement on the beautiful avenue.

There will be balls, fireworks, racing—men, horse and goat,— and donkey racing; and in the latter the donkey last in, wins the prize. These modern games will not be sufficient, so they will introduce the ancient tournament, where valiant and doughty knights from Maryland and Virginia will strive in serious contest. All will be joy save at the capitol. There will be no light from its lofty dome as on the 22d of February, 1865, to signal the downfall of the rebellion—yes— there may be—there may be an evening session for debate. There the tholon and the dome will unite with Carnival light below, but it will be a session without a quorum. Fernandy, Voorhees, Morgan and Blair can there rave in Democracy without a challenge.

I may say that present appearances indicate a success to the Carnival, but there is a "thundering sight" of humbug in it.

The 41st Congress ends at 12 M., March 4th, and the 42d begins the same hour.

Gen. Abbott is proposing to contest the right of Gov. Vance to a seat in the Senate, on the ground that he is ineligible, and will contend that the votes cast for Vance are of no more validity that if cast for John Bright, and that they should not be counted against himself. The authorities in parliamentary law are numerous, to sustain Gen. Abbott. This is one of the first questions to be settled the next session.

Congress is busy on the appropriation bills—of the nine, two only having been entirely completed. They are quite matured in Committee and will not take up much time in debate. Thus far no land grant bill has passed, and so great is the feeling in Congress against such, that it is possible some meritorious bills may fail, through the want of assistance that might be obtained this way. The Southern Pacific is perhaps one of the most worthy, and its friends fear the result. Congress will be more cautious in the future, from present appearances. A bill giving pensions in certain cases to the soldiers of the war of 1812, has become a law. It will embrace a class of needy, worthy old soldiers.

We hear but little said of San Domingo now except as connected with the ship Tennessee, whose fate is just now so uncertain. The most intelligent, however, at the Navy Department, think she is still safe. I think the feeling against annexation is not so bitter as at first, and if the Commission survive to make a favorable report in this direction, the sentiment may be unanimous in favor of annexation.

New Hampshire Republican voters here have resolved to go home to vote. A very enthusiastic meeting was held last week, in which a general disposition was manifested, to aid in increasing the Republican majority of last year. One of the leading Democrats of the House, who has spoken in New Hampshire in a previous campaign, says they have no hope of that State and will turn their efforts upon Connecticut.

We hear there is much excitement in New Hampshire over a recent decision of the court in regard to previous naturalization of foreigners. It seems Mr. Weston was not elected mayor of Manchester by a majority of legal voters. Will he have the honor to step aside and let Mr. Wallace be sworn in? Those democratic lawyers who raised the question of naturalization ought to advice Mr. Weston at once to abdicate.

Cheering letters from all parts of the State come in, and the majority over last year is to be increased. L.

—The Chattanooga Times asks: Whither are we drifting?" To which the Knoxville Whig replies: "It would be profane in us to say."

THE SAN DOMINGO COMMISSION.—The Tennessee arrived at San Domingo city Feb. 2, having been detained at Samana for six days, coaling. The commission was cordially received by Baez, and he professed himself ready to give them all the information possible. He says that Cabral is supported by Hayti, and that the republic is doing everything in its power to defeat annexation to the United States. The commission will make a careful examination of the whole ground, and hope to return by March 10.

The trip was pleasant throughout, and occupied seven days to Samana. The people of the country are represented as being mostly in favor of annexation. There is not the remotest indication that President Grant has had anything to do with private transactions of any nature in San Domingo or that any public officer at Washington has been involved in such transactions.

The country is represented to be healthy—at present—and as rich as the most enthusiastic have declared it to be; but the people are indolent and ignorant, and live mostly in huts, the whole land seeming to be asleep. The harbor of Samana can be made a splendid naval station, but to do that will require a vast outlay of money for harbor improvements and fortifications. The health of the Tennessee's entire company is good. The Boston Advertiser's special correspondent says that the report of the commission "will undoubtedly vindicate the President's motives, and declare that his sole connection with the matter has been in his official capacity, and that he is not concerned in private operations of any kind. There has, however, been a very questionable use of the war power, directed against Hayti, as the officers of the navy have positive orders to use their ships to defend Baez against his enemies in the island. These orders do not show on their face that they originated in the department, but come direct from the commanding officer of the fleet over a year ago."

—The entertainment at the Crosby Opera House in Chicago realized $4000 for the benefit of "the little church around the corner" in New York.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

CALIFORNIA has shown her preference for the boots and shoes fastened with CABLE SCREW WIRE. These goods are more economical and pliable than those pegged or sewed, will not rip, are almost impervious to water, and wear more evenly than any other. For sale everywhere.

Catarrh is a common disease, so common that snuffing and "hawking" reach you at every turn. Your foot slips in its nasty discharge, in the omnibus or in church, and its stench disgusts at the lecture or concert. The proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy offers $500 reward for a case of Catarrh that he cannot cure. Sold by druggists or send sixty cents to Dr R.V. Pierce, 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive it by mail. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. The genuine has Dr. Pierce's private U. S. Government Stamp on it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Poisonous Medicines.

The theory that the virus of disease can be safely counteracted by doses of poison, is false and dangerous. Within the last twenty-five years, not less than a score of virulent poisons have been added to the repository of the medical profession. They are given in small doses, otherwise they would destroy life immediately; but even in minute quantities, they produce, ultimately, very disastrous effects. It is cowardly and unphilosophical to employ, as remedies, powerful and insidious drugs, which, in subjugating one disease, sow the seeds of another still more unmanageable. None of these terrible medicaments operates with as much directness and certainty upon the causes of disease as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a tonic and corrective, without a single deleterious ingredient in its composition. Arsenic and quinia are given for intermittents; bromide of potassium for nervous disorders; strychnine and prussic acid for general debility; mercury, in various forms, for liver complaint; preparations of chloroform and opium for sleeplessness; and yet these deadly drugs do not compare, as specifics for the diseases above enumerated, with that wholesome vegetable invigorant and alterative, while they are all so pernicious that it is astonishing any physician should take the responsibility of prescribing them. Let invalids, for their own sakes, try the Bitters before they resort to the poisons. The relief they will experience from a course of the harmless specific, will render a recourse to the unsafe preparations referred to, quite unnecessary.

BULLETS FOR EUROPE.

Lead is wanted in Europe. Send over the millions of bottles of new fangled hair colorers that "remain over" and can't be sold here. They are pretty much all lead, and will never be wanted in this country, because all sane people who desire to restore the tinge of youth to their gray or grizzled locks use

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The lead-saturated and sulphur saturated nostrums have gone down, down, down, where they belong; while the EXCELSIOR DYE has gone up with a rapidity that taxes to the utmost the facilities for manufacturing it. It is to-day the MOST POPULAR HAIR DYE in the world, and deserves to be, for it is the safest and the best. As a dressing after the dyeing, use dawlmjan26tm26

CRISTADORO'S HAIR PRESERVATIVE.

Batchelor's Hair Dye.

This splendid Hair Dye is the best in the world: the only true and perfect Dye; harmless, reliable, instantaneous; no disappointment; no ridiculous tints; remedies the ill effect of bad dyes; invigorates and leaves the Hair soft and beautiful, black or brown. Sold by all Druggist and Perfumers, and properly applied at Batchelor's Wig Factory, No. 16 Bond Street, New York. 17dawjw2

LOST.—A Ladies' Purple Waterproof CLOTH CLOAK, made in the ordinary pattern with cape, bound with black such as gentlemen's coats are, with heavy buttons raised head. It is probable there is not another similar one in this vicinity. A suitable reward will be paid for its recovery or any information that may lead thereto, by J. HORACE KENT, City Marshal.

WANTED.—A PARTNER in the Dry Goods Business. A Young Man with experience and a small capital can hear of a good opportunity to engage in the Dry Goods Business by applying at 23 Market Street.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a totally hopeless case of disease to perfect healthiness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold in the Northern or Eastern places on this continent for this purpose, in winter. In Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to sudden variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would refer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Melionville and Enterprise are located there, and should give a decided preference to Melionville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The bracing air of Florida might be better, and patients complain at times: but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Persons who reside in Green Florida, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reason for saying so is, that patients will be able to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature, and it is necessary to avoid that, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly: therefore my advice is, go well down in the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other place whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully, and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person who take was quantities of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern climates. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle states, it is not so prevalent largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, smallpox, &c., but they are not: they take what they term a little cold, which they are certain enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They go to sleep to wake in the Morning to lay down for rest, to wake in the Morning to lay down for rest, and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do for the lungs that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or slight weak lungs, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a free use of Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to put a stop to all pulmonary fevers, to give a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry; I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs, and the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient get well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to the South. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the cold weather, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, this will relieve you by a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment pursued. The Sick should not despair, even except Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured many of such as were given over by leaves of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its horrible effects behind. They are also very excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit, and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrake will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrake, every night, until you feel then drink water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or any other fruit you like, without the dread of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer tells the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood, that my value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they will not be liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

AID FOR THE DESTITUTE

In France.

At a meeting held February 1st, 1871, in the rooms of the Massachusetts Hospital Life Office, to consider the question of sending a cargo of provisions to France for free distribution, it was unanimously decided that an appeal ought to be made to the citizens of Boston, to raise, at once, by subscription, a fund sufficient to load a large vessel with flour and other provisions. This appeal has already been so liberally responded to, that the fine U. S. Steamer "Worcester," the use of which for transporting the supplies has been granted by the government, will immediately begin loading. We now invite the citizens of New England to join us in furnishing the means for promptly despatching her upon her errand of peace and good will. We need at least twenty-five thousand dollars more to effect our object satisfactorily.

A careful and experienced agent of our Committee will precede the vessel, for the purpose of consulting other relief committees who are already on the field of suffering, and there making arrangements for judiciously distributing the aid furnished.

With the facilities thus provided we hope to make every ten dollars supply one person with cheap food for an hundred days.

New subscriptions may be sent to the Treasurer, Mr. PATRICK T. JACKSON, No. 24 Franklin Street, or to any member of the Executive Committee, or of the Subscription Committee. Persons who have already subscribed will lighten the work of the Committee, if they will send checks as soon as convenient to the Treasurer.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

☞ Ash Wednesday.

☞ Washington's Birth Day. No paper to-morrow.

☞ No work at the Navy Yard, to-day. A salute of twenty-one guns will be fired at noon.

☞ Leslie & Locke's theatrical company will appear at the Temple next Monday and Tuesday evenings.

☞ The Committee having charge of the White Rover Relief Fund acknowledge the receipt of $20 from Mr. Theron J. Dale of Boston. The fund now amounts to more than $1300.

☞ Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett will give his able and valuable lecture, recently delivered before the M. L. A. Lyceum here, in the Congregational Church at Newcastle, on Monday evening next, at 7 o'clock.

CARD.—The subscriber acknowledges the receipt of a draft for $50 from CHARLES LYMAN, Esq., of Boston, for the relief of the sufferers by the White Rover disaster.

HORTON D. WALKER.

☞ The lecture of Gen. Chamberlain before the Kittery Lyceum on Monday evening was excellent, of course, and well attended. On Tuesday he visited the Navy Yard and was entertained by Commodore Pennock and Capt. Fairfax, who, as usual, took especial pains to render his brief stay pleasant and profitable.

☞ The holiday keepers can't go sleighing much to-day, and the skating is nothing great, either. Some folks can secure a variation from their regular routine by going to work for a few hours, and the workers won't be hurt by laying still. This evening the Crispins have their weekly dance in Congress Hall, and will have a crowd as usual.

THE KITTERY GHOST, probably emboldened by its long immunity from richly earned kickings, has at last made its appearance at a time of day which no moral and orthodox ghost would choose for visiting the cool atmosphere of the earth. A correspondent writes that "it appeared at the close of Friday afternoon to a respectable lady in the vicinity of the village, in an indecent manner,—probably in keeping with the object of its nocturnal excursions. The ghost is of medium height, slender, and young looking. It wore on this occasion light pantaloons and a long dark coat, and carried a long strip of board or a pole on its shoulder. A few weeks ago a respectable married lady in the village was insulted between 8 and 9 o'clock one dark evening. She succeeded in reaching the steps of her house just as the villain grasped her, and the peal of the door-bell set him running in another direction. A similar incident has also happened to another lady recently. It is time the ghost was looked into." We think that if some gentleman was to apply the toe of his boot to the portion of those "light pantaloons" which makes the most show when the ghost is running away, it would have a salutary effect, provided the application was made with sufficient vigor.

SEABROOK.—Several public meetings have been held in the Congregational Vestry at South Seabrook, to see what steps could be taken to arrange for getting through with the town business and voting in one day, instead of several, as has heretofore been the case; and an article is to be inserted in the election warrant submitting the question of voting for all the officers on one piece of paper to the votes of the people. If this can be carried it will save much time and trouble to the one hundred and sixty voters of South Seabrook, who live four miles from the voting place at Seabrook village, and to whom the needless waste of time at town meetings is a serious annoyance and loss. It is expected there will be a strong opposition to the movement, there being many persons in Seabrook who look forward to election time as a season for drunkenness, carousal and rioting, the town authorities being expected to give license to their actions at that season; but a police force and lockup having come into existence the past year, the respectable citizens hope that the scenes of intemperance and violence which have been too common at past elections may be done away with; and if the voting can all be done on one ballot it will greatly help to the desired end.

☞ Mr. John L. Hobbs of North Hampton recently killed a hog 15 months old, which when dressed weighed 721 lbs.

County Commissioner J. W. F. Hobbs, has killed two pigs, 8 months old, weighing 739 lbs.

☞ The French relief fund in Boston now amounts to $76,500.

PROGRESSING.—The Orthodox Society in Ipswich will hold a Fair this week, for the benefit of the Parish, at which theatricals will be indulged in.

THE RESULT OF RAILROAD CASUALTIES.—One million two hundred and twenty-eight thousand dollars of accident insurance was taken at the New York office alone of the Travellers Insurance Company during the ten days immediately subsequent to the New Hamburgh disaster on the Hudson River Railroad.—Evening Mail.

☞ A Berlin dispatch says that the London conference has agreed to open the Black Sea to foreign men-of-war, and to authorize the Porte to admit the passage through the Dardanelles of all armed vessels, Russia and Roumania alone excepted. Russia is not opposed to this question, but Turkey hesitates to agree to it. The Porte objects to the powers having more than two ships of war in the Danube.

☞ Olive Logan was riding on the Fort Wayne Railroad, a few days since, when four men, sitting opposite, kept spitting on the floor. She looked cross-eyed at them for a while, but they didn't seem to dry up much, when she got up, struck an attitude, and ordered the conductor, in thunder tones, to bring a mop or a shovel and clean out the pen. The spitters were so frightened they jumped out of the windows and doors, and seemed pleased to have escaped with their lives.

A PARSON MILITANT.—Parson Gregg recently, "in the name of the Lord" put a head on certain of the ungodly in Lancaster, Pa. It seems that whenever the parson succeeded in getting up a revival, certain indecorous sinners marched from an adjacent town into his village and raised general Cain among the faithful. They drank, and swore and cat-called, and meeting the parson, invariably insulted him by inviting him to drink. So on the evening of the 28th of January, when these villains had become unusually satanic, this parson militant quietly drew off his coat and went for these Philistines in a very scientific style. Jim Page Bedloe, the most outrageous of the heathen, was basted in first-class style, and then the gallant parson went for the others, but they took instantly to their heels, and the place that knew them knew them no more for ever. The parson then continued his sermon and took hold of the horns of the altar in a way that brought every sinner in the vicinity to immediate repentance.

A GREAT MISTAKE.—It is a great mistake to suppose that editors keep public reading rooms. That they have plenty of time to talk to everybody. That they are delighted to get anything to fill up the paper. That they have plenty of time to correct bad manuscripts. That they are in duty bound to puff everybody. That they must have no opinion of their own. That they should know everything whether informed of it or not. That they have plenty of money. That they should "notice" every scalawag show that travels. That they should have news whether there is any or not. That they should print every man's name who attends a dog fight, and should keep every man's name out of the paper who comes before the police court.

—"Where the shoe pinches" is attributed to Plutarch, who relates a story of a Roman who was divorced from his wife, and who, being blamed by his friends, who demanded, "Was she not chaste? was she not fair?" held out his shoe and asked them whether it was not new and well made; "yet," he added, "none of you can tell where it pinches me."

—An irreverent American in Cologne has greatly shocked the ecclesiastic authorities by offering to buy the bones of 10,000 martyred virgins in the Church of St. Ursula for the purpose of founding an anatomical museum.

—A Kansas City husband gave his wife $400 to buy Christmas presents for himself. She selected a young clerk and two railroad tickets.

—The artesian well at Lincoln park, Chicago, gives no less than 700,000 gallons of water a day.

—The best way to chew tobacco—Eschew it.

☞ Old newspapers for sale at this Office.

☞ JOB AND CARD PRINTING is neatly promptly and cheaply done at the Chronicle and Gazette Office; and the patronage of friends in this line is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

☞ THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE for this week, is now ready for delivery, at the Chronicle Office. Each number contains all the reading matter of the week's Dailies. Price $2 a year; single copies 5 cents,—in wrappers for mailing, if desired. Six copies for $10 per year, to Clubs—per mail or city carrier.

COMPLETION

—OF THE—

Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railway.

THE FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

COUPON OR REGISTERED,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

Principal and Interest Payable in Gold,

ON A FINISHED ROAD.

—FOR SALE—

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

The last rail of this important road was laid on the 26th of January, thus completing the enterprise and establishing a connection between St. Paul and St. Louis 90 miles shorter than any existing route and 65 miles shorter than any contemplated route between the same points.

By this line also the distance from Chicago to the great grain fields of Minnesota is shortened 45 miles, and transportation proportionately quickened and cheapened. The First Mortgage Bonds assume therefore at once on the completion of the line a position equal in intrinsic value to those of the Fort Wayne, Pennsylvania Central, Illinois Central or any other First Mortgage Bonds of completed trunk lines—not one of which sell below par.

The B. C. R. & M. Bonds are a First Mortgage, amounting only to $20,000 per mile on a line of road which has cost $40,000 per mile, the balance having been supplied by liberal subscription to the stock at par, made by wealthy farmers and parties interested along the line, and by similar subscriptions on the part of Towns and Counties through which the Road passes, which have adopted this system of giving their aid rather than issuing Town and County Bonds.

The earnings of the Road in its incomplete state, and while deprived entirely of through connection, have been for the past three months in excess of 12 per cent. on the amount of the Mortgage Bonds, after deducting all operating expenses. No Road in the United States can show a better record during its inception. When is added to this lucrative way traffic the profits which will arise from the transportation of the vast wheat crop of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, all of which must seek a market over this line, the result cannot but be a showing which will give large Dividends on the Stock of the Company, after paying the interest to the Bond-holders as heretofore. The privilege which attaches to the Bonds of conversion into Stock at par will shortly assume practical value, as by this privilege the Bond-holders will, by the conversion, be entitled to share in any excess of earnings which may accrue to the Road.

The Company has made extremely favorable arrangements for freight and passenger traffic with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. These arrangements will add largely to the profits of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road, as well as increasing its traffic receipts. The C. B. & Q. R. R. hasurther agreed to set aside 50 per cent. of the gross earnings realized from the business with the B. C. R. & M. Co. for investment in the bonds of the latter company.

This arrangement secures a practical consolidation of the two companies, and makes the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Company permanently interested in the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota road by its running arrangements with and investments in the first mortgage bonds of the latter.

A small amount, $400,000 in all, of the issue yet unsold are still offered at the subscription price of 90 and accrued interest in currency. Although the Company feel warranted in the present condition of their affairs in advancing the price of bonds, yet they have concluded to continue for the present the subscription at the same price as heretofore, in order to effect rapid sales and thus free themselves immediately from all floating indebtedness.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges.

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, too limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the

FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling-stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacific, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any required denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, call do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mds3mwfebs6

New Publications Received.

Le Bon Ton, for March. Published by S. T. Taylor, New York; $6 per annum. A journal of fashion.

Messages and Documents, 1869-70, Mining Statistics and Directory of the 21st Congress—from Senator Aaron H. Cragin.

The New Comic Songster, published by O. Ditson & Co., Boston. Price 60 cts. A book full of fun and just in season for the winter evenings. It contains the latest humorous pieces, with the Melody of each, including: "I saw Esau kissing Kate," "Any Ornaments," "I've lost my bow-wow," "Racketty Jack," "School of Jolly Dogs," "John Schmidt," and a hundred others.

The Voice of Prayer, a Poem by Warren Sumner Barlow. Carleton, Publisher, New York.

Demorest's Monthly Magazine for March announces, in a prominent heading, "Fashions for Europe and America." The number has numerous special novelties, popular music, home matters, and entertaining stories. Yearly, $3. W. Jennings Demorest, 838 Broadway, N. Y.

Peterson's for March is an entertaining number of a popular Magazine. Good stories, poems and the latest fashions fill it. Chas. S. Peterson, Phila., Pa.; $2 per annum.

Godey's March number is one of the best of this favorite Magazine. The ladies will find in it new Spring fashions and most unexceptionable and interesting stories. "Getting on in the World," by Marion Harland, is continued. Louis A. Godey, Phila., Pa. $3 per annum.

The Galaxy for March, a favorite among the monthlies, contains a continuation of "Lady Judith," by Justin McCarthy; Donn Piatt has an article "About Bears;" "Overland" grows more and more interesting; Americus gives his views of the Annexation of San Domingo; and Mrs. Edwards' new novel, "Ought We to Visit her" goes as far as the 9th chapter. Drift Wood, Scientific Miscellany and Nebulæ are as readable as ever. Sheldon & Co., New York. $4 per annum.

New Music from Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston.—"You Know How It is Yourself," by Jos. Pause; "Little Ones, Good Night," E. Pabst; "The Georgian Maid's Farewell," by Henry Schoeller; "Saratoga Belles Waltz," by J. S. Knight; "Poetry of Motion," by S. B. Whitney, and "Perles Musicales" for the piano-forte.

Harper's Monthly for March is received by J. H. Foster and Foster Shores & Co. We note brief but interesting reminiscences of General Scott, from Mr. Weed's autobiography, Mr. Curtis has in his Easy Chair department a pleasant sketch of his sensations on a first sight of Jefferson's Rip Van Winkle, and equally pleasant reminiscences of his own lecture tours. The "American Baron" is continued, as is "Anne Furness" and "Frederick the Great." The 2d paper "Along the Florida Reef" is very interesting. $4 per annum.

With the rest of the March magazines which come treading on each other's heels in the middle of February, is The Nursery, which is as delightful as usual, with pictures by Froment and Pletsch and by American artists.

The Phrenological Journal for March contains—Noah Webster, the eminent lexicographer, with a portrait; Progress of Religious Civilization, as illustrated in the improved condition of the Race; Thomas de Witt Talmadge, the eminent divine; Brain Waves—a new theory; the new king of Spain, with portrait; the late Gen. Prim, with portrait; our Domestic Props, or the servant question; the Food supply of Europe and America, interesting facts; Japan, its present condition; Punishing Criminals, a reform demanded; How to Rise in the World, or wherein lies Greatness—birth or culture; $3 a year; Sent to new subscribers on trial six months $1. S. R. Wells, Publisher, New York.

The Lady's Friend for March. A charming country scene, "At the Mill," forms the steelplate in this number. The Colored Fashions are brilliant and stylish. Miss Douglas leads off with "The Story of a Day." Florence Percy's "Bitter Sweet" is one of the loveliest poems; the admirable story of "Camilla" is concluded. Price $2.50 a year (which also includes a large steel engraving.) Deacon & Peterson, Philadelphia.

☞ A tornado passed over portions of Mississippi and Arkansas, Feb. 19, doing much damage. At Helena, Ark., stores were thrown down, all the churches unroofed and are ruined, 33 houses destroyed, vessels wrecked and lives lost. The damage is enormous.

BRIGGS & BRO'S

Illustrated and Descriptive Catalogue
OF FLOWER & VEGETABLE SEEDS,
AND SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS.
FOR 1871.

Will be ready for mailing by the middle of January, notwithstanding our great loss of type, paper, engravings, &c., by fire, which destroyed the Job Printing office of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, 25th December, 1870. It will be printed on a most elegant new tinted paper, and illustrated with nearly

Five Hundred Original Engravings,

And two finely executed Colored Plates—specimens for all of which were grown for themselves the past season from our own stock of Seeds. The originality, execution and extent of the engravings it is believed will eminently superior to any other Catalogue or "Floral Guide" extant.

The Catalogue will consist of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered Seeds from us by mail the last season. To others a charge of 15 cents per copy will be made, which is not the value of the Colored Plates. We assure our friends that the inducements we offer to purchasers of Seeds, as to quality and extent of Stock, Discounts and Premiums are unsurpassed. Please send orders for Catalogues without delay.

Our Colored Chromo for 1871

Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent Forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers of natural size and color. We design to make it the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 10x12 inches. The retail value would be at least Two Dollars. We will, however, furnish it to customers at 75 cents per copy, and offer it as a Premium upon orders for Seeds. See catalogue when out.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
NO. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents, and opinions thereon, legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the validity or rights of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of obtaining their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART."

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF

HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.

To insure or not to insure? That is the question. Whether t'will be nobler for my family to suffer
The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune
Or take a policy against those dangers,
And, by insuring, end them? To fret, to fear,
No more; and by a policy to end
The heartache and the thousand natural shocks
That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application 's
Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure,
And pay the premium: ay—there's the rub
For in that time what premiums may come
Before I shuffle off this mortal coil
Does make me pause, tightens my purse,
And makes me rather pay the bills I have
Than fly to others I know not of.
Thus does meanness make brutes of us all.

New Publications Received.

Scribner's Monthly is a brilliant number. Among its attractive articles is 'a second one on the weather by Prof. Maury, profusely illustrated. "King Gambrinus and his Subjects," also illustrated, is an account of a visit to a German beer-house. "Life in the Cannibal Islands" is the first of a series upon the history, resources and prospects of New Zealand, by an American nine years resident in the Cannibal Islands. A graphic sketch of "Victor Emmanuel's Queen" will be found very interesting, as will the account of the Chinese in Sunday-school in South Adams, Mass. There is also a splendid story by Miss Trafton, "Will she Ride or Walk?" a continuation of McDonald's remarkable story, some fine poetry, and much sensible reading in Dr. Holland's "Topics of the Time," and in the other editorial departments, making an unusually interesting number. $3 a year. Scribner & Co., New York.

The Radical for March has an article on Plutarch's Morals by Rev. T. W. Higginson; Scientific Notes; The Radical Club; the second chapter of Annie Beckett, etc. Published at 25 Broomfield St., Boston, $3 per annum.

Our Young Folks for March is at hand. Trowbridge's story, Jack Hazard and his Fortunes, is continued; James Parton contributes "The Famous Voyages of Cadamosto," and the Juvenile Department is full. James R. Osgood & Co., Publishers, Boston. $2 per annum.

The Atlantic Monthly for March has a pleasantly diversified table of contents; among other good things, poems by Whittier and Howells, and interesting prose articles on Woman's Rights in Ancient Athens, Our Eyes, Shoddy, John Wesley, Part III. of our Whispering Gallery and a bright review of Recent Literature.

"Goethe's Conversations with Muller," edited by C. A. H. Burkhardt, have only recently been published in Germany, although Muller has been dead twenty years. The book has been looked for expectantly by all who knew of Muller's relations with Goethe, and his character for ability and integrity. Chapters are now being published in "The Radical," translated for that magazine by C. C. Shackford, whose translations of Auerbach's works have been received with great favor and commendation. The complete work will be published in book form early in the Spring.

"Oliver Optic's Magazine" for March is rich in stories, sketches, poetry, puzzles, pictures, entertainment and information. There is the first of a series of illustrated articles on the manner of boring for and pumping petroleum; an illustrated article on the beaver; a fable in verse, illustrated; a jolly dialogue; and a great variety of miscellaneous matter. In all respects, "Oliver Optic's Magazine" for March is a model number of a model juvenile magazine. Published monthly by Lee & Shepard, Boston, at $2.50 a year.

The Monthly Novelette, for March; Thomes & Talbot, 63 Congress St., Boston. This number has the usual amount of varied and interesting reading matter, including illustrated articles, sea sketches, continued stories, poetry, humorous anecdotes, &c. $2 per year.

New Books by Mary J. Holmes, John Esten Cooke, Josh Billings, Fanny Fern, A. S. Roe, Marion Harland, Orpheus C. Kerr, Brick Pomeroy, Richard B. Kimball, and Algernon Swinburne, are announced this season by Carleton, of New York, who has admitted in partnership Mr. G. Dillingham, under the firm of F. W. Charleton & Co.

TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents,
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, FEB. 24, 1871.

CONGRESS.

On the 22d, the Senate discussed the Indian appropriation bill and adjourned without action.

The House discussed the Post Office appropriation bill.

Mr. Fitch of Nevada said Mr. Butler of Massachusetts was not implicated in granite contracts.

Mr. Farnsworth of Illinois charged that two mirrors belonging to the Treasury Department had been carried about to adorn and beautify the residence of Gen. Butler in Washington, and that one worth $10,000 was broken in transit.

Mr. Butler replied to Mr. Farnsworth's insinuation. There were some things, he said, which men could not avoid. He could not avoid, when going along the street having mud carts spatter filth upon him. The member from Illinois had accused him of being interested in the granite contract for the Boston Post Office; but his colleague on the Post Office Committee (Fitch) had informed the House that there was not the slightest evidence connecting him with it. Then came some item about furniture, and thereupon the mud machine went at it again and the House was told that furniture belonging to the Treasury had been used by him (Butler). There was not one word of truth in it. The accusation was that the Secretary of the Treasury, the supervising architect and everybody who had to do with these appropriations, were all corrupt, all fraudulent and wrong. And this charge was made by a man whose majority had dwindled ten-fold—from 14,000 to 1400, and against a Methodist preacher too. [Laughter.] He had but one observation to make, and that was he who accused all the world convicted only one, and that one was himself. He who ran a muck against every man only showed his own heart, and had all the qualities with which he desired to invest every one else. He was like a man who, being drunk himself, saw all the world staggering before him. The member from Illinois saw nothing but wrong, fraud, misfeasance and malfeasance in everybody else. [Laughter].

Mr. Farnsworth replied that he could prove that Gen. Butler was interested in the stone quarry which was to furnish granite for the Boston Post Office, and that Gen. B. had mirrors at his house belonging to the U. S. government.

Mr. Butler rose to reply but was cut off by the expiration of the hour devoted to the bill under consideration.

FRANCE.

A proclamation has been issued by Gen. Chanzy to the French army to prepare for renewal of the struggle with Germany. The territory of France, says the proclamation, must remain intact.

The remnant of the troops composing the army lately commanded by Gen. Faidherbe are still at Dunkerque, and in the event of a further renewal of military operations will be incorporated in the army of Gen. Chanzy.

Advices from Paris state that a manifesto has just been issued by Gen. Trochu, vehemently protesting against the entry of the German troops into the city, and urging in the strongest language a firm and decided resistance by the citizens and troops. The manifesto says; "Let us shut all the gates of Paris, and let the Germans open them with cannon if they dare."

Paris is violently agitated, and the streets are in an uproar of excitement. It is very probable that a firm and bloody resistance will be opposed to the entry. The Parisians are enthusiastic and unanimous in the determination to oppose it and escape the last crowning humiliation sought to be fixed on the French nation.

The President of the United States has recognized the new government.

The armistice is prolonged to Sunday at midnight. Peace is considered concluded, though not yet signed.

—The Cable Screw Wire Goods are giving great satisfaction. Manufacturers who were fortunate enough to adopt this machine some months ago, are getting a ready market for their goods. There is real merit in this Cable Screw Wire Fastening, and where there is that, consumers do not fail to find it out in time.

This endorsement, from the Boston Commercial Bulletin, is deserved by Boots and Shoes of this make, which are sold by dealers everywhere.

—If ever a good man was tormented by in considerate friends, that man is now President of the United States, and brother-in-law to the race of Dent. Boston News.

THE SENATE AND THE LINE.—The action of the Senate Naval Committee on the Naval Staff Rank bill proves even more inexplicable than we at first supposed. The bill as sent up from the House of Representatives, where it had passed almost unanimously, was calculated to benefit the staff of the navy and to shield them from the insults and degradations which the petty prejudices and caste pride of the Annapolis fledgelings (backed by the outrageous abuse of power by such men as "the Admiral") have heaped upon them. The bill, as it comes from the Senate Naval Committee, is directly opposed to the staff, and makes their position even worse than ever before. It gives the staff "assimilated rank," (which means exactly what rank the line like to allow the staff i. e., no rank at all,) and legislates into the navy that famous "second captain," who has already made trouble enough there as an impertinent interloper. As reported, it is an entirely line bill.

The Baltimore American says:—"It legalizes increased caste power and privileges to the line corps of the navy, instead of being, as was intended by the House, a just measure for the relief of the staff officers from insupportable degradation and tyranny. The Senate, we trust, will not sanction anything of the sort. Positive rank, as opposed to the utterly worthless folly of so-called "assimilated" or "relative" rank—sufficient numbers in the higher grades of naval rank to correspond with the higher and more responsible staff posts to be filled, and legal protection from the needless and unjust "executive precedence," or a double captaincy, over them—are rights which the naval staff are clearly entitled to, as necessary to themselves, for their self-respect and their protection, and necessary to the best interest of the navy. The people and the press have universally declared this, and the House of Representatives gave it official expression. Now we confidently look for the Senate to endorse these principles, with similar unanimity, and to strike down the foolish aristocracy of line caste and power from its place in our navy and our country."

A New York journal—the journal that "goes it blind" for the line—recently drew an agonizing picture of the performances on board a ship officered entirely by surgeons, as it chose to assume might some day occur if the staff should receive positive rank, and legal authority in their own departments. Setting aside the fact that the House bill fully provides that no staff officer—no matter what his rank—shall exercise authority out of his own department, we are of the opinion that an old naval surgeon, paymaster or engineer would navigate and sail a ship quite as well as the liners have run the medical, construction and engineer departments of the navy for some years past. We had rather have a surgeon tell us how to put a ship in stays, than to have a line officer—even though he might be a graduate of Annapolis—saw off our leg.

The omnipotent and omniscient line assert that the staff shall have nothing but "assimilated rank," and add that the line won't recognize men having that nondescript rank, as being officers at all. In all navies but ours the staff have positive rank, and rise to far higher positions than with us; but then the British and other European naval aristocracies are old and well-established orders, and can afford to see justice done to others without opposing it, while our naval aristocracy is a mushroom affair, and its members must fight to keep others from getting too near, lest it be seen that they are but mortals, and very ordinary mortals, at that. In our army the staff have "positive" rank, and Gen. Sherman declares that it works well; why should not the naval staff be put on a similar footing.

For nearly two years all the questions at issue between the naval line and staff have been carefully studied by the House Naval Committee, with four military experts upon it, and with the advantage of studying the usages of the English navy on board Her Britannic Majesty's steamer Monarch at Annapolis. The Senate Committee, with but one military gentleman on it, with no advantages of observation which the House Committee had, hastily kills the House bill of nearly two years' labored research, after a few days', in fact only hours', consideration of the same propositions.

The Senate amendments stir up and increase the present naval discord and contest, and doom the whole concern to destruction. Let the Senate reject this amendment of its committee, and concur in the bill passed by the House of Representatives. The question involved is not merely whether the staff shall receive suitable rank from the people through their delegates in Congress, instead of having to take what the line in their generous magnanimity may choose to allow, but whether "the people" or "the line" shall rule in naval affairs. The people's money educates the line, and pays the salaries of both line and staff, as well as all other naval expenses; and the people should and will have a voice in the bestowal of the rank for which they pay, notwithstanding the contempt of the naval aristocracy for the common herd, and their ridiculous assumption that they—the blue-blooded line—and they only, are the rank-bestowing power in the navy. The people demand that the navy shall be more efficient and better disciplined, and this can only be attained by clapping a legal "stopper" on the interference of the line in the medical, engineer and construction departments of the service. The New Hampshire members of the House can point to a clean record on this question, as on others; and Gen. Stevens' speech in support of the Naval Staff Rank bill is one of the most exhaustive and unanswerable arguments that we have ever read. That our Senators will be equally decided and urgent in supporting the wishes of the people in opposition to the supposed interests of aristocratic caste, cannot be questioned; and we are confident that whether justice is done to the staff by this Congress or some future one,—for it will be done—that the New Hampshire delegation will stand a unit on the record in favor of the right.

☞ The Stone Crushing machinery is about ready for delivery, and the location of it is a matter of some importance. All experience proves that McAdamizing is the best plan for roads, but if the machine should be located in the City yard, it would prove a great nuisance to the neighbors, and depreciate property in the vicinity.

The National Webster Bank of Boston is the victim of a defalcation committed by the Cashier, Mr. Ellery C. Daniell of Dedham; and the amount is about fifty thousand dollars. The receiving teller of the North Bank is also a little irregular in his accounts, the amount not exceeding five thousand dollars. Outside parties are said to be implicated in the transaction.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

CALIFORNIA has shown her preference for the boots and shoes fastened with CABLE SCREW WIRE. These goods are more economical and pliable than those pegged or sewed, will not rip, are almost impervious to water, and wear more evenly than any other. For sale everywhere.

Catarrh is a common disease, so common that snuffing and "hawking" reach you at every turn. Your foot slips in its nasty discharge, in the omnibus or in church, and its stench disgusts at the lecture or concert. The proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy offers $500 reward for a case of Catarrh that he cannot cure. Sold by druggists or send sixty cents to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive it by mail. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. The Genuine has Dr. Pierce's private U. S. Government Stamp on it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Poisonous Medicines.

The theory that the virus of disease can be safely counteracted by doses of poison, is false and dangerous. Within the last twenty-five years, not less than a score of virulent poisons have been added to the repository of the medical profession. They are given in small doses, otherwise they would destroy life immediately; but even in minute quantities, they produce, ultimately, very disastrous effects. It is unwise and unphilosophical to employ, as remedies, powerful and insidious drugs, which, in subjugating one disease, sow the seeds of another still more unmanageable. None of these terrible medicaments operates with as much directness and certainty upon the causes of disease as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a tonic and corrective, without a single deleterious ingredient in its composition. Arsenic and quinia are given for intermittents; bromide of potassium for nervous disorders; strychnine and prussic acid for general debility; mercury, in various forms, for liver complaint; preparations of chloroform and opium for sleeplessness; and yet these deadly drugs do not compare, as specifics for the diseases above enumerated, with that wholesome vegetable invigorant and alterative, while they are all so pernicious that it is astonishing any physician should take the responsibility of prescribing them. Let invalids, for their own sakes, try the Bitters before they resort to the poisons. The relief they will experience from a course of the harmless specific, will render a recourse to the unsafe preparations referred to, quite unnecessary.

BULLETS FOR EUROPE.

Lead is wanted in Europe. Send over the millions of bottles of new fangled hair colorers that "remain over" and can't be sold here. They are pretty much all lead, and will never be wanted in this country, because all sane people who desire to restore the tinge of youth to their gray or grizzled locks use

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The lead-saturated and sulphur saturated nostrums have gone down, down, down, where they belong; while the EXCELSIOR DYE has gone up with a rapidity that taxes to the utmost the facilities for manufacturing it. It is to-day the

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the same, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 2½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. 52dWeS feb7 J. A. GRACE.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY!

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawfeb16

AID FOR THE DESTITUTE

In France.

At a meeting held February 1st, 1871, in the rooms of the Massachusetts Hospital Life Office, to consider the question of sending a cargo of provisions to France for free distribution, it was unanimously decided that an appeal ought to be made to the citizens of Boston, to raise, at once, by subscription, a fund sufficient to load a large vessel with flour and other provisions. This appeal has already been so liberally responded to, that the fine U. S. Steamer "Worcester," the use of which for transporting the supplies has been granted by the government, will immediately begin loading. We now invite the citizens of New England to join us in furnishing the means for promptly despatching her upon her errand of peace and good will. We need at least twenty-five thousand dollars more to effect our object satisfactorily.

A careful and experienced agent of our Committee will precede the vessel, for the purpose of consulting other relief committees who are already on the field of suffering, and there making arrangements for judiciously distributing the aid furnished.

With the facilities thus provided we hope to make every ten dollars supply one person with cheap food for an hundred days.

New subscriptions may be sent to the Treasurer, Mr. PATRICK T. JACKSON, No. 24 Franklin Street, or to any member of the Executive Committee, or of the Subscription Committee. Persons who have already subscribed will lighten the work of the Committee, if they will send checks as soon as convenient to the Treasurer.

☞ James P. Bartlett, Esq., favored the citizens of Greenland, on the evening of the 22d, by reading to them extracts from David Copperfield. It is seldom that our neighbors enjoy so rare a treat as was afforded them by the recitations of this talented gentleman. His impersonations of the heart-broken Peggotty, the bombastic Micawber and the officious Mrs. Crupper, were particularly happy, while his reading of the narrative portion of the story was admirably done.

Mr. Bartlett has a fine voice, completely disciplined, and equally well adapted to pathos, humor or simple narrative;—and he never used it to better advantage than at Greenland.

☞ Several attempts have been made by some petty rascal or rascals to force an entrance into Mr. Edward Hilton's confectionery store on Islington Street, by breaking the windows. The last failure in that line was on the evening of the 22d, when the scamps made their attack in the rear, broke another pane of glass and threw open the window fastening, but were unable to raise the sash owing to a bit of lath having been nailed on to batter out the cold. The thieves would have got no money had they succeeded in entering; but Mr. Hilton is seriously annoyed by their attentions to his affairs, and will take great pleasure in giving them lodgings with Mr. Davis, in the public building near his store, if he can only find them out.

AWFUL BOOTS.—A local paper, in an article on Mr. T. S. Nowell's extensive Shoe Manufacturing business, gives some interesting statistics; and among other things states that the average production is about 800 pairs of shoes and boots a day, and the yearly consumption of sole leather 50,000 tons. We had no idea that Mr. Nowell went into the shoe business so heavily as these statistics would make out; for allowing 320 working days to the year and 2000 lbs. to the ton, each pair of boots or shoes turned out would occupy a trifle over 390 lbs. of sole leather. We have worn boots of Mr. Nowell's manufacture, and they always lasted well; but we don't think they were so heavy as all that. The reporter must have got into the stitching room, and become demoralized from looking at the sewing-machine operators. We know how it is, ourself.

☞ The new chapel of the North Church on Middle St. is to be dedicated this (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock.

☞ Patrick Meade delivered an open air oration on Market Square, Thursday, and at the close of his remarks, which were as energetic as plain, Assistant Marshal Barsantee and Mr. T. E. Stoodley acted as a body guard as Meade advanced on the City Hall.

From our Regular Correspondent.

PORTLAND, ME., Feb. 21.

Eds. Chronicle:—The Boston & Maine extension charter, which passed both branches by large majorities, was handsomely contested by the P. S. & P. Road, but in vain. As the Portland Argus says:—"The impression of monopoly was created, and circumstances tended to give it strength. Nothing can stand the wrath of the people," even if unjustly aroused. The extreme eastern section of the State, and Portland, Saco and Biddeford favored the charter; and the case was too strong for the P. S. & P.

The P. S. & P. is one of the best roads in New England. Its capacity for doing business can be greatly enlarged. Its directors, with the worthy and able Gov. Goodwin as President, are men of experience and sound judgment in railroad and business affairs. It has been of immense advantage to Maine, and will continue so to be, whatever the result.

It is the opinion of sagacious railroad men that upon the completion of the several railroads eastward to upper Maine and the Provinces, the P. S. & P. will have a great share of the business. By the Portland and Rochester road it is 48 miles to South Berwick, (by the proposed Alfred and Berwick branch,) and 130 miles via Rochester and Dover from Portland to Boston; via the P. S. & P. road it is only 108—fully an hour difference—and by the Alfred and Berwick route, a half hour. If the Boston and Maine do build another line to Portland from South Berwick, it is the general opinion that both roads will pay well. Even now flour can be brought from Chicago as soon, and often sooner by way of the P. S. & P. than by the Grand Trunk, owing to the immense freight business of the latter choking up and delaying a portion of its freight business, especially in winter, when the English steamer freight for this city takes precedence. So that as to freight the P. S. & P. will always go handsomely. In summer it will certainly do so, as it reaches nearer the beaches of Portsmouth, Rye, Hampton, &c.

On the morning of the 16th, a boy was coasting down State Street, near Commercial,—a very steep hill, as passengers to and from the P. S. & P. depot well know. A locomotive was engaged in shifting trains, going at a rate of ten miles an hour. The boy and sled went right under the locomotive without sustaining the slightest injury. It was the most wonderful escape ever known in this vicinity. People shouted to him; Supt. Chase tried to stop him by voice and signs, but in vain; the momentum was too great. People turned their heads in perfect sorrow, being sure of a terrible result. It was rather a dangerous experiment. The Argus caps the climax by saying that the boy on Saturday tried it again and turned a summersault over the engine, landing upon the sled again on the other side. "Pass it along."

The rage among the lovers of the fine arts is the Carbon photographers of gems of art on exhibition at Hale's gallery. They were recently in Worcester, Boston and elsewhere, attracting great attention. The substitution of carbon for silver in photographing retains the peculiar features of works of art reproduced, especially frescoes and statuary. The collection includes photographs of all the celebrated works in the Italian, German and French galleries, by the most renowned masters. The celebrated floral artist, Bradbury of Hollis, has received an order from Buffalo, N. Y., for several small paintings of wild flowers. The works of Bradbury are perfect little gems.

City election comes off March 6th. All quiet along the line. Mayor Kingsbury, who has made a good mayor, considering the unfavorable condition of affairs under the "mixed political condition" of last spring. SANCHO.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a totally bad case of diseased lungs to healthy health. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Doerman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The ladies in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. It is common for saying so are, that persons are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly: therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, 6 disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but for those who are very diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and treated from one to five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious attacks than any other latitude. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small-pox, &c.! but they are not: they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry: I have hopes of such. When a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is slowly followed by a healing of the lungs, when the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate the patient, and he gains strength well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to the South, and the question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured the worst of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will find numerous cases of some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit, and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office in 1 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But it must be distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold: yet no one who diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that every one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowa at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling-stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 6-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacific, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply them. Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mdaSnwfeb8

Morning Chronicle.

YE OLDEN TIME.—A number of years ago, in the days of the good old Democratic reign, there was employed on the Portsmouth navy-yard a Master Teamster, whose name we will call Ripley. This shepherd of oxen was one of those fearless men whose legs always rendered him good service in the hour of danger, but became weak and trembling when summoned before the brass-buttoned official who commanded the Yard. Commodores are mortal like ourselves, and in some instances it is said that long ago they were wont to vent their spleen upon the unoffending civilians who chanced to fall in their way the day after an evening of mirth and liquor. It isn't so now, but that's the way it used to be.

One of these convivial occasions had taken place, and the clock had struck ten on the following day when the object of the teamster's dread (the Commodore) arrived at his office. His head, from some inexplicable cause, was large, and his cap, which was large enough ordinarily, bound it and caused it to ache fearfully, and consequently he was in bad humor. He bethought himself a few moments to know who should be his victim upon whom to "blow off," as locomotive engineers say. Our friend the cattle-tender was selected, and a messenger at once dispatched, who, arriving at the barn found Mr. Ripley engaged in spinning yarns and otherwise amusing a crowd of about twenty-five loyal democrats who were privileged to visit the Yard daily and draw their pay semi-monthly.

"Mr. Ripley, the Commodore wants to see you," said the faithful messenger. Not another word was spoken in that establishment, although R. was right in the midst of an exciting story; and where all was laughter and revelry a moment before, was now as still and quiet as the tomb. The teamster sprang to his feet, and after brushing his hair and taking a hasty survey of his red face in a broken piece of looking-glass which he had secured to a girth in the barn, he pulled from his pocket a pint bottle, and placing it to his lips, quaffed about four fingers of straight St. Croix and departed. Arriving at the door of the Commandant's office, he brushes his hair again, draws his hand across his mouth, says "all right sentry," and goes in. With a quivering step he marches up to the desk in front of which sits the Commodore. "Ripley, what is all that hay lying around loose in the barn-yard for?" "Them's orts, sir." "Why are they thrown out into the yard?" "'Cause the cattle won't eat 'em," answered the perspiring teamster.

"Well sir, such a waste of hay must not be permitted, and I order you to at once gather up every lock of it you find lying about the barnyard, and make the cattle eat it. And if I see any more of such wanton extravagance I will discharge you."

"Yes sir, yes sir. I-I-I will, sir," and back he went to the barn faster than he came. "Boys," spoke the teamster, addressing those who had charge of the oxen, "scrape up all them orts and give them to the cattle." "Orts," says one, "the oxen won't eat them." "But by ——, they've got to; it's the Commodore's orders."

—A gentleman visiting a school had a book put in his hand for the purpose of examining a class. The word "inheritance" occurring in a verse, the querist interrogated one of the youngsters as follows: "What is an inheritance?" "Patrimony." "What is patrimony?" "Something left by a father." "What would you call it if left by a mother?" "Matrimony."

—Mr. Blackman tumbled down an Iowa bluff one hundred feet high and lives to brag of it. It must have made him a black and blue man for a time.]

—"In God we trust" is on the nickels, and it is proposed now to adorn the greenbacks with "I know that my redeemer liveth."

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND FLUID

Extract Catawba

GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely Vegetable, containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving; consequently do not produce the desired effect. The CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. Price 50 cents per box.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND

FLUID EXT. SARSAPARILLA

Will radically exterminate from the system Scrofula, Syphilis, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

Being prepared expressly for the above Complaints, its blood-purifying properties are greater than other preparations of Sarsaparilla. It gives the constitution a clear and healthy color, and restores the patient to a state of Health and Purity. For purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of pains and swelling of the bones, ulcerations of the throat and legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Erysipelas and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, and Beautifying the Complexion. Price, $1.50 per bottle.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

CONCENTRATED

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of Diabetes in which it has been given, Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder and Inflammation of the Kidneys, Ulceration of the Kidneys and Bladder, Retention of Urine, Diseases of Prostate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel, Brick-Dust Deposit and Mucous or Milky Discharges, and for Enfeebled and Delicate Constitutions of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms, Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruption on the Face, Pallid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, etc.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five cris the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from Habits of Dissipation, and Excesses and Imprudences in Life, Impurities of the Blood, Enfeebled and Delicate Constitutions, of both sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above diseases or symptoms.)

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Price $1.50 per bottle.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED

ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of Cutaneous Eruption, including eradicates Pimples, Spots, Scorbutic Dryness, Inflammations of the Cutaneous Membrane, etc., dispels Redness and Incipient Inflammation; Hives, Rash, Moth Patches, Dryness of Skin, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Frost Bites, and all purposes for which Salves or Ointments are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin. H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principal claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities rendering it a Toilet Appendage of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, Safety and Efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses and upward of 30,000 unsolicited certificates of the recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The Proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles are not as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

WINTER THOUGHTS.

How hard, and cold, and bare the ground,
That lately shone and blushed with flowers;
The withered grasses flutter 'round
Like memories of happy hours.

I hear the brooklet's mellow flow,
That glides along in sunny brightness,
Till, tangled with the rocks below,
It frets itself to snowy whiteness.

The bobolink, whose joyous lay
Rang sweet and clear as song of lover,
Like summer friends, has fled away
To other groves and fields of clover.

Caw, caw, above the woods the crow
Floats like a spirit dark, benighted;
Like doubts that come and never go,
When once the trust of youth is blighted.

Among the pine tops the north wind
Wanders in slow majestic surges;
So hearts long hold in shadows find
Life's music barred with solemn dirges.

A quiet sadness fills my heart,
That all the glad things I remember
Should with the summer days depart,
Nor stay to gladden wild December.

The cheerlest thing that I espy,
In yonder squirrel on his haunches;
He glances 'round with watchful eye,
And nibbles nuts among the branches.

To gather stores he briskly stirs,
While in the sky the snow-shroud lingers,
And gayly chirps to find the burrs,
Cracked by the ice-king's frosty fingers.

He leaps through branches brown and pure,
Nor mourns for leaves and flowers diurnal,
But bustles round with busy care,
In search of nuts with soundest kernel.

And thus when sorrow's winds blow high,
And fades the bloom of earthly pleasures,
Benumbed with pain we listless lie,
Nor longer strive for fleeting treasures.

We leave the treetop's haughty crown,
Touched by the frosty hand of trouble;
Somehow, like nuts, we rattle down,
And hide ourselves among the stubble.

And then the blessed angels come,
To gather us from out the grasses,
And cheered with visions of their home,
The dreary winter quickly passes.

They little care, nor hardly mind,
All this life's sorrows and abuses;
They only search the heart to find,
If it is fit for angel uses.

These seeds and branches brown and dry,
Another springtime shall make vernal;
So hidden in our spirits lie
The germs of peace and joy eternal.

And all the clouds that hang above,
And bitter storms that bruise and rend us,
Are tokens of a Father's love,
And only given to befriend us.

Encased within the narrow shell,
Of selfishness, it must be riven,
Ere we can feel the blessed spell,
Of the glad light that falls from heaven.

And when is passed the frost and snow,
And springtime's gentle gales are blowing,
Our fuller, richer lives will show,
That all was sent to set us growing.

The weary ones, that fall and pine
Along their tangled path of duty,
In future hours will surely shine,
Transfigured with a crown of beauty.

I'll bie me to the cottage low,
Where honest welcome bids me enter;
There peace and friendship's fervent glow,
Will dissipate the gloom of winter.

With cheerful heart I'll bear the wrong,
The bitter birthright I inherit;
The winter wind, though cold and strong,
Can neither kill nor blight the spirit.

HOW MRS. WOODHULL MAKES CONVERTS IN WASHINGTON.—A lady writes from Washington to the Chicago Republican:

I was present when Miss Mrs. Woodhull interviewed several members of the House, some of whom, to their honor be it said, could not be mesmerized, and did not relish the apple: but at last came Mr. Julian, of Indiana, who proved an easy prey. The process was perfect. She sat very close to him on the sofa, put her face very near his, and fastened upon him her magic orbs. She laid the tips of her magnetic fingers upon his hand and arm, as if to force and make emphatic her arguments. He soon looked dreamy, smiled as if gently wafted on a sea of bliss, and one could see the apple was tasting very sweet. She talked on until he was completely under her influence, bowing his head and responding, while that sweet, dreamy smile lit up his noble face, till at length she placed in his hands her memorial, which he took, when they gracefully rose to their feet, joined hands while several adieus were spoken, and the apple was swallowed. Mr. Julian returned to his seat to ask and obtain leave to have the memorial printed in the Congressional Globe.

☞ A short time ago, the Fairfield (Iowa) Ledger, by some mistake, was sent to the Bloomfield (Iowa) Democrat with but one side printed. The Democrat printed its edition on the other side, by way of a joke, and sent it back—radically Republican on one side and intensely Democratic on the other.

—A new cannon, called the "Annihilator," has been submitted to the Victorian (Australia) government, which will enable one man to keep up a fire equal to that of a whole army.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.
Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.
FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, ETC. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,
Will radically exterminate from the System Scrofula, Syphillis, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

BEING PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE ABOVE COMPLAINTS, ITS BLOOD-PURIFYING PROPERTIES ARE GREATER THAN ANY OTHER PREPARATION OF SARSAPARILLA. IT GIVES THE COMPLEXION A CLEAR AND HEALTHY COLOR AND RESTORES THE PATIENT TO A STATE OF HEALTH AND PURITY, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, AND REMOVING ALL CHRONIC CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD; AND THE ONLY RELIABLE AND EFFECTUAL KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PAINS AND SWELLINGS OF THE BONES, ULCERATIONS OF THE THROAT AND LEGS, BLOTCHES, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ERYSIPELAS AND ALL SCALY ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC,
has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EHTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

LADIES.

IN MANY AFFECTIONS PECULIAR TO LADIES, THE EXTRACT BUCHU IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY OTHER REMEDY,—AS IN CHLOROSIS OR RETENTION, IRREGULARITY, PAINFULNESS OR SUPPRESSION OF CUSTOMARY EVACUATIONS, ULCERATED OR SCHIRRUS STATE OF THE UTERUS, LEUCORRHŒA OR WHITES, STERILITY, AND FOR ALL COMPLAINTS INCIDENT TO THE SEX, WHETHER ARISING FROM INDISCRETION OR HABITS OF DISSIPATION. IT IS PRESCRIBED EXTENSIVELY BY THE MOST EMINENT PHYSICIANS AND MIDWIVES FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS, OF BOTH SEXES AND ALL AGES (ATTENDED WITH ANY OF THE ABOVE DISEASES OR SYMPTOMS.)

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c.,
In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH
cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS OF THE CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

SATURDAY, FEB. 25, 1871.

CONGRESS.

The Senate, on the 23d, passed a bill to amend the bounty laws; by it all soldiers who were mustered into the service of the United States for three years, beginning May 4, and July 22, 1861, and who were honorably discharged before serving two years, by reason of disability contracted in the service, are entitled to receive $100 bounty.

Mr. Wilson explained that the aggregate expense under the bill just passed would be about four hundred thousand dollars, and it was designed to carry into effect the decision of the Supreme Court.

The Indian Appropriation bill was passed.

The House passed the Fortification appropriation bill, and the harbor and river bill.

WASHINGTON NEWS.—Some six or seven of the most important appropriation bills have not as yet even been considered by the Senate, and the brief time which intervenes before the 3d of March makes it certain that at least three or four of these bills will not be passed. It has been the intention of Speaker Blaine not to appoint committees immediately following the meeting of the new Congress, but the failure to pass some of the appropriation bills will make it necessary for him to do so. The President expects a report favorable to annexation from the San Domingo Commissioners, and in that case will press the subject immediately upon the new Congress. The Senate Naval Committee decided to offer the Line and Staff Navy bill as an amendment to the Navy Appropriation bill. The committee regard this course as the only one to secure the passage of the measure. It will meet with strong opposition, and may hazard the Appropriation bill.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The night express train on the Northern Central Railway, between Baltimore and Elmira, struck a broken rail a few miles below Williamsport, Pa., on the morning of the 23d, and was thrown from the track down a 40 foot embankment. The engine, baggage and first passenger car cleared the rail in safety without leaving the track. The second and fourth passenger cars and the third sleeping car went down the embankment. The fifth passenger car was thrown from the track, but did not go down the embankment. The first passenger car made three complete revolutions in going down the bank, and is a complete wreck. In this car, one man was killed, and two others slightly injured. In all, seventeen persons were more or less injured. The car took fire from the stoves at either end, but the flames were extinguished before they did much damage.

A sleeping car on the Pennsylvania Railroad was burned the same morning, near Lockport, Pa., the train having run on a broken rail. The passengers escaped unhurt.

YORK COUNTY (ME.)—The Methodist church at Eliot have recently enlarged and improved their parsonage at an expense of twelve hundred dollars. Their pastor, Rev. O. M. Cousins, is much beloved and is prospering in his work, York charge is prospering finely under the faithful pastorate of Rev. E. K. Colby. This society have recently expended one thousand dollars in the purchase of land and the erection of a new stable. South Eliot has been sharing in revival influence of late; nine converted, and three reclaimed. The pastor, Rev. E. H. McKenny, is untiring in his efforts for the sanification of believers and the conversion of sinners.

S. J. COURT, Dover.—State vs. Patrick Hartigan of Rochester for liquor selling. Eight indictments against him were found by the grand jury. He was tried and found guilty on five and plead guilty on the other three. Solicitor Hall for State, T. J. Smith for deft.

State vs. James Canovan of Rochester for violation of liquor law. He plead guilty on two indicments and was tried and found guilty on three. His wife was tried and found guilty on two indictments. Solicitor Hall for State, Wentworth for deft.

State vs. George Horney of Rochester for violation of liquor law. Plea of guilty and fined.

State vs. John T. G. Tuttle for violating liquor law. Plea of guilty and fined.

☞ Col. John S. Monroe, Mayor of New Orleans at the time it was captured by Gen. Butler, and who was imprisoned for a long time by that General, died suddenly in Savannah, Ga., on the 23d.

Brevities.

The Washington Carnival was a success in some regards and a failure in others.

The President has signed the District of Columbia territorial act.

The U. S. House of Representatives passed the Southern Pacific Railroad bill, 134 to 70.

San Francisco had a terrible southeast storm on the 20th of February. Houses were destroyed and several lives were lost. The thunder caused more consternation than a heavy earthquake.

Objects seventy-two feet long can be distinctly seen on the surface of the moon by the great telescopes of the Earl of Rosse and Lord Oxmanton.

Geo. F. Emery, Esq., is the Democratic candidate for Mayor or Portland.

New Hampshire Items.

The house, barn and out-buildings of H. P. Batchelder, in Tilton, between Union Bridge and the Village in Tilton, were burned on the 20th. The fire was caused by a defective chimney. Insured for $1500.

A son of Elder C. R. Homan of Lake Village, 15 years of age, got on a freight train recently while it was being "made up." He fell off while the cars were in motion, and was found on the track with both legs cut off, the wheels having passed over him. One leg was cut off below the knee, and the other near the body. He lived until evening, but was unable to speak.

☞ Reports from the San Domingo Commission state that the Tennessee will probably return by the middle of April. There are great obstacles in the way of annexation. The Haytien government is said to be in league with Cabral, who leads a strong minority movement against annexation, by revolutionary tactics.

☞ The French relief ship Supply is loading provisions for France. The cargo will consist of 4000 barrels of beef, flour, peas, beans, etc. Chicago will forward at once 2000 barrels of flour as her present quota. The relief subscriptions amount to $105,575.

LOOKING AHEAD.—In the English House of Lords, on the 23d, Lord Carnarvon announced measures for the national defence, and argued the necessity for an early preparation, in view of the astounding rapidity of the Prussian campaign in France.

☞ England is negotiating for the purchase of the Dutch settlement on the Gold Coast, Africa, for £23,000.

☞ Coal has advanced to $15 a ton at retail in New York.

New Publications Received.

The Little Corporal, March number, comes to us fresh as the first breath of Spring. Each number contains about as much reading as any ordinary book costing one dollar and a half, and the twelve numbers of one year, costing only $1.50, form a volume equal to about a dozen such books. The publisher offers to send free a copy of the superb steel engraving, The Heavenly Cherubs, price $2.00, to each subscriber for 1871. For specimen number, and revised premium list, address the publisher, John E. Miller, Chicago, Ill.

Hall's Journal of Health, March number, has articles on How to Sleep Well, Drunkenness a Disease, Hair Dyes, &c. $1.50 per annum. Hurd and Houghton, New York.

Evening Journal Almanac for 1871. Published by Weed, Parsons & Co., Albany, N. Y. 25 cts. A valuable reference book, astronomically, politically and otherwise.

A Treatise on the Resources of Iowa. Manufacturer and Builder, for March, 1871; Western & Co., Publishers, 37 Park Row, N. Y. $1.50 per annum.

—They have temperance insurance societies in Georgia, which are somewhat original. Each member pays five dollars as an initiation fee and five dollars dues each month. At the end of the year the money is divided among those who have remained faithful to the pledge.

☞ JOB AND CARD PRINTING is neatly promptly and cheaply done at the Chronicle and Gazette Office; and the patronage of friends in this line is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

☞ THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE for this week, is now ready for delivery, at the Chronicle Office. Each number contains all the reading matter of the week's Dailies. Price $2 a year; single copies 5 cents,—in wrappers for mailing, if desired. Six copies for $10 per year, to Clubs—per mail or city carrier.

THE STATE ORPHANS' HOME.—The meeting to choose Trustees and prepare for an act of incorporation for the State Orphans' Home, opened in Concord, the 21st. Rev. D. A. Mack of Randolph, Vt., gave a history of the movement and his labors in its behalf.

Remarks were made by Ex-Gov. N. S. Berry, Ex-Warden Mayo, Dr. Wallace, Mrs. Gilman of Northfield, Miss Smith of Boston, Judge Upton and P. K. Chandler of Manchester, Rev. Dr. Cummings of Concord, Hon. Horton D. Walker of Portsmouth, Rev. Dr. Bouton, Mrs. Emma Still of Boston and others, the following Trustees were elected:

G. W. Nesmith, Franklin; Orrin M. Chase, Whitefield; Phineas Adams and C. W. Wallace, Manchester; Moses Sawyer, North Weare; Rev. W. O. White, Keene; Dexter Richards, Newport; C. W. Millen, Tilton; H. D. Walker, Portsmouth; Jere Smith, Dover; N. White and G. A. Pillsbury, Concord; O. F. Fowler, Bristol; J. A. Dodge, Plymouth; A. Smally, Lebanon; D. Gilchrist, Franklin.

The Trustees chose Judge Nesmith, President, Horton D. Walker, Vice President, C. W. Millen, Secretary, John Kimball of Concord, Treasurer, and D. A. Mack, Agent.

BIRDS OF A FEATHER, &c.—Dr. Dyott, long known as the publisher of the "Oracle of Health," and father of the proprietary medicine business in this country, has become connected in business with Dr. Helmbold, of Buchu fame and wealth, and will hereafter be found at Helmbold's Medical Palace, 594 Broadway, New York. He will be an invaluable acquisition to the great manufacturer and advertiser of genuine Fluid Extracts, being widely and favorably known.

THE NEW CLASSIFICATION of York County, Me., will allow Buxton and Hollis one Representative, Limerick and Waterboro' 1, Lyman and Limington 1, Kennebunkport and Dayton 1—the balance of the county as before. York County is entitled to three Senators as heretofore.

—An old fellow who took part in the late rebellion was one day blowing in the village tavern, to a crowd of admiring listeners, and boasting of his many bloody exploits, when he was interrupted by the question: "I say, old Joe, how many rebels did you kill during the war?" "How many did I kill sir; how many did I kill? Well, I don't know just 'exactly how many; but I know this much, I killed as many of them as they did o' me."

BUSINESS NOTICES.

CALIFORNIA has shown her preference for the boots and shoes fastened with CABLE SCREW WIRE. These goods are more economical and pliable than those pegged or sewed, will not rip, are almost impervious to water, and wear more evenly than any other. For sale everywhere.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Poisonous Medicines.

The theory that the virus of disease can be safely counteracted by doses of poison, is false and dangerous. Within the last twenty-five years, not less than a score of virulent poisons have been added to the repository of the medical profession. They are given in small doses, otherwise they would destroy life immediately; but even in minute quantities, they produce, ultimately, very disastrous effects. It is unwise and unphilosophical to employ, as remedies, powerful and insidious drugs, which, in subjugating one disease, sow the seeds of another still more unmanageable. None of these terrible medicaments operates with as much directness and certainty upon the causes of disease as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a tonic and corrective, without a single deleterious ingredient in its composition. Arsenic and quinia are given for intermittents; bromide of potassium for nervous disorders; strychnine and prussic acid for general debility; mercury, in various forms, for liver complaint; preparations of chloroform and opium for sleeplessness; and yet these deadly drugs do not compare, as specifics for the diseases above enumerated, with that wholesome vegetable invigorant and alterative, while they are all so pernicious that it is astonishing any physician should take the responsibility of prescribing them. Let invalids, for their own sakes, try the Bitters before they resort to the poisons. The relief they will experience from a course of the harmless specific, will render a recourse to the unsafe preparations referred to, quite unnecessary.

BULLETS FOR EUROPE.

Lead is wanted in Europe. Send over the millions of bottles of new fangled hair colorers that "remain over" and can't be sold here. They are pretty much all lead, and will never be wanted in this country, because all sane people who desire to restore the tings of youth to their gray or grizzled locks use

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The lead-saturated and sulphur saturated nostrums have gone down, down, down, where they belong; while the EXCELSIOR DYE has gone up with a rapidity that taxes to the utmost the facilities for manufacturing it. It is to-day the

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists but they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 6 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawfeb16

THE ROCKINGHAM HOUSE extension and improvements are rapidly approaching completion, and a half hour's inspection of its interior has satisfied us that when the house is again opened to the public, Portsmouth will have a really magnificent hotel—such a one as is rarely found outside the largest cities, and equal to any in the richness of its furnishings and the completeness of its accommodations.

All the rooms are spacious and lofty, the lower story being 16 feet high, and the three above it 15 feet each; the bedrooms and parlors are so arranged that they can be let in suites, to families or individuals who may desire such accommodation; the whole building is warmed by steam, and in addition to the radiators in every room and hall, each parlor has a handsome fire-grate for use if desired; each floor has ample closet accommodations, and two bath rooms, with hot, cold and shower baths; and spacious and convenient stairways at each end of the building give easy access to all parts of the hotel.

The parlors on the lower floor will be positively luxurious. The fireplace facings and mantels are very heavy, and of snow-white statuary marble; the ceiling centre-pieces (vine leaves and bunches of grapes) are beautiful in design and coloring; and the fresco painting is the work of an artist. The upper parlors are similar, except that the fireplaces and mantels are of clouded marble, and the centre-pieces frescoed instead of being raised work.

The wood-work is black walnut, white ash and chestnut, the stair railings being black walnut, and massive, to match the other portions of the fittings; the entire furniture of the hotel is to be black walnut, richly upholstered where marble is not required; every mattress will rest on a spring bed of the most improved pattern, all metal, offering no refuge to unpleasant insects,—about 100 beds will be made; and every one of the 120 rooms in the house will be frescoed and finished in a similar style to those already completed.

The spacious dining hall, 25 x 75 feet on the floor and 16 feet high, is richly frescoed, and has three embossed centre-pieces on its ceiling. It will be one of the finest dining-rooms in New England. Ordinarily nine tables, accommodating about 70 persons, will extend across it, but on special occasions 140 guests can be seated in this splendid hall, without being crowded. The old dining-room will be refitted as a private hall for the use of the guests, for dancing and other purposes.

A steam laundry has been fitted up, and an engine will do what work is required there, and also pump water into the 9-ton tank at the top of the house, from which pipes will distribute it to every room. The boiler connected with the heating apparatus is already at work, and has an ingenious self-acting patent damper, which closes the draught of the furnace when the pressure of steam becomes too great, and lets it on again as the pressure decreases. The cooking arrangements are extensive and perfect, and the carving room (with steam-table to dining room,) coat rooms and offices are all large, and fitted to match the rest of the house. The carpets throughout are tapestry and velvet, and the curtains are to be damask, lace and terry; the entire furnishings of the hotel will foot up a nice little bill of $20,000 or more.

A small building is to be erected at the northwest corner of the old house, to accommodate a first-class billiard room, with four tables; a good idea, as all possibility of non-billiard-playing guests being annoyed by the click of the balls will thereby be removed.

The frescoing is being done by Mr. Phil. A. Butler, who is not a native of this city was formerly a resident here, and in days long gone by was a very acceptable singer at the Unitarian church. Mr. Butler frescoed the old and new Masonic Halls in this city, the Masonic Hall at Dover, and many other Halls elsewhere; and is well and favorably known to our citizens. His work at the Rockingham is evidence of great ability as a fresco painter, being designed in exquisite taste and skillfully executed. He is an artist as well as a layer-on of colors.

To the many who have enjoyed the excellent cookery at the Sagamore House, the announcement that the renovated Rockingham will be still "run" by Messrs. G. W. & J. S. Peirce will be sufficient endorsement of the assertion that the cuisine will be of the highest order. The splendid hotel will have popular landlords; and as next to a good house and a good landlord, a good clerk is a principal condition of success in hotel keeping, the patrons of the old Rockingham will be pleased to know that Mr. Morrill, who has won the personal good will of all with whom he has come in contact by his efficient promptness as clerk and his unvarying courtesy as a gentleman, will retain his old position, and assist the hosts in furnishing to the patrons of the new Rockingham all the comforts and conveniences of a first-class hotel.

City Council—Thursday Evening.

IN BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN, a communication from Frank W. Miller, Esq., containing propositions for the location of the Stone Crusher and for furnishing stone for the same, was referred to the Committee on Streets; as was a petition from John Morgan and others asking for the acceptance of Mt. Vernon Street as a public highway.

The report of the Committee on Gas Lights recommending that the bill relating to compensation of the lamplighter be indefinitely postponed was adopted.

The same committee reported that the Gas Company had agreed on their rates to the city and would send a communication to the Board.

J. W. Fernald, Wm. Bodge and Wm. A. Vaughan were appointed to take the statistics of births and deaths and the enrolment.

An order from Court with a petition for the extension of Wibird Street—referred to the City Solicitor.

☞ The reporter who credited Mr. Nowell with making boots weighing 390 lbs. to the pair, says "strike off one cipher from the figures which give the number of tons used, and the calculation will not so astonish our neighbors." True; 39 pounds is much less than 390, but is still too great a weight for dancing boots. And at 25 cts. per pound, which is not a high average price, 5000 tons of sole leather would amount to $2,500,000—a very heavy yearly business to transact on an invested capital of $100,000. It's no use—he might as well own up that he got bewildered through studying the "old fashioned sewing machines" who tend the new fashioned ones. And no wonder, either; we have been affected in a similar manner ourself, by similar studies, though not perhaps to so great an extent.

ICE.—The crop thus far is not up to the average in this vicinity. The Messrs. Perkins have, however, nearly filled their ice house and expect to secure a sufficient amount additional to fill all orders, the coming season.

Mr. Simon Marston has cut and stored 400 tons from the pond on his premises near South Road—and it is of very nice quality, coming from spring water.

☞ The County Commissioners of Essex County, Mass., have awarded the contract for building the abutments and piers of the new bridge between Groveland and Haverhill to Mr. Albert Blaisdell, of Greenland. The price agreed upon is $2,000 for each abutment, and $4,000 each for the six piers, making the whole contract $28,000.

☞ We wish to call the attention of our readers to the poem of "Winter Thoughts," on the outside of to-day's issue, copied from a monthly published by Messrs. Thomes & Talbot, Boston. Its authorship is attributed to B. F. Chandler, Esq., of the U. S. Navy. It is worthy of a careful perusal.

☞ Hon. Horton D. Walker has received the sum of $20 from S. M. Quincy of Boston, for the White Rover Relief Fund. James P. Bartlett, Esq., has received $130 in addition to sums previously reported.

☞ Those who wish a nice bit of Buffalo steak or roast, can obtain either at the store of John Stokell & Co., who have the first Buffalo meat ever introduced into this market.

☞ The late Miss Elizabeth Walker gave $500 to the Howard Benevolent Society, and a like sum to the North Church.

☞ Old newspapers for sale at this Office.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a miserably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as stern Northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I would recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville. It is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times but this is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase flesh, and get the lungs healed.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature, and it is not necessary to say, that, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain, in die shortly; therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs, seaboard ville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1860, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills, for the simple reason that they produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that nearly two-thirds of all deaths of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of this dreadful disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about a perfect trifle—small-pox, &c.! but they are not: they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased, and all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know that, when they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry; I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is clearly followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy sweats are no longer prostrate the patient, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such, is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what was considered hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than any calomel, and leave none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit, and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you wish to avoid the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They are a safe guard to those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9, A.M., to 3, P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs; and patients invariably see for whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being used strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold; yet no one can guard against it, can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and so plain that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.
THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO OF IOWA,
have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about
180 MILES OF RAILROAD,
which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open
The First Through Line Across the State
from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give
DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.
This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The
First Mortgage
7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,
which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.
The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.
Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.
Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowa at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.
SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!
JAY COOKE & CO.,
Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the
FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS
—OF THE—
Northern Pacific Railroad Co.
These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling-stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.
The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.
They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.
The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.
These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at THE PAR CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.
In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income far higher, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacific, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.
HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.
Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. sod3mda3mwfob6

"GOING FOR" THAT "HEATHEN CHINEE."—The sweet picture of Bret Harte in a recent number of Every Saturday, has created quite a commotion in California. We make a few extracts from the California press. The first is from the Sacramento Union, and is as follows:

This is not the likeness of one who is capable of sympathizing with the overshadowing monopolies that blight the prosperity of the State and threaten the entire country with demoralization. The chin and nose (especially when seen in profile, indicate an iron firmness of will that would enable Mr. Harte to resist all the brandishments of Stanford, Crocker & Co., should they endeavor to force upon him a free pass over the Union Pacific Railroad to Omaha. The curl of the whisker and kink of the hair are eloquent of a heroic persistency of purpose that would prompt the man they adorn to go round Cape Horn in a clam boat, or cross the continent by ox-team, rather than consent to dead-head it at the haughty behest of the railroad kings. We have greatly admired "The Outcasts of Poker Flat," but if Mr. Harte could find time to compose a tale illustrating the mischief done by the C. P. monopolists in superseding stage coaches and ruining the once flourishing business of the roadside taverns, we think he would do much more than he has yet done to secure the admiration and gratitude of posterity.

The Postal Card says:

We cannot learn that there is any foundation for the report that the likeness of Bret Harte in Every Saturday was engraved from the photograph of the handsome "Bandit of the Abruzzi," whose picture recently appeared in Leslie's Weekly. Mr. Harte's friends do not generally recognize in him the likeness. Nevertheless, it is an excellent illustration of how Bret would like to look.

The News Letter says:

The picture has a saponaceous expression, indicative of a tendency of the intellect to run to whisker, and sparse whisker at that, the individual hairs reminding us forcibly of Virgil's Rari nantes in gurgite vasto. There is a sinister blink of ophidian craft in the dexter optic which satisfies us that Bret will not relinquish his mercenary project of going East in spite of Calmany's whining obtestations. To comment upon the depravity of a writer who will desert his employer for the base bribe of double pay, and tamely submit to have an Eastern publisher force twenty dollars a page upon him when he can get five dollars per page in this land of gold, were more superfluous than to endow with an extra plating of brass the intellectual brow of the Keyhole-Reporter.

The Bulletin has the following:

The likeness is most striking. The peculiar expression of Bret's dark eye, and the wavy masses of his raven hair are given to the life. We do not know that there is any impropriety in stating that we made Mr. Harte's fame. He himself will cheerfully acknowledge that it was not until we had given him a California reputation by our favorable notices, that the servile critics at the East found in him anything worthy of admiration. Such is the way of the literary world. In the language of Scripture—we quote from memory—"a prophet is not without honor, except when he goes abroad." The Bulletin has always been noted for its generous recognition of California talent, though aversion to undue haste in bestowing praise has generally caused it to be deferred until the subject of it was dead and buried.

The Morning Call says:

The picture of our talented fellow-citizen, Frank Bret Harte, in the Every Saturday, is a flattering tribute to this Coast. Frank Bret Harte is eminently a Californian production, as much so as the Big Trees or the Geysers. His style of writing is telling and unmistakable; but it pleases people who do not appreciate the enormount value of facts and figures. Harte has never written anything calculated to promote the growth of California, or to increase the annual wool crop of the State. His style would not be suitable for the editorial columns of the Call (circulation fifty thousand and daily increasing).

The Keyhole Reporter says:

The face lacks strength, and indicates taste rather than talent, and sensibility rather than genius. It is clear at a glance that the owner of such a feeble phiz, while he may do very well as a grinder-out of "dialect poems" and condensed novels, would not be equal to the achievement of a first-class item for the paper with the largest circulation on the Pacific coast. It is doubtful if he could string a column of pretty paragraphs with nary a point in it, and we don't believe he ever made a neat pun in his life. However, if he fails at the East (as is probably) and comes back stripped, we think he may be able by extra industry to earn fifteen dollars per week on the Reporter by manufacturing "Society Gossip."

The Oakland News observes:

There is more expression in the face of a six-thousand picaninny from the plantations of Louisiana and far regions [illegible] than in this picture. [illegible]

[illegible] nah's good that we shall look for at dawn and find it not; a mushroom nourished in the miasmal damps of Bulletin puffery. He never wrote a crusher, and hasn't enough malice talent to overturn a gravel stone down hill.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,

NO. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other opinions rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure Patents and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office, JOHN BUTTERWORTH,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART."

THE MYSTIC RIVER.

TO J. G. H.

We know there's a river whose mystic flow,
Has ever the sound of the falling snow,
As it onward rolls forever;
The pebbles that lie on its crystal bed,
Rest on the forms of our cherished dead,
Who sleep beneath the river.

To that river's brink we oft weeping go,
To see its waves break solemn and low,
O'er our loved ones gone before;
We sorrowfully watch the rippling tide,
Till they pass across to the other side,
With the boatman's silvery oar.

You too have been where its waters gleam,
Where icy crystals span the chill stream,
Why in its mist do you tarry?
Is it for her, the dearest and best,
Whom the boatman carried home to rest,
Is it for star crowned Mary?

A beautiful bridge way spans the chill stream,
There's a path to the gates, whose mystical gleam
Lights the footsteps of immortals;
Who return to us, in their holy array,
To comfort and cheer, aye, to point the way
To that life beyond these portals.

MONMOUTH JUNCTION, N. J. [—Site ——.

OUR HOLIDAY.—People who have nothing to do for a regular occupation are furnished with "some mischief still" to fill up the time, according to that beautiful hymn, "How doth the little busy bee;" but those who are always busy find an empty day a great bore—and editors are as hard worked a class as can be found in any community. We had a holiday on Wednesday, the 22nd, and though we bravely laid abed until 11 o'clock, contrary to our custom, we found the day a terrible one for length. Sleighing there was none, so we borrowed a pair of skates and undertook to do the fantastic on the ice. We did more; we succeeded. We found a nice little ice-pond in a field, with five young ladies—pretty little dears—curveting about on its smooth surface; they smiled graciously as we approached, (there was no other man there,) so we buckled on our skates and went ahead, or at least tried to.

We did not get far from the edge of the pond on our first essay; the moment we got on the ice the skates commenced going out sideways in opposite directions, and kept on until they were about five feet apart, whereupon we sat down. We fancied—it was probably only fancy—that we detected symptoms of amusement on the faces of the five young ladies; so we determined to astonish them by showing what we could do, and started off with a rush, but the toe of one skate caught in the heel of the other, and we gracefully sailed across the pond on our hands and knees, turning around three times on the passage. Then succeeded five minutes of brilliant and unusual evolutions, and then we found ourself standing on our left leg in the middle of the pond, whirling around on a pivot, and our right leg sticking out at a right angle, to the admiration of the beholders. Then we heard a sound as of some heavy body rushing through the air, then a thump,—and then numerous constellations of surpassing brilliancy presented themselves to our vision. We hid the skates in a hole under the fence, and departed. The five young ladies must have found something very amusing after we left, for we heard them laughing merrily long after we were out of their sight.

We then went to a billiard saloon and commenced to play; and it was only after getting scandalously beaten seven games in succession that we remembered that the day was Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, "a time for penance and mortification." But we didn't transgress the rules of the Church so very much, after all, for we don't believe any man of ordinary capacity can do more mortification in one day than we did last Wednesday. Any boy who finds those skates may keep 'em—we'll never carry them back. P.

—A ragged and weather-beaten loafer got in before a fire in a public house, and, seating himself began to cough tremendously. "Mister," said a bystander. "you have got a cold." "Have I," said the other, "'pon my honor, I'm glad of it; I'm so wretchedly poor it's a consolation to have anything."

—A clergyman in Pennsylvania has just received his salary for six month's services. It consisted of ten feet of stove pipe, two papers of corn starch, three kegs of varnish, one paper collar, four palm leaf fans and two bundles of bed slats.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.
Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.
FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, ETC. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,
Will radically exterminate from the System Scrofula, Syphillis, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

BEING PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE ABOVE COMPLAINTS, ITS BLOOD-PURIFYING PROPERTIES ARE GREATER THAN ANY OTHER PREPARATION OF SARSAPARILLA. IT GIVES THE COMPLEXION A CLEAR AND HEALTHY COLOR AND RESTORES THE PATIENT TO A STATE OF HEALTH AND PURITY, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, AND REMOVING ALL CHRONIC CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD; AND THE ONLY RELIABLE AND EFFECTUAL KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PAINS AND SWELLINGS OF THE BONES, ULCERATIONS OF THE THROAT AND LEGS, BLOTCHES, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ERYSIPELAS AND ALL SCALY ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC,
has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

LADIES.

IN MANY AFFECTIONS PECULIAR TO LADIES, THE EXTRACT BUCHU IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY OTHER REMEDY,—AS IN CHLOROSIS OR RETENTION, IRREGULARITY, PAINFULNESS OR SUPPRESSION OF CUSTOMARY EVACUATIONS, ULCERATED OR SCHIRRUS STATE OF THE UTERUS, LEUCORRHŒA OR WHITES, STERILITY, AND FOR ALL COMPLAINTS INCIDENT TO DISCRETION OR HABITS OF DISSIPATION. IT IS PRESCRIBED EXTENSIVELY BY THE MOST EMINENT PHYSICIANS AND MIDWIVES FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS, OF BOTH SEXES AND ALL AGES (ATTENDED WITH ANY OF THE ABOVE DISEASES OR SYMPTOMS.)

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH
cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

D

Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses, and upward of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

PEACE!

The treaty of peace was signed at Versailles by Thiers and Bismark, Feb, 24th. France is to pay to Germany three hundred and twenty millions of thalers. Alsace and Lorraine, including the cities of Metz and Nancy, are ceded to the Germans. The German army will not enter Paris. A telegraphic order from Versailles directs the immediate liberation of all French hostages in Germany.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.—The Temperance faction have hired the fourth page of the Local Record, a monthly paper published at Dover, and are to use it for campaign purposes until after election.

Hon. Ellery A. Hibbard, Democratic candidate for Congress in this District, has taken the stump. He speaks at Rochester, March 1st. The Labor Reform and Temperance candidates for Governor are both on the stump.

It is estimated that by the decision of the Judges of the Supreme Court, fully 3000 foreigners naturalized by Police Courts will not have an opportunity to vote on the 14th of March.

At a convention of the Temperance faction, held in Rochester, recently, Rev. Bartholomew Van Dame was nominated as candidate for Congress. Speeches were made by Mr. Van Dame and Rev. A. G. Comings, Temperance candidate for Governor.

Hon. Ebenezer Knowlton, one of the most faithful men that Maine ever sent to Congress, pays the following tribute to Hon. James Pike:

"It was my good fortune to occupy rooms in company with Rev. James Pike, during the years we were in Congress together. Being thus intimately acquainted with him, it gives me great pleasure to bear unsolicited testimony to his purity, integrity and ability. He is a man of such breadth of mind and thorough culture that, though educated for and holding an honored position in the Christian ministry, he gains and retains the confidence and esteem of those associated with him in the highest political positions; always keeping his Christian manhood with him there as well as when he is in the pulpit."

Gens. Harriman and Hinks have opened the ball at Laconia and Claremont and will speak every week day until election day.

The Democratic press of the State are not over pleased at the following extract from a letter by Samuel Flint, late Labor Reform Candidate for Governor, in the American Workmen:

"The Democratic party in New Hampshire, at their late State Convention tinkered their old platform, and concluded to use it another year. One can hardly tell whether it is a breathing fossil or a suffocated soul."

The Concord Patriot says the people of New Hampshire should bear in mind that every vote for the Radical ticket is a vote for the infamous (San Domingo) scheme of blood and plunder—this "dance of death," as Mr. Sumner calls it. The Patriot is too fast. We do not think a respectable minority (in numbers) of New Hampshire Republicans favor the acquisition of San Domingo.

The Democratic papers are squirming in a very lively manner over the decision of the Supreme Court, which prevents foreigners from voting until they are legally naturalized. The facts of the case are that in New Hampshire the Democrats would never come within gun shot of even temporary success at the polls without the support of the most ignorant of all classes, including many hundreds (perhaps thousands) of the lower order of importations from Erin's green isle. Intelligence is a demoralizing feature in Democratic ranks, for when men become decently intelligent they begin to think for themselves, and refuse to be led around by the nose to vote for men whose names they have hitherto been unable to read.

The Concord Republican Statesman advocates the selection of the ablest men for members of the legislature. Second the motion. Let Republicans put forward their strong men — men of brains and energy. The Statesman wishes Republicans to understand that with proper effort, the Republican party will succeed by an average majority; but if the opportunity be neglected, we shall be crippled, if not beaten outright.

The Democratic annual howl about State expenses seems ridiculous while under the Republican administration the State debt is being reduced $350,000 per year. The trouble is, however, that the Republicans make too good a financial exhibit to please their opponents, who prefer something to growl at, and failing to find it growl away all the same.

Communication.

A State Asylum for Drunkards.

Messrs. Editors:—Your well known sympathy with all efforts, public or private, to promote the cause of virtue and good morals, emboldens me to make a few suggestions through the columns of your valuable paper, for the consideration of the friends of temperance who look with sadness and dismay upon the rapid increase of inebriation in our midst, and who are casting about for some more effectual means than is now employed to stay the tide of intemperance and save the multitudes of our best and bravest men now borne helplessly along by this demoniacal current to certain and inevitable destruction.

The miserable failure to enforce the laws against rum selling, everywhere, calls forth the just indignation of all honest men. But the rum seller is not alone responsible for this failure. For "though he fears not God, nor regards man," Laws faithfully executed, would soon put a stop to his nefarious traffic. No; the real cause of the failure lies higher up. We do not presume to locate the difficulty. But we venture the suggestion that did rum sellers control a less number of votes at our State and Municipal elections—they would find it much more inconvenient to evade the law against selling liquor. And it is a question for legal men to settle who is practically the rum seller—the man who deals out the liquor, or the men who, having the power to stop him, fail, from personal considerations or for political purposes to do so. But our present purpose is not to assail the rum seller or his practical associates and accessories, but rather to suggest if possible some plan which shall result in the permanent reform of the poor drunkard and the relief of his disgraced, and in most cases, destitute and distressed family. We would have a plan broad enough for all good men to unite in, one which shall invite philanthropy and the friends of fallen humanity to a field of usefulness and genuine benevolence entirely beyond the reach of political influence or personal ambition and which shall conflict in no way with any plan now in operation for the promotion of the cause of temperance; but which should rather embrace all such plans and give them more efficiency.

Such a plan we believe would be the establishment of a State Inebriate Asylum; an institution which we believe would soon become self-supporting, and in a few years an actual income to the state financially, to say nothing of its moral and reformatory power. Then a wholesome law passed by the legislature against drunkenness, consigning men to the asylum for a longer or shorter period, where after a few hours or days at most they would recover from the effects of liquor, and in most cases being able bodied men, could be set to some profitable employment, which would not only pay their board and expenses but enable them to earn money (usually paid the rum seller,) for the support of their families. Such an institution, properly governed, putting inmates under religious and moral influence and removing entirely the cause of their trouble, would enable them not only to form resolutions of reform, but to cultivate and strengthen them till they were able by corrected habits and a candid comparison of experiences to withstand all temptation, aided perhaps by the thought of the possible reflection vulgar people might put upon the fact of a sentence to the asylum.

There may be some better plan even than this devised, but we think this has many advantages. The rum seller could not object to so humane a procedure—as caring for the unfortunate. "They sell only to such as visit to buy," and so ignore all responsibility in making drunkards. The politicians could not object, because this class of public servants vie with each other in promoting the public good and the best interests of society generally. The business of temperance lecturers would not suffer as the necessity for their exhaustive labors in denouncing the rum seller and dividing their talents between execrations against him and the silly stories of the "Swearing Deacon," "The Pig and Pup," &c. Temperance men and women would not object because, where they can only take the drunkard from the gutter and lead him to sign the pledge and promise to reform, this institution would hold on to him, till by abstinence from strong drink, his health would be returned, his reason restored, his resolutions firmly fixed and his moral courage rendered equal to every emergency into which temptation might lead him:—and in short, nobody could object to an institution having for its object so noble an end.

It would soon come to be understood as the Drunkards' Life Insurance Co. Large sums of money would be settled upon it by philanthropists and public benefactors, and with its income from labor of inmates there would be no stint of means for its support. But we would not advise haste in so important a matter, and as these suggestions may bring out other and better plans, we leave the subject and await development. D.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Burning and Shaking.

By a ridiculous misapplication of language, invalids are sometimes told to "enjoy very poor health," but it is not on record that any human being was ever spoken of as enjoying chills and fever. And yet there are thousands, at this moment, in one or the other of the two stages of the disorder, who might just as well have avoided it as not. If there is anything demonstrable in therapeutics, it is that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is an antidote to intermittent fevers. No instance can be cited in which it has been taken, either as a safeguard against this class of diseases or as a remedy for them, and failed to produce the desired effect. The season when malarious fevers are rife, has commenced, and no inhabitant of any district subject to their visitations should be without this great preventive and remedy. Indeed, it is a most potent protection against all the ailments which prevail in the spring months. From marsh and pool, and from all moist soils are now rising the mephitic elements which give birth to fever, indigestion, biliousness, colics and a whole host of epidemic and other maladies. Aid the system to resist them. Energize and regulate all the animal functions with this reinforcing agent. This precaution is so necessary in cities as in new settlements, for malarious fevers are now almost as common in the great centres of population as on the borders of the southern bayous and marshes and the rich agricultural regions of the west. The preventive and remedy is accessible to all. Who will be unwise enough to brave recklessly the danger it would avert?

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from Crisiadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a total wreck, in the case of disease of the lungs and liver. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Melbourne is the place I mean. Everything else I should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The nights in Florida might be bitter, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign. It invariably gives them an appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives as resorts. My reasons for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is sentenced to die shortly: therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those who are really diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw patients on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive and embracing every variety of pulmonary disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person who takes each quantity of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet does not avoid taking cold,

"In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, though they die of other southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it is about half as largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What a wonderful percentage of the world, who are consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small-pox, &c.! but they are not; they know that they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will cure itself in a few days. But I pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know, that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. I advise those who purchase the Pulmonic Syrup, and night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk in the sun of every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, and in most cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach, to get up a healthy appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry: I have lungs of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the night sweats and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prominent characteristics, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, if possible, for them, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a good thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking to and fro as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured many cases of this system by following out the rule. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper medical treatment is pursued. The facts have been well spoken of, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured many persons who seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its baneful effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have a pain in your side, dyspepsia, and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or have no water handy, without fear of cholera, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water, and eat watermelons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or cucumbers, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in malarious localities from ague and fever. As to them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients, at my office No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 8, A. M. to 4, P. M. These days will be a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. Without it, it is difficult, understood, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition, they need not be afraid to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere, without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Cunard Line of Mail Steamers.

PERSONAL.—Hon. James W. Locke, formerly of Kittery, Me., now a member of the Florida Senate, is spending a few weeks at his former home.

☞ Elvin Newton, for assaulting Origen Caswell, was mulcted in $18.04, fine and costs, in the Police Court, Saturday; and on leaving the court he was arrested by Dept. Sheriff Morse on a civil suit for damages to Mr. Caswell, and put under bonds in $1000 to answer the complaint. The assault is said to have been violent and unprovoked.

☞ Charles F. Stevens and James O'Hare were arrested on Saturday, for burglariously attempting to enter Edward M. Hilton's store recently. Stevens confessed his guilt, and was bound over to appear for trial at a higher court. O'Hare was discharged. Stevens has hitherto born a good character, but O'Hare, who he says instigated the act, is a hard case, and has already been in jail at least once.

☞ The project for the annexation of Newcastle to Portsmouth is meeting with encouragement in all quarters, many of the prominent business men of the city, irrespective of party, having declared their intention to support and advocate the measure. The gentlemen having the matter in charge are thoroughly in earnest and mean business.

The interest on the debt of Newcastle added to the tax rate of Portsmouth will increase the rate but one quarter of a mill on $100 worth of property, or one cent on $4000.

THEATRE.—Leslie & Locke's Dramatic Company, including the favorite comedians Yankee Locke and Thos. H. Burns, and the splendid actress Fanny Herring, give one of their first-rate entertainments at the Temple this (Monday) evening. Two plays, "The Cabin Boy" and "The Fireman" will be given. The three performers named are known and appreciated here, Locke and Burns as being capital comedians and Miss Herring as being one of the finest actresses that visits our city. They have a good stock company, and will please the large audience they are sure to have.

☞ On Friday evening, as two young misses, one 14 and the other 12 years of age (sisters) were returning from the house of a neighbor on Langdon street to their home on McDonough street, they were followed closely by an unknown man, who quickened his pace as the girls endeavored to hasten theirs, and when he found that the young ladies were gradually opening the distance between him and them, he started into a run, and had nearly overtaken them when the girls began to scream so loud as to bring every resident on the street to their doors to ascertain the cause. The man quickly made tracks towards the railroad and although closely pursued managed to escape. It is lucky for him that he did, that is, if he regards personal safety as of much account, as those who were in pursuit of him that night wouldn't have shown him much mercy.

☞ Thirty-four Republican members of the Indiana House have resigned, which prevents further legislation this session. The reason is an attempt of the Democratic majority to pass a bill redistricting the State, in violation of the Constitution, which provides that it shall not be re-districted oftener than once in six years. The last re-districting was four years ago. Lieutenant-Governor Cumback expresses the opinion that it takes two-thirds of all the members of each House to constitute a quorum, and will not recognize anything that the remaining members do. The Speaker of the House also gave the same opinion after receiving the Governor's message announcing the resignation of the Republican members of the House. Some of the Democratic members differ from the Speaker and advocate continuing legislation. The tax and appropriation bills, and most of the necessary legislation, was disposed of before the Republican members of the House resigned. There is quite a commotion in political circles, and a lively time is anticipated. The constitutional limit of the session expires on the 6th of March, and this is the only time to elect members to fill the places of those who have resigned.

—Sufferers from neuralgia may be pleased to learn that a medical correspondent of the London Lancet writes: "A few years ago, when in China, I ascertained that the natives when attacked with facial neuralgia, used oil of peppermint, which they lightly applied to the seat of pain with a camel's hair pencil. Since then, in my own practice, I frequently empty this oil as a local anæthetic, not only in neuralgia, but also in gout, with remarkably good results."

CONGRESS.

The Senate passed the enforcement election bill Friday night by a vote of 39 to 10. The Democrats filibustered in vain.

Both Houses have passed the bill for a National Centennial celebration at Philadelphia in 1876.

POLITICAL.—One hundred and twenty-two members of the House and eighteen Senators, holding seats in the present Congress, have been elected to retire on the 4th of March.

The Hartford Courant, reviewing the Connecticut campaign, thinks that the prospect of Republican success this spring is very hopeful; indeed if our friends throughout the State will display ordinary activity, Governor Jewell and the whole State ticket will be triumphantly elected.

☞ Steamship Quaker City, from San Domingo for New York, is lost at sea, having exploded her boilers.

New Hampshire Items.

The Rochester Courier says that two young men of Berwick, while driving on Main street, in Great Falls, met with such force that both horses were knocked down. One horse cleared himself from the sleigh and ran; and so frightened was he that he did not notice the embankment by the Conway freight depot, and plunged over, having a clear drop of 27 feet, and striking on the ice with sufficient force to break his legs, and otherwise maim him. He was valued at $300.

A fire at East Concord, Saturday, destroyed the carriage and sleigh factory of Charles S. Harper, the spoke mill of Horace Dunlap and Cyrus Farrar's dye house. Loss, about $8800. Harper's insurance $3200.

About 1 o'clock Friday morning a fire broke out in the large brick business block on the corner of Maine and Fore Streets, Great Falls, and before the alarm could be given had attained such headway that the efforts of the firemen to extinguish it were of no avail. The entire block was destroyed with most of the contents of the various stores.

The citizens of Bristol have organized an Orphans' Aid Association, auxiliary to the State Association, with Rev. A. E. Drew President. The town has given $400 to the cause.

The ice on Lake Winnepiseogee is twenty-five inches thick.

Mr. Sylvester Withington of Enfield was run over by his ox team recently and had his right leg and left arm broken.

Dr. Jonas Clark, the oldest person in Peterborough, died on the 10th, and was buried with Masonic honors. He was one of the oldest Masons in the State. His age was almost 96.

The Methodist Society in Newmarket will soon commence the erection of a new church edifice, which, with the land, will cost about $20,000.

The scientific expedition at the summit of Mount Washington will remain until May (six months,) and one, at least, of its members still longer to make investigations among the early plants of the mountain region.

☞ The following elegant language was recently used in debate in the Pennsylvania legislature:—

Mr. Reinoehl—When Mr. Webster delivered his speech in the United States Senate, a member of Congress moved to adjourn, in order not to disturb the harmony and force of the speech. I now make that motion.

Mr. Woolever—It seems to me that the gentleman's head is a little warm. I may add that the gentleman is in no danger of being hurt, for if he feels himself in danger, any dentist can find in his mouth the same sort of a weapon with which Sampson smote the Philistines. [Laughter.]

The motion to adjourn was not agreed to.

Mr. Chalfant—It appears that our beauty member has knocked our Lancaster friend out of time. [Laughter.]

Mr. Reinoehl—I would state in reply that we do not want to throw anything from this side that would hit the gentleman from Lehigh. [Mr. Woolever.]

☞ JOB AND CARD PRINTING is neatly promptly and cheaply done at the Chronicle and Gazette Office; and the patronage of friends in this line is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed.

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 1½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 9 per cent. in favor of the investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWaS

BANKS AND BANKERS GENERALLY.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that leave the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. lyrdawfeb16

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

——OF THE——

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling-stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply them, at the rate of Seven and one-half per cent. per annum, and or any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mdaSwfeb8

Morning Chronicle.

A JERSEY FISH STORY.—The last fish story comes from New Jersey. Lately, in the interior of that State, a mild looking countryman entered a railroad car, bearing a bundle tied up in a handkerchief, which he placed under his seat at the end of the car. After travelling along for about half an hour a lady sitting in front of the countryman was observed to move uneasily in her seat, and to cast savage glances at a seemingly respectable man sitting by her side.

In a few moments afterwards another lady still further to the front "became uneasy," and at last, rising in her seat, requested if some gentleman in the car would protect her from an elderly looking gentleman by her side, and whom she stated had insulted her.

A dozen persons offered their assistance, and before the accused could speak in his own defence his hat was jammed over his eyes and he was dragged to the rear of the car.

While there, and carrying on with the avengers a war of words as to what the indignity meant, still another lady rose, also seated further up the car, and accused a gentleman sitting behind her with improper conduct. A rush was made for insulter number two, but that gentleman vigorously defended himself with a large walking stick he happened to have, (and which by the by was one cause of the last troubles, his accuser stating that he had indecorously been rapping her ankles under the seat with the same), and while the struggle to get at him was still in progress somebody in the front of the car shouted there's a "snake on the floor." A scene then ensued. The ladies in the car clambered up on to the seats, and many got on the arms and backs of the same. One elderly maiden managed to stand on the backs of two seats, in the best circus manner possible under the circumstances, while a young mother threw her baby into a luggage rack, and then hung convulsively to a ventilator.

The confusion awoke the countryman, who, on being told of the snake, first felt in his bundle, and then exclaimed, "I'm blamed if that old eel haint got loose," started for the front, and soon returned grasping firmly an immense eel, which he had first caught while out fishing, but which, when brought into the car, had managed to get out of the bundle, and had wended its way to the front, lovingly caressing the different varieties of ladies' garters which he encountered on the way. Apologies given and received straightened everything in that car but the hat that was jammed down, and, the countryman leaving at the next station, no blood was drawn.

ANOTHER CENSUS CURIOSITY.—That division of the new census which relates to the negro population of the south shows some interesting facts. For the past five years, there has been a continued complaint from some of the southern States of the uncertain movement of the colored race, and Virginia especially has lamented the dearth of labor caused by the large emigration of the old working class. The census returns do not bear out the arguments founded upon these complaints. In five hundred counties of Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri and North Carolina, there is an actual increase of 11,000 in the black population since 1860—a small figure, it is true, but still an increase. In four hundred counties of eight other southern States, the negro increase is 95,500. The total number of negroes in the south, under the new census, is 8,145,875—and the proportion of each State has not materially changed in ten years. The old slave breeding States have lost comparatively few of their negroes. The greatest falling-off in the old "slave consuming" States appears to be in South Carolina, Louisiana and Texas. The small ratio of increase in the aggregate of the colored population is also notable. The blacks do not multiply as rapidly in a state of freedom as when they were in bondage.—N. Y. Com. Ad.

TWELVE YEARS IN ADVANCE.—The Alleghanians, Vocalists and Swiss Bell Ringers, have in the person of D. G. Waldron, Esq., a most able business man, who, in his untiring efforts, has secured for them renowned popularity and a great financial success both in this country as well as in foreign lands. We remember some seven years ago the Christian church society of Noblesville had invited these songsters to give a concert in their church, and on the day advertised, by an accident on the railroad, they missed connection with the cars. Nothing daunted, Mr. W. promptly chartered an extra train, taking his troupe through on time, to the great delight of those who filled the "little church" to overflowing.—Indianapolis Journal.

—Henry Ward Beecher says: "There is nothing more offensive to me than to be greeted in that rough religious way, 'Well, brother Beecher, how is your soul to day?' None of your business. It is a kind of familiarity that I don't relish. If my father were to come to me on the ferry-boat, and put his arm around my neck, I should look up with pleasure, but should a stranger do the same thing, I should resent the action as a insult. And what I won't permit to be done to my body, I shall not tolerate on my soul."

—It is nice going to some Iowa school. A lady teacher at Des Moines called a boy up and made him show her how he kissed the big girls in the woodshed. After he showed her, she punished him by making him stay after school. He says he don't want to graduate for two years yet.

—Why is California the best place for the Church Ritualists? Because of the bigger Tree which grows there.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
No. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART."

THE POETRY OF THE PERIOD.

We find the following in the St. Louis Republican. It purports to be the work of "Cadwallader Gongozlin," evidently the nom de plume of some young woman dazed with much reading of Jean Ingelow and other modern poets:

Two ships over the mountains flew,
My white bird laughed at the hail;
Lustres of midnight bead with dew,
The crest of the willow-leaf sail,
Ah, me! can you see
Where the mulberry sleeps on the nut-brown lea?

Fluttering down the violet tide,
Snow-drift cloudings rumple the sun;
And swan's down dimpled the walkin side,
When my wave-born, oreids looks were young,
Ah, well! can you tell
The pathos that lurks in the gongozlin swell?

Fateful glintings melt the tender blue,
Eldin arrows slant under the sea;
Day is wrapped up, my heart has the hue,
Of a whale when he swallows a tree,
Oh, dear! can you hear
My love who is choking the wind locked mere?

Whip poor wills pipe through the meadow gloom,
Shadows troll roundelays low and sweet;
Yet life grows old, and shuttle and loom,
Weave a mesh of despair to tangle my feet,
Oh, wail, phantom vale! [his tail.
Where the god-wit drives piles in the lake with

Wimpled rivers wind under the moon,
Watchful summits stand over the shore;
My Roger dived through the wild ingoue,
And pale tangents sleep for aye, in my door,
Oh Phœbus! their sire,
Will the gongozlin poets never expire?

COUNTRY BOYS IN THE CITY.—It is the common ambition of country boys to quit the farm and make for themselves a home in the city. And it is true that a majority of the great business firms in our large cities are recruited from the ranks of the country boys. It is also true that the majority of those who come to the city to seek their fortunes are swallowed up in the great maelstrom of dissipation, and go to the bottom in a dozen years or so.

Now who are the successful ones and what made them so? They are not the young men who came to the city that they might throw off the restraints of home and "see life," and "have a chance to enjoy themselves." They are the young men who come to the city with sound principles, with a determination to work hard to make themselves a position, with a willingness to do any honest work, and a steady resolution to shun like a viper, bad company. No other boys need come to the city, with the hope of advancing themselves in the world. Boys that shirk never get the "fine situations" there. Boys that smoke and drink are not in demand among keen sighted merchants. Sabbath breaking and theatre going boys are not advanced to high positions even by worthy employers.

The boy who wishes to rise, who hopes some day to build his palace, must learn a great deal outside of his daily routine. He should paste up over his room table or somewhere where he can often see it—"Knowledge is Power." The carpenter who can draw his plans, make out his estimates, understand the legal form necessary in putting up his buildings, can tell what materials are best to use, where they can best be purchased, what is the most economical means of transport, and a hundred other things that arise in buildings, will be the one to grow rich and influential in his business, while the man who can only handle his saw and hammer, must be content to drudge on in grinding poverty. The difference comes almost wholly from the different way in which leisure minutes and hours are passed. Your evenings, young men, will generally decide whether your future is to be one of cheerful prosperity or one of harrowing privation.—Country Gentleman.

HEAVING THE LEAD.—Any one who has travelled on the Mississippi during low water, has witnessed the process of heaving the lead, and will see where the "laugh comes in" in the following, without much difficulty.

The —— was coming down the upper Mississippi loaded with pig lead. As she was going over a shoal place the pilot gave the signal to heave the lead. The only man forward at the time was a green Irishman.

"Why don't you heave the lead?"

"Is it to heave the lead, your honor? Where to?"

"Overboard, you blockhead!"

The Irishman snatched up one of the pigs of lead and threw it overboard; the mate in endeavoring to prevent him, lost his balance and fell into the river.

The captain, running to the edge of the roof, asked: "Why don't you heave the lead, and sing out how much water there is?"

"The lead is heaved, your honor, and the mate's gone down to see how much water there is," responded Pat.

On the 23d ult., in Dover, Charles Hurd of Rochester was indicted by the Grand Jury of the Supreme Court, for murder in the second degree, in causing the death of his wife, Ruth A. Hurd, at Rochester on Christmas Day. The case goes over till next fall, the prisoner being ill.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.
Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, Etc. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

Will radically exterminate from the System Scrofula, Syphillis, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

BEING PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE ABOVE COMPLAINTS, ITS BLOOD-PURIFYING PROPERTIES ARE GREATER THAN ANY OTHER PREPARATION OF SARSAPARILLA. IT GIVES THE COMPLEXION A CLEAR AND HEALTHY COLOR AND RESTORES THE PATIENT TO A STATE OF HEALTH AND PURITY, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, AND REMOVING ALL CHRONIC CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD; AND THE ONLY RELIABLE AND EFFECTUAL KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PAINS AND SWELLINGS OF THE BONES, ULCERATIONS OF THE THROAT AND LEGS, BLOTCHES, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ERYSIPELAS AND ALL SCALY ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EHTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILTIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

LADIES.

G

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

D

Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses, and upward of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

MINNESOTA.
ITS RESOURCES AND PROGRESS—ITS BEAUTY, HEALTHFULNESS AND FERTILITY, AND ITS ATTRACTIONS AND ADVANTAGES AS A HOME FOR IMMIGRANTS—A NEW BOOK FREE OF COST, compiled from official sources and published by direction of Governor Horace Austin.
Its title indicates its contents. It exhibits the inducements offered by Minnesota to persons seeking new homes, her wonderful resources, unexampled progress, and magnificent future. It tells how, where, under the "Homestead" Law, to obtain free homes and free farms, "without money and without price." It is just what every Man—Farmer, Mechanic, Tradesman and Laborer—who desires to better his condition should carefully read.
This book will be sent to any address in America or Europe, free of postage or other expense, on application to E. PAGE DAVIS, Commissioner of Immigration for the State of Minnesota, No. 156 BROADWAY, New York, where all information in regard to the State will be cheerfully given. 4w

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

The Manchester Union has a column and a half of statistics showing that 81 of the 229 towns in this State have increased their debts the past year, and tries to make political capital of it. It turns out, however, that a majority of the towns named are Democratic.

Gen. Harriman will speak at Newmarket on Thursday of this week. Gen. Hinks is to speak at Rollinsford on Wednesday evening.

Gen. Stewart L. Woodford of New York will address the Republicans of Concord, Manchester and other places, next week.

FRANCE.

The acceptance by the National Assembly, at Bordeaux, of the terms submitted by M. Thiers and his associates is officially announced by the German government. The conditions are as follows:—

First, the cession of the province of Alsace.

Second, the cession of the fortress of Metz.

The fortress of Belfort is not included in the German claim.

Third, the payment to Germany of an indemnity of £200,000,000 sterling. The Germans are to retain possession of a portion of French territory, and, of several fortresses, all indicated in the agreement which has been concluded, until the whole of the conditions are fulfilled.

BREVITIES.

Mr. F. Bret Harte, wife and two children, have arrived in Boston from San Francisco.

Mr. John P. Selwyn has withdrawn from the Boston Theatre to assume the management of the Olympic Theatre, New York.

The subscription for the Boston Museum of Fine Arts amounts to $173,215.

The naval paymaster in San Francisco appeals for a contribution in aid of the families of the men who perished in the gig of the United States steamer Saginaw. Two of the men left families of little children wholly unprovided for.

A heavy rain and wind prevailed in Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Kansas, Missouri and northern Iowa, Friday night, doing much damage to railroads and other property.

The Maine legislature has adjourned, Senator Sumner is convalescing.

A terrible colliery explosion occurred on Saturday in South Wales. Fifty dead bodies have already been taken from the mine.

Rev. Mr. Sabine got his name up by creating a corner in funerals.

The House of Representatives of the new Congress as far as elected will be composed of 139 Republicans and 104 Democrats.

The sloop-of-war Saratoga has been ordered to be immediately fitted for sea to convey provisions to France. The Saratoga can carry four thousand barrels of flour, and will be ready to depart in twelve days.

The Boston Post wants Vinnie Ream to draw all the money she can from the government, but not make any more statues.

The Pagans at North Adams have a band, and warble sweetly on tom-toms, gongs and E-flat wash boilers.

The Indianapolis Journal says: "We now believe in the doctrine of total depravity. Some one has stolen the only pair of boots owned by the editor of the Leavenworth Independent, thus confining him to the house till the opening of the barc-foot season."

Rio Janeiroans passed in $700 worth of spurious tickets at one of Patti's concerts. Carlotta didn't like it.

New Hampshire Items.

Martha Clark, who worked at the Manchester Mills, while reading by a kerosene lamp at her boarding house, Sunday evening, was seized with a fainting fit, and the lamp was upset and exploded. The clothes of the girl were set on fire, and she was shockingly burned. She lingered in great agony till about four o'clock Monday morning. She was 22 years of age and belonged in Cohoes, N. Y. She had been in feeble health for some time.

On the 16th, in Pittsburg, Mr. Noah Beecher of Hereford, P. Q., while chopping timber, felled a tree which struck and broke a dead limb from another tree. The dead limb struck Mr. Beecher with such force as to paralyze him, from the effects of which he died on the 17th. He was about twenty-five years old.

Mr. Benj. Taylor of Clarksville lately fell in the woods and a knot penetrated his body about four inches. He will recover.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 25.

Editors Chronicle: Had the Ku-Klux wings, how thick would the heavens have been filled yesterday with straggling Democracy—to listen to the revels of their great advocates in the Senate of the United States. No one has known in the Senate or in the House a single bill, looking to the prevention of frauds in elections, since the time of Lincoln, to pass, that did not meet the strenuous opposition of the Democracy. The enforcement bill so called, providing for the more effective enforcement of election laws, was taken up in the Senate late on Thursday night. It was reported from committee and in the multitude of passing business this was deemed quite important and its immediate passage was sought. It was evident there was to be a Senatorial fight on it. Thurman, Bayard, Blair, Casserly, Davis and perhaps others were to pitch in. "You cannot pass that bill," "We will have debate," "You cannot pass it before Sunday," "You cannot pass it at this session"—and the debate commenced. Thurman is something of a gun—was a judge in this and a good debater. It is surprising a man like him can show all the political rancor of a Manchester Ward 5 hero. Though not a pleasing debater, he handles a subject with skill and no one can help giving him attention for his earnestness. He is talked of as a candidate for the Presidency. Casserly is more contracted in his views. Came from Ireland when some four or five years old, received his political education in New York, and so thoroughly that he cannot forget it—but ranges short in a political contest, and after he sits down you hardly know that anything has been said; but the hands move very slowly on the dial of the Senate clock, while he speaks. Bayard is deliberate and dignified in debate and having had but little experience, deals in common place politics and interprets the constitution with no very large views—enough for his party, however. Davis became unwell, in the contest and left for his lodgings. He, as a speaker is not attractive or interesting, belongs to the past and is passing away.

It was 10 1-2 P. M. and I was hoping to hear Blair, but Bayard was still speaking. Not a voice from the Republican side had disturbed the Democratic revelry. Intentionally silent—their vote was to speak for them. Cragin sat meditative; Ramsey uneasy, yet with a playful smile. Nye, seemed anxious to rise to disturb the melancholy dreariness on the Democratic side of the hall, by interposing a question, or a joke, but struggling hard with his good nature he remains silent, knowing too well how the enemy would delight to be led out of their melancholy monotony by a playful word. The Vice President had just relieved Anthony in the chair and seemed fresh for the night. Sumner was at his home sick. Wilson never tiring, welcomed the contest, like old Thad. Stevens, happiest in a general engagement, because the victory would be more signal and the defeat of the routed enemy more complete. Conkling, who seemed to take the responsibility of the bill, sat, I thought, impatient; and were I allowed to put in words the language of his face and gestures, it would read "How long, Oh, Lord," &c.

The little pages now became sleepy; no letters, no messages to carry, they began to sympathize, and think of home. But soon Bayard closed, Casserly rises—proposes a truce and a vote Saturday. "No," said Sherman, "this bill passes before an adjournment." Blair, flush for battle, is given the floor. He attacks Grant — compares him to Napoleon. But his magazine looks low, and charges grow weaker and weaker till he finally sits down. His oratorical parallel fails him. He wanted a night to improve it, but Sherman was inexorable. Hallucinatory Blair! you won't be nominated for Vice President again unless you improve your parallelism.

But there is silence in the Republican ranks. They wait for another speech. Too bad—the Democrats are exhausted—subsistence gone. They must feed each other to continue the fight. The Republicans have played German on them, and they surrender from pure exhaustion. Such is the fate of Thurman's threat. It resembles much their filibustering in the Senate. In the House the poor clerks call the rolls and the fillibusterers remain silent, but the Senate have a way of making them talk themselves to death. The bill passed after some 13 hours' talk—pure Democratic talk.

The Carnival closed. The joy for two days was too thin, yet the fete was tolerably good. All hailed it joyfully, and gladly bid it good night late on Tuesday last. There was much fun; some public, some private frolic, and done in all kinds of ways. One old man (I could detect gray hair under his big hat) had provided a false nose, say some 6 inches long, and more than ordinarily large, and his sport consisted in calling upon his friends, addressing them, puzzling them to guess who he was, and then treating or getting treated as he or they could agree upon the proper etiquette of the custom—as the one most fooled of course ought to pay; besides, the joke of the nose added to the jolly laugh.

There is fear the Navy Rank bill may may not pass. Senator Cragin has earnestly asked for an assignment, but has been denied. He will try again. The matters of the Military Committee are also to fail in some way, Mr. Wilson failing to secure a time for consideration. It is quite probable the bill will be taken up immediately at the commencement of the next Congress, and pass, it is hoped, before adjournment.

L.

Our Correspondence.

NORTH HAMPTON, Feb. 27.

Messrs. Editors:—The ladies of the Social Union connected with the Congregational Society in this town, propose to hold a Fair at the Vestry on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, March 8th and 9th. An interesting entertainment is being prepared, consisting of songs, duets, choruses, &c. The usual variety of refreshments will be furnished on the occasion. The ladies will endeavor to sustain the reputation which they have merited in times past; having been successful whenever they have undertaken anything of this character. The proceeds are to be used in repainting the interior of the church.

Last Friday evening Rev. Mr. Ruland of Hampton, delivered a lecture, consisting of a poem entitled "The Minor Key." It contained many sharp hits and was well received by the audience.

The Choral Society, by request, are to give a concert of miscellaneous music in South Newmarket on Thursday evening, March 2d, commencing at 7 1-2 o'clock.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE SOLE OBJECT IN LIFE is to make that life the best and most comfortable we can. If we have our soles fastened with CABLE SCREW WIRE we are assured that our boots and shoes are the most comfortable, durable, healthful and economical in the market. All our best dealers sell these boots and shoes.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Burning and Shaking.

By a ridiculous misapplication of language, invalids are sometimes said to "enjoy very poor health," but it is not on record that any human being was ever spoken of as enjoying chills and fever. And yet there are thousands, at this moment, in one or the other of the two stages of the disorder, who might just as well have avoided it as not. If there is anything demonstrable in the science, it is that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is an antidote to intermittent fever. No instance can be cited in which it has been taken, either as a safeguard against this class of diseases or as a remedy for them, and failed to produce the desired effect. The season when malarious fevers are rife, has commenced, and no inhabitant of any district subject to their visitations should be without this great preventive and remedy. Indeed, it is a most potent protection against all the ailments which prevail in the spring months. From marsh and pool, and from all moist soils are now rising the mephitic elements which give birth to fever, indigestion, biliousness, colics and a whole host of epidemic and other maladies. Aid the system to resist them. Energize and regulate all the animal functions with this reinforcing agent. This precaution is as necessary in cities as in new settlements, for malarious fevers are now almost as common in the great centres of population as on the borders of the southern bayous and marshes and the rich agricultural regions of the west. The preventive and remedy is accessible to all. Who will be unwise enough to brave recklessly the danger it would avert?

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Everybody is talking of the "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no conceivable reason why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. As a dressing after dyeing, use

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Notice—Mrs. S. C. Jewell.
Wanted—A Girl.
To let—A House.

☞ The next Assembly in the Odd Fellows' course will come off Thursday evening.

☞ Congress has appropriated $75,000 for repairs of all kinds at this Navy Yard, and $75,000 for improvements.

☞ Mr. Charles L. Damrell, formerly of this city, has been admitted a member of the firm of A. Williams & Co., Boston.

☞ The nomination of Capt. Chas. W. Pickering, U. S. N., of this city to be Commodore on the retired list, was confirmed by the U. S. Senate on Saturday.

☞ Ford & Green's Female Minstrels appear at the Temple for one night only,—to morrow (Wednesday) evening. The troupe is said to be a good one, and will doubtless draw a full house—female minstrels always do that.

☞ Strawberry Bank Encampment, I. O. of O. F., have their Annual Ball this evening at Congress Hall. A large assembly, rich dresses, a sumptuous supper and a good time will be the principal features.

☞ The police captured two deserters, named Chas. Place and Joseph Jones, at Stratham, Sunday. They were sailors and deserted from U. S. S. Narragansett in January. They now reside on the R. S. Vandalia.

THE THEATRE.—The Locke & Leslie Company gave one of their best performances last evening, and close tonight with "Arrah Na Pogue." Fanny Herring, Yankee Locke and Burns are a crowd unto themselves, whose appearances are always greeted with well deserved approbation.

☞ Our Washington correspondent sends us a spicy letter this week. He is a well known New Hampshire man, who has an inside view of matters at the Capitol and wields a facile pen. We expect letters weekly throughout the new session of Congress.

☞ Mr. W. I. Trafton has nearly perfected arrangements for a grand Masquerade at Congress Hall, to take place about the middle of March. Mr. Trafton was successful in conducting such affairs last winter, and says no pains will be spared to make this one a success.

—Mr. Tuad. L. Vanderslice was admitted to the bar on Saturday. Mr. Vanderslice is a gentleman of fine culture, having served in the army two years, and seven years in the navy. We wish him success in his new field of duty.—Phila. Post.

Mr. Vanderslice was formerly on duty at this Navy Yard, while an assistant engineer in the Navy, and has hosts of friends who wish him the highest success in his chosen profession.

☞ Mr. J. P. Bartlett acknowledges the following additional contributions to the White Rover fund; H. P., $5; Francis Amory, Boston, $10; C. W. Loring, Boston, $10; admirers of heroism, Boston, $100; C. W. Pickering, U. S. N., 10; several members of the Eastern Yacht Club of Boston, John Jeffries, Jr., Secretary, $675; E. K. Butler, $25; C. A. Curtis, Boston, $20; M. P. Kennard, $10.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.—The steamer Tuscarora was docked on Monday afternoon.

About forty laborers were taken on in the Construction department on Monday morning.

The recent rain has replenished the wells, cisterns and reservoirs on the Yard, giving a supply of water greatly needed.

The remains of the late Capt. N. B. Harrison, which have been at the Navy Yard since their arrival in the Tuscarora, left this city in charge of a deputation of naval officers, by the 5.30 P. M. train Monday, en route for Pennsylvania, his former residence.

HARD SLEDDING.—A citizen of Kittery, on Wednesday evening of last week, took two young ladies, one of them his daughter, out for a slide down hill on a large hand sled. The night was dark, and the gentleman did not perceive a horse and wagon standing beside the road, exactly in his way, until he was close upon the team, when he managed to tumble the ladies off roughly but without much injury. The horse reared, and the man and sled shot like an arrow under his fore feet, just cleared his hind legs, and went against the forward wheel of the wagon like a young thunderbolt, breaking nearly every spoke in it, and seriously injuring the man's shoulder, which did the most of the wheel-breaking work. The well-trained horse did not run, notwithstanding his fright, and no other damage was done. It was a fortunate and remarkable escape for both man and horse.

THE LITTLE ONES' PRAYERS.—One of the most amusing features in the "Editor's Drawer" of Harper's Magazine, to us, has always been the portion devoted to the quaint sayings and odd doings of the little men and women who have not yet become old enough to read democratic newspapers and thereby become demoralized. Some of the young folks in this vicinity occasionally say things which we consider worth printing; and below we publish a few:

A little lady of five summers, whose father is an officer of rank in the U. S. naval service, and now absent on sea duty, was recently offering up her petitions for the absent one, and concluded as follows: "O, Lord! Please send my dear papa home again, as quick as Uncle Sam will let you!" We don't see how the discipline of our navy can be much improved, when even naval officers' little girls are so thoroughly impressed with the deference due to Uncle Sam's commands.

Another little girl, a four-year-old, was accustomed, at the time Rev. Mr. Durant was here, about a year ago, to hold mock prayer-meetings with her little playmates. Her mother having fallen dangerously sick, the little one was overheard praying very earnestly for her recovery; but being fully aware of her misdeeds in making fun of religious matters, and that "he who cries wolf for sport is not believed when the wolf really appears," she closed with "Now, Lord,—no fooling this time! I'm in earnest; I want mother to get well." We are pleased to add that the petition "in earnest" was answered, and that "mother" did get well.

A little boy of three years—a Kittery youth—having been much annoyed at something awful done to him (such as dressing him or washing his face) one morning, announced his solemn determination not to pray any more. He was told that he could not go out to play until he had said his usual prayer, and though he held on stubbornly for a while he gave in at last, and asked if he could go out "certain sure—true's you live," if he prayed. Being answered in the affirmative, he commenced: "Our Father, which art in Heaven"—and then, suddenly remembering a choice expression he had heard somewhere on the street, he electrified the good lady, his mother, by adding at the top of his voice, "There, old lady! how's that for high?" We regret that we are unable to inform our readers whether this was considered orthodox, or whether the good little boy had to rectify his expression before going out to play.

Another young lady, an observant and dignified personage of nearly three years' experience in worldly affairs, has been frequently taken to church by her parents, where she has noticed that a worthy member of the congregation generally supplements the pastor's prayer with a resounding "Amen." One day, having tired of the frivolities of dolls and rag-babies, the little Miss organized herself into a clergyman, and after reading some original texts from a piece of newspaper, proceeded to make an almost interminable prayer, which she closed at last by demanding, "Mother, why don't you say amen?" "Why should I say amen?" questioned the mother. "Why, to stop the prayer!" This young lady shows quite as much penetration in connecting cause and effect as many older heads do.

☞ S. Gilbert has prime dates, which he is selling at 13 cts. per lb. at his fruit store on Daniel Street.

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 60 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 5½ per cent. interest, instead of 6 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWaS

BANKS AND BANKERS GENERALLY.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawfeb16

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40 000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, on limited amount, upon finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the

FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling-stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these, for a small or any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mdahwwfsls

Morning Chronicle.

ANATHEMA MARANATHA.

The Everlasting Curse of the Roman Catholic Church Promulgated Against Victor Emanuel.

By authority of the Almighty God, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost; and of the holy canons; and of the undefiled Virgin Mary, mother and nurse of our Saviour; and of the celestial virtues, angels, arch-angels, thrones, dominions, powers, cherubim and seraphim; and of all the holy patriarchs and prophets; and of all the apostles and evangelists; and of the holy innocents (who, in the sight of the Holy Lamb, are found worthy to sing the new song;) and of the holy martyrs and holy confessors; and of the holy virgins; and of all the saints, together with all the holy and elect of God—we excommunicate and anathematize him, and from the threshold of the holy Church of God Almighty we sequester him, that he may be tormented in eternal excruciating sufferings, together with Dathan and Abiram and those who say to the Lord God: "Depart from us; we desire none of Thy ways." And as fire is quenched with water, so let the light of him be put out forever more.

May the Father who created man curse him. May the Son who suffered for us curse him. May the Holy Ghost which was given us in our baptism curse him. May the Holy Cross which Christ (for our salvation triumphed over his enemies) ascended, curse him. May the Holy and eternal Virgin Mary, Mother of God, curse him. May St. Michael, the advocate of holy souls, curse him. May all the angels and archangels, principalities and powers, and all the heavenly armies curse him. May St. John, the Precursor, and St. John, the Baptist, and St. Peter, and St. Paul, and St. Andrew, and all other of Christ's apostles, together, curse him. And may the rest of his disciples and four evangelists, (who by their preaching converted the universal world) and may the holy and wonderful company of martyrs and confessors (who by their holy works are found pleading to God Almighty) curse him.

May the Choir of the Holy Virgins (who, for the honor of Christ, have despised the things of the world,) damn him. May all the saints (who, from the beginning of the world and everlasting ages, are found to be beloved of God,) damn him. May the heavens and the earth, and all the holy things remaining therein, damn him.

May he be damned wherever he be; whether in the house or in the field, whether in the highway or in the byway, whether in the wood or the water, or whether in the church. May he be cursed in living and in dying, in eating and drinking, in fasting and thirsting, in slumbering and sleeping, in watching or walking, in standing or sitting, in lying down or working, mingendo cacando, and in blood-letting.

May he be cursed in all the faculties of his body. May he be cursed inwardly and outwardly. May he be cursed in his hair. May he be cursed in his brains. May he be cursed in the crown of his head and in his temples. In his forehead and in his ears. In his eyebrows and in his cheeks. In his jaw-bones and in his nostrils. In his foreteeth and in his grinders. In his lips and in his throat. In his shoulders and in his wrists. In his arms, his hands, and in his fingers.

May he be damned in his mouth, in his breast, in his heart, and in all the viscera of his body; may he be damned in his veins and in his groin; in the thighs and genital organs, in his hips and in his knees; in his legs, feet, and toe-nails!

May he be cursed in all the joints and articulations of his members. From the top of his head to the sole of his foot may there be no soundness in him.

May the Son of the living God, with all the glory of His majesty, curse him, and may Heaven, with all the powers that move therein, rise up against him—curse and damn him!

Amen. So be it. Amen.

How bad Vic must feel.

BRIGGS & BRO'S,
Illustrated and Descriptive Catalogue
OF FLOWER & VEGETABLE SEEDS,
AND SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS.
FOR 1871.

Will be ready for mailing by the middle of January, notwithstanding our great loss of type, paper, engravings, &c., by fire, which destroyed the Job Printing office of the Rochester Democrat and Union, 25th December, 1870. It will be printed on a most elegant new tinted paper, and illustrated with hundreds of

Five Hundred Original Engravings,

and two finely executed Colored Plates—specimens for all of which were grown by ourselves the past season from our own stock of Seeds. In the originality, execution and extent of the engravings it is unlike and eminently superior to any other Catalogue or "Floral Guide" extant.

The Catalogue will consist of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered Seeds from us by mail the last season. To others a charge of 15 cents per copy will be made, which is not the cost of the Colored Plates. We assure our friends that the inducements we offer to purchasers of Seeds, as to quality and extent of Stock, Discounts and Premiums are unsurpassed. Please send stamp for Catalogue without delay.

Our Colored Chromo for 1871

Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent Forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers of natural size and color. We design to make it the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 19x24 inches. The retail value would be at least Two Dollars! we shall, however, furnish it to customers at 75 cents per copy, and offer it as a Premium upon orders for Seeds. See catalogue when out.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY.
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
No. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Also, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY Applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

WHEN WILL THE END COME?

BY O. W. HOLMES.

When legislators keep the law,
When banks disgorge with bolts and lock,
When berries, whortle, rasp and straw,
Grow bigger downwards through the box—

When he that selleth house or land,
Shows leak in roof or flaw in tight,
When haberdashers choose the stand,
Whose window has the broadest light,

When preachers tell us all they think,
And party leaders all they mean—
When what we pay for, that we drink,
From real grape and coffee bean—

When lawyers take what they would give,
And doctors give what they would take—
When city fathers eat to live,
Save when they fast for conscience sake—

When one that hath a horse on sale,
Shall bring his merit to the proof,
Without a lie for every nail
That holds the iron on the hoof—

When in the usual place for rips,
Our gloves are stitched with special care,
And guarded well the whalebone tips,
Where first umbrellas need repair—

When Cuba's weeds have quite forgot
The power of caution to resist,
And claret bottles harbor not,
Such dimples as would hold your fist—

When publishers no longer steal,
And pay for what they stole before,
When the first locomotive wheel
Rolls through the Hoosac tunnel's bore—

Till then let Cummings blaze away,
And Miller's saints blow up the globe;
But when you see that blessed day,
Then order your ascension robe.

CINDERS IN THE EYE.—The following is from a communication in the Hearth and Home by an eminent physician:

"Called to prescribe for Mrs. Andrews' inflamed eyes; learned that she had a bit of cinder in her eyes, occured while traveling in the cars four days ago, eye very much inflamed, painful and attended with severe headache. This is one of hundreds of cases where but very little knowledge would not have been a dangerous thing, and would save a world of pain. Nothing is more distressing to a traveler than a piece of cinder in the eye, and no disorder is more easily remedied. Calling the family together I proceeded to show them that it was not an eye-wash that Mrs. Andrew's needed to relieve her suffering, but the removal of the foreign substance.

The cinder will be found just underneath the margin of the upper lid, where there is a small grove or gutter for the flow of tears to the inner angle of the eye. Foreign bodies tend to fall into this groove, and if they are very angular, like cinder, they adhere in spite of the current of tears which now flow in greater abundance, and sooner or later carry off smooth substances. Now, if you will raise the upper margin of the lid and turn it over, the cinder or grain of sand will be exposed, and may be removed with the point of a pencil, or with the finger covered by a handkerchief.

I then demonstrated this simple operation on one of the boys thus: Taking my pencil in my right fingers, with the thumb and finger of my left hand I seized the eyelashes of the upper lid, and drawing the lid gently out from the ball, pressed the point of the pencil downward upon the upper surface of the lid about one-fourth of an inch from its margin, and at the same time carried the margin upward over the pencil by the eye-lashes, when the lid readily rolled over the pencil so as to expose completely the gutter described.

I then asked one of the young ladies to perform this operation upon her mother, which after two or three failures, she accomplished, and as I had predicted, small angular pieces of cinder were found beneath the margin of the lid, which she very adroitly removed with the point of the pencil.

Mrs. Andrews expressed immediate relief. So much interest was felt in this painless operation, that all in turn periormed, it being much aided by requiring the person operated upon to look downward when the lid was being adverted, and upward when the operator wished to restore the lid."

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND FLUID

Extract Catawba

GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, ETC. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

Will radically exterminate from the System Scrofula, Syphillis, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

BEING PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THE ABOVE COMPLAINTS, ITS BLOOD-PURIFYING PROPERTIES ARE GREATER THAN ANY OTHER PREPARATION OF SARSAPARILLA. IT GIVES THE COMPLEXION A CLEAR AND HEALTHY COLOR AND RESTORES THE PATIENT TO A STATE OF HEALTH AND PURITY, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, AND REMOVING ALL CHRONIC CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD; AND THE ONLY RELIABLE AND EFFECTUAL KNOWN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PAINS AND SWELLINGS OF THE BONES, ULCERATIONS OF THE THROAT AND LEGS, BLOTCHES, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ERYSIPELAS AND ALL SCALY ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION. PRICE $1.50 PER BOTTLE.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

CONCENTRATED

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

LADIES.

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S, EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of life vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, and CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1, 1871.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, on the 27th, Mr. Cragin made a personal explanation, denying the statement of the New York Tribune that the Senate naval committee were intentionally delaying the House bill regulating rank in the navy.

Mr. Wilson objected to an explanation as not being of a privileged character, and Mr. Cragin, having moved to take up the bill referred to, proceeded upon that motion to make his statement. He said he had twice asked the Senate and been refused, for a day for business from the naval committee, and in view of the fact that appropriation bills were crowding aside all others, he had concluded not to continue his efforts.

Mr. Saulsbury desired to make a suggestion which if followed would, he thought, save Senators a great deal of trouble in future, and that was not to read the New York Tribune at all. [Laughter.] If members would not read it, they would know nothing at all about the things of which it complained.

Mr. Cragin then withdrew his motion to take up the bill, and asked the Senate to appropriate an hour this evening for its consideration. General objection being made, Mr. Cragin gave notice that he would move the bill as an amendment to the naval appropriation bill when it came up.

On re-assembling in the evening the Senate ordered evening sessions for every evening this week.

Mr. Cragin, from the committee of conference on the bill to abolish the grades of admiral and vice-admiral in the navy, reported that the committees of the two houses failed to agree, and on his motion the committee was discharged.

Mr. Cragin gave notice that when notification of disagreement was received from the House, he would move that the Senate insist on its amendments, and ask for a new committee of conference.

The Post Office appropriation bill was passed.

The House discussed the "omnibus" appropriation bill, which was saddled with such amendments that it was laid on the table by a vote of 115 to 71.

FRANCE—PRUSSIA.

To-day, Wednesday, the German army is to march into Paris.

The Cologne Gazette says it is singular that the preliminaries to a treaty of peace are delayed by the intervention of the English, Russian and Austrian governments. The Italian government declines to interfere.

The triumphal entry of the Germans into Berlin has been delayed two months, as the whole of Germany will observe six weeks of mourning for the victims of the war.

At Paris, Sunday, being the anniversary of the proclamation of the republic of '48, the Reds held a mass meeting in Place de la Bastille. The demonstration was disorderly and terminated in a scene of revolting atrocity. A police agent who attempted to interfere for the preservation of peace was seized by the enraged crowd, fastened to a plank and thrown into the Seine, where, after struggling for some time he drowned. As long as he could be seen he was pelted with stones by a crowd on the quay. A magistrate who attempted to save the unfortunate man was threatened with a similar fate and finally was obliged to fly for his life.

☞ John Hess, who was confined in jail at Oshkosh, Wisconsin, escaped on Saturday night, and immediately went to the home of his divorced wife in Neenah and murdered her, first shooting her and then cutting her throat from ear to ear. The murderer then repaired to his brother's house and hid in the attic where he was discovered. An effort was made to arrest him, when he shot himself through the head.

The Coal Miners' Strike continues. The general opinion of the coal operators is that there will be no resumption of work under any circumstances before the middle of March, and probably not before the first of June.

☞ Another awful period of national madness and murder is threatened, now that France and Prussia have got through. Honduras has declared war against San Salvador.

☞ Judge Terry, who murdered Broderick, is reported to be in straitened circumstances and ill health in Nevada. He should have been straitened long ago.

—The Tybee is the only steamer which runs from this country to San Domingo.

Our Correspondence.

RYE, Feb. 27.

Editors Chronicle: The North Hampton and Stratham Choral Society gave a very fine concert at the Baptist meeting-house in this town on Tuesday evening of last week to a good audience. The Chorus comprised forty members under the direction of Mr. Jerome W. Rollins of Stratham, who is well and favorably known in these parts. The selection comprised solos, duets, quartets and choruses—a range sufficiently wide to please every variety of taste.

A course of free lectures commenced on Saturday evening at the Baptist church, which will continue for several weeks. The officers chosen are as follows:—President, G. H. Jenness; Secretary, Emmons B. Philbrick; Committee, Eben L. Seavey, Ruel G. Shapley, Langdon B. Parsons, Orin Drake and Charles J. Brown. The opening lecture was by Rev. Mr. Nelson, pastor of the Christian Baptist church. He took for his subject "Temperance," and delivered a very interesting and entertaining lecture, taking the ground of "total abstinence," and condemning the use of all the milder beverages, such as cider, ale, domestic wines, &c. The lecture on Saturday evening (March 4) will be delivered by the Supt. School Committee, Mr. G. H. Jenness. It is announced that his lecture will be devoted principally to discussing the condition of our schools—although the same address that got him into hot water at Hampton will be made the basis, with the political part left out. Mr. Jenness will be followed in the course by Rev. James DeNormandie and Dr. John W. Parsons of Portsmouth, and others yet to be announced. The lectures will probably be largely attended.

Politics are unusually dull and quiet for so near election, neither party making much noise or doing much work. There will probably be some excitement at the democratic caucus. If the principal of "rotation" is adhered to, we shall have a new Town Clerk, Supt. School Committee, and two new selectmen, as all the aforesaid officers have been elected twice and some of them three times. The only contest worth mentioning will be for Representative; and public opinion in the dominant party pretty clearly indicates who that will be. As is the custom in this town, the nomination is "rotated" around to each of the school districts, this year falling to the South. The present School Committee was favorably mentioned in certain quarters, but he declined to have his name used against his personal friend, who will probably receive the nomination. (Your readers are at liberty to guess who is the "coming man.") Local town affairs will probably cause considerable excitement and discussion. An article has been inserted in the warrant, asking the town to build a road from the Sagamore to the Farragut House. The project will be likely to share the fate of many such schemes before it—an "indefinite postponement."

The proposition to build a new Town Hall will be the principal topic of discussion. It will have many strong and determined advocates, and it would not be a matter of surprise if the movement was successful. ALEXANDER.

New Hampshire Items.

An interesting hearing is now having at Derry upon the application of the executors of the last will and testament of the late Dr. Sylvanus Brown of Derry to probate said will. Dr. Brown was suddenly killed last summer by being thrown from a carriage. The deceased was a man of many eccentricities of character. The will was drawn by himself, and is a very extraordinary document. The probate of the will is contested by the son and sole heir upon the ground of the insanity of the testator. By its terms the income of the largest portion of the estate is given to the son and his children during their lives, and at their deaths to grand-children of the son. The whole of the property amounts to over $50,000. It is probable that the question of the validity of the will will ultimately be carried to the highest courts.

Mr. Longee of Gilford broke through the ice of Lake Winnipisseogee, while driving between two islands with his team. Having an ice-chisel, Mr. L. tried to cut a channel to land but was not able to save his horse, which sank.

On the 27th of December last Mr. Edward McNellis of West Lebanon put a load of hay in his barn and in so doing covered up a hen. On the 16th of the present month biddy was dug out, lean, but tolerably well and lively.

The Republicans of Pittsfield had a rousing rally Tuesday evening, to hear Gen. Harriman.

The West Concord woolen mills are adding machines to knit jackets, which will give employment to fifty more women.

Our Correspondence.

SEABROOK, Feb. 28.

A slight interruption of the services in the Baptist Church took place on Sunday last. Two drunken men placed themselves among the congregation; one of them signalized himself by responding "Amen," (I don't know whether or not he said it in the right place,) and the other amused himself by falling down the stairs. They were arrested by officer John Brewer, each of them fined $10 and costs, and one sent to jail for 30 days. Seabrook is becoming a very uncomfortable place for wanton disturbers of the public peace.

South Seabrook: — A temperance meeting was held in the Vestry of the Congregational Church at South Seabrook on Monday evening, the occasion being an address by Mr. Edward Carswell. A juvenile chorus of 100 voices sang temperance songs and the local brass band performed some choice selections of music in a very creditable manner. The room was packed, and the rest of the proceedings were highly enjoyed.

A Division of the Sons of Temperance is to be organized in South Seabrook immediately.

A singing class of about 70 members meets semi-weekly in the Vestry of the Cong. Church, to receive instruction from Mr. Thos. Chase, well known in your city as the tenor singer of the Unitarian Church choir.

The Atlantic Cornet Band of So. Seabrook gave a concert at Hampton recently; they were very well received, as they deserve, and their performance is spoken of as deserving of much praise. QUILL.

The Libel Suit against the Baltimore American, which has been on trial two weeks in the court of common pleas in that city, for the publication of proceedings in the police court, in the case of a party arrested for selling diseased meat, was decided in favor of the paper.

The Sole Object in Life is to make that life the best and most comfortable we can. If we have our soles fastened with Cable Screw Wire we are assured that our boots and shoes are the most comfortable, durable, healthful and economical in the market. All our best dealers sell these boots and shoes.

A profuse and many times excessively offensive discharge from the nose, with "stopping up" of the nose at times, impairment of the sense of smell and taste, watering or weak eyes, impaired hearing, irregular appetite, occasional nausea, pressure and pain over the eyes, and at times in the back of the head, occasional chilly sensations, cold feet, and a feeling of lassitude and debility, are symptoms which are common to Catarrh, yet all of them are not present in every case. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures Catarrh in its worst forms and stages. It is pleasant to use, and contains no poisonous or caustic drugs. Sent by mail on receipt of sixty cents. Address R. V Pierce, 133 Seneca Street, Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by druggists.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Burning and Shaking.

By a ridiculous misapplication of language, invalids are sometimes said to "enjoy very poor health," but it is not on record that any human being was ever spoken of as enjoying chills and fever. And yet there are thousands, at this moment, in one or the other of the two stages of the disorder, who might just as well have avoided it as not. If there is anything deplorable in therapeutics, it is that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is an antidote to intermittent fevers. No instance can be cited in which it has been taken, either as a safeguard against this class of diseases or as a remedy for them, and failed to produce the desired effect. The season when malarious fevers are rife, has commenced, and no inhabitant of any district subject to their visitations should be without this great preventive and remedy. Indeed, it is a most potent protection against all the ailments which prevail in the spring months. From marsh and pool, and from all moist soils are now rising the mephitic elements which give birth to fever, indigestion, biliousness, colics and a whole host of epidemic and other maladies. Aid the system to resist them. Energize and regulate all the animal functions with this reinforcing agent. This précaution is as necessary in cities as in new settlements, for malarious fevers are now almost as common in the great centres of population as on the borders of the southern bayous and marshes and the rich agricultural regions of the west. The preventive and remedy is accessible to all. Who will be unwise enough to brave recklessly the danger it would avert?

"TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. ☞ The ship recently sold by Wm. F. Fernald, Esq., and now fitting for sea, will sail for a southern port shortly, under command of Capt. John G. Moses, one of her owners. The vessel has been named Jean Ingelow. The Boston Transcript says: "Portsmouth, a nursery of poets, has fitly honored the gifted daughter of England."

Y. M. C. A.—The free writing and singing classes recently established by the Y. M. C. A. are well attended, Mr. Montgomery teaching the Spencerian system of penmanship to about 60 pupils on Tuesday evenings, and Mr. Tilton instructing a singing class of about 50 on Thursday evenings. Once a month the Association has a sociable gathering, at which singing, reading and debate furnish pleasant entertainment; each Wednesday evening there is a general prayer meeting; all other evenings the room is open for reading, and on Saturday evenings the library (containing about 500 volumes,) is at the disposal of the members. All meetings are closed with devotional exercises. The room is neatly and conveniently fitted up, and contains a good piano; and the Association is doing a good work.

ANNEXATION OF NEWCASTLE.—At a meeting of citizens of Portsmouth and Newcastle, held in the rooms of the First National Bank on Monday, to consider the question of the annexation of Newcastle to Portsmouth, Hon. Daniel Marcy was chosen Chairman and John Albee, Esq., Secretary. After a spirited discussion of the merits of the question the meeting (which comprised some of the leading citizens and heaviest tax-payers of both towns, and of both political parties,) unanimously adopted the following resolution:—

Resolved, That the considerations which have been placed before this meeting, favoring the annexation of Newcastle to Portsmouth, are of such a character as to strongly commend the consummation of the union of the two municipal organizations—and we give it our hearty approval and recommend it to the favorable consideration of the citizens of this city.

Hon. Daniel Marcy, Charles H. Mendum, Esq., Mr. and V. Doane, Jr., were appointed a special committee to take steps towards furthering this desirable consummation, and to report at a future meeting.

IMPROVEMENTS. — The work of remodelling and improving the old Franklin House is to be commenced immediately. A handsome granite and iron front is to be put on the lower story, which is to be fitted up for four spacious stores, each from 15 to 18 feet in width and between 40 and 50 feet in depth; the principal hotel office and the ladies' entrance on Congress Street, with a second office and entrance on Fleet Street. The kitchen, wash and store rooms will be on the lower floor. The parlors are to be on the second floor, and the old Franklin Hall will be cleared out and refitted as a dining room and dance hall. The accommodations of the hotel will be increased in extent by the alterations, and the whole building is to be refurnished in the most approved style. When the modernizing of "ye ancient hostelrie" is completed, the proprietors may reasonably anticipate that the goodly share of public patronage which the house has hitherto enjoyed will receive a marked increase; and the basement stores will command a high rent, from their extent and the excellence of the location.

Our Correspondence.

KITTERY, ME., Feb. 28.

Messrs. Editors:—A recent number of the Chronicle contained an article about the Kittery ghost, which has brought up a circumstance which took place some time ago near the locality where the scoundrelly ghost made his last appearance, but which has never been reported. A young woman about 20 years of age was picking barberries in Rice's woods one afternoon, when she was assailed by a villain who tore nearly all her clothing off before she succeeded in making her escape, though she finally reached the nearest house unharmed, except from fright. The lady and her family are very respectable, and did not wish to make the affair public until every means had been tried to ferret out the wretch and bring him to justice. A search was made, and the Navy Yard workmen were scrutinized to see if any of them would answer his description, but he has as yet managed to escape detection. This "ghost" ought to be "laid"—in jail, for no community is safe where he is at large. F. L. O.

FORD & GREEN'S FEMALE MINSTRELS. Our amusement-goers have one opportunity of listening to and seeing one of the best troupes of Female Minstrels now travelling. The Portland Press gives them good notices. J. E. Green is an old favorite here, and wishes to see his friends this evening.

A GOOD RECORD.—The Suffolk County (Mass.) Journal reports a liberal contribution by the Universalist Church of Roxbury, of which Rev. A. J. Patterson, formerly of this city is pastor. On a stormy Sabbath recently, when the congregation was not half so numerous as usual, Mr. Patterson stated that the sum still due by the Society was $6000, and in an earnest and impressive address called upon the members to respond to the call made upon them. Some fifteen or sixteen pledged $200 each, ten $100 each, one $150, twenty-six $50 each, and many others $30, besides smaller sums from young and old, until more than the whole amount was pledged. The pastor expressed great satisfaction at the result, and said it would be a source of great pride that they began another fifty years without encumbrance. [The church has recently celebrated its semi-centennial anniversary.] The society within four years have made extensive repairs upon their church, put in a new organ, etc., at an expense of $25,000 above their current expenses, and exhibit a general record worthy of emulation.

THE OFF YEAR.—The difference in the votes of New Hampshire cast in "off years" and those cast in years of Presidential elections may be seen by the following table. The reader will observe that the variations in the Republican vote cover a considerably wider range of figures than those in the Democratic vote. This indicates that the differences are produced not so much by change of political sentiment as by the apathy of the interest of Republicans:

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 6 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities are taken at exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWsS

BANKS AND BANKERS GENERALLY.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY!

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. lyrdawfebl8

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of the advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the

FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling-stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on the entire Land Grant, being one (more than) twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold; the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN PER CENT. TWENTY FIVE CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10 000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mdas3mwfebs

RESIDENCE 36 Washington St., Portsmouth

Morning Chronicle.

SQUEAMISH.—The Hartford Post has been indulging in an examination into the accuracy of some of Thurlow Weed's statements in the Galaxy, and don't like it because at the time Mr. Weed says he visited the fortifications around Washington there were no fortifications there; and the Post can't see of what use it was for Mr. Weed to urge President Lincoln to appoint William C. Johnson to a place in his cabinet, at a time when Mr. Johnson had been dead for some months. The same carping disposition is shown by the Post in commenting on the reason "why Mr. Weed did not dine with Wellington" in November, 1852; the Post asserting that the most obvious reason for his not dining with the conqueror of Napoleon at that date is the fact that Wellington died in September, 1851—fourteen months before Mr. Weed came so near dining with him. Another Connecticut paper says that the Post's date of the Iron Duke's death is wrong, as that event occured in '52, so that it is quite possible that Mr. Weed may be correct in his story of the lost opportunity to dine with him, during that year; and the Post gracefully backs down, and acknowledges that such may really be the case, as—accepting the corrected date as the true one—Wellington had at that time been dead only two months instead of fourteen. We are glad the Post man is open to conviction by sound argument.

New Publications Received.

The March number of The Aldine is excellent with a fine reproduction of Delaroche's "Marie Antoinette," and a good moonlight marine view, both remarkable specimens of wood engraving.

FLOWER SEEDS, ETC.
EWNEWBURY, Seedsman and Florist, Brooklyn, Conn., Importer and Dealer in Flower and Vegetable Seeds, Plants, Bulbous Roots, &c. Catalogues ready January. Free Brooklyn, Conn., 1871.

BRIGGS & BRO'S
Illustrated and Descriptive Catalogue
OF FLOWER & VEGETABLE SEEDS,
AND SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS.
FOR 1871.
Will be ready for mailing by the middle of January, notwithstanding our great loss of type, paper, engravings, &c., by fire, which destroyed the Job Printing office of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, 25th December, 1870. It will be printed on a more elegant new tinted paper, and illustrated with nearly
Five Hundred Original Engravings,
And two finely executed Colored Plates—specimens for all of which were grown by ourselves the past season from our own stock of Seeds. In the originality, selection and extent of our Engravings it is unlike and eminently superior to any other Catalogue or "Floral Guide" extant.
The Catalogue will consist of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered Seeds from us by mail the last season. To others a charge of 15 cents per copy will be made, which is not the value of the Colored Plates. We assure our friends that the inducements we offer to purchasers of Seeds, as to quality and extent of Stock, Illustrations and Premiums are unsurpassed. Please send orders for Catalogues without delay.
Our Colored Chromo for 1871
Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent Forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers of natural size and color. We design to make it the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 19x24 inches. The retail value would be at least Two Dollars! we shall, however, furnish it to customers at 75 cents per copy, and offer it as a premium upon orders for Seeds. Seb catalogue when out.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY, SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
NO. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of integrity and ability in him has led me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

L E N T .

Is this a Fast, to keep
The larder lean,
And clean,
From fat of meats and sheep?
Is it to quit the dish
Of flesh, yet still
To fill
The platter high with fish?

Is it to fast an hour,
Or ragg'd to go,
Or show
A downcast look and sour?
No; 'Tis a fast, to dole
Thy sheaf of wheat
And meat
Unto the hungry soul.

It is to fast from strife,
From old debate
And hate;
To circumcise thy life;
To starve thy sin,
Not bin,
And that's to keep thy Lent!

[—Robert Herrick, 1648.

IN THE WRONG THEATRE.—A young man from the country to whom a friend had given a ticket to the Howard Athenæum, Boston, made a slight mistake and got into the hall, of the Young Men's Christian Association, where evening excercises were to be held. Handing his ticket to a young man who happened to be standing at the head of the stairs, (greatly to the latter's amusement,) the young man took a seat among the audience. He was not familiar with theatres and had not been inside the Howard, but the hall which he was in did not coincide at all with his idea of what a temple of the drama should be. There was very little stage, and no scenery to speak of. While he was wondering over this, the assembly began singing a hymn, which increased his astonishment. He had never supposed that theatrical entertainments were opened with music of that kind.

Turning to a man sitting by his side, he inquired, pointing to a group of ladies who were singing, "Which of them is Miss Adah Richmond?"

The man only stared at him in silence. He asked another in front of him:

"Is Bloodgood goin' to play to-night?"

"Bloodgood who?" was the reply; "no Bloodgood here!"

A sudden suspicion flashed through the brain of the young man. "Ain't this the Howard?" he inquired.

"What do you mean, young man?" was the reply. "Are you a fool? This is the assembly room of the Young Men's Christian Association."

The young man from the country was next seen hunting for the man he had given his ticket to, but didn't succeed. The ticket-taker, with commendable anxiety to shield a young man from the contaminations of the theatre, had probably taken the ticket—and gone himself.

HOW TO HAVE A LOVING WIFE.—If you have a loving wife, be as gentle in your words after as before marriage; treat her quite as tenderly when a matron as when a miss; don't make her maid-of-all-work, and then ask her why she looks less tidy and neat than when "you first knew her;" don't buy cheap, tough beef, and scold her because it does not come on the table "porter house;" don't grumble about squalling babies, if you can't make up a "nursery," and you remember that "baby" may take after papa in his disposition; don't smoke and chew tobacco, thus shatter your nerves, spoil your temper, and make your breath a nuisance, and then complain that your wife declines to kiss you. Go home joyous and cheerful to your wife, and tell her the good news you have heard, and not silently put on your hat and go off to the "club" or the "lodge," and afterwards let her learn that you spent the evening at the opera, or at a fancy ball with Mrs. Dash. Love your wife; be patient; remember that you are not perfect, but try to be; let whiskey, tobacco and vulgar company alone; spend your evenings with your wife, and live a decent Christian life, and your wife will be loving and true—if you did not marry a thoughtless beauty, without sense or real worth; if you did, who is to blame if you suffer the consequences.?
Phrenological Journal.

A NEW AND "FAT" DUTY FOR NAVY OFFICERS.—Admiral Porter has established a permanent board for the inspection of all vessels before they sail and after their return from a cruise. This board consists of Commodore Le Roy and Commanders Earl English and R. F. R. Lewis. A surgeon, paymaster and chief engineer are added temporarily at each station, though these gentlemen have nothing to say or do as regards the inspection. A recorder is appointed by Admiral Porter at $5 a day, his pay being drawn from the navy contingent fund. The report of the board is addressed to Admiral Porter. This board went to Boston—ten cents a mile mileage—and inspected the Ticonderoga on the 17th inst. Thence they returned to New York to inspect the California, after which they go back to Boston to inspect the Worcester, and next return to New York to inspect the Supply. Afterward the Shawmut and Narragansett will afford them employment.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

There are indications of a light vote on election day.

The New York Herald says New Hampshire is safely Republican, and predicts the election of the three Republican candidates for Congress. Tell us news, Mr. Bennett.

THE NATURALIZATION DECISION.—We notice some of the Democratic papers have forgotten that the rebellion was really crushed by Grant and Sherman and the patriotic men who fought with them. These rebel sympathizers became so accustomed to denounce the acts of loyal men that they cannot now forego the pleasure of condemning the action of the government, the decisions of courts, and every legal enactment which restrains them in their disregard of individual, associated or national rights. It is not easy to pass a law or make a judicial decision to please the Democratic party. The abrogation of all laws would be far more grateful than the passage or execution of just legal enactments.

Just now, these belligerent Democrats threaten and advise rebellion against the recent decision of the Supreme Judicial Court in regard to naturalization. Some of them say, "Pay no attention to the decision; all foreigners having once voted should demand the right to vote." This is in accordance with the spirit of the rebellion, and sounds familiar. But these wise men will not find it healthful to attempt to practice what they recommend, and they may as well "be wise in time."

"It is a Republican trick," says one editor; "the courts made the decision to save the party." Not quite. The decision was first made by a Democratic United States Judge in Massachusetts, as we have already said. The question was raised by a Democratic lawyer to save a Democratic client from the State Prison. The decision was concurred in by Democratic lawyers and judges, and if the men who declaim against it had the sense even of geese, they would see the ridiculous position which they occupy when they attack the decision or the court that made it.—Mirror.

CONGRESS.

The Senate, on the 28th ult., took up the army appropriation bill to the exclusion of all other business. An amendment was reported directing the repayment to the Pacific railroads of one-half the compensation for services rendered the United States. The amendment was opposed in a long speech by Senator Edmonds but was finally adopted.

The House reconsidered its vote tabling the "omnibus" appropriation bill. All appropriations for new buildings, except to the League Island navy-yard, were stricken out and the bill passed, 112 to 73.

Mr. Butler of Massachusetts, from committee, reported a bill to protect loyal and peaceable citizens of the United States in the full enjoyment of their rights, personal liberty and property, and to enable such citizens to preserve and perpetuate evidences of the losses claimed to have been sustained by them in the war in the States lately in rebellion.

Mr. Cox of New York moved that the bill be rejected. Negatived.

While the bill was being read Mr. Wood of New York took the floor and moved that the rules be suspended and a bill passed repealing all the laws and parts of the laws imposing duty on foreign coal, the bill to take effect immediately. Agreed to—144 to 46.

Mr. Butler then moved to suspend the rules, and that the House proceed to the consideration of the bill to protect loyal and peaceable citizens of the United States, and that the further reading of the bill be proceeded with to the exclusion of all other business, except the appropriation bills and conference reports, until finally disposed of. Negatived—127 to 65—not two-thirds in the affirmative. Three republicans voted in the negative. A change of one of these votes would have given the requisite two-thirds' majority.

☞ A certain Bangor milk-dealer obtains a part of the milk he sells from a neighbor living about a half-mile distant. Each day about sunset, he harnesses his horse into the milk wagon, puts in the cans and throws the reins over the dasher. His large Newfoundland dog then gravely steps in, and the horse, under the direction of the canine driver, proceeds to the above-mentioned neighbor's and stops; the dog announces their arrival, the neighbor fills the cans, the dog resumes his seat in the vehicle, and the horse carefully turns and trots home. These intelligent animals have done this business daily, and have never met with an accident.

The Lake Village Baptists have erected a church 92x49, with two towers. The lower story is fitted up as a vestry, with ante-rooms.

New Hampshire Items.

On the 24th ult., in Warren, Charles Marston, a twelve year old son of Mr. Ezra Marston, came upon a deer, which he shot, in spite of its flight.

William W. Dow, the most extensive dealer in counterfeit money in New England, was arrested in Hooksett, Monday afternoon, by Colonel Whitley of the secret detective service. Dow is said to be connected with an extensive gang of burglars, whose past operations include the Lime Rock and Norway Bank robberies in Maine, and the Wolfeborough Bank robbery in New Hampshire. He was one of the gang of Charley Adams, who is now in the Maine State prison for complicity in the Lime Rock Bank affair. Dow has been a wholesale dealer and carrier of counterfeit money for the past fifteen years, and operated extensively in it during the war, it is said.

Our Correspondence.

BOSTON, Feb. 28th.

Our semi-occasional semi-holiday has come and gone, and was more generally observed this year than ever before, as it will continue to grow in favor yearly so long as humanity shall recognize how exceptional a character was that of Washington. [Parker says; "when George cut the cherry's wood of his father's favorite tree he little thought the freemen of the world would cherish his memory when his 'little hatchet' had been entirely corroded by rust. He further says there is a nice joke hidden in his statement, but as he is the bane of my existence I scorn to search for anything so well hidden."]

Among the pleasant recognitions of the day none seem to have been more pleasant than the annual dinner and ball of the "Amoskeag Veterans" at Manchester. Always well attended, always gratifying to the participators therein, the occasion of last Wednesday seems to me an improvement even on the memorable 22nds that have preceded it. The popular corps received large accessions to its numbers, the guests from distant points were numerous and included a number of prominent military men, the hall was more tastefully trimmed for the ball than we have often seen, and the dancers were loth to leave it even when the close of "the Veterans' Reel" at a late hour warned them that the finale had come.

Our "sleighing carnival" has also disappeared after a few days' continuance, during which the Milldam and Brighton Road were the scenes of most animated sights. I would hardly have credited the statement that so many sleighs were in existence in New England as I saw in a drive from Charles Street, Boston, to Wilson's Hotel in Brighton. But why call this a carnival? Washington has just aped New Orleans in her celebration of Shrove Tuesday or Mardi Gras, and I believe they are the only cities in the Union so far that claim to have a carnival. M.

TOOMBS AND BEN WADE.—Toombs fought shy of Douglas, whom he admired and sometimes feared; but he assailed Seward and Wade, ridiculing them as "sansculotte lacklanders," whom he denounced as trespassers who ought to be kicked off the public domain. He shook his fist at Seward, who happened at that moment to be quietly smoking a cigar at the doorway of the cloak-room, and arraigned him as destitute of all statesman-like ideas, and only playing the slippery arts of a small demagogue. Then turning to Wade, whose seat was by the side of his own, Toombs, his knotted locks bristling with excitement, sneered at Wade, who, till then, he always supposed was a man of moderate courage, for being afraid of the lacklanders and for skulking from the real question at issue.

This personal sally brought Wade to his feet; his eye flashed defiance. Stepping up to Toombs, and bringing his fist heavily on the desk, he said, in tones that made the chamber ring, "Afraid! I am not aware that I ever saw anything or anybody under the Almighty heaven that I was afraid of!" Toombs drew his chair back a little. "Skulk the issue?" "No!" thundered Wade; "I am ready to go to the people upon it—'Land for the landless vs. niggers for the niggerless?" The packed galleries could stand no longer, and broke out with applause, which, in spite of Vice President Breckinridge's gavel, rose, as Douglas shook hands with Wade, into three cheers for "Old Ben and the Little Giant."

The marrow of the controversy was touched when Mason declared that no Democrat holding the doctrines of the Senator from Illinois could get a single electoral vote from the South in the next Presidential campaign, which Douglas instantly checkmated by the vehement assertion that no Democrat who held the sentiments of the Senator from Virginia could carry a single Congressional district in the North. The prophes y of each was fulfilled in 1860, when Breckinridge and Douglas were the Democratic candidates of their respective section.—Reminiscences of Debate on Cuban Annexation.

Of the 382 students at Dartmouth College there are 165 professors of religion, and 50 are intending to enter the ministry. There have been 24 conversions in the past year.

MODERN INFIDELITY. — A district quarterly convention of Young Men's Christian Associations was held in the Winthrop Street Methodist Church, Roxbury. The following question was discussed: "How can we best combat the growing infidelity of the present day?" The discussion was opened by Rev. S. F. Upham, of the Winthrop Street Church, who said the infidelity of the present day was a denial of revelation and the need of a Redeemer—a Christian theism with no more power to save man than a pagan. He was followed by Rev. I. J. P. Collier, of Roxbury, and several others. Mr. Collier thought infidelity was assuming a new phase, and endeavoring to sap the foundations of Christianity by imitating the evangelical methods of work. A grand revival a few years ago, he said, closed Universalist churches and left their ministers without occupation. Now the Universalists have prayer-meetings of their own, hoping thereby to sap the foundations of Christianity, and Unitarians are at work in the same direction. We should preach evangelical doctrines more plainly. The saving power of the gospel is found in the thunders of Sinai, and we should preach a day of judgment, endless punishment and hell-fire. In concluding, he said he wanted old-fashioned puritan Christianity, and not a milk-and-water religion which was as full of poison as the serpents of hell. Suffolk Co. (Mass.) Journal.

Mr. Collier evidently believes in the total depravity of the human race; that fear—one of the meanest of human weaknesses—is the only thing which can subdue that depravity, and that a God of love and mercy will not answer. He thinks we must have endless punishment and hell-fire, to satisfy God's hatred of his erring creatures; and thinking as he does, he does right to say so. But the "old-fashioned puritan Christianity" which he wishes to revive used to put Episcopal heathen in the stocks and nail the ears of pagan Baptists to the pillory, to sear the tongues of and banish atheistical Quaker men, and publicly flog on the bare back ungodly Quaker women, and even (as in the case of Calvin with his coreformer) persecute to death those hardened infidels who refused to subscribe to the mild Christian doctrine that hell was crowded with the souls of infants who had died without being baptized. Does Mr. Collier wish to return to those good "old-fashioned puritan" ways?

☞ Senator Cragin recently announced in the U. S. Senate his strong sympathy with the staff officers of the Navy. Put that in your pipe and smoke it, ye followers of the "line."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Burning and Shaking.

By a ridiculous misapplication of language, invalids are sometimes said to "enjoy very poor health," though it is not on record that any human being was ever spoken of as enjoying chills and fever. And yet there are thousands, at this moment, in one or the other of the two stages of the disorder, who might just as well have avoided it as not. If there is anything demonstrable in therapeutics, it is that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is an antidote to intermittent fevers. No instance can be cited in which it has been taken, either as a safeguard against this class of diseases or as a remedy for them, and failed to produce the desired effect. The season when malarious fevers are rife, has commenced, and no inhabitant of any district subject to their visitations should be without this great preventive and remedy. Indeed, it is a most potent protection against all the ailments which prevail in the spring months. From marsh and pool, and from all moist soils are now rising the mephitic elements which give birth to fever, indigestion, biliousness, colics and a whole host of epidemic and other maladies. Aid the system to resist them. Energize and regulate all the animal functions with this reinforcing agent. This precaution is as necessary in cities as in new settlements, for malarious fevers are now almost as common in the great centres of population as on the borders of the southern bayous and marshes and the rich agricultural regions of the west. The preventive and remedy is accessible to all. Who will be unwise enough to brave recklessly the danger it would avert?

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I find that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the interior, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes, and where I always recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

Two hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and balmy. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida will be found good, and the accommodations good, but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then, if the lungs and bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia, every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and I can pay attention in curing a bad cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, nearly three fifths of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population of Maine is afflicted disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of lives would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are to scarlet fever, small-pox, &c., but they are not: they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to hope will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a good supply of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know, that, where they are used in a strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The patient who presents the symptoms of a cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give nature to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry; I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it, more flesh, which is followed by a healing of the lungs, when the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prevail, and instead, the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, to remain at home, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper remedies are persevered in. The fact stands undisputed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will find some one to tell you of some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They not only make people feel better, but they are free from all the injurious effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have pain in the side, or a cough, and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headaches, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water, and eat watermelons and peaches, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in dangerous localities against malaria and fevers. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 3 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9, A.M., to 3, P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the stethoscope will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. It is also distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their system receives no benefit, my reputation is consulted by not being liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without danger or consulting a doctor, if bought from any druggist.

☞ The next Assembly in the Odd Fellows' course comes off at Congress Hall this (Thursday) evening.

☞ Concerning the price of stone, we understand that 250 tons of common field stones, brought down the river in gondolas, have been delivered on board the ship Jean Ingelow, for ballast, at $1.10 per ton, stored.

☞ Rev. C. M. Dinsmore of this city lectured in Greenland on Wednesday evening, March 1st. Mr. D. has been pretty much all over the lower part of this State (and into Maine and Massachusetts,) during the past winter, lecturing, and has been well received wherever he has appeared.

☞ Dr. William R. Preston is one of the Portsmouth School Committee, and has had a fancy that a good musical instrument would be a valuable acquisition to Miss Hill's school; at least we suppose he has fancied so, judging of his faith by his works, for he has recently presented a fine $50 melodeon to that school.

☞ We learn that some fifteen members have withdrawn from Strawberry Bank Encampment, I. O. of O. F., for the purpose of forming a new Encampment in this city. Strawberry Bank Encampment having about 250 members and the numbers constantly increasing, it was deemed best to form a new one for the greater convenience of doing the work of the Order.

EDITORIAL.—Mr. Edward N. Fuller, formerly editor of the New Hampshire Gazette, and connected of late years with the Newark Journal, who established its popularity and success, has terminated his connection with that newspaper. It is rumored he is about to establish a new Democratic newspaper in Englewood, Bergen county, N. J.

Mr. Chas. H. Davis, formerly connected with the Chronicle, has taken editorial charge of the Van Buren Democrat, at Napoleon, Iowa.

☞ A gentleman crossing Washington Street, Boston, with a party of ladies and children, was nearly run down by a team furiously driven. To save himself and those under his care he thrust his parcel into the face of the horse, causing the animal to shy, whereupon the burly driver left his seat, followed the gentleman to the sidewalk and knocked him down by a violent blow. The court recognized the aggravated and unjustifiable character of the assault, and sentenced the offender to thirty days' imprisonment, from which an appeal was taken.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S CHRISTIAN UNION ROOMS, in the building corner Congress and Vaughan Streets, were opened on Wednesday evening, March 1st. The objects of the Union are, to offer to all persons in our city not otherwise provided for, a comfortable and home-like place for amusement, for social intercouse and for educational purposes; to afford a place where they may be surrounded by good and elevating influences; to provide them with means of improvement at a trifling expense; and to give them sympathy, and counsel, and help, in times of trouble or temptation. The rooms will be furnished with games of various kinds, with books, magazines and papers; and instruction in several departments will be given if desired. The rooms will be open, for the present, from 5 to 10 o'clock P. M., every day. All are invited, without distinction of age, sex or occupation, and with the single aim, "to do good and grow better."

THE FEMALE MINSTRELS had a fair audience at the Temple on Wednesday evening, though not so large as they deserved. The choruses were really good,—very much better than those of any troupe we have heard here lately; the female dancers were graceful and pleasing, and the comic dance by Mr. Kelly was the best thing of the kind we have ever seen; the Irish stump speech, the comic banjo solo and the mocking-bird imitations were all first-rate, and the closing burlesque full of ridiculous fun. We detected but a single allusion in the whole performance which bordered on the indelicate, and might possibly be considered hypercritical in condemning even that one. Messrs. Ford & Green certainly have the best Female Minstrel Troupe travelling, and (with the exception above alluded to) their entertainment is unobjectionable. The audience at first was very quiet even for a Portsmouth assembly, but made up for it afterwards with unusually liberal applause, which was fairly earned by the performers.

MASONIC.—We understand that Bro. Charles W. Gardner has been invited by St. Andrew's Lodge to deliver his lecture on "Charity" before the Masonic Fraternity at Congress Hall, on Friday evening, March 10th.

The recent rains have set in operation all the mills at Great Falls.

Dover is to erect a new grammar school house.

Col. Hiram Bell, widely known as the former landlord of the Pemigewasset and Profile Houses and other hotels, died recently in Boston, aged 65 years.

One hundred dollars worth of glycerice is used every day at the sponge factory in Lebanon.

The amount of shoe manufacturing at Dover is said to be about $2,000,000 annually. There are fourteen firms, using from 30,000 to 40,000 sides of leather, producing not far from 30,000 cases of boots and shoes, and engaging the labor of 2000 men and women.

New Publications Received.

Merry's Museum. The March number of this established favorite of the boys and girls, has among other good things, a thrilling story, entitled, "What that Coast Cost," by Miss Darling, author of Battles at Home." Terms $1.50 a year. Horace B. Fuller, Boston.

MAKING MILK.—Among the profitable branches of farming, is that of raising milk for the market, and we are rather surprised that more do not engage in it, and especially those who live on the line of a railroad leading to such towns or cities. We believe that milk at nine cents per wine quart in winter, and eight in summer, which are the prices it sells for, ought to yield a good rich profit. Some we know have found milk producing quite remunerative even when they had to buy all the feed, not having so much as yard room, but have been obliged to keep the cows shut up all the time. They do not feed altogether on hay, but shorts, brewer's grains, and even the swill from city carts. If this can be done, is it not possible for the farmer who has plenty of pasture, good sweet hay, roots, and possibly grain of his own producing, to raise milk and make it pay?

We think it might possibly be better for some families who are now dependent upon the milk-man, to keep a cow and raise their own, and have plenty of pure milk for the children that may daily crowd around the family board.—J. F. O. Hyde.

☞ The following from a correspondent of the County Gentleman contains matter for thought and discussion:—

"An English tenant farmer, paying a money rental half-yearly, and liable to be noticed out by a six months' notice, buys corn brought 3000 miles to fatten animals, chiefly for the sake of the manure. An American yeoman, owning his land and possessing capital to invest in other speculations, and in some instances living in first-class style, sells his hay and feeds no animals for the purpose of enriching his own property, the same as the English tenant does that of his land."

—The following is a description of the proposed bridge across Lake Champlain: At the place selected for the ferry the lake is about three thousand feet wide. The lake will be piled from its shores to the edges of the navigable channel; upon these piles a railroad track will be laid. In the gap and across the channel a huge float, operated by steam is to be placed, which is to be three hundred feet long. This float will have a railroad track, and will swing like a gate on a hinge.

Both branches of the Indiana legislature have adjourned sine die.

☞ Old newspapers for sale at this Office.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

☞ THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE for this week, is now ready for delivery, at the Chronicle Office. Each number contains all the reading matter of the week's Dailies. Price $2 a year; single copies 5 cents,—in wrappers for mailing, if desired. Six copies for $10 per year, to Clubs—per mail or city carrier.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING.—We have made great additions to our jobbing facilities—a mammoth Hand Press (the largest in Portsmouth,) new Display Type, Borders of various styles, &c.—and are prepared to execute with neatness and dispatch, all orders for FULL SHEET POSTERS, DATE SLIPS, PAMPHLETS, SERMONS, ADDRESSES, AUCTION BILLS, CONSTITUTIONS, BY LAWS, PROGRAMMES, HANDBILLS, CIRCULARS, ORDERS DANCES, BLANKS, BILL HEADS, RECEIPTS, TICKETS, BUSINESS, MARRIAGE, ADDRESS AND VISITING CARDS, LABELS, TAGS, and in fact PRINTING OF ANY DESCRIPTION, at SATISFACTORY PRICES. FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An excess of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. 12td WaS

BANKS AND BANKERS GENERALLY.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY!

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER, and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawf6b16

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mda3mwfsp8

WHAT AN OLD BOAT DID.

Effie Brown sat by the seaside, just out of reach of the incoming tide, on a grey old rock, whose base was adorned by drifted sea weed and stranded shells. It was a pleasant June day; nothing in all the landscape—from Coldhaven at the head of the bay to the low islands away out at sea — wore a blue or troubled look, except Effie and the storm-beaten boulder upon which she was sitting.

The face of the boulder was deeply graven with memorials of time and tempest. Effie's face bore no traces of time or trouble except a transient expression, more of perplexity than of grief, which had not been there long enough to have any permanent record. Trouble is a skillful and patient engraver, but it requires time to make much impression on so sunny a face as that of Effie Brown, and her eighteen years had hardly given the artist a fair chance. Hardly so, however, with the quite good-looking young man who was leaning against the other side of the boulder. His face at least wore an expression of trouble and anxiety; tho' he was at the age when any lines which may come upon the physiognomy may be either deepened or effaced, as time may determine.

There was a marked contrast between the two. She was auburn-haired, blue-eyed, plump and petite; while he was tall, dark and slender. For some inscrutable reason young men of that general outline are sure to fall in love with saucy and sunny little blondes like Effie Brown. They are generally great fools when they do so, as Everard Fiske had found to his cost. He was not rich as yet, though he hoped to be, and Effie had a young lady's appreciation for a deep pocket. He was not distinguished, although he intended to become so, and Effie was exceedingly ambitious. Nevertheless, he had thought himself progressing fairly well in his wooing, somewhat protracted as it had been in his estimation, until the last few days of that gay visit to the seashore.

The fact was that, among the somewhat miscellaneous assembly at the great hotel, at Coldhaven, Effie had met somebody who possessed the very thing in which Everard Fiske was deficient. Major Gordon was rich, and if not very handsome, he certainly was distinguished, for he had been in ever so many battles, and the newspapers had said all sorts of things about him. Moreover he had paid her marked attention at the ball of the night before, and Effie was out of all patience with the yachting excursion which had carried him off that morning and condemned her to the company of her old beau in her walk by the seashore.

Everard Fiske was a sort of matter of course, something that had been her property for a long time, while Major Gordon was a new sensation and a very agreeable one.

"No—Everard, I will not give you an answer; at least not the one you asked for—and have told you so a great many times."

"Well, but Effie, that is the very reason why I must have an answer now. My life is darkened by this terrible suspense, and I cannot bear it any longer. If you have finally decided against me, say so, and I will trouble you no further. You know very well all I can say, for I've said it a hundred times. If you bid me go, I will go, and if you bid me stay, I will stay."

This was plain language to say the least; but Effie had coquetted terribly with her patient lover, and he had endured her trifling wonderfully well for a man of his age, and with such a very decided and determined cast of countenance. Saucy little blondes, however, can make geese of the very manliest men.

"Say Effie, shall it be go, or stay? Unless you answer me, you will not find me here to-morrow."

Effie's little foot beat nervously among the stranded shells. It was hard to say "go," and she could not quite make up her mind to say "stay," with her thoughts so full of uniforms, and while every glance to seaward put her in mind of the returning yacht and its owner.

"I have little besides my heart to offer you, and perhaps you have controlled that so long that it has ceased to be of any value."

Still the little foot worried away among the sand and shells; but no answer came.

"Well, then, I suppose I may read my sentence in your silence. Good-by, Effie!"

Effie never moved, although her face grew a trifle paler and her foot ceased its busy pattering. Slowly and sadly the young man turned and walked away along the shore, and after a moment his tormentor turned and looked after him.

"Everard!"

But Everard either could not or would not hear.

"Never mind! He will be at the hotel in the evening, and it won't make any especial difference."

But something earnest in the tone of her lover's voice came back to her, and with it the thought, "what if he should go away and should not come back!" And again the sunny face grew paler and the look of perplexity deepened.

It is a great relief in such a case if one can only do something, and Effie's next thought was, "Well, if I am not in the yacht, I can at least be in a boat; I know how to row, and there is that old fishing concern tied right down there by that rock. It is afloat, too."

No sooner said than done, and in a moment the boat was loose and Effie had pushed off. There was no surf to speak of, for the cove was well sheltered and there did not seem to be the least danger.

Everard Fiske, sad at heart, and a good deal more than half angry, strolled slowly along the beach disdaining to look back, or at least to seem to do so, until a little curve in the line of the shore compelled him to see, by a side glance, that the rock was vacant; a second look, taken quietly enough, showed him what had been done by his pretty little tormentor.

For a moment he stood as if irresolute, but the next he was running back over the wet sand, shouting at the top of his voice:—

"Oh, Effie, the tide! the tide!"

It was strange indeed that she had not thought of that before. She certainly could never have imagined that the force of her own slender arms was sweeping her out to sea with such fearful rapidity. Perhaps in the tumult of her emotions and thoughts, she had not noticed it. Now, however, she saw her danger, and with a good deal of courage and coolness strove to turn the boat to the shore. Alas! for Effie; a rough-topped little wave twisted one of her oars out of her weak fingers, and in a moment she was helpless.

Alas! also, for her lover. He was no swimmer, and to join her now, if he could, would be of no avail, since there was but one oar in the boat; and indeed, if there had been, such as they were, the tide would have been too strong for the clumsy punt. The nearest boat was a mile away, and after it at full speed started the half-frantic lover. Effie understood him, although she could not more than half hear his last hoarse shouting. It is likely that she more than half wished she had given him a different answer when she was on the rock. At all events, she heartily wished that she was back there again. As yet she did not quite comprehend her danger, but exerted herself bravely in keeping the boat's head to the waves, "so that it should not rock over before Everard got the other boat."

OF FLOWER & VEGETABLE SEEDS,

AND SUMMER FLOWERING BULBS.

FOR 1871.

Will be ready for mailing by the middle of January, notwithstanding the great loss of type, paper, engravings, &c., by fire, which destroyed the Job Printing office of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle office, Dec. 1870. It will be printed on a most elegant new tinted paper, and illustrated with nearly

Five Hundred Original Engravings,

And two finely executed Colored Plates—specimens for all of which were grown by ourselves the past season from our own stock of Seeds. In the original design, neither pains nor expense to render it unlike and eminently superior to any other Catalogue or "Floral Guide" extant.

The Catalogue will consist of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered Seeds from us by mail the last season. To others a charge of 15 cents per copy will be made, which is not the value of the Colored Plates. We assure our friends that the inducements we offer to purchasers of Seeds, as to quality and extent of Stock, Directions for Culture, and Prices, cannot be surpassed. Please send orders for Catalogues without delay.

Our Colored Chromo for 1871

Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent Forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers of natural size and color. We design it to be the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 19x24 inches. The retail value would be at least Two Dollars! we shall, however, furnish it to customers for 25 cts. per copy, and offer it as a Premium upon orders for Seeds. See catalogue when out.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND FLUID

Extract Catawba

GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely Vegetable, containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the most incredible. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from impurities or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving; consequently do not produce the desired effect. The CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odorless, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. Price 50 cents per box.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND

FLUID EXT. SARSAPARILLA

Will radically exterminate from the system Scrofula, Syphilitic, Mercurial, Liver Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ears, Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

Being prepared expressly for the above Complaints, its blood-purifying properties are greater than other preparations of Sarsaparilla. It gives the complexion a clear and healthy color and restores the patient to a state of Health and Purity. For purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional disease arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of pains and swelling of the bones, ulcerations of the throat and legs, Mercurial Rheumatism, Old Sores, Boils, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, and Beautifying the Complexion. Price, $1.50 per bottle.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

CONCENTRATED

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of Diabetes in which it has been given, Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder and Inflammation of the Kidneys, Ulceration of the Kidneys and Bladder, Retention of Urine, Disease of Prostate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel, Brick-Dust Deposit and Mucous or Milky Discharges, and for Enfeebled and Delicate Constitutions, Male or Female, attended with the following symptoms, Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Face, Dryness of the Skin, Eruptions on the Face, Pallid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, etc.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from Habits of Dissipation, and Excesses and Improprieties in Life, superseding the Use of Copaiba, superseding Copaiba in Affections for which it is used, and Syphilitic Affections—in these Diseases used in connection with HELMBOLD'S Rose Wash.

LADIES.

In many affections peculiar to Ladies, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy—as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sexes, arising from Indiscretion or Habits of Dissipation. It is prescribed extensively by the most eminent physicians and midwives for enfeebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above diseases of symptoms.)

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. At causes a frequent desire, and gives vigor to the Urinary and Seminal Organs, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Price $1.50 per bottle.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED

ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of Cutaneous Affection. It speedily eradicates Pimples, Spots, Scorbutic Dryness, Incrustations of the Cutaneous Membrane, etc., dispels Redness and Incipient Inflammation, Hives, Rash, Heat, Pain and Inflammation, Chapped Hands, Frost Bites, and all purposes for which Salves or Ointments are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of the vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin. H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principal claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a Toilet Appendage of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, Safety and Efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

D

Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses and upward of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

OUT WEST.

I hear thee speak of a Western land,
Thou callest its children a wide-awake band,
Father, oh where is the famous spot?
Shall we not seek it and build us a cot?
Is it where the hills of Berkshire stand,
Whence the honey comes already canned?
Not there, not there, my child!

Is it far away in the Empire State,
Where Horace Greeley feels first-rate,
Where the people are ruled by the Tammany ring,
And Mr. Fisk is a railway king,
With a thousand men at his command,
Besides a boat with a big brass band?
Not there, not there, my child!

Is it where the little pigs grow great,
In the fertile vales of the Buckeye State,
And get so fat on acorns and mesl,
That they sell every bit of them, all but the squeal;
Where the butchers have such a plenty of hogs,
That they don't make sausages out of dogs?
Not there, not there, my child!

Or, is it where they fortunes make,
Where they've got a tunnel under the lake,
Where the stores are full of wheat and corn,
And divorces are plenty as sure as you're born?
Where Long John Wentworth is right on hand?
Is it there, dear father, that Western land?
Not there, not there, my child!

Is it in the domains of Brigham Young,
The most married man that is left unhung,
Where every man who likes can go
And get forty wives, or more, you know;
Where "saints" are plenty with "cheek" sublime;
Can that be the gay and festive clime?
Not there, not there, my child!

Is it where Nevada's mountains rise,
From the alkali plains which we all despise,
Where a man may beg, or borrow, or steal,
Yet he often will fail to get a "square meal;"
Where the rocks are full of silver ore;
Is it there we'll find that Western shore?
Not there, not there, my child!

Eye hath not seen it, verdant youth,
Tongue cannot name it and speak the truth;
For though you go to the farthest State,
And stand on the rocks by the "Golden Gate,"
They'll point you across the Western sea,
To the land whence comes the "heathen Chinee,"
Saying—'tis there my child!

FEEDING AND CARE OF STOCK.—The better condition in which we keep our stock the more they are worth for all purposes. Kind and gentle treatment has also very much to do with their good looks, and when a farmer uses a card on his cattle in place of a stick they will plainly show it. They should have a warm stable, the warmer the better if it is thoroughly ventilated, for cattle require a certain amount of feed to keep up the animal heat, and if we do not furnish a part in protecting them from the cold it must come from their system on an extra amount of feed consumed. Our stock should be fed and watered regularly, fed three times a day and watered twice. It should be the object of every farmer to have his stock in as good or better condition in the spring than they were in the fall when they came to the barn. The most of our stock should be in good condition for beef in the fall. If we let our stock become poor, by spring we lose all or a great part of the fodder we have fed them, for it will take them all of the best part of the season to get in condition to grow and put on flesh. It pays to feed grain to all stock, and if the farmers who think by feeding poor hay and straw sparingly they can get their stock through the winter alive, would sell a portion of them in the fall and put the money into grain for the rest they have left, they would be worth more in the spring than all would be if they had been kept without grain. It pays six different ways to feed grain to cows and five to other stock. First, cows will yield extra milk enough to pay for their grain. Second, the amount of hay consumed is enough less to pay the cost of the grain. Third, if we want to sell them they find a market more readily. Fourth, the extra amount of milk from our cows next summer and the extra growth on other stock will make up for the extra expense. Fifth, the dressing they make will be worth double in quality. Sixth, enjoyment of seeing our stock looking sleek and fat will be satisfaction enough for any one who has an eye for good stock. Cor. Maine Farmer.

GARGET IN COWS.—Some six or seven years ago, I saw beans recommended for garget in cows, in the Farmer, by a gentleman who had a cow so badly affected that she was nearly spoiled, but she got to a stack of beans and ate what she wanted. The result was she was cured. Since then I have used nothing else, and it has never failed to cure as yet. Beans, we all know, will do no harm, and it is a medicine that all farmers have on hand, or ought to have. At first I soaked a pint to a feed, and mixed them with meal to make the cow eat them; but now I keep ground beans, as I think the meal is the best. This fall I had a very promising two-year-old heifer become so bad in one teat that I could scarcely milk it, and the milk was very chunky and bloody. I gave her one pint of the meal, mixed with other meal, for four days, when she was as well as ever, and has remained so. I think if cows were to be fed with bean meal two or three times a year, they would not be troubled with garget.—Cor. N. E. Farmer.

R. H. EDDY, SOLICITOR OF PATENTS, For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
NO. 76 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents granted, and opinions rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

FRIDAY, MARCH 3, 1871.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

The National debt has been reduced nearly two hundred and five millions of dollars, the past two years—having decreased the past year one hundred and seventeen million dollars and more. The State debt has been reduced $700,000 during the past two years—the decrease this year being estimated at $400,000. All this has been done by Republican administrations.

About 140 aliens were naturalized at Nashua, March 1st.

Gen. John A. Logan of Illinois is to speak in this State prior to election.

CONGRESS.

The Senate passed the army appropriation bill on the 1st.

The bill repealing the duty on foreign coal was received from the House and read for the first time. Mr. Vickers objecting to a second reading.

The naval appropriation bill was taken up in the committee of the whole. Among other amendments adopted was one providing that no part of the money appropriated by the bill shall be expended on account of naval engines, contracted for during the war.

Mr. Cragin moved as an amendment the naval line and staff bill, which he said substantially was satisfactory to both the line and staff, though one or two provisions were not acceptable to either.

Mr. Thurman said that it was impossible for the Senate to vote intelligently upon the subject at that hour [11 P. M.,] and that the question was one requiring a thorough examination. He moved to adjourn, but withdrew the motion to allow Mr. Sherman to move to lay the amendment on the table. The latter motion was rejected—12 to 28.

Mr. Nye said he had been ridden by both the line and staff until he was as galled as a canal horse. If the Senate had one bowel of compassion left it would pass the bill and rid itself of these remorseless riders.

Further debate ensued and the amendment was agreed to—26 to 12—and the bill passed.

The staff are not contented with the Cragin rank amendments added to the naval appropriation bill, and hope to substitute the House rank bill in a Committee of Conference.

THE NATIONAL DEBT.

The following is a statement of the public debt of the United States:—

Debt bearing coin interest	$1,922,343,700

Bearing no interest	428,231,434
Unclaimed Pacific Railroad interest	13,838
Total debt—principal and interest	$2,444,737,661
Cash in Treasury—Coin	103,174,203
Currency	20,854,625
Total	$124,028,813
Debt less cash in Treasury	$2,320,708,848
Decrease during February	7,317,960
Decrease since March, 1870	$117,619,630
Decrease since March, 1869	$204,754,413

FRANCE.

The German army entered Paris on the 1st. The inhabitants kept in-doors and the window shutters of the houses were closed. No disturbance occurred.

The French assembly at Bordeaux voted the ratification of the preliminary conditions of peace—546 to 107.

☞ The accident on the Pan Handle route was more serious than first reported. The train going west, when eight miles west of Pittsburg, near Mansfield, Pa., broke an axletree under the second passenger coach and precipitated the coach, crowded with passengers, down an embankment, turning over and breaking it to pieces, and severely injuring several passengers. In an instant the cars were in flames, but through the efforts of the conductor, Edwin Morrill, the passengers got out without serious burns, with the exception of Mrs. Winfield Scott of Steubenville, Ohio, whose arm was badly burned. She is not expected to recover. The brakeman on this car, George Lowe, was badly cut in the head and has since died. Many of the passengers in this car lost their baggage. The train also had two of Pullman's sleeping-cars. Both of these cars ran off the track and were entirely consumed, but all the passengers were saved without injury. The passengers praise Conductor Morrill, but accuse the managers of the sleeping-cars of inhumanity in neglecting to care for those injured. The train was running 20 miles an hour at the time of the accident, and it is reported that the car was unfit for service.

☞ The President has nominated Roland G. Usher to be United States marshal for the district of Massachusetts, and W. L. Burt to be postmaster of Boston.

A GRAND EDITORIAL EXCURSION.—Our newspaper friends, especially those who are members of the Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire and Massachusetts Editorial Associations, will remember that at the several gatherings of these associations last fall, committees were appointed to see if arrangements could be made for a united excursion this year. These committees met at Young's Hotel in this city yesterday. There were present Messrs. Elwell and Butler, from the Maine Association; Messrs. Hill and Coggswell from the New Hampshire Association; Messrs. Clark and Hopkins from the Vermont Association; and Messrs. Dresser, Merrill, Slack and Stockwell of the Massachusetts Assocation. Mr. Hill was chosen President, and Mr. Butler, Secretary. After a full conference in the matter it was deemed to be advisable to have such an excursion, provided the necessary arrangements could be effected satisfactorly, and several committees were appointed to look over the ground and report at an early day. The programme in contemplation is a trip to Lake George, thence to St. Albans, where the party would rendezvous on Tuesday night; thence on Wednesday to Montreal, where the balance of that day and a part of Thursday would be spent; and thence to Newport, Vt., where the party would have a grand levee, Thursday evening. From this point trips could be made to the White Mountains, or those who desired to could return directly home. The Committees expect to be able to perfect their plans so as to make a definite announcement by the first of April.—Boston Journal.

☞ A Waterbury, Connecticut, man whose son was willed a half-interest in a $40,000 property by the son's grandfather, took offence because the young man, who was a minor, married against his wishes, and got himself appointed guardian over him. Then, under a law which permits a guardian to sell the property of a minor to an amount not exceeding $300, without advertising it, he obtained permission of a judge of probate to sell his son's half interest, worth $20,000, for the paltry sum of $275. So without the son's knowledge, his patrimony was sold to the sheriff for that amount, and by him sold to the lad's mother at the same price.

☞ The directors of the Newburyport City Railroad have voted to lay out the road from the junction of the Newburyport and the Eastern, down through March's hill, thence to the water, and then northwest over the wharves, following the river to Ashland street. The estimates of cost are $75,000 to Brown's wharf. Rufus Sargent was appointed engineer and superintendent of the work, and plans and specifications will at once be prepared, prior to advertising for contracts.

☞ An engagement occured on the 16th, near Mayari, Cuba, between 600 insurgents and 400 Spaniards, in which the latter were defeated with a loss of 160 killed and wounded. The insurgent loss was equally heavy.

New Hampshire Items.

The upper room of the lofty High School building in Concord in this State, is, or at least used to be used as an exhibition room. Directly back of the speaker's stand was a large window without railing or protection of any kind. Over this window was emblazoned in plain characters, the Latin motto—"Nulla vestigium retrosum;" in the vernacular thus rendered, "take no step backward." Sensible as well as appropriate.

MAKING CHEESE AND BUTTER.—The following statements made by J. C. Oliver of East Charleston, Vt., to whom the first premium on cheese and butter was awarded by the Orleans County Agricultural Society, at its fair at Barton last fall, are published in the Vermont Farmer:—

"I submit the following report as to the manner of making my cheese: In the first place, I am careful to have my pails perfectly sweet, also my pans and cheese box. I strain my milk in pans at night. In the morning I skim my night's milk, put the morning's milk with it in the box, heat the cream almost scalding hot, and stir it up into the milk. Then the milk should not be quite as warm as when milked from the cow; put in rennet sufficient to fetch it, and let it stand half an hour; cut it in small checks, and let it stand another half hour, then break it up with the hands. Let it settle, then draw off the whey, and heat it scalding hot, enough to warm the curd, repeat till the curd will squeak between your teeth; break the curd each time when you put on the whey. Then drawn off the whey, salt it, three teacups of salt to forty pounds of cheese, let it stand till it is cold, then put in the press.

My method of making butter. In the first place I deem it necessary that my milk should have good air. I do not mean by this, to have the wind blow upon the milk, but have it well ventilated. Then skim as soon as it changes, churn and wash the butter until it is free from buttermilk, then salt, three-fourths ounce of Ashton salt to the pound.

—The flashy owner of a crow-bait span was complaining to some bystanders that he did not know what was the matter with his horses; he had tried everything he could hear of, condition powder and all other specifics, but to no purpose; they would not improve in flesh. A stable boy, whose sympathies were aroused by the story, comprehended the situation, and modestly asked. "Did yees iver try corn?"

☞ The recent failure of some of the Insurance Companies has made a good deal of talk, and some editors of newspapers, with more zeal than knowledge, have sharply "pitched into" all insurance companies, without discrimination. As well might they cry out against banking, whenever a bank fails. When the smoke has cleared away, the public will doubtless realize, better than before, that security is the paramount consideration, and seek insurance in companies that are known to be sound. The attention of the insuring public is invited to the ample security offered by the TRAVELERS INS. Co. of Hartford, Conn.

Statement of the TRAVELERS INSURANCE COMPANY.

Paid-up Capital,	$500,000.
Gross Assets,	$1,588,588.27
Total Net Assets,—being the amount of additional security to policy holders over and above reinsurance fund in both departments, unadjusted claims, and all other liabilities,	$641,277.29

The TRAVELERS furnishes everything desirable in either Life or Accident Insurance. It has issued over 200,000 general accident policies, and paid 13,792 claims for death or injury by accident. It has written over 10,500 full life policies, since the Life Department was established, and is making good and safe progress as a life company.

At $700 the average amount per day paid by the TRAVELERS INSURANCE COMPANY to its policy-holders, for death or injury by accident for the past six years. One in every fourteen of all the persons insured have been paid a claim of from $500 to $10,000 each. No form of insurance is more valuable, in proportion to the cost, than Accident Insurance. And the only company in this country writing yearly policies is the TRAVELERS INSURANCE CO., of Hartford.

A profuse and many times excessively offen sive discharge from the nose, with "stopping up" of the nose at times, impairment of the sense of smell and taste, watering or weak eyes, impaired hearing, irregular appetite, occasional nauses, pressure and pain over the eyes, and at times in the back of the head, occasional chilly sensations, cold feet, and a feeling of lassitude and debility, are symptoms which are common to Catarrh, yet all of them are not present in every case. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures Catarrh in its worst forms and stages. It is pleasant to use, and contains no poisonous or caustic drugs. Sent by mail on receipt of sixty cents. Address R. V. Pierce, 133 Seneca Street, Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by druggists.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Burning and Shaking.

By a ridiculous misapplication of language, invalids are sometimes said to "enjoy very poor health," but it is not on record that any human being was ever spoken of as enjoying chills and fever. And yet there are thousands, at this moment, in one or the other of the two stages of the disorder, who might just as well have avoided it as not. If there is anything demonstrable in therapeutics, it is that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is an antidote to intermittent fevers. No instance can be cited in which it has been taken, either as a safeguard against this class of diseases or as a remedy for them, and failed to produce the desired effect. The season when malarious fevers are rife, has commenced, and no inhabitant of any district subject to their visitations should be without this great preventive and remedy. Indeed, it is a most potent protection against all the ailments which prevail in the spring months. From marsh and pool, and from all moist soils are now rising the mephitic elements which give birth to fever, indigestion, pulmonary complaints and a whole host of epidemic and other maladies. Aid the system to resist them. Energize and regulate all the animal functions with this reinforcing agent. This precaution is as necessary in cities as in new settlements, for malarious fevers are now almost as common in the great centres of population as on the borders of the southern bayous and marshes and the rich agricultural regions of the west. The preventive and remedy is accessible to all. Who will be unwise enough to brave recklessly the danger it would avert?

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.

To insure or not to insure? That is the question. Whether t'will be nobler for my family to suffer
The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune
Or take a policy against those dangers,
And, by insuring, end them? To fret, to fear,
No more; and by a policy to end
The heartache and the thousand natural shocks
That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application's
Decently to be wished; apply, insure,
And pay the premium; ay—there's the rub
For in that time what premiums may come
Before I shuffle off this mortal coil
Does make me pause, tightens my purse,
And makes me rather pay the bills I have
Than fly to others I know not of.
Thus does meanness make brutes of us all.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a totally bad case of diseased lungs to body vigorous health. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there who had lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there, and should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The fishing in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Orange Park, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary, as it is in places where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly; therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

In fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious fevers than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern portion. On the other hand, the least cold is one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail to largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small-pox, &c.! but they are not; they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it has the foothold for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do what they claim to do, if cured. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where I think it proper to change the pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. This is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry; I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of good living, come good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with the temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a good smoker. If such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as fully cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. In the place stands unshaken the truth, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured every case of what is generally supposed to be consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has recovered from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of the disagreeable effects behind. They are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have paraken too freely of what the generality of people call good living, and have taken one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, grapes, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M. Those who desire a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5 for the advice. The Respirometer shows the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I design (this fall) to publish a work, in which the curatives depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition, they will not be more liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Auction—M. T. Betton & Co.

☞ The total of the White Rover fund amounts to about $2700.

☞ Tobey & Littlefield have raised the frame of a schooner for Dover parties. Harding & Doane have a fishing schooner building at Kennebunk.

☞ The National House of Representatives passed a bill on the 1st, authorizing the President to appoint Mr. Lyman G. Spalding master in the navy.

☞ Congress has appropriated $70,000 for the completion of the new Whale's Back light house, at the entrance to Portsmouth harbor.

☞ The Dover Enquirer says by the exertions of its Board of Trade the appropriation of $10,000 was procured for clearing out the Cocheco river. Won't the Portsmouth Board of Trade exert themselves toward some end?—just to show they still live, you know.

☞ The Federal Fire Society celebrated their 82nd anniversary on Thursday by a dinner at the Kearsarge. The Society numbers 24 members, and we understand that on these anniversary occasions they eat all the victuals themselves, no guests being invited.

☞ The fact (which has been the rounds of the press) of a young man in Washington feasting on partridge once a day, does not seem to be so much of a feat after all, as we understand that Parker, of the Ladd St. Dining Rooms, has them three times a day, right along.

A FALSEHOOD.—The opposition organ states that after Mr. E. N. Fuller left the N. H. GAZETTE, it died. The statement is false. It was edited after Mr. Fuller left by Mr. Amos S. Alexander and afterwards by Mr. Samuel Gray, who finding the Democratic party too poor to help support it, sold it to Mr. Frank W. Miller. The GAZETTE has never been suspended even, being printed under its new management on the week following its last appearance as a Democratic organ. Mr. Miller's investment proved a pecuniary success, and the NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE was never prospering better than at this time, at the age of 114 years. The weakly attempts of its rebel-born neighbor, not yet in its teens, to wilfully misrepresent its record, are understood by the public, who never look for truth, manliness, or any degree of fairness from the forlorn spleeny organ.

ANNEXATION OF NEWCASTLE. — Messrs. Editors: — The people of Newcastle, it appears, weary of bearing their own burdens, are making strong efforts to shift as large a portion of them as they can upon the broader —but we trust unwilling—shoulders of our city. Their debt and taxes are heavy, their bridge-tolls onerous, their school house wretched, their streets execrable, and everything dilapidated; all these things want reforming, which is all praiseworthy—but, they want the city of Portsmouth to do it! Let them turn the shrewdness which they show into other channels, and work out their own good.

The idea of this annexation has appeared to us utterly absurd, until the announcement in your columns that meetings to further it were being held at the rooms of a large banking corporation, whose influence, it is inferred, is to be used to bring it about. Does it hold the debt of Newcastle? or is there a cat of another color in the meal? We are promised from this quarter a report showing the advantages to this city of the proposed annexation. Let us look at some of the more obvious disadvantages — which mayhap that same report may remove.

First, we assume the debt, $20,000 at the least; we then have to pay eight or ten thousand dollars for the bridges, making say $30,000 to start with. We should then in all probability, and according to all experience, be called upon to build one or two school houses, and we know what that means. A ward room would then be wanting, and a fire engine indispensable, &c., &c. The interest on cost of the bridge, with superintendence and repair—it is a mile or more—would cost at least twenty-five thousand dollars per annum, and if the travel should be as much greater as is claimed, probably double that amount; to say nothing of the liability for accidents, the risk of which, unless kept in much better order than we now keep the "Saganore," would be very great. To this add the cost of putting several miles of streets and roads in order, and various other claims which will readily occur to any one who thinks upon the matter, and it will be seen into what a sea of troubles and cost this annexation scheme will drift

STRAWBERRY BANK.

☞ Robert D. Hunter, brakeman on the Portland, Saco and Portsmouth Railroad, was fatally injured by striking his head against a bridge, near Kennebunk, on Tuesday night. The coroner's jury exculpated the railroad company. He was born in Boston, but his parents reside in Halifax.

☞ A subscriber writes that "our four years-old boy makes queer speeches sometimes. One day this week Stokell & Co. sent us a piece of wild game, brought from the western prairies, for dinner. The plates had been once served, when Tom, who had emptied his with evident relish, upset the gravity of the company by exclaiming, 'Ma'ma! me want another Buffalo.'"

NATIONAL EDUCATION.—A bill was recently introduced in the National Congress by Mr. Hoar of Massachusetts, which looks towards a national system of education. That, with compulsory education, will be discussed in our country soon. Those who are capable of far-seeing are aware that with the masses coming from the old countries, the most part of whom are uneducated, and with the prospects of the annexation of other lands to our own, knowledge, with virtue, is indispensable, or the country can never hold together.

Even the monarchs of the Old World have found it necessary to educate their subjects to a certain extent. Peter the Great founded national education in Russia. It resulted only in laying the foundation. Peter I, the Empress Ann, Paul III, and Catherine II, carried on the work.

Prussia, it is well known, has one of the most excellent school systems in the world. It began in 1540, 330 years ago. It is a power in that nation. Within a few years that power has contributed to making it one of the first monarchies in Europe; its wars with Austria and France have shown that an intelligent and well trained army of soldiers are more than a match for the uneducated legions brought against them. Name Prussia to-day in Europe and the other monarchs stand in awe.

National education in Germany commenced a little later than in Prussia, but no government has done more to educate the people. The idea has long existed there that the child was the property of the State. Acting on this, it has directed the education of the masses. Perhaps no people or nation has excelled them in the great contest for the leadership in human advancement.

We leave our own government and its educational interests for another paper.

Catherine Murrick, employed in the spinning room of the Bartlett Mills in Newburyport, got her dress entangled with a pulley Thursday morning; and was instantly killed before the belt could be thrown off. Her head was crushed by the revolving machinery into a shapeless mass.

☞ THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE for this week, is now ready for delivery, at the Chronicle Office. Each number contains all the reading matter of the week's Dailies. Price $2 a year; single copies 5 cents,—in wrappers for mailing, if desired. Six copies for $10 per year, to Clubs—per mail or city carrier.

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWaS

BANKS AND BANKERS GENERALLY.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY!

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. lyrdawfeb16

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mdaw3mwfs6d

WHAT AN OLD BOAT DID.

On went Everard, with a fierce terror at his heart which he had never felt before; his mind frenzied by visions of a sweet face, no longer saucy or tormenting, sinking beneath the hungry water, and his limbs almost refusing to carry him on what he felt to be an errand of life and death. On swept the boat over the gentle undulations of the summer ocean—certainly in no present danger of shipwreck, for it was of the round and clumsy build affected by long-shore fishermen as being difficult to upset. Further and further from the shore, and Effie began to be seriously frightened.

"What if I get so far out that Everard cannot find me after he gets the other boat?"

There was something dismal enough in the idea of being alone, even on such a tranquil sea, and it was already getting pass the middle of the forenoon. The wind, too—what there was—was off shore, and poor Effie unconsciously acted as a sort of improvised malmsail to her little craft, and her spreading garments helped to urge it faster and faster through the water.

"It is time I saw something of Everard, or somebody else, or this detestable little boat will run away with me. What will they think at the house when they know about it?"

But time went by until an hour had flown, and Effie found herself at a fearful distance from the retiring shore. The waves, too, were getting rougher, and the luckless mariner cried as hard as she dared to, for fear of neglecting her steering. In the language of the old Dutchman in the story, "things were getting no better very fast," when a long and anxious look to seaward showed goor Effie the white sail of an approaching vessel. It was certainly coming nearer to her quite fast.

"What if they should pass me and not see me! I dare not try stand up, for I should be sure to tip over, boat and all."

There certainly was danger of it if she made the trial, and Effie swung her handkerchief with all her might. There was no necessity for any fear however; she certainly was seen from the approaching craft, and it bore down rapidly in her direction. It was now so near that her only trouble began to be how she should get on board, when Effie made a discovery.

"O, dear me, it's the yacht! I wish it was almost anything else! And all those people on board, and the Major himself, and to catch me out here in such a fix."

Nevertheless, the idea of being "saved" by Major Gordon was by no means so unpleasant to Effie as she tried to persuade herself, and when a rope was thrown to her she caught it with a fair show of dexterity, and allowed herself to be pulled a inside with a good deal of quiet satisfaction. It was hard to make Effie Brown lose her self-possession, even though she had been so terribly frightened.

Poor Everard. While Effie had been drifting so rapidly away from him, he had been making every possible exertion to follow her; but, do the best he could, nearly an hour had flown by before he was fairly afloat. He had secured a good and fast boat, propelled by the stout arms of four brawny longshoremen; nor did it require his earnest promises of reward to urge them to their utmost when a charming young lady was in such danger. They understood, with ready instinct, the nature of Everard's trouble, and with native politeness, said but little, as they bowed to their bending oars. Everard held the tiller, and he steered with so much judgment that he not only crossed the track of Effie's boat in due time, but did so within a hundred yards of the spot where her singular pleasure trip had come to so timely an end; but no traces could be find of the boat or its fair occupant.

Back and forth and out to seaward, the steady rowers prosecuted their vain search until it was only too evident that it must be abandoned. Night was closing around them, and they were miles from shore. A few white sails were visible in different directions, but far in the distance. Was there any hope that any one of them had crossed the track of the wanderer? Not much; and Everard bowed his head on his hands and groaned aloud.

"Come now, sir, don't take it in that way. It's more than like she has been picked up, and there has not been sea enough to swamp anything."

It was an unfortunate, though a well-meant suggestion, for at that very moment the freshening breeze suggested a coming gale, and even the stout yawl under them, though manned by practical boatmen, was not altogether comfortable or even perfectly safe, and the white caps were becoming momentarily more numerous.

It was only too clear that Effie Brown would have been unable to manage her little craft for a moment, and that if she had not been rescued, it was indeed vain to search any longer.

Sick at heart, Everard gave orders to turn the boat head homeward.

"And to think that we should have parted in anger," groaned he to himself.

And yet he could not but feel that at the very last there had been nothing of the sort on either side, for Effie must have known to the last that he was doing all in his power for her rescue, and most to the last have looked for his coming. There was a sort of sorrowful satisfaction in that reflection.

"Deed, sir, I reckon we'll have a tough job to get safe in, if the wind keeps on rising at this rate."

The weather-beaten oarsmen looked anxiously to the windward and bowed themselves with redoubled energy to the task.

"No use, sir," came at last from the wearied first oar; "we must put up a rag of canvas and run for it. I reckon we can put into the mouth of Swan Creek with the wind as it is, if we keep a good lookout, and bail her right smart."
